THE FINAL DESPATCH

The final despatch in regard to the civil war in Spain from September 18 to 27. will probably read something like this: "After many months of keen anxiety during which a world war on a number of occasions seemed imminent, the civil war is now over and its spread to other nations has been happily avoided."

TROUBLES OF AN AUTOCRACY

Plots and counterplots are inevitable in any country cricket match of the century on Detroit where there is an autocratic ruler or a dictator. That was September 5. character of Alexander Botts, well known to readers of the Saturday Evening Post as the whimsical and egotistical tractor salesman, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre in "Earthworm Tractors," picturization of famous series of stories, with popular comedian, Joe Brown, in the leading role.

Joe has two leading women in the picture—one of whom he lose to a rival when he leaves town and the other whom he finds is quite unwilling to play second fiddle when he stupidly tells her he would have married the first SACRIFICING Factory samples. 10- girl only he discovered that she had already become a bride. Twenty -Five Years Ago

August 21, 1911

Judge Mabee, in the course of the hearing by the Board of Railway Commissioners here of an application from John Y. Rochester, the Georgetown Lumber Co., Westenhaver Bros., the Westholme Lumber Co. and W. M. Law that the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Co. be ordered to construct a bridge across Cameron Cove (Cow Bay) in order to permit access thereto for small craft, censured the railway company for having filled in the bay. The company had ignored the Railway Act and infringed upon the people's rights in so doing, Judge Mabee declared.

At the convention in Nanaimo, Duncan Ross was chosen Liberal candidate for Comox-Atlin in the forthcoming federal election. He was given a vote of 60 to 45 over Judge W. W. B. McInnes.

Bishop F. H. DuVernet and Archdeacon W. H. Collison sailed on the Prince George this morning for Vancouver enroute to London, Ont., to attend sessions of the General Synod of the Anglican Church.
