Junior Chamber of Commerce Decides to Hold Annual Event This Year at End of August

Big Program

Radio Programs For Tourists—To Pay Charges on Importation Of Silver Dollars Here

With T. N. LePage as chairman in charge, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, decided to proceed with plans for the holding of the annual fall carnival here towards the end of August. The carnival will centre in the Exhibition Hall and the feature attraction will be the Home Oil Distributors entertainers who were here two years ago and proved highly popular. Local talent may also be used in addition and there will be a program of outdoor sports. It is hoped that the carnival may finance itself without the necessity of going to the business people of the city for financial assistance. It is expected that the event will draw many visitors to the city.

Mention was also made at last night's meeting of the Junior Chamber of a carnival to be held the first week in July in support of the Boys' Band. This carnival will follow a subscription canvass. The funds to be raised are for the purpose of rehabilitating the band with new instruments, etc.

The Junior Chamber decided to co-operate with the local radio station this summer in putting on special programs three mornings a week just prior to the arrival of tourists steamers. These programs would direct the attention of tourists on the approaching vessels to the attractions and resources of Prince Rupert. Taxi firms would provide the necessary revenue by taking advertisements.

Import Silver Dollars

As a gesture of encouragement towards the greater use of silver as currency, the Junior Chamber decided to approach the three local banks with a view to each bringing in $1000 of silver dollars, the Junior Chamber offering to pay half of the express charges. In the event of the banks declining to co-operate, the Junior Chamber would pay the full express charges on $1000 of silver dollars.

DOWNFALL EXPECTED

Sarraut Ministry Not Expected To Last Long in France Following Election

Stuart Henderson, Victoria Lawyer In Appeal Case, Defies Court—Says Chief Justice's Manner Disgraceful

VICTORIA, May 6: (CP)—Four judges of the British Columbia Court of Appeal decided yesterday to defer until the close of the case consideration of Stuart Henderson's refusal of their request that he withdraw remarks concerning the conduct of the George Indian brothers' trial for the murder of Dominion Constable F. H. Gisborne on the Canford Indian Reserve by Chief Justice Aulay Morrison in Supreme Court.

Attorney General Gordon Sloan vigorously defended the Chief Justice against a statement by Mr. Henderson that he (the Chief Justice) had acted in a "disgraceful" manner in handling the second trial and said that, if such attacks were allowed to continue without rebuke or comment from the bench, then it will not be long before the people lose confidence in the integrity of our courts.

DAMAGE OF SALES TAX

Eight Percent Impost Will Hasten End of Capitalistic System, Declares Bennett

OTTAWA, May 6: (CP)—The economic fabric of Canada will rip apart under an eight percent sales tax, Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Leader of the Conservative Opposition, warned the House of Commons yesterday in leading the fight against the Dunning budget. He predicted the sales tax would hasten the end of the capitalistic system.

Turning to the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation group, Mr. Bennett said they must be rejoicing at this feature of the budget because they must know "nothing will strike a greater blow at capitalism than an eight percent sales tax."

OPPOSING PETITION

All is Not Clear Sailing For Proposed Amendment to Early Closing Bylaw

Consideration of a petition calling for amendment of the Early Closing Bylaw whereby several classes of retail stores would be required to close at 6 o'clock Saturday evenings instead of 8 p.m. as at present has been deferred until next Monday afternoon by City Commissioner W. J. Alder in his capacity as a city council. On behalf of these petitioners, J. T. Harvey appeared before the council this morning. Acting for a number of boot and shoe merchants and clothiers, W. O. Fullon appeared to oppose the petition. The question as to the adequacy of the signature of the petition came up and it was to check on this that the meeting was adjourned.

Those opposed to the earlier closing are:

Boot and shoe stores—Family Shoe Store, Acme Importers, F. E. Hunt Ltd., Edward Lipsett Ltd., Cavenaille and Hannan, Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Ltd., B. C. Clothiers, A. J. Phillipson, Cui Rate Shoe Store, Mayfair Ladies Wear.

Clothiers—H. Yamanacka, Cavenaille and Hannan, Edward Lipsett Ltd., Sharron Co., A. J. Phillipson, Steve King, Bryant Co. Ltd., and Sam Woods.

Fascist Flag Flies Over Selassie's Palace and General Badoglio Announces War is Over—League to Meet Saturday—France, to Oppose New Colony

LONDON, May 6: (CP)—The British government will consult with the Dominions on "problems involved in Italy's Ethiopian conquest," Capt. Anthony Eden, Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons today. Capt. Eden made no effort to conceal his disappointment over the failure of the League to end the conquest as he addressed the House. He declared in firm tones, however, that "The League of Nations must go on."

Ownership By Conquest

ADDIS ABABA, May 6: (CP)—The Italian flag flew over Emperor Haile Selassie's palace today. Natives raised their hands in Fascist salutes and Italy owned Ethiopia's capital by right of conquest.

Marshal Badoglio, who led Rome's legions into the riot-wrecked capital, said: "We made it. There is no enemy. Therefore, this must be the end." He appointed Giuseppe Bottai, former Governor of Rome, as governor of the captured city.

Rev. C. D. Clarke Sees it in Development of Fisheries Along Co-operative Lines

Other Things Vain

Does Not Think Much of Pulp Mill, Peace River Outlet, Casket Factory or Brewery

Italy Celebrates

ROME, May 6:—Fifteen million Italians went into the streets of various cities of the nation yesterday to celebrate, with a mass mobilization of loyalty called by Premier Benito Mussolini, the conquest of Italy over Ethiopia.

League To Meet

GENEVA, May 6:—The council of the League of Nations is called to meet on Saturday to consider the question of reparations arising out of the Italo-Ethiopian war.

France To Protest

PARIS, May 6: (CP)—High sources said today that France would throw its full weight against outright annexation of Ethiopia as an Italian colony or the raising of an army there that might be used in a European conflict.

Not in a pulp or paper mill, not in a Peace River railway outlet, not is a casket factory and not in a brewery but rather in the development of the basic fishing industry along co-operative lines lies the future prosperity of Prince Rupert in the opinion of Rev. C. D. Clarke, pastor of First United Church as expressed last night by Mr. Clarke in addressing the regular monthly dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. He told of how a start was being made by the salmon fishermen in co-operative marketing of their fish. He would like to see such a scheme started among the halibut fishermen.

After all, declared Mr. Clarke, fishing was Prince Rupert's basic industry and on it depended the livelihood and economic welfare of the community. Speaking of the tendency of communities to depend on governments to do things for them, Mr. Clarke stated that the government had already been a great Santa Claus for Prince Rupert. It had provided the dry dock, ocean dock and elevator. But it was wrong to expect the government to do everything. Prosperity was not to be looked for from the outside. It should come from within, he thought.

Without going into the natural advantages that Prince Rupert might have in its claim to be made the railway outlet to the Peace River, Mr. Clarke proceeded to discuss the possibility of getting the outlet. First, the Canadian Pacific Railway, which he believed had more influence at Ottawa than the whole Canadian Chamber of Commerce, would oppose an outlet at any point other than one on its own lines. And, even should a Peace River outlet be built to Prince Rupert, it would be found when it was ready that the Canadian Pacific would meet its rates for shipping grain to Vancouver. Even as a political scheme, Mr. Clarke did not think much of Prince Rupert's chances to get the Peace River outlet. The Hudson Bay Railway had been built because of the political pressure of three entire provinces. Not more than three ridings would be interested in the Peace River outlet to Prince Rupert. Then was there any necessity.

CANADA'S EXPORTS

Canada commenced the present crop year last July with a carryover of 215 million bushels of wheat. At the same date this year it is expected the carryover will not be very much over one hundred millions, according to the monthly letter of the Royal Bank of Canada just issued. This puts Canada in a much more favorable position for marketing her crop next year, whether it be large or small. As the area in crop is expected to be considerably less than the previous year there should be no serious difficulty in disposing of the wheat crop in several years to come.

The export of lumber has also increased very considerably in British Columbia, according to the same authority. The first three months of 1936 showed an increase of eleven percent over the previous high for those months, 1934. Shipments to Great Britain have been well maintained and to the United States there has been a considerable increase following the recent trade agreement with that country. While the present duty on lumber going into the United States is twice what it was in 1930 it is only half what it was at this time last year.

TRADE EXTENSION

The policy of the Mackenzie King government in making trade treaties has so far been very successful and it is satisfactory to know that the administration is proposing to extend its policy to a number of other countries, including a revision of the Imperial pact which includes trade treaties with Great Britain and other countries of the British Empire.

Canada cannot expect to sell her wheat, lumber and fish, all of which she produces far in excess of requirements, unless she is willing to grant other countries some concessions. Even in motor cars Canada does a large export business but there must be trade concessions to countries which import from us, if we are to expect them to continue buying.

REPORT ON CONVENTION

Prince Rupert Teachers' Association in Session Last Night

The feature of the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association last evening was the report of the annual convention held in Vancouver during Easter week. The main report was given by W. W. C. O'Neill with J. S. Wilson supplementing it.

A tremendous amount of work was done at the various sectional meetings. The revision of courses of study had been under way for months and the report of the chairmen of the committees showed that the teachers were very much alive to the need for bringing the curriculum up-to-date and so fit the child of today for the work of tomorrow. No longer was the school to be a place where children were to be taught phases of subjects that they might not learn elsewhere. The school must prepare the child for life. This was the motive behind the plan for the revision of the curriculum.

Mr. O'Neill also reported on the various committee meetings he had attended in his capacity as geographical representative and also as a member of the elementary teachers' department. He was glad that J. S. Wilson had been elected vice-president of the elementary teachers' department and also a representative on the board of the "B. C. Teacher," the official organ of the federation. The report covered some of the discussion of the draft bill which was, from the purely business point of view, the main item of the convention.

Mr. Wilson expressed his appreciation of the honor done in his being appointed vice-president. He urged the local teachers to consider that the success of the department depended upon the contribution that each teacher might make.

Votes of thanks were accorded the speakers for their comprehensive reports and for the efficient representation that they had given in their attendance at the numerous activities of the convention.

The Letter Box

RE "CLEAN UP WEEK"

Editor, Daily News:

It was fine to read in one of the local papers that there was not a dirty lot in the city after the campaign for a thorough clean up.

But there has been one little spot that has been overlooked and that is the spot between the old Armory and the Public Library and this spot contains the honorable and battered and battle-scarred remains of an old howitzer or 13 point field gun. It is hard to know which now and it presents a pathetic and unsightly appearance. It is neither meant to be seen or heard and no one appears to have any use for it except swarms of dogs.

Who is responsible for this military relic anyhow? The local military? The Canadian Legion? The City? The Library? The Museum? I would suggest (the suggestion of many others also) that a small subscription be taken up to purchase a pot of paint, paint it up, have a suitable tablet inscribed and placed on this poor old gun and have it taken up to the new armory.

The gun is now just like a lot of us old soldiers, just a battered relic, no one has any further use for us.

It sure is symbolic. Will you please publish this, Mr. Editor, and see what can be done for this poor old eyesore.

Yours Truly,

J. HEMSWORTH.

P.S.—Another suggestion—When it is fixed up, have it taken to the C. N. R. park across the road and placed in a suitable position for the coming tourists to admire. Major Burbank or the superintendent would be "tickled to death," I'm sure, to give permission.

Chicago Takes Lead in National League—Giants Still Slipping

CHICAGO, May 6: (CP)—Chicago Cubs, by winning a close victory over the Phillies yesterday, moved from third into first place in the National League ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals who were losing a one run game to the Boston Braves. The New York Giants dropped another to the Cincinnati Reds and slumped from second into fourth place below the Pittsburgh Pirates who blanked the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Giants have only a scant mathematical lead over the Reds. The Braves advanced from seventh into sixth place ahead of the Phillies.

Boston Red Sox continue their leadership in the American League, having blanked the world champion Detroit Tigers yesterday. The New York Yankees kept in stride but half a game behind by winning over the lowly St. Louis Browns. The Philadelphia Athletics won over the Chicago White Sox and replaced them in the sixth position.

Paul Armour Does Smart Salvage Job At Prince George

Paul Armour returned last night from Prince George where he went to salvage the dredge for the underwriters of the Nechaco Gold Limited of Victoria, B.C. He went alone, hired equipment, secured a local crew and dismantled the dredge, putting all the machinery ashore. This included a 90 h.p. full diesel engine and a 16-inch pump of large capacity. He left here only a week ago, completed the work and was back in the city last night.

SCIENCE ADVISES AGAINST MEALS LOW IN NEEDED "BULK"

Reports ALL-BRAN Supplies This Dietary Adjunct

Scientific tests have shown that meals which miss the proper "bulk" tend to cause common constipation. This condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches, loss of appetite, even serious disease.

Avoid these faulty meals by adding Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to your menus. It supplies generous "bulk" in convenient form. This absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and contains iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is often more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN may be served as a cereal with milk or cream. Sprinkle over soups, salads or other cereals. Or cook into appetizing muffins, breads, waffles, etc. It adds a delicious nut-sweet flavor to your recipes.

How much better than taking patent medicines—sometimes harmful! ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

PROSPERITY OF RUPERT

ity for an outlet? Canada could not sell the wheat it already had. Why develop the Peace River at all? Would it not be to the advantage of the people as well as to the country as a whole to take the people out of the Peace River and settle them along existing railroads? By doing so, would it not help to solve the railway problem? Canada had too many railways as it was and would not need new ones for many long years.

The Pulp Mill

Mr. Clarke then turned to the pulp mill. In the first place, if a pulp mill were established, the object would be profits for the investors rather than for the benefit of Prince Rupert. The whole aim would be to keep labor costs down to a minimum. If it were a pulp mill, little skilled labor would be required. If it were a paper mill, many Japanese would be employed. Furthermore, he doubted if Prince Rupert would be chosen as the site for a pulp or paper mill. A company building one would want a site where it would have complete control, in other words, a company town. Then was a pulp mill needed? In 1929 the industry had a surplus capacity of twenty percent. There was possibly one chance in a hundred that Prince Rupert would get a pulp mill, Mr. Clarke thought.

Where would the market be for a casket factory or for a brewery in Prince Rupert, asked the speaker. And would the powerful brewing interests permit a new brewery being established in Prince Rupert? It was time the people of Prince Rupert stopped "kidding themselves" asserted the speaker. The governments had already done magnificently for the city. It was now time that the people did something for themselves. Prince Rupert was dependent upon the fishing industry and the things incidental to it. But the way things were now, half those engaged in the industry were on relief and their investment was a millstone around their necks. Five cent fish was driving people into radicalism against being made economic slaves. The prosperity of Prince Rupert depended upon the fishermen getting more of the consumer's dollar than they were getting today. Now they were getting not more than one-quarter or one-third. They should be getting at least one-half. The only hope of the fishermen lay in co-operation. Mr. Clarke then went into a discussion of the co-operative movement in other lands and the benefits it had brought about. In other places the fishermen had benefitted from co-operation in selling their product and purchasing their supplies. The co-operative movement was one in which people get together to help themselves.

Co-operation in Fisheries

A start was being made by the salmon fishermen of Prince Rupert who were now disposing of their fish direct through an agent. The co-operative had four scows in operation this year. He would like to see the halibut fishermen move along similar lines.

"Our prosperity depends," declared the speaker in conclusion, "on self help, mutual help for the benefit of all."

In opening, Mr. Clarke had complimented the Junior Chamber on its support of the local radio station and the operators of the station on their enterprise.

"Prince Rupert, the Logical Outlet for the Peace River." The contest closes on June 15.

Foster Willan reported on the "Clean Up Week" campaign. Mention was made of certain premises which constituted "eyesores" President Lee Gordon said that the City Commissioner W. J. Alder had promised co-operation so far as possible.

The Chamber endorsed a proposal of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of British Columbia that all persons in British Columbia engaged in the preparation or dispensing of food for human consumption should be required by statute to undergo annual medical examination to ensure that they were not suffering from contagious, infectious or malignant diseases.

A communication from Mrs. J. B. Gibson, secretary of the Prince Rupert Museum Board, expressed the appreciation of that board for the assistance which had been given in the recent museum drive.

A letter from Peter Lakie, district freight and passenger agent for the Canadian National Steamships, stated that he was drawing attention of the advertising department to omission of mention of Prince Rupert from certain company advertising with a view to having this rectified.

Some criticism was expressed at the meeting of the new federal eight percent sales tax. The wisdom of the permitting of Canadian visitors to the United States to bring back personal goods to the value of $100 duty free was also questioned. However, no resolutions were passed, there being differences of opinion.

Guests at the dinner, which was attended by members, were Norman R. Redman and Bud Sheen, recently of Anyox.

TWO NOVEL PICTURES

"A Feather in Her Hat" and "She Couldn't Take It" Offer Good Entertainment at Capitol

"A Feather in Her Hat," a tender love story with Pauline Lord, Basil Rathbone, Louis Hayward and Billie Burke in the leading roles, and a delightful comedy "She Couldn't Take It," starring George Raft and Joan Bennett, are the two attractions on a double bill picture program at the Capitol Theatre this mid-week.

In "A Feather in Her Hat" Rathbone is seen as a cultured but down-and-out English captain who is taken in by Miss Lord so that he may impart to her lower class son some of his gentlemanly polish and taste. Hayward is the son and Miss Burke a fluttery and distressed English actress. A pretty romance with comedy touches is woven into the story. Other important members of the cast are Wendy Barrie, Victor Varconi and Nydia Westman.

In "She Couldn't Take It" George Raft plays an ex-big-shot racketeer who, on his release from prison, finds himself sole trustee and guardian of the "Mad Van Dykes," so named because of their front page escapades. The lovely, tantalizing Joan Bennett is the wild-
