Annual Report of Retiring Head Of Chamber of Commerce Proves Optimistic Document; Busy Year

"The year 1935, on the whole, showed quite an improvement over 1934," declared C. V. Evitt, retiring president, at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night. "In Prince Rupert there was an improvement in the sale of commodities. The halibut fishermen had a better year and, consequently, money was easier in the city."

Magazine Article, as Yet Unpublished, is Cause For Sudden Move—"Jafsie" Declares Flatly More Than One Involved—Leaves For South American Cruise.

TRENTON, N.J., Jan. 11: (CP)—William Conklin, press aide to Governor Harold G. Hoffman, said today that the Governor would order that Dr. John F. Condon, who left the country on a South American cruise last night, be taken into custody for questioning. Cristobal in the Panama Canal Zone next Friday is the first stop of the Grace Liner Santa Rita carrying Dr. Condon. It is expected he will be removed from the vessel there.

CHAMBER UPHOLDS VISITORS' CLAUSE IN TRADE TREATY

At the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce dinner last night a long discussion took place over a resolution coming from Windsor, Ont., asking the board to back modifications of the reciprocity treaty in regard to the right of Canadians to purchase goods in the United States and bring them into Canada free of duty. It was finally decided to ask the federal government to grant the United States the same privileges that it gave to Canada in this regard, only two members opposing.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. John McGreish announce the engagement of their only daughter, Winnie, to Alexander Duncan, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Duncan. The wedding will take place on January 24.

Conklin Explained That For Special Reasons The Governor Had Given An Interview In Which He Said In Reference To A Magazine Article By Condon: "He Makes The Flat Statement That More Than One Person Was Involved In The Crime. He Goes So Far As To Write He Knew Two Of Those Involved. If Dr. Condon Knows These Things, I Feel The Authorities Should Have The Information."

The New York American, in a copyright story today, quoted Governor Hoffman as saying he does not believe Bruno Richard Hauptmann was the sole perpetrator of the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby.

Governor Hoffman met with the seven members of the state Court of Pardons today to consider Hauptmann's plea for mercy by reducing his sentence of death to life imprisonment. Hauptmann's execution date has been set for next Friday.

Conklin, in his statement today, said that Condon had related in the magazine article, as yet unpublished in full but the manuscript of which has been shown to the governor, that there was blood on the bed-clothing of the baby's crib and that the ransom note was in the crib and not on the window sill despite the testimony of Col. Lindbergh and the state police.

LONDON, Jan. 11: (CP)—Official circles in London predicted yesterday that the League of Nations will re-open the question of an oil embargo against Italy following the League committee of thirteen meeting yesterday.

MUNICIPAL RELIEF COSTS ARE CUT

JUST BEFORE SIR SAMUEL RESIGNED

Sir Samuel Hoare, the British foreign secretary, shown in one of his few pictures taken with his wife, on his return to London from Geneva after deliberations with other nations as to the ending of the Italo-Ethiopian war. Note the adhesive tape on Sir Samuel's nose, indicating where the organ was broken recently, while he was ice-skating. Sir Samuel resigned his post, shortly after this picture was made. The resignation resulted from the furore over the Hoare-Laval plan for settlement of the warfare. By this plan, Italy would have been ceded most of Ethiopia.

ASKS FOR UNITY IN DISTRICT

Olof Hanson M. P. Urges That Delegation Be Sent To Ottawa To Help Secure Federal Building And Other Things

The need of co-operation in all activities of the city and district was strongly urged by Olof Hanson at the annual dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce held in the Commodore Cafe last evening. All other members at Ottawa seemed to get the active support of local delegations but, during the time he had been at Ottawa the only delegate going there had been C. H. Orme who went to Ottawa representing the city several years ago.

Mr. Hanson said that four distinct delegations were sent to Ottawa before the elevator was secured. There were now a number of important matters to be discussed. The city should have a federal building and would have had it three years ago only the citizens were not united in regard to it. Marine lights were needed to encourage navigation to the port. An experimental farm for the interior and other things might be secured if there was a united front and a strong delegation was sent. When a delegation came three thousand miles to Ottawa it made the ministers realize that they were in dead earnest and it might accomplish a great deal. He had done his best there alone but it was a great thing to have some co-operation.

While there were not in Prince Rupert men with money such as they had at some places, yet there were a number of public-spirited people here and the city might well help. The Chamber of Commerce was the strongest organization in the city and the one that

Presentation At Chamber Banquet

T. H. Johnson Recipient Of Valuable Gift On Severing His Connection From Local Organization

At the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce banquet last night at the Commodore Cafe, President C. V. Evitt, acting on behalf of the Chamber, presented T. H. Johnson, retiring general manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. with a beautiful ivory pen holder stand as a mark of appreciation of the work he had done as a member of the organization of which he was past president.

In accepting the gift, which was a very fine one, Mr. Johnson spoke of the kindness of the people of the city to both Mrs. Johnson and himself on the occasion of their leaving the city. He thanked the members for the beautiful gift. He left his duties which he had filled for 22 years with a sigh of relief and yet with regret. He had always thought the best thing a man could do for his city was to make a success of his own business. If the local businesses were prosperous it was an encouragement for other industries to come here.

RAINY WEATHER SLOWS UP WAR IN ETHIOPIA

LONDON, Jan. 11:—Rainy weather, increasing in intensity, continues to slow up military operations in the Italo-Ethiopian war. With boggy roads increasing the difficulties for the invaders, the Ethiopians continue their policy of waiting. The Italians claimed a small victory in the north yesterday while the Ethiopians asserted they had success in the south.

Government Allowance Is Increased to Make Local Burdens Lighter

New Deal Announced by Provincial Minister Of Labor and Accepted by Union of Municipalities—Made Possible by Greater Grants From Ottawa.

VICTORIA, Jan. 11: (CP)—The provincial government will increase its contribution to costs of relief in British Columbia municipalities from sixty to eighty per cent, thus cutting in half the costs to the municipalities. In addition, if municipal works projects are initiated to take men off relief, the government will make the municipality a lump grant equal to the amount it would have paid for the relief of those men who receive work.

APPECIATION OF COMMISSIONER IS VOICED AT BANQUET

At the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce banquet last night, which was unusually well attended, a vote of appreciation of the work of Commissioner W. J. Alder, both for Prince Rupert and district, was passed unanimously by the members amid much applause. The resolution was moved by Paul Armour, who spoke of the excellent work done by the commissioner since he took over the position.

Vancouver Wheat

VANCOUVER, Jan. 11: (CP)—Wheat was quoted at 87 1/4c on the local exchange yesterday, dropping to 86 3/4c today.

Commissioner Alder Optimistic In Address to Chamber of Commerce At Annual Banquet Last Night

At the annual dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night City Commissioner W. J. Alder prophesied wonderful developments in the city during the coming year. Never in the past twenty-five years had conditions looked as favorable as at the present. He felt practically sure that work on the proposed pulp mill would commence before the end of March. This would be followed by large building operations. Housing would be needed and, as business men, he urged that his listeners put their shoulders to the wheel and that a strong Chamber of Commerce executive should be elected. He thought a survey of the city might be made to find out what industries were here and what were the possibilities for their expansion. Local industries should be encouraged to develop.

The commissioner also suggested that further efforts should be made to try to secure better operation of the grain elevator. Instead of being filled once in a season it should be filled at least three or four times. It was also possible that encouragement might be given the halibut fishing industry to try to secure more landings at this port.

Mr. Alder suggested that there was room in Prince Rupert for a small flour mill, a brewery, a cottonwood veneer factory, a factory for making caskets, development of the florist business by the establishment of greenhouses, the establishment of a naval station with at least one boat making headquarters here. The housing problem, the commissioner said, was likely to be a pressing one. There was at present no loan company in the city and no money was available for mortgages except at very high rates. It may be desirable to form a local building and loan company to provide funds for house building and to possibly secure some of the fund set aside for that purpose by the Dominion government. That Prince Rupert people act as a unit was strongly urged. The Chamber of Commerce should go after these matters in a business way. The resources of the north were greater than those of the south but what was needed was united effort in securing the advantages which should come from possession of those resources.

A PRESSING NEED

While we are looking forward to industrial expansion it is very desirable that we also take thought for the welfare of the residents, particularly the young people. At the present time outside of the pictures and the pool room there is little to interest young folks or to provide that in bad weather they get proper physical exercise.

What is needed is an athletic centre where proper instruction will be given the young folks in indoor games and physical setting up exercises. This centre would have to be controlled by a person properly fitted by training for such a position. Any other course would be almost sure to fail, as it has failed in the past.

It is useless to worry over the fact that many young men get into bad habits, if we take no steps to offset the attractions which are leading them astray. The year 1936 is now young and it will be a standing disgrace to the city if its course is allowed to run without something being done to provide and equip a gymnasium and provide an instructor who will have charge of the physical instruction.

OLD DIPLOMACY

The lecture of Prof. Soward Thursday night showed very clearly the danger to the world of the old time secret diplomacy which has characterized the dealings of one nation with another for so many years. All nations except the United States have been in the habit of making treaties of various kinds with other nations, often secret arrangements or agreements, and using the worst kind of deception and duplicity, reminding one rather of an old time horse deal than of a solemn contract between leading nations.

Britain has done her part in this old diplomatic policy. Possibly she had been forced to do it to keep even with the rest of the world and, not unlikely, she has been just as bad as the worst of them. At a time when duplicity was considered a merit, nothing better could be expected.

Today we are realizing that nations should be honest with each other, just as much as business people are honest in their dealings with each other. It is an ideal toward which the world is striving and it is up to civilized nations to lead the way.

United States has a different method in connection with treaties. None are effective unless approved by the Senate where they are fully discussed. That prevents any attempt at a secret understanding. In many respects this safeguard is a disadvantage but it tends toward a more honest diplomacy.

ANNUAL REPORT OF RETIRING HEAD OF COMMERCE CHAMBER

logging industry. "The district agriculturalist's report does not show a great improvement in his department. At the same time it indicates that the farmers of the interior are gradually getting down to a sounder and more practical commercial basis.

"Altogether, we can thank a benign providence for the benefits which this district has received in the year that has passed and can look forward with faith and hope for a much brighter future, not only for the city but for the whole district.

Assistance Appreciated

"I wish to thank the executive and those members of the Chamber who attended our meetings for their loyal support and cooperation during the year. I particularly wish to thank Commissioner Alder, who has been a wonderful support to me during my term of office, and who has given his whole hearted support in any matter which was for the benefit of Prince Rupert and district—also John Dybhavn from whom I have received solid counsel and advice, which has always been given with the greatest of good-will and courtesy. I also wish to thank our Secretary, Arthur Brooksbank, and to express to him my heartfelt thanks for his services during the past year and the great assistance he has given me in all matters. It has been a decided pleasure to work with him.

"The Chamber has during the year held twelve monthly meetings, one special meeting, and five executive meetings, in the course of which the following matters have been dealt with:

"The Canadian National Railways were requested to give all local machinists work on the repairs of their ships in the dry dock before importing labor from Vancouver.

"The question of providing gymnasium facilities here was thoroughly gone into by a special committee.

"The Canadian National Railways was requested to give to the prairie passengers, paying one cent per mile, the privilege of routing through Prince Rupert.

"A special meeting was called to permit General Hornby to address our members and explain his scheme of immigration. This scheme was given favorable consideration and recommended to the Department of Agriculture, Department of Trade and Commerce, Department of Railways and the Canadian National Railways.

"Subsidization of vessels carrying logs from Prince Rupert to the Orient. We were successful in persuading the government to grant $1,000 per trip for eight trips per year.

"The obtaining of assistance from the City to loggers who would take out a trial shipment of logs for export to the Orient. This shipment has already been made.

"The advisability of removing a chilling plant located up the line but not in use, to Prince Rupert where it could be used for the benefit of interior farmers in storing their produce.

"The stationing of one of the Canadian destroyers permanently at this port.

"The proposal to bring all coastal and intercoastal vessels within the control of the Railway Commission.

"The granting of a licence to operate a broadcasting station at Prince Rupert.

"The extension of the fishermen's floats.

"The appointment of a full time Minister of Fisheries. This was carried out.

"The organization and operation of an Employment service Plan, which met with great success, our objective of $50,000 being over-subscribed.

"The establishment of a sea plane base at Prince Rupert.

"The establishment of a pulp mill at Prince Rupert.

"Proposed trade agreement between Canada and the United States. In this connection, we stressed the importance of reducing the duty on fish, which was carried out.

"The formation of a B. C. Cancer Clinic.

"The consideration of a proposal of the Canadian National Railways to change the agreement with respect to the filling in of Cow Bay, and road, construction along the waterfront.

the government looked to for advice even more than to the political organizations. There should be an organization of that kind in every community. He urged that all set aside their individual prejudices and interests and work for the common good.
The member explained some of the difficulties he had experienced in trying to make the people of the East understand what Skeena constituency was like when he told them it was larger than England, Scotland and Ireland and a number of the European countries as well, they did not believe him. His constituency contained 123,000 square miles of territory while Great Britain and Ireland had an area of only 59,000 square miles. The people of the East had to be educated in regard to British Columbia.

MANY AT SERVICES
Universal Week of Prayer Brought To Close With Two Meetings Last Night

With large congregations at both First Baptist Church and St. Peter's Anglican Church at Seal Cove, the observance in Prince Rupert of the ninetieth Universal Week of Prayer was brought to a close last night. Adjutant Eva Laycock, Salvation Army, was the speaker at the Baptist Church and Rev. E. J. North at St. Peter's.

Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe was in charge of the meeting at First Baptist Church and W. Vaughan Davies presided at the organ. Following the singing of the old favorite hymns "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee," there was prayer by Rev. C. D. Clarke, pastor of First United Church, and Adjutant Laycock read from First Kings Solomon's great prayer at the dedication of the temple.

Adjutant Laycock, in her address, briefly outlined the themes of the previous meetings—repentance, faith, fellowship and obedience and service, showing how beautifully all culminated in the closing topic of "dedication." Referring to the consecration of King Solomon's temple, the speaker likened the court of the temple to the outward or visible part of man—the body, the holy place correspondent to the soul and the holy of holies to communion with God—the spirit of man. The call then went out to each Christian present to dedicate him or herself as a temple unto the living God. Jesus had said: "Go Ye Into All the World and Preach the Gospel to Every Creature." Adjutant Laycock closed with a challenge as to who were willing to consecrate themselves to God's service.

During a session of voluntary prayer several of those present took opportunity to give thanks to God. Prior to Adjutant Laycock's discourse, the hymn, "Breathe on Me Breath of God" was sung.

Closing hymn and prayer by Dr. Dafoe brought a most helpful series of meetings to a close.

At St. Peter's

At St. Peter's Church, which was filled almost to capacity, Pastor North spoke on the subject of "Communion With God," taking as his Scripture topic Enoch's walk with God. The meeting was presided over by Rev. Canon W. F. Rushbrook and Mrs. S. A. Kielback presided at the organ. There was prayer by Mrs. F. W. Stamp-Vincent, C. J. Norrington and Mrs. Chris Dixon.

This was the ninetieth annual observance of the Universal Week of Prayer movement which has expanded greatly since its institution.

Fishermen Busy With Meetings During Slack Season—Morris H. is Transformed—Fourth Oil Company Coming In

The slack month of January for fishing and fishermen is now on with no exception to the rule this year. It is the breathing spell between the activities of one season and the commencement of preparations for another. This is the time that the operators of the fisheries are accustomed to get together and discuss formally and informally the problems of the industry which are numerous and varied. The past week has been a particularly busy one as far as holding of meetings was concerned. The salmon men had a session on Monday night, the meeting having been called especially for the purpose of protesting at the moving out of the Skeena River gill-net fishing boundary. On Tuesday the halibut fishermen were in annual session, electing the popular Bill Brett as union president for the year. Wednesday night saw the annual meeting of the Northern Fishermen's Cold Storage Co. Ltd., in which fishermen and boat owners are interested. The feature of this assembly was the presentation of the annual financial statement which was described afterwards as being as favorable as was expected. Another two or three weeks should see some of the early birds getting started on overhaul work and such activities. As far as can be seen at this time, there is nothing which should disturb a normal fishing season in 1936 although there are a number of factors which may arouse considerable discussion if not difference of opinion.

Frank M. Davies, accountant for the Atlin Fisheries, returned to the city on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon from his annual vacation trip to Vancouver and Victoria.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Muir, arrived in port at 5:45 yesterday afternoon from the south and will sail at 10:30 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Norman G. Pattison has returned to duty as purser aboard the Union steamer Cardena this week after having been ashore on annual vacation. Accompanied by Mrs. Pattison, he made a trip to Toronto.

IS MIRTH PROVOKER
Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy Very Funny in Kilts in "Bonnie Scotland"

When Laurel and Hardy unwittingly enlist in a Scotch regiment about to embark for India, plenty of fun begins in "Bonnie Scotland" which is the week-end comedy feature on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. The picture, which proved highly entertaining to last night's audiences, will be repeated tonight. When these two ever popular comedians, with others of the outfit, impersonate high officers upon the occasion of a visit to the tribal chieftain, the hilarity reaches its height.

Never before have Laurel and Hardy had such a strange background for their antics. To start with Laurel journeys to Scotland to claim his share of the fortune of an uncle whom he has never seen. When his portion of the legacy is revealed as worthless, he becomes despondent. The boys inadvertently sign enlistment papers and, before they realize it, they are attired in uniforms of Highlanders and are off to the bandit-infested desert stretches of far-away India. There is a pretty romance interwoven with the comedy.

The people of Kitkatla were preparing to leave for the trapping grounds, some having already gone. The latter were called back and the former remained until after the funeral, which took place on Thursday.

When Vancouver discovered it wanted a city hall and wanted it badly the people put up the cash with which to build it. Now they want $150,000 to put on a jubilee celebration and they will get it. Why not emulate Vancouver?

With the arrival of the ship's regular crew from Vancouver this week, the annual overhaul job on the steamer Prince Rupert at the local dry dock is now well under way. It also means work for the local dock employees.

William Murdoch of the local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve was a passenger leaving aboard the Princess Adelaide last night for Esquimalt where he will join H. M. C. S. Skeena for a cruise.

Capt. Carl Giske returned to Prince Rupert at the middle of this week from Lewis Island with his halibut boat Morris H. which underwent a complete overhaul during recent weeks at the hands of Emil Resang, well known Porcher Island boatbuilder. The work included considerable remodeling such as the replacing of the wheelhouse, the raising of the bow and putting in of a higher bulkhead and new railings.

While official confirmation locally is lacking, as far as can be learned the Standard Oil Co., which had its engineers here some weeks ago, is proceeding actively with its plans for the establishment of a fuel station on the local waterfront. It is understood that final arrangements for the construction of the tanks are about to be made if they have not already been closed.

Resolutions from the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Association and the Skeena River Fisherman's Association in respect to the moving out of the Skeena River fishing boundary, the restoration of the hair seal bounty, were received at the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night and referred to the Fisheries Committee for report.
