PLANE JOINS HUNT FOR FUR ROBBERS

Ginger Coote Takes To Air in Quest Of Ft. Nelson Bandits

Some Salient Points in Connection With Episode Last Week in Peace River Block Not Yet Cleared Up—Various Authorities Co-operating

VICTORIA, July 22: (CP)—Radio advices to the provincial police today said that Pilot R. L. (Ginger) Coote had left Fort Nelson by airplane this morning with two constables on a reconnaissance flight over possible river outlets for six men who last week-end robbed the Hudson Bay post there of $32,000 worth of furs.

It has not been determined how many canoes were used in the getaway or how the men of the post escaped after the robbers had bound them at the point of a gun. Nineteen bales of furs were taken. Authorities in Alaska, the Yukon, Northwest Territories and Alberta are co-operating in the hunt.

KING MAY PAY VISIT

Interesting Rumor in Court Circles That Edward VIII May Come to Canada

LONDON, July 22: (CP)—Rumors in court circles say the King may visit Canada and possibly the United States after the coronation next year. He would visit Ottawa and the E. P. Ranch in Alberta, returning by way of New York. While in the United States, he would visit the President, the report states. Should Edward VIII make the trip, he would be the first monarch ever to travel so extensively after accession.

GREETINGS EXTENDED

Message of S. J. Hungerford, C. N. R. President, to Telegraphers' Reunion

WINNIPEG, July 22:—In connection with a reunion of all telegraphers in Canada which was staged over the lines of the country last evening in connection with the observance of the centenary of Samuel Morse's successful experiment with telegraphy, the following message was issued by S. J. Hungerford, president of Canadian National Railways:

"I am delighted to participate in the ceremony commemorating the centenary of the establishment of Morse telegraphy on this continent and extend my greetings and best wishes to all the old time telegraphers participating in this event tonight. The wonderful strides which the telegraph has made as the world's foremost media of rapid communication are exemplified by the fact that when you first put your finger on the key it took an individual wire to send an individual message. Today in this vast hook-up from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the main wires which you are using are simultaneously carrying twenty-three other messages, in some cases news dispatches fresh from the cable heads linking Europe and Asia to Canada, and in other cases telegraphic expansion bear that on adjoining wires stretching from coast to coast, there are at this minute being carried programs of entertainment that will be brought into your homes by the latest marvel of electrical transmission, radio.

"I find it particularly fitting on this day, when the first railway in Canada made its pioneer run just one hundred years ago, that a century later we should celebrate the centennial of telegraphic communication which throughout the years has been so intimately identified with railway operation."

Hungerford Appreciates Telegram Sent by Chamber Of Commerce

In reply to its message of congratulation on the celebration of the one-hundredth anniversary of the running of the first train in Canada, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce today received the following telegram from S. J. Hungerford, president of Canadian National Railways:

"Sincerely appreciate your telegram conveying congratulations and good wishes upon the occasion of the one-hundredth anniversary of the commencement of railway operation in Canada. We believe the citizens generally appreciate the important contribution made by the railroads to the progress of this Dominion and we face the opening of the second hundred years with continuing confidence in the future of our country and the part to be played by railroads in development still to come."

A similar message was received from W. J. Alder, city commissioner, from Mr. Hungerford.

WINNING WRITERS

Rolla Girl First in Local Essay Competition—Junior Chamber May Hold Carnival

At an executive meeting of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night, S. J. Jabour, chairman of the Peace River outlet essay competition committee, announced the winners as follows in the contest for Peace River district school pupils on the subject of "Prince Rupert, Logical Outlet for the Peace River."

First—Theima Wyles, Rolla, B.C. Second—Phoebe Moll, Dawson Creek, B.C.

Equal — Gwendolyn Anderson, Dawson Creek; Margaret Proncross, Sexsmith, Alta.; John Reesor, Pouce Coupe; Gordon Steinke, Sexsmith; Marie Stewart, Dawson Creek.

The two first prize-winners have been notified by wire of their success. The first prize is a free trip to Prince Rupert with all expenses paid of $50 in cash. The second prize is $25 cash while the five others will each receive $5 in cash. Copies of the essays will be offered to the local and Peace River newspapers for publication.

The four judges—Col. J. W. Nicholls, W. M. Blackstock, H. F. Pullen and W. J. Raymond—were thanked for their services.

Other Business The question of holding a carnival in the city this fall was reopened and it was decided to call a meeting of the executive of the Junior Chamber's carnival committee and request the Boys' Band carnival committee to be represented at the meeting next Tuesday to consider a proposal for a joint carnival.

Local cannery managers will be approached requesting each to send in a case of canned salmon for distribution as souvenirs among the passengers aboard the steamer Prince David which will be here on Thursday of next week in the course of a Pacific Coast cruise from New York.

It was decided to affiliate with the Canadian Junior Chambers of Commerce.

The desirability of concentrating upon having the transprovincial highway from this end connected up with the canneries was discussed and S. J. Jabour was requested to interview the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce on the matter.

The secretary, T. J. Williams, announced that, as a result of the representations of the Junior Chamber, the federal Bureau of Meteorology had sent A. F. McCauley to install a meteorological station at Langara Island. Mr. McCauley had promised to recommend that the weather broadcast service be improved by including local weather forecasts in the national network, making them also available for the local station, in a service similar to that on the Atlantic coast and on the Great Lakes.

Lee Gordon, president of the Junior Chamber, was in the chair.

Committee Including Rideout and Frederick Will Work For Form of Territorial Government—Monster Petition to be Circulated—Coast Outlet Among Things Wanted

PEACE RIVER, Alta., July 22: (CP)—A five-man committee is working today to secure autonomy for the Peace River district of Alberta. A form of government similar to that which prevailed in the Northwest Territories previous to 1905 when Alberta and Saskatchewan became provinces is sought. The committee, consisting of Page Rideout, C. W. Frederick, U. Adams, J. Phillippe and H. Williams, all of Peace River, was appointed after public meetings held throughout the area.

William Eager, Grande Prairie lawyer, speaking at a meeting last night, said that the Peace River was still awaiting a long-promised outlet to the coast, gravelled highways, public buildings and reasonable freight rates.

It was decided to circulate a petition among the residents and, if 31,000 of 42,000 names can be obtained, the petition for autonomy will be presented to the provincial authorities.

Provincial authorities have now announced that police protection will be furnished fishermen in the area who wish to continue fishing operations and that at least one cannery will remain open to handle any catches offered.

IMPORTANT ANNIVERSARY

The celebration of the C. N. R. anniversary yesterday calls to mind the value of such a railway to the people of Canada. The consolidation of a number of railways into one huge state system was an outstanding event and one which will eventually make for Canadian solidarity.

The railway started out in an auspicious manner. It reached a point where it was practically self-sustaining when the depression struck the world and railways suffered along with all other businesses. Even the great and wealthy C. P. R. had to suspend paying dividends. The competition of motor traffic added to the troubles of the railways until it looked as if many lines would have to close down. A few did but by the help of the Canadian taxpayers it has been possible to keep most of them operating.

With the return of better times there is a noticeable pick-up in railway business. Travel is on the increase and the next year or two should see the railways through most of their troubles.

We all like to see the railways prosper. If they do well, so does the whole country. They have not lost any more money proportionate to their size than nearly every other Canadian business. They have not had to borrow any more money in proportion to their capital than many Prince Rupert businessmen. We hope the Canadian National will become so busy that it cannot handle all the traffic and especially would we like to see this end of the road paying well.

PROSPECTS GOOD

There never was a time when the youth who wanted to make his way in the world could do so without rustling for it. Effort was required. In the old days it was the thought that if a young man had not enough energy and brain to rustle for himself, he would never amount to anything.

Dr. Louis I. Dublin, statistician, says the young man of today has an even chance for a long life and his chances of getting a job are excellent so long as he continues to train himself in some particular field. His chances are four out of five even in a depression period. The average youth will attain to what is considered an income adequate to a fairly good standard of life. Nine out of ten will marry and the average couple will have three children, one in each 85 having twins, while one in every 7,600 will have triplets. The chances for having boys are slightly better than for girls.

Evidently, according to this authority, the outlook for the young generation is just as bright as ever it was in the history of the world, probably much brighter.

YANK LEAD BEING CUT

Now Have Eight Game Margin Over Cleveland—Chicago Cubs Still Forging Ahead

St. LOUIS, July 22 (CP)—The New York Yankees lost a close 5 to 4 decision to the lowly Browns at St. Louis yesterday and had their margin of leadership in the American League further reduced to eight games over the Cleveland Indians who, playing at home, won by the narrow verdict of 6 to 5 over the Boston Red Sox. The world champion Tigers, playing at Detroit, took a double-header, the first game by a score of eight to nil and the second 9 to 8, from the Philadelphia Athletics, and moved back into third place ahead of the Red Sox. The Chicago White Sox, losing at home by the close score of 6 to 5 to the Washington Senators, slipped from the fifth place tie into sixth position.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs continued their pennantward drive by winning a 5 to 3 victory over Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbetts Field. The Cubs' margin of leadership is now three full games over the St. Louis Cardinals who were losing two to one to the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds. The Pittsburgh Pirates routed the Phillies 17 to 6 at Philadelphia and are in a third place tie with the Giants now. In the fourth National League game yesterday the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Boston Bees 3 to 2 at Boston.

Yesterday's Big League results in a glance:

American League
Philadelphia, 0-8; Detroit, 8-9; Washington, 6; Chicago, 5; Boston, 5; Cleveland, 6; New York, 4; St. Louis, 5.

The Letter Box

UNPLEASANTNESS

Editor, Daily News:

A little unpleasantness has cropped up here in connection with the annual school meeting. At that meeting a motion was proposed calling on the trustees to resign and setting forth some serious charges against them. The motion lacked support and on a show of hands was lost.

Now at the first meeting of trustees I find the same motion included in the secretary's annual report. I cannot support this motion so am resigning as a trustee.

I would like my friends to know just why I feel constrained to resign so would be much obliged if you would publish the enclosed copy of my letter of resignation.

N. SHERWOOD

Letter of Resignation

C. H. Thomas, Secretary.

After the meeting of trustees this morning I have decided to resign my position as one of the trustees. I am doing this because in my opinion the Annual Report, which goes to Victoria, is biased and untrue.

A motion was proposed at that meeting calling on the trustees to resign, which was lost on a show of hands.

In your annual report you have Included the arguments in support of the motion but have left out the arguments which defeated the motion. In my opinion a motion which failed to carry should not be included in the annual report at all.

Teachers names are mentioned in connection with what the report call a "wild party." Charges like this against the teachers should be supported in some way or the door is left open for local and family prejudice, and in this case the annual meeting was not convinced that the teachers are guilty of this sort of thing as proved by the fact that the motion did not carry.

I consider it quite wrong to thus cast a slur on any teachers' reputation and I entirely disagree with the attitude of the Board.

BOHEMIAN GIRL HERE

Operatic Vehicle For Laurel And Hardy Fun—"Powder Smoke Range" Western

"The Bohemian Girl," a full length Laurel and Hardy feature, and "Powder Smoke Range," a new western thriller with Hoot Gibson, come to the screen of the Capitol Theatre on a double bill this mid-week.

"The Bohemian Girl" presents a succession of new gags interspersed through a delightful story that is embellished with the tune-some music of the great Balfe opera. Stan and Ollie, as members of the notorious Gypsy band, give hilarious performances, the sequences with baby Arline, whom they "mother," giving them a chance at serio-comic interpretations. The supporting cast includes such well known figures as Antonio Moreno, Jacqueline Wells and Mae Busch.

Blazing action thrills vie with romance and robust comedy in the drama of the open spaces, "Powder House Range." It is a typical chapter in the turbulent history of the western frontier. A sinister plot to steel a rich ranch property causes guns to flame in a savage range war. The cast, featuring a number of old timers, includes, besides Hoot Gibson, Harry Carey and William Farnum with blonde Boots Mallory as the feminine lead.

Local Teacher Was Married

Miss Jessie Moffatt Bride of Summerland Man—To Live in Okanagan

A pretty wedding took place in Vancouver recently at the home of Mrs. C. B. Porter when Jessie Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moffatt of Summerland, was united in marriage to Alfred Wallace Johnston of West Summerland.

The ceremony, witnessed by a few close friends and relatives, was performed at 12:30 noon, Rev. J. Dinnage Hobson officiating.

The bride wore a floral chiffon in apricot shades, with a large picture hat to match, and a beautiful corsage of white gardenias and bronze roses. She was given in marriage by C. B. Porter.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Easthope of Prince Rupert, looked charming in a gown of powder blue chiffon with large white hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations and maiden hair fern.

The groom was supported by his brother-in-law, Charles Gillis, of Regina.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The luncheon table was centred with a beautiful cake, and the tapers were white and gold.

Mrs. Elizabeth McGuire presided at the urns, and Mrs. Charles Gillis, sister of the groom, cut the ices. Miss Jean Moffatt, sister of the bride, and Miss Amelia Pillsbury were serviteurs.

The toast to the bride was proposed by James Hutchinson and suitably responded to by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston spent a few days in Vancouver on their honeymoon and then motored to the interior. They will reside on Prairie Valley road, West Summerland.

For travelling the bride chose a gold crepe frock, with brown suede shoes and accessories, and a gold felt hat. Her coat was a plaid swaggar model in shades of gold and brown.

The bride was until recently on the teaching staff of the Prince Rupert public schools.

SALVATION ARMY PICNIC

The young folks of the Sunday School and the Ladies of the Home League of the Salvation Army held their annual picnic yesterday on the beach near Cloyah Bay. There were the usual races, distribution of ice cream, peanut scrambles and picnic lunches and everybody enjoyed the event to the full.

WAKE-UP YOUR LIVER BILE

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest, it just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world is pink.
A new bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of cathartics but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

Boys and Girls Are Asked to Cut Out This Page and Keep it For Community Singing at the Stunt Nights.

The Playground's Call

Come one, come all,
Come to the Playground's call!
We will sing as we go,
For well we know
That we thrive and grow
As we dance and sing,
And merrily swing,
And caper about,
And shout, "Ad in, ad out,"
As we toss the ball
Over the netted wall.

Come to the Playground's call!
Come one, come all,
All ages and races
Find the wide spaces
The best of all places.
And when we come in
We are all of one kin.
The whole year 'round
Good times abound
On our Playground!
Come one, come all,
To the Playground's call!

The Long Trail

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams,
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long long trail with you.

Let Me Call You Sweetheart

Let me call you "Sweetheart,"
I'm in love with you.
Let me hear you whisper that
You love me, too,
Keep the lovelight glowing
In your eyes so true.
Let me call you "Sweetheart,"
I'm in love with you.

Little Brown Jug

My wife and I lived all alone
In a little log hut we call'd our own.
She loved gin and I loved rum,
I tell you what, we'd lots of fun.

Ha! Ha! Ha! you and me,
"Little Brown Jug" don't I love
thee!
Ha! Ha! Ha! you and me,
"Little Brown Jug" don't I love
thee!

Smiles

There are smiles that make us
happy,
There are smiles that make us
blue,
There are smiles that chase away
the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the
dew,
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may
see,
But the smiles that fill my life
with sunshine
Are the smiles that you give to me.

Darling Nellie Gray

There's a low green valley on the old Kentucky shore,
Where I've whiled many happy
hours away,
A-sitting and a-singing by the little cottage door
Where lived my darling Nellie Gray.
O My poor Nellie Gray, they have taken you away,
And I'll never see my darling any more;
I'm sitting by the river and I'm weeping all the day
For you've gone from the old
Kentucky shore.

Solomon Levi

My name is Solomon Levi, and my store's on Salem Street;
That's where to buy your coats
and vests
And everything else that's neat;
Secoanded handed ulsterettes
And overcoats so fine,
For all the boys that trade with me
At a hundred and forty-nine
CHORUS
O, Solomon Levi, Tra-la-la-la-la,
Poor Solomon Levi, Tra-la-la-lala-la-la.

Mother Machree

There's a spot in my heart which
no colleen may own,
There's a depth in my soul never sounded or known,
There's a place in my mem'ry, my life that you fill,
No other can take it, no one ever will.
CHORUS
Sure I love the dear silver that shines in your hair,
And the brow that's all furrowed
and wrinkled with care,
I kiss the dear fingers so tollworn
for me,
O God bless you and keep you,
Mother Machree!

Bring Back

(Tune: My Bonnie)
My mother's an apple pie maker,
My father he fiddles for tin;
My sister scrubs floors for a living,
Oh, Boy! How the money rolls in!
Chorus: Roll in! Roll in!
Oh, Boy! How the money rolls in,
rolls in!
Rolls in! Roll in!
Oh, Boy! Hows the money roll in!
My Bonnie leaned over the gas tank
The height of its contents to see,
I lighted a match to assist her;
Oh, bring back my Bonnie to me.
Chorus: Bring back, bring back,
Oh, bring back my Bonnie to me,
to me.
Bring back, bring back,
Oh, bring back my Bonnie to me.
The little dog ran 'round the engine,
The engine ran on through the fog;
I heard a yelp that the engine
couldn't help,
'Cause the engine couldn't run
'round the dog.

In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree

In the shade of the old apple tree,
Where the love in your eyes I could
see,
When the voice that I heard, like
the song of the bird,
Seemed to whisper sweet music to
me;
I could hear the dull buzz of the bee
In the blossoms as you said to me,
"With a heart that is true, I'll be waiting for you.
In the shade of the old apple tree.

When You and I Were Young, Maggie

I wandered today to the hill, Maggie,
To watch the scene below,
The creek and the old rusty mill,
Maggie,
Where we sat in the long, long ago;
The green grove is gone from the hill, Maggie,
Where first the daisies sprung;
The old rusty mill is still, Maggie,
Since you and I were young.

Soup Song

(Today is Monday)
Today is Monday, today is Monday,
Monday wash day
All you Canadians we wish the same to you.

Tuesday, string beans; Wednesday,
soup;
Thursday, roast beef; Friday, fish;
Saturday, pay day; Sunday, church.

Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree

Under the spreading chestnut tree,
Where I held her on my knee,
We were as happy as could be
Under the spreading chestnut tree.

Playground Song

When the laughing sun appears,
Over the mountain tops,
When the merry stars peek out,
And night's curtain drops—

CHORUS:

Come, let us be on our way,
Let our voices in song resound;
For wide free spaces and friendly faces
Abound on each Playground.

The Playground calls to its friends,
Across the grassy sward,
And beckons most incitingly,
Nor mite nor man is barred.

The Playground is a well-known place,
Around it stands no wall;
And each may feel it as his own,
In summer, winter, spring and fall.

The More We Get Together

(Tune: For He's a Jolly Good Fellow)
The more we get together, the
more we get together,
The more we get together, the happier are we,
The happier are we, the happier
are we,
The more we get together, the
more we get together,
The more we get together, the happier are we.

God Save the King

God save our Gracious King,
Long live our Noble King,
God Save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King!

O, CANADA

Words by WEIR Music by LAVALLEE

O Canada! Our home, our native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons
command,
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North, strong and free,
And stand on guard, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, glorious and free,
We stand on guard, we stand on guard
for thee!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee!

Smile Song

(Tune: Till We Meet Again)
Smile a while and give your face
a rest,
Stand up straight and elevate your chest
Raise your hands up to the sky
While you wag your head so slowly,
Turn around and limber up a bit
As you were and now before you sit Reach right out to someone near
Shake his hand and smile.

We're Here For Fun

(Tune: Auld Lang Syne)
We're for fun right from the start,
So drop your dignity—
Just laugh and sing with all your heart
And show your loyalty—
May all your troubles be forgot,
Let this day be the best;
Join in the songs we sing today,
Be happy with the rest.

The Bear Went Over The Mountain

The bear went over the mountain,
The bear went over the mountain,
The bear went over the mountain,
To see what he could see!
And all that he could see
Was the other side of the mountain,
The other side of the mountain,
The other side of the mountain,
Was all that he could see!

There is a Tavern in the Town

There is a tavern in the town, in the town,
And there my true love sits him
down, sits him down,
And takes his ease 'mid laughter
free,
And never, never thinks of me,
thinks of me,
Fare thee well, for I must leave
thee,
Do not let the parting grieve thee,
And remember that the best of friends must part,
Adieu, adieu, kind friends, adieu,
adieu, adieu,
I can no longer stay with you, stay
with you,
I'll hang my harp on a weeping
willow tree,
And may the world go well with
thee.

Old Black Joe

Gone are the days when my heart
was young and gay;
Gone are my friends from the cotton fields away;
Gone from this earth to a better
land I know,
I hear their gentle voices calling,
"Old Black Joe."
I'm coming, I'm coming,
For my head is bending low,
I hear those gentle voices calling,
"Old Black Joe."
