Cow Bay Comes Before Legislature

Cancellation of Old Agreement Provided For Under New Bill

More Details Announced in Regard to New Ore Sampling Plants One of Which Will be Located Here—Measure on Municipal Borrowing

VICTORIA, Nov. 20: (CP)—An act authorizing adjustment of an agreement affecting Prince Rupert and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway passed its third reading in the Legislature last night. The Act enables the cancellation of an agreement made in 1918 whereby Prince Rupert required consent for the filling in of Cow Bay where it had not been carried out and which the city and railway company were both desirous should not be effected.

Third reading was given to a bill setting up ore sampling plants at Prince Rupert and Nelson. The plants costing $25,000 each will each have a resident engineer in charge. The engineer will act in an advisory capacity to prospectors and assist in the development of prospects. It is expected they will prove a boon to the small mine owner who is now unable to operate profitably. Premier T. D. Pattullo gave credit for the bill to W. J. Asselstine, M. L. A. for Atlin, who explained that, under the Act, the government would make a complete survey of ore deposits of sufficient grade to stand shipping. The government would buy the ore for cash and market it.

The Legislature today gave third reading to a bill amending the Municipal Act by providing provincial consent for refunding of municipal debts whereby fifty-one percent by value of the bondholders agree. Municipalities coming under the legislation would transfer sinking funds into the hands of the provincial government which would have the right to re-invest in provincial or guaranteed bonds as well as senior government securities. Municipalities so refunding would be stopped from further borrowing without provincial consent.

Maintenance Of Roads is Given Better Attention

VICTORIA, Nov. 20.—Road maintenance in British Columbia is estimated to cost $1,815,000 during the next financial year. Of this Prince Rupert gets $15,000 an increase of $3,000 over last year. The amount has nothing to do with road construction shared by the province of British Columbia and Dominion nor has it any reference to the expenditure of the proposed loan of $5,000,000. New Westminster gets only $1,500; Skeena $29,000 as compared with $23,000 last year; Atlin, $21,000, as compared with $17,000, and Omineca, $40,000 as compared with $32,000.

The votes for the northern districts as shown here is only for maintenance of minor betterments of trails and roads. Bridges, ferries and public buildings are taken care of by separate and additional funds according to the necessities of upkeep. There are separate funds again for the construction of main highways, for new bridges and for minor roads and trails. Money for unemployment relief is also separate.

The maintenance vote for roads and trails is a small proportion of the total public works expenditures in any one year.

Bombarding Is Relentless

Thousands Known to Have Been Slain During Fortnight In Capital

Supplying Arms

Germany and Italy Expected to Aid Rebels—Anthony Eden's Sarcasm

MADRID, Nov. 20: (CP)—The relentless Fascist aerial bombardment spread new and untold death and damage through Madrid yesterday. Explosions of at least twenty huge bombs in the early morning took many lives and left numerous injured. Bombs aimed at the capital's central district shattered Segovia Bridge over the Manzanares River, the main span leading into the city from Fascist-controlled outskirts. Gasoline, calcium and sodium bombs are very inflammable and cause numerous fires. The postal office was struck by bombs and was badly damaged, several workers within being killed.

Defence authorities, declaring that victims of the two weeks of bombing had reached thousands, said the real toll may never be known. They declared many refugees of Tuesday's bombardment, who had huddled in a subway station, were asphyxiated when a bomb blocked the entrance.

Government forces, with a fierce counter-attack, fought back a projected rebel advance on the north. A steady stream of men, women and children poured out of the danger zone today under urgent orders to evacuate areas of Fascist bombardment.

Rain today forced a let-up in the fighting and gave refugees a chance to take up new quarters.

Defence officers said that the republic's improvised army was manning barricades on three sides of insurgent troops who are holding positions in the suburban university city.

Prince Alfonso of Bourbon and Orleans, son of the Infante Alfonso of Spain, who joined the Spanish Fascist air force, was killed in a forced landing near Madrid, a family friend announced today. The Prince was a cousin of the former King Alfonso and a nephew of Queen Marie of Roumania.

France's Recognition

ROME, Nov. 20: (CP)—The joint action of Italy and Germany in formally recognizing the insurgent regime of Dictator-Designate Francisco Franco in Spain followed by less than a month the Italo-German agreement under which the two countries, both accused by the Spanish and Russian governments of aiding Spanish insurgents with men and arms, agreed to work together on major European problems. Italy will send a representative to the insurgent provisional government at Burgos, Spain.

To Supply Arms

PARIS, Nov. 20:—It is expected in official quarters here that official recognition by Italy and Germany of the Franco regime in Spain will be followed by active supplying by those nations of arms and ammunition to the insurgents.

An Unusual Book

Those who liked "The Magnificent Obsession," "Forgive Us Our Trespasses" and "The Green Light" will not be disappointed in Lloyd C. Douglas' latest book, "White Banners." Like all of the books by this author there is a new viewpoint, a something that is different from all writers who have preceded him. While the themes differ there is an unorthodox theory running through them all. In "White Banners," the author sets out to show that non-resistance is a workable theory and that, rightly used, it becomes a source of power. He does not call it spiritual power but evidently that is what he means. He is as careful as a Rosicrucian not to use any of the phrases usually adopted by clergy and Sunday School teachers in describing spiritual experiences.

Outside of the exposition of his theory, the author has written an interesting story which will tend to make the reader keep late hours but the climax, if it can so be called, is not orthodox from the point of view of the novelist. In fact, some people might say the book lacks climax.

Every now and then the author uses an unusually bright expression such as "She declared to herself that she had never met anyone who could so utterly destroy a conversation and leave you sitting with the wreck of it in your hands." Then again telling of how many people, swamped by the drudgeries of daily work, got into a groove. "You went into a groove-shop and looked them all over, carefully picking out a nice smooth groove that you thought was about your size. Then you sat down neatly into it and started your ring-around-a-rosy, making the groove a little deeper with every revolution until the sleek walls of it began to compress your elbows against your ribs."

One more quotation is from a comment of a mother on the manner in which her boy was being trained at school. The lad had acted in what she considered a brave and splendid manner. "That's where the fineness of the whole thing comes in," she said. "Somehow they've managed to teach Peter the importance of private bravery—bravery that isn't bragged about. The greatest thing anybody can do is to build himself up strongly on the inside. The trouble with most people is that they don't think enough of the value of their own inner selves. If they do something courageous, they want the credit for it, want to be flattered, want to tell it to others. And then you see, the real value of it to themselves is gone. They get all the reward from the outside instead of privately storing it up on the inside. It means a great deal to have a lot of strength under lock and key, strength that nobody knows about but you—only you."

No matter what the personal reaction to the theorizing of the author through one or two of the characters, "White Banners" is a book that will benefit anyone who reads it. Even the person who is debauched by over-reading of summer novels and similar trash may possibly feel refreshed after reading a story that tends to turn them out of the common rut. It may not be a great book but it has something that most books lack.

BETTER RADIO

Editor, Daily News:
Yesterday you had an editorial "Why Cheerful" in your esteemed and highly respected paper, which, however, was incomplete. If you had added "And if we could get decent radio reception we would indeed be cheerful" it would have rounded it off better and made the patient and long-suffering citizens of this city think we would soon be living in paradise.

SEEMS DISGRUNTLED

Editor, Daily News:—
There was a public meeting held in the school house at Skidegate on Saturday evening last in regard to an article which appeared in your paper on November 6 under the heading of "Happy People of the Islands Have All Needs Supplied."
As regards fish, one member of the audience suggested that some of the government officials eat more of it as it is supposed to be a brain food.

E. C. Stevens spoke up and said that, if some of our politicians were to try and scratch out a living off the black sands, it might make real he-men out of them. He also mentioned that, since 1933, he has been the means of having $47,000 cash spent on the Islands with no help whatever from the government. He has also paid in $110 per year in licences and leases. Last year he said he paid $76 in licences and recording fees. In spite of all this he had a small job of trail work. His time was spent in the first week of August and he hasn't received payment yet. The public works department appears to be putting every obstacle in his way.

It was suggested that some well known citizen of Prince Rupert be sent over to the Islands and make a thorough investigation of public affairs. It was also mentioned that during the past year over 100,000,000 feet of timber had been taken off the Islands. We demand that a greater portion of this revenue be spent on the Islands.

Mr. Stevens, in his speech, suggested that a battery of brooms to clean out the political heelers and practical men be put in charge of our public affairs.

Another resolution of this meeting was that all works in connection with the Mines Department be kept separate from the Public Works Department and handled direct.

It was also resolved that a copy of the proceedings be sent to the B. C. Federationist, The Prince Rupert Daily News, Victoria Colonist and Vancouver Province.

Mr. Stevens concluded his speech by saying that, if we didn't have members with intestinal fortitude to put practical men in charge of public affairs, then it was up to us to kick them out. He mentioned that this applied to federal as well as provincial affairs.

If things continue as they have been in the past it was high time that we divided our province and made Prince Rupert the capital of the north.

E. C. STEVENS.

Man in the Moon

Good morning to you all!
It seems to me that it is about time we heard from Bobby Burns again. Bobby seems to send us a message every year.

"The verra best music I ever heard whateffer, was ttoon at Jamie's place," remarked a worker of the poet last year. "There were fifteen of us in Jamie's wee back parlor, an' playing different chunes. I thocht I was floating about in Heaven."

You may have heard about the aviator who was telling his best girl about a recent flight. "I had flown only a few miles when I discovered that my engine was missing." "How could you fly a few miles without any engine?" was her eager question.

A country contemporary has a classified advertisement for a house, a bungalow and a "three room abode." Since I saw the ad I've been wondering.

The other day I was reading that spinich puts firm white teeth in your mouth. That beats the dentist by at least a mile.

In Europe they're sending milk by airplane. They can get it either from Cannes or Cowes.

Bobby in reply to the Booth School teacher replied that a synonym was a word you used when you did not know how to spell the other one.

The latest story to illustrate how tight a Scotsman is on Bobby Burns night is about a Scotsman who carried his wife's store teeth with him so she might not eat between supper and breakfast.

Following the party a number of those present were arrested and locked up for the night. Next day the local paper, on behalf of the ladies responsible for the party, thanked all who helped make the event such a real success.

J. S. Wilson sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for a trip to Vancouver.

BIG PROBLEMS CONFRONT NEW GRAIN COMMISSION

sent are running slightly over the dollar mark.

Trading in wheat futures—the buying and selling of wheat for delivery in a designated distant month—was suspended on the exchange by order of the Board of Grain Supervisors December 1, 1917, when the board took over the handling of grain. The Dominion wheat board operated August 16, 1919, to August 31, 1920. Trading in futures has been continuous since that time.

Wheat prices were "pegged" for the first time on the exchange August 15, 1933, until September 14, 1933, with the October future at 70½ cents a bushel. The price was "pegged"—a fixed minimum price at which sales can be made—as a result of the collapse of prices after the bull or advancing market of the summer of 1933.

On recommendation of John I. McFarland of Calgary, former agent of the federal government in price stabilization operations, prices were "pegged" a second time November 1, 1934, to check declining prices blamed on bear raids by foreign interests. "Pegged" prices were removed August 16, 1935, and fluctuation limits set to control the amount by which prices might rise or fall in a single session.

Types of Marketing

Open competition, wheat boards and co-operative marketing through wheat pools and producer-owned grain companies provided traders and growers with fuel for argument ever since the birth of the trade. Agitation for producer-controlled marketing facilities led to establishment of the wheat pools—the Alberta pool in 1923 and Saskatchewan and Manitoba pools the following year.

Since the last investigation was made by a commission headed by Sir Josiah Stamp, British economist, the grain trade has seen the federal government institute stabilization efforts, appointment and alteration of powers, two grain boards and continued debate on methods of marketing.

One of the highlights of debate in the grain trade in recent years came with the charges by Mr. McFarland in October 1934, that bear raids by foreign interests were carried out with a view to driving down wheat prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Mr. McFarland at that time was directing government price stabilization efforts.

The council of the grain exchange said it was ready to assist the government in achieving any desired objectives but denied that any of its members were involved in any bear raids. The "pegged" prices were used to stem the decline and the fluctuation limit later put in operation.

EVACUATION OF MADRID COMMENCING

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden threw the House of Commons into a brief tumult Thursday when he declared that some other governments were more to blame for intervention in the Spanish civil war than Italy and Germany. Some members said they presumed Capt. Eden referred especially to Russia.

Capt. Eden caused further stir today in the House with the statement that a Spanish insurgent junta was prepared to destroy the port of Barcelona if this became necessary in order to cut off war supplies to the Socialists. Capt. Eden said that Britain had received a communication from the insurgent junta asserting that trafficking in arms, munitions, tanks, airplanes, toxic gases was being carried on through Barcelona by Russian and Spanish ships. Appended to the communication was a warning to foreign shipping to abandon the harbor.

HAT TRICK WINS GAME

Wingham's Three Baskets Give Senior League Victory To Moose

It's getting to be a habit with Wingham, southpaw star of the Moose, to pull the hat trick in the dying moments of the senior basketball games. Last night, in the feature spot of a good basketball card, his two big baskets, with only two minutes to go, were the deciding factor in the Moose handing a 37 to 33 defeat to a fast Lambie & Stone squad. Both teams played a lovely brand of ball, the Moose forward line working exceptionally well with their guards.

The first half was all Moose but, after the rest period, Lambie & Stone opened up to overcome the Lodgemen's 21-9 lead and succeeded in bringing their score to 13-21 but missed shot after shot under the hoop. With eight minutes to go the score stood 29-19 for the Moose. Baskets by Johnson, Santerbane, Beynon and Dominato brought the score to 30-29 with just three minutes left. Then Wingham stepped in and sank three beautiful loop shots. Although the Clothiers came right back with two more by Johnson and Santerbane, the Moose managed to hold their lead until the whistle.

Intermediate League

Led by Beynon, their diminutive but dynamic forward, the Scythians won a one-sided Intermediate League victory over the Regiment by a 47-14 count. This had established a record for point-getting this season when he speared an even thirty tallies for himself. The score well indicated the play as the militia men never once were in the running. At the rest period they were on the short end of an 18-5 score.

In the second half, Beynon, fed by Campbell, continued his scoring spree, and the Regiment's guards, rather than check him, allowed him to run wild, much to their subsequent grief as he gathered another 17 points for himself. The whole Scythian team exhibited pretty co-ordination throughout the game.

Ladies' League

In the Ladies' League, the High School continued their onward march as they turned back Annette's 13-12 in a fast and exciting finish. Blaine gave the Students an 8-3 lead in the first session through three nice jump-shots. A feature of this half was the double combination of MacLeod and Davis who time after time kept the ball away from the whole Annette team.

The second period started with the Milliners trying hard to overcome the lead. They climbed up to within three points and, with four minutes to go, took the lead at 12-11 through snappy combination with Morris and Dickens on the scoring end. Annette's had tough luck in their shooting and, with seconds to go, Blaine fouled Wilson who missed the resulting free throw to give victory to the Students.

In the curtain raiser, the King Edward High School boys waltzed around the Seal Cove entry and snared an easy 23-9 win. O'Neill and Hirano were the big guns for High School while MacKay was the only one who seemed able to find the basket for the East Enders.

Individual scoring was as follows:

Junior League
High School—Hirano (9), Fitch (1), Bolton, O'Neill (9), Knutson (4); total, 23.
Seal Cove—McCouer, MacDonald, Dalzell, Rystad (1), Dennis (2), MacKay (6), Ritchie; total, 9.

Ladies' League
High School—Ellison (2), Davis (5), McLeod, Liewellyn, Arney, Blaine (6), Robertson; total, 13.
Annette's—Wilson (5), Ratchford, Dickens (2), E. Morris (5), E. Dickens, Brentzen; total, 12.

Intermediate League
Scythians—Beynon (30), Montebano, Letourneau (8), Currie (3), Houston, Campbell (6); total, 47.
Regiment—J. Comadina (3), Nelson (3), F. Comadina, Johnston, Miller (4), Roy, Burnett (2), Davis (2); total, 14.

Senior League
Lambie & Stone—Johnson (4),

Amateur Athletic Union in Session

Regina Convention to Consider Permitting Professional Play In One Line and Amateur In Another

REGINA, Nov. 20: (CP)—The annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada opened here yesterday. One of the most important matters to be taken up is the proposal that athletes may be permitted to play professionally in one line of sport and retain their amateur status in another.

Today the union approved the first of four submitted points regarding amateur-professional relations when it adopted a resolution providing that amateur teams may play exhibition matches with professional teams under sanction of the amateur branch concerned any time during a season.

SPORT CHAT

Nick Belafatto, Boston Italian, released after tryouts with three teams in the Cape Breton Colliery Professional Baseball League stated in a letter to friends that he had signed a contract with Boston Red Sox of the American League. Belafatto, a burly southpaw, played with New Waterford for several weeks last summer. Later he went to Reserve where he spent a week on the bench. He was picked up by Glace Bay, league champions, but lasted only two weeks.

One of the best light harness racing seasons in the Maritime Provinces has drawn to a close, and once again Billy Hood, of North Sydney, ace teamer and trainer, led the Cape Breton drivers. Hood paced the star of his stable, Calumet Budlong, for the fastest mile any driver has pulled in the Maritimes, 2:05 1/4. Starting the horse 10 times during the season, he won 21 heats, placed second in eight, and finished third in one. The North Sydney reinsman started his two stallions, Calumet Budlong and Sully, a three-year old, in 13 races over the leading ovals in the Maritimes and at Presque Isle, Maine. He won 14 and placed second in four. Sully was separately timed in a heat in 2:08, and was beaten by a nose at Fredericton in 2:08 3/4.

READY FOR BIG SHOW

"Super-Crop" Competitors Will Be Eligible With Record Entries At Chicago Exposition

WINNIPEG, Nov. 20: (CP)—Eyes of wheat growers throughout Canada turn to Chicago this month for the opening on November 23 of the 37th International Livestock Exposition and the 25th International Grain and Hay Show at the Union Stock Yards. Entries in the latter total more than 5000.
East and west will be equally represented at the dual exhibition where judging will continue seven days. Each successive year Canadian farmers have carried away a fair share of highest awards in livestock, grain and seed classes.
Prizes annexed by Canadian exhibitors last year include 18 championships, 12 reserve championships, 61 first prizes and 354 lesser awards. Most coveted honor, title of world's wheat king, went to W. Frelan Wilford of Staveley, Alta., who brought to Canada the twenty-first title in this class in 25 years of competition.
Wilford won the crown with grain of the Reward variety. His sample weighed 66.6 pounds to the bushel. This type of hard Red Spring wheat won the championship in 1934 for Jack Alsop of Wembley district, neighbor of Herman Trelle, triple winner, 1930 to 1932.

Trelle Again
Possibility that Trelle, adjudged a "super-crop" man in 1932 would again compete this year, is considered strong. According to a ruling four years ago a competitor winning the title three times is automatically removed from competition for three years.
Under this clause Trelle was not able to compete for the wheat crown until this year. It did not prevent him from exhibiting in other classes in which he has captured several crowns. In 1931 the Wembley farmer established a record for winning top honors in the grain and hay show.
Canada's record as a consistent winner in the livestock division is no less impressive than that in wheat. Cattle and sheep from pastures in Ontario and Quebec and the western plains have won notable victories in addition to highest places in oats, barley, soy beans, trass and clover seeds.
Farmers from 35 states, five Canadian provinces and Australia were among prize winners in the farm crops exhibition last year. Wheat growers from New South Wales will again be represented. Entries in the livestock section total more than 12,000.

Sarah Churchill Sees Night Life

Sailing without warning, Sarah Churchill, daughter of Britain's former chancellor of the exchequer landed in New York. Reports that she was flying to the arms of Vic Oliver, stage comedian, to marry him, were denied; and although her visit was described as a simple quest for a stage job, her brother Randolph followed her overseas, presumably to scotch the romantic rumors, and perhaps to look after her interests. This picture of Vic and Sarah at the theatre was the first that was made of the pair, since the girl's arrival. They would not talk of romance or jobs.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Owing to the delay of the incoming train from the East on which members of the Commission are travelling, the public hearing of the International Fisheries Commission, which was to have been held here this afternoon, is postponed until this evening.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, is due in port at 5 o'clock this evening from the south and will sail soon thereafter on a special voyage to Ketchikan to pick up passengers from southeastern Alaska who have been held up by the failure of American steamers to run owing to the maritime workers' strike. The Princess Adelaide will be back here again tomorrow morning southbound.

Having been delayed by exceptionally stormy weather on her northward voyage, C. N. R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port at 2 o'clock this morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and is scheduled to sail at 10 o'clock tonight on her return south over the same route.

Crowded with passengers from Alaska, the Yukon and Northern British Columbia going south for the winter, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, is due in port at 3:45 this afternoon from the north and will sail at 5:30 p.m. for Vancouver.

Making her monthly call at Kitimaat on this voyage, Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, is not expected before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the south and will sail an hour or so later on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Pilot A. Holden of Juneau arrived early yesterday afternoon from the Alaska capital with a commercial seaplane and left at 3:45 on his return north. He brought in as passengers a party of mining men consisting of M. Slisco, E. Dobson, J. Dunn, F. Hodges and F. Parker who have been spending the summer engaged in prospecting and exploration work in remote sections of Northern Alaska and who sailed from here on the Prince Rupert last night for Seattle.

HOLLYWOOD CONNECTION

Double For Jack Holt Was Born In Nova Scotia and Brother Of Robert Donat Lives There

SAINT JOHN, N.B., Nov. 20: (CP)—A native of Nova Scotia and an English-born resident of that province, who have been visiting Saint John, were able to give first hand information about two Hollywood stars.

The visitors were J. Buckley Russell Jr., born at Bridgewater, N.S., and Philip E. Donat, of Kentville, N.S. Russell doubles for Jack Holt and Donat is a brother of Robert Donat.

Some observers facetiously suggest Russell looks more like Holt than Holt does. For many years the Nova Scotian has been doubling for the two-fisted actor. He entered silent pictures under the guidance of Mary Pickford and since the talkies started has confined his activities to doubling for Holt and playing extra roles.

While seeing his sister, Mrs. G. J. Kierstead, here for the first time in 24 years, Russell said he hadn't attended a motion picture performance for several years because he gets enough of it in his daily work. He does stunt car driving as well as difficult horse riding.

Philip Donat, when asked if he is related to Robert, says: "Well, distantly. I'm the eldest of four brothers and he is the youngest."

Philip, with the Dominion Experimental Farm at Kentville, has made his mark in the field of agricultural research. He came here to sing with other members of the Kentville Male Quartet. The Donat boys were born near Manchester, England.

"Despite the fact that we can all speak with a Lancashire accent," said Philip, "not one of us betrays the country of our birth by our speaking voice, which is a credit to any Englishman, if you know the broad accent of that country or shire."

"I have not seen Robert since 1924 and only once heard his real voice over the long distance telephone when he was embarking at New York for England after making 'The Count of Monte Cristo.'" Some day soon we hope to have a family reunion in the state of Connecticut where my parents and other brothers are settled.

"My brother Robert never had much play time in his early life. I never remember him in a game of cricket or football. We had a beautiful garden at our Manchester home but my father and I were the ones who tended it. Robert used to stroll in it between the beds of roses, learning his lines. He spent hours in a little study upstairs, which was his very own, and in those days already had a local fame as a boy actor and elocutionist.
"It is not generally known that at about that time he took his examinations at the Royal Academy of Music and was the only one of 74 entrants to pass on that day."

DRAMA OF NURSING

"The White Sister is Outstanding Attraction at Capitol Theatre This Week-End

"The White Angel," dramatization of the life of Florence Nightingale, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the strong feature offering this week-end with Kay Francis in the stellar role.

The story of this wealthy English girl who renounced a life of social frivolities to become a war nurse and laid the groundwork for what subsequently became the Red Cross and incidentally became the inspiration for the nursing profession's ideals is filled with absorbing drama, tragedy and romance.

The picture is set in the period of the Crimean War. It begins in London. Florence Nightingale's home, where she fought to clean up the disreputable hospitals of the time and ends in the same metropolis when the famous nurse was decorated by Queen Victoria. The most dramatic scenes take place in the British military headquarters at Scutari on the Bosphorus, on the quay at Boulogne, the port of Marseilles and the field hospital and battle lines at Balaklava where the famous Light Brigade rode to its death.

The strong supporting cast includes Ian Keith, Donald Woods, Nigel Bruce, Donald Crisp and Henry O'Neill.

Forged Stamps In Trinidad

Issue of Spurious Postage Tokens Being Circulated

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Nov. 20: (CP)—An issue of forged stamps is circulating through this British West Indies Island. Three valued issues, the Demerara and War Tax Stamps and the Trinidad "double-flagstaff" are being copied and sold to dealers.

A slight error in the make-up of the double flagstaff issue first set collectors on the trail of the fakes. On genuine issues only one of the two flagstaves touches the building in the background, while on forged stamps both staves appear to rest on the building.
