Federal Vote Provides For Improvement of Transportation in Yukon and Territories

OTTAWA, Sept. 10: (CP)—Improvement of transportation facilities into the mining sections of the Yukon and Northwest Territories at a cost of $66,000 was announced yesterday by Hon. Thomas A. Crerar, minister of mines. The money comes from a general vote of $1,500,000 provided for similar work throughout the country, the vote having been passed at the last session of Parliament.

In the Klondike the work will include completion of a road into Sulphur Creek and improvement of the road into the middle section of Dominion Creek, serving the development of placer areas and enabling the building of a new camp at Sulphur Creek and for stripping and thawing preparatory to dredging operations. Another road will open up silver property in the Mayo district.

OPENING OF GREAT DAM

Regular Flow to Inaugurate Boulder Hydro System Tomorrow

BOULDER CITY, Nev., Sept. 10: (CP)—The first regular flow of electricity from what is destined to be the largest hydro-electric power plant in the world will start from Boulder Dam powerhouse tomorrow.

President Roosevelt will address world power conference in Washington, and then press a button, which will convey the signal to Ralph Lowry, engineer in charge of Boulder Dam here, to throw the generator switch.

The generator, which will hum only to the tune of 3,500 horsepower, is one of two puny station service generators in the plant. Ultimately 17 huge generators will be installed to make the rated horsepower of the world's highest dam 1,835,000.

The ceremony tomorrow will mark the termination of flow of outside power into Boulder Dam, for the 3,500 horsepower generator will be used for all power services at the dam and for power to Boulder City, the government construction city here.

The most spectacular phase of this ceremony will be the opening for test for the first time of all 12 needle valves of the dam's outlet works. This will create a double waterfall, one from each side of the canyon wall, 13 feet higher than Niagara. Each needle valve is 30 inches in diameter, six being on the Arizona canyon wall and six on the Nevada side. The six Arizona outlets have been tested.

The dam is 727 feet high, largest and highest concrete masonry dam ever built. The reservoir, named Mead Lake, will be 115 miles long and largest man-made lake in the world—with capacity of 30,500,000 acre-feet.

The ultimate power from the project will be sufficient to furnish one-third of the homes in America.

Sensational British Star

Camera study of England's newest star of the screen, Antoinette Cellier, who is appearing in the leading role of "Mary Moody" in "The Great Barrier," now being filmed in the Canadian Rockies by Gaumont British. Attesting to her sudden rise to fame and popularity is the fact that Miss Cellier, daughter of Frank Cellier, English stage and screen veteran, is appearing in her fifth picture in little more than her first year before the cameras. In "The Great Barrier", which deals with the stern but romantic construction of the first railway across Canada, Miss Collier is playing opposite Richard Arlen.

TAX RATE NOT HIGH

Figures Prepared at Victoria Show That Prince Rupert Compares Very Favorably

A compilation of basic tax rates in various municipalities of the province which has been prepared in Victoria shows that Prince Rupert compares favorably with other cities of British Columbia. While the rate in some municipalities is lower than here, the general tendency seems to be higher. This may be a surprise to many as the general feeling has seemed to be that taxes were excessively high here.

According to figures which have been compiled, Prince Rupert pays an average of $43.75 per $500 of land and $1500 of improvements (assessed valuations) excluding local improvements. Rossland has the highest rate of $75 and Nanaimo the lowest, $21.50. Victoria pays $66.37; Vernon, $50; Trail, $46.25; North Vancouver, $55.25; Nelson, $43.75; Kamloops, $50; Fernie, $66.25 and Cranbrook, $52.50. Among the cities having lower rates than Prince Rupert are Alberni, $37.50; Chilliwack, $42.50; Kelowna, $43; New Westminster, $28, and Prince George, $32.50.

DENUDING THE FORESTS

Every now and then some wise person gets up and addresses an audience usually by newspaper or radio and tells them how wicked the industrialists of British Columbia are. The Socialists use it as an argument for Socialism, the Conservatives for conservation and others to serve whatever cause they are advocating, if only to kick at the government that happens to be in office at the time. They tell how in this province there is no such thing as reforestation and that the loggers, instead of picking their trees as they do in Germany, are cutting everything, the bad with the good, the useful with the useless.

Most of these people who talk of forest conservation have never been in a British Columbia forest except to look at it from the comfortable seat of an auto. Some of them have not been beyond the confines of the larger cities. At any rate they have not studied the conditions and only make asses of themselves when they begin to talk about this subject. Imagine one of these learned professors or politicians setting out to plant young spruce trees on the tract where the logging has just been completed on Queen Charlotte Islands. The probability is that these little sapplings would be choked out by the natural reforestation that follows immediately in the wake of the loggers. Within a very brief time young trees spring up in countless thousands and very soon the whole country is covered with a young growth that is better than anything the hand of man can do.

It also is to be remembered that in British Columbia wages are high compared with those countries where timber farming is carried out scientifically. The cost of carrying out work in British Columbia similar to that in Germany would be terrific, much too great to pay returns on the investment.

RULING THE WORLD

Every now and then the ruling powers of some nation get the idea of world control and they set out to do it by military aggression. In practically every case this has failed. At the best it has been short lived. The British people have been accused of doing it but they have always waged war for democracy and have set up a democratic form of government immediately the war was over. Even in India where the inhabitants were intensely ignorant and superstitious there is a gradual evolution going on leading to a possible democracy.

The greatest opportunity for world power lies in commercial penetration. Britain adopted this to a large extent in building up her tremendous world commerce that has made her rich. Germany was threatening British supremacy and had displaced Britain in many world markets when she tired of the slowness of the process and tried to attain it by military aggression. Japan is the danger point today, her commercial penetration having placed her in a position to build up her merchant marine with which to carry her goods to the ends of the earth. Germany is regaining her lost trade and many other European nations are making their influence felt. Canada relies on her wheat and timber and cattle to keep up her balance of trade but she also exports manufactured goods. As this commerce develops so does her world influence increase.

Detroit Talks Bid For 1944 Olympiad

Automobile City Would Have International Games in Eight Years

DETROIT, Sept. 10: (CP)—Detroit is contemplating a new enterprise—the 1944 Olympic Games. Suggesting the city bid for the classic, a "Detroit Olympic Games committee" is sounding out the possibilities for financial backing. The accommodations would be plentiful, says Harvey Campbell, committee head, in view of northern Michigan's winter sports playgrounds and the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair for swimming and boating. Campbell, executive vice-president and secretary of the board of commerce, said the idea is "still in the formative stage" but "we'll see if it's possible for Detroit to put in a bid."

TOLD ABOUT PILGRIMAGE

Malcolm Lamb Describes Vimy Visitation—Neglect of Cemetery Deplored

At the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League last evening with President W. M. Brown in the chair considerable interest was shown in the work and plans of the Veterans' Assistance Commission, a body established as a result of legislation passed at the last session of the federal parliament. Unemployed ex-service men are being impressed with the fact that this commission is very anxious to have all possible particulars passed on for the information of the commission.

Appreciation was expressed to Mrs. Woodland for the presentation to the local branch of a fine framed picture, a favorite of the late George Woodland.

Malcolm M. Lamb gave a very interesting talk on the Vimy Pilgrimage. It had been even more successful than he had hoped. While he did not attempt to review the ceremony in detail, especially as it had been given such generous publicity by the press, he did emphasize the impressiveness of the ceremony, the wonderful impression made by His Majesty the King, both at the unveiling and at the garden party at Buckingham Palace, and the unequalled opportunity to meet the other pilgrims, an experience that could never be repeated.

As delegates to the City Bridge, Crib and Whist League meeting, H. A. Breen, W. J. Rance and Ernest Anderson were appointed.

While the Legion is keeping its plot at the cemetery in splendid shape, very great regret was expressed at the general air of neglect that was so evident in the cemetery. It seemed inexplicable that so many organizations and even individuals failed to keep the last resting place of their members and relatives suitably tidy and cared for. A community effort seemed necessary, it was thought.

After the business session moving pictures were shown by S. E. Parker and refreshments were served.

Substantial Increase in Boat Repair and Improvement Work—Bringing in Union Oil Tank Scow.

Local boatbuilding and repair plants at Prince Rupert are beginning to feel the benefits of the improvement in earnings of the fishing fleet this season. Necessary repair and improvement work to both halibut and salmon fishing vessels, deferred for some time in many cases owing to hard times, is now being undertaken and an increase in volume of this sort of work ranging from fifty to one hundred percent over last year is reported.

Armour Salvage Co's power tug Algie, Capt. Reg Green, is due back this evening from North Island, bringing in the Union Oil Co's tank scow which has been stationed on the trolling grounds there during the summer months. The Algie went out Tuesday evening to pick up the outfit which will later be taken from here to Vancouver for the winter.

Jack Armstrong and party had a hectic angling trip to Khtada Lake over the Labor Day week-end including stranding their gasboat Af-ton on the rocks when running too close to shore. They too had to spend Monday night out and were late in getting home but neither the boat or the half a dozen young men aboard it suffered any serious after-effects.

After spending the summer at Old Massett personally in charge of salmon canning operations at the Massett Cannery plant, John Dyb-havn returned to the city on the tender Jedway yesterday afternoon. Other members of the cannery staff also arrived on the Jedway and proceeded to Vancouver on the steamer Princess Louise.

Two boats sold halibut at Seattle yesterday as follows: Coolidge, 26,000, Whiz, 12 1/4c and 11c; Freya, 25,000, Sebastian, 12 3/4c and 11c. The Mermaid sold 14,000 pounds of sablefish to Booth at 4c.

Completing the final voyage of the season to Alaska on summer schedule, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 3:45 yesterday afternoon from Skagway and other northern points and sailed at 5:30 p.m. for Vancouver. She had a large list of passengers including a hundred or so late tourists returning south and the vanguard of northerners going outside for the winter. Inaugurating the fall ten day schedule, the Princess Louise will make her next call here northbound on Sunday morning. The passengers on the Louise yesterday numbered 230 including 26, who disembarked here. Six boarded the vessel here for Vancouver.

The only halibut boat in today is the Canadian Toodie, with 6,000 pounds which is holding over until tomorrow.

Basil Bailey of the scientific staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Stations left Prince Rupert on last night's train for Madison, Wisconsin where he will take up a year's studies at the University of Wisconsin.

Two of the fishermen's co-operative salmon trolling camps have now been closed down for the season. Two more are remaining open for another week.

Man in the Moon

Good afternoon! Keep hoping!

In politics a traitor is a person who leaves our side and goes over to the other. A person coming to us from the other side is a convert.

"Read your hearts and not your garments," recited the Dean after finding a number of buttons in the Sunday collection.

Annianus, the world's star liar, was punished by death because in those days lying was not as fashionable as it is today.

"Topsy," said the mistress to the maid, "just look at this table. Why, I can write my name in the dust." "It must be wonderful," said the colored maid, "Ah wishes Ah was educated."

I was reading about that hundred million three percent bonds the government was selling and I decided that if I had had the money I might have bought a few thousands.

That is something like my stock gambling. When I wish to take a little flurry in the market, pitting my judgment against the rest of the world, I choose a stock that somebody has recommended, imagine I have bought a thousand shares and then each day look over the News financial page to see if this pet stock has advanced or receded. If it advances I begin to wish I had really bought some. If it goes down I congratulate myself on my discretion. I calculate that if I had really invested according to my best judgment I should be just like I am today, stony broke.

When we look out across the peaceful harbor of Prince Rupert it is hard to realize that some of the world ports are being bombarded by enemy shells and maiming men, women and children.

You probably have heard of the absent-minded motorist who, sitting in the dentist's chair, was asked if he would take gas. His reply was: "Yes, and you had better look at the oil and tires, too."
