Board Opposed To Health Insurance

Chamber of Commerce Again Goes On Record Against Weir Scheme

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, again went on record as being opposed to the proposed health insurance scheme of Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, by adopting the report of the Legislative Committee, the report closing with these words: "It is our opinion that it is very inadvisable for this province to embark upon further experimental social or paternalistic legislation under existing conditions of excessive taxation and depleted finances."

FAST TRAIN ON FRIDAYS

That is the Plan Proposed For C. N. R. Out of Prince Rupert During Summer

Prince Rupert is to have five trains a week this year in all probability and one of the trains is to be a full passenger, the others being mixed trains. The service is to be generally improved, the fast train leaving Prince Rupert at 11 o'clock Friday morning, reaching Jasper in 25 hours and connecting immediately with the fast train from Vancouver. Such is the scheme as outlined to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last evening as a tentative arrangement not yet officially sanctioned. The other four trains will leave on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of each week during the summer months. If this scheme is carried out there will be no trains leaving for the east on Saturdays and Sundays.

The railway and navigation committee will go over the schedule carefully with the object of trying to get a longer stop-over than at present planned and also will consider the question of asking for mail changes.

In the event of the proposed schedule going into effect, it is understood the railway company will rout most of its through tourist traffic to arrive in Prince Rupert Fridays, the other boats being through boats to Alaska.

Last year there was no first class train out of Prince Rupert, so the proposal for this year is a distinct gain. There were only four trains in each direction last year.

The local Chamber of Commerce last night decided to ask the superintendent of radiotelegraphs to send a radio inspector to Prince Rupert four times a year at regular intervals to deal with radio interference.

Prince Rupert and Terrace High School basketball teams, playing at Terrace last night, divided honors. The Terrace girls defeated their opponents from the coast by the close score of 16 to 15 while the Prince Rupert boys had a fairly easy 23 to 14 victory. The Prince Rupert players will return home on tonight's train.

ASKING FOR SEPARATION

Chamber of Commerce Would Have Prince Rupert District Piloted

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, decided to ask that the district of Prince Rupert be separated from the rest of the province in the matter of pilotage and that, until conditions warrant the appointment of a permanent pilot, a local man be appointed to act as pilot.

This followed the reading of a report of the port committee which asked for the appointment of a licensed pilot at Prince Rupert.

In asking that the district of Prince Rupert be separated from the rest of the province, G. W. Nickerson said he could not understand why Prince Rupert ever consented to join with Vancouver in pilotage matters. New Westminster knew enough to keep out. He strongly urged the separation of the districts and the proposal was adopted.

ALFONSO IS DYING

Former Crown Prince of Spain Is Near Death's Door—Extreme Unction Given

HAVANA, Cuba, Feb. 8:—Don Alfonso, Prince of the Asturias, eldest son of former King Alfonso XIII of Spain, is dying in a sanitarium here. He was in a state of coma last night after the extreme unction of the Roman Catholic Church had been administered to him yesterday. His death is expected momentarily.

Twenty-nine years of age, the former Crown Prince of Spain has never enjoyed robust health and has been a partial invalid all his life. He is a hemophiliac—a sufferer from excessive bleeding. A few years ago Alfonso married a commoner and renounced his right of succession to the Spanish Throne.

Former King Alfonso, now in Rome, is keeping in touch with his son's condition by hourly cables.

WOULD AID FISHERMEN

Chamber of Commerce Asks For Extension of the Fishing Limits On Spring Salmon on Skeena

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, asked the Department of Fisheries to give the fishermen of the Skeena River the same privileges in fishing for spring salmon as they have given for cohoes. It was explained by G. W. Nickerson that the Japanese had asked for an extension on cohoes and it had been granted them. What the white fishermen asked for was turned down. The resident fishermen were now asking that the same boundaries on the river be allowed for springs as for cohoes.

H. F. Pullen explained that he had been approached by resident fishermen who explained that they would lose their livelihood and be forced to leave the district if the proposed curtailment of the fishing grounds was enforced. They thought residents should be allowed to fish the larger area and non-residents should conform with the proposed new regulations.

After considerable discussion it was decided to ask for extension of the spring salmon fishing grounds in order to help out the white fishermen.

Halibut Fishing to Start With Opening of Season At Middle of March, it is Expected—First Plane in Several Months Here

Of outstanding interest in Prince Rupert was the announcement made during the past week by exclusive Canadian Press dispatches to the Daily News that March 16 had been set by the International Fisheries Commission as the opening date for the 1936 halibut fishing season. Local halibut interests had been suggesting March 20 as a suitable opening date so the order of the Commission is quite acceptable to them. The present intention of the fleet is to start the year's fishing operations on the date as set by the Commission although there is said in some quarters to be a possibility that the actual commencement of fishing may be deferred if the frozen fish situation at that time would appear to make it advisable. As far as can be seen now, there is nothing to interfere with a normal and orderly opening of the 1936 season. There are no indications of strikes or disagreements such as marred the 1935 opening. A better price has been obtained for halibut livers—45c per pound—and the outlook appears to be quite encouraging. The quota limits for Areas No. 2 and 3 remain unchanged from last year and November 30 has been set as the date for the closing of the season with the Commission reserving the privilege of closing fishing earlier in the event of the quotas in either area becoming exhausted prior to that time.

Sixty-Five Attend Story Hour Today

Varied Program Proved of Interest To Youngsters This Morning
 The usual Children's Story Hour was held this morning in the Elks' Hall with 65 children present. The hour opened with the audience singing "The Man on the Flying Trapeze." Miss Venetia Feero and Miss Bonny Perkins delighted with piano solos. The popular story of "Epaniondas" was told by Mrs. A. H. Waddington and "The Pied Piper of Havelin," related by Mrs. R. Cameron was, as usual, a favorite.
 Miss Feero introduced a dramatization of "Who Killed Cock Robin." Those participating in the play were N. Clark, M. Boulter, Z. Sherman, M. Morgan, I. Berg, A. Green, J. Gawthorn, B. Payne and Sonny Boulter. Two poems, "The Story Hour" and "Robin's Learning to Fly," written by Miss W. Cameron for this program, were read and the children were encouraged to develop their poetic talent.
 The hour ended with the playing of games and a grand march.
 Next week a Valentine program will be in charge of Mrs. Neal Carter and Mrs. J. A. Barry for children 4 to 8 inclusive.
 Through an oversight the name of Ken Brocklesby was omitted from the report of last week's program. He played very creditably his part in "Ten Little Nigger Boys."

Ask Changes In Navigation Aids on Coast

At its meeting last night, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, by resolution, asked for a number of changes in navigation aids following the reading of reports from the navigation and railways committee. It asks for a more efficient and modern fog horn at Bonilla Island and an efficient unwatched light at Butterworth Rocks.
 The Chamber also asked that the radiotelegraph station at Dead Tree Point be moved to Bonilla Island where it would be more useful to navigation. It also asked that the radio beacon at Dead Tree be moved to Cape St. James at the southern end of the Queen Charlottes, that a bell buoy with light be established at Hammer Rocks, that lighted buoys be placed at Alexander Patch and Petrel Rock, the latter replacing the light at Kinahan Island. It also asked that the department of marine re-establish two range lights and instal a radio beacon at Coast Island, place a two-way fog horn at Green Island and a light and fog bell at Halliday Island.

DOLLARS ALL DISAPPEARED

Not One Comes Back to Bank Of Two Thousand Paid Out—More Silver Endorsed

What happens to the new silver coins that come to Prince Rupert? That is one of the questions puzzling the Chamber of Commerce. At its meeting last night it heard from President Blackstock that his bank had brought in 1500 to 2,000 new silver dollars and not one of them had come back after being paid out. He asked for more but found it difficult to get all he asked.
 The Chamber of Commerce after hearing considerable discussion on the subject decided to endorse the request of the Stewart Board of Trade that more silver coins be issued by the government.

Painting Buildings To Be Encouraged

City Commissioner W. J. Alder announced at the session of the civic court of revision this morning that it was not his policy to discourage painting and cleaning up of the city by increasing assessments of buildings which the owners improve by painting.  All other appeals brought before the court were taken into consideration and, after representations of such persons at attended were heard, the court adjourned until Monday.

Proposal For Airport Here

Chamber of Commerce Refers Suggestion to the Oil Companies In the City

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night decided to give details of the requirements in order to secure a seaplane anchorage in the harbor to the four local oil companies and ascertain if they have any proposal to submit.
 For some time the chamber has been trying to secure an airport landing in the neighborhood but has been unable to satisfy the authorities. They require the placing of two mooring buoys, a small wooden slip and dock for beaching aircraft, refuelling facilities, a wind cone and transportation and telephonic facilities. As the Chamber is without funds, it felt that the oil companies might be interested and, possibly would provide the necessary conveniences.
 The Daily News is an A. B. C. paper.

At the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night D. G. Borland was welcomed as a new member by President M. Blackstock.

The commercial seaplane of Pilot R. L. ("Ginger") Cootie, here at the first of the week with party of Home Oil Distributors Ltd. officials aboard in the course of an inspection tour of the company's northern stations, was the first aircraft to visit Prince Rupert since early last fall. It arrived late Sunday afternoon from Vancouver, made a flight out to the Skeena River and elsewhere on the nearby coast Monday and hopped off at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning on its return south. The officials on board were J. E. Norcross and J. Balcombe. T. H. Jones was mechanic.

Frank and Pete Dona are interesting waterfront visitors to Prince Rupert. Their 34-foot sailing boat Marie, in which they are planning to sail around the world, is moored at the floats of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club and has been a centre of attraction. The Dona brothers hail from Holland and, during the past week, they have visited the various city schools to give lectures before the pupils describing that tight little European nation.
