Situation is Easier as Military Rebels in Tokyo Capitulate Without Bloodshed and Head of Government Remains Unchanged

TOKYO, Feb. 29: (CP)—The atmosphere in Tokyo became easier today when a thousand rebel soldiers, who participated in the military coup d'etat on Wednesday which resulted in the assassination of government leaders, not including Premier Okada, who reappeared alive and unhurt, surrendered possession of the Tokyo police buildings, throwing down their arms and accepting the authorities' terms.

BARGAIN BAD ONE

So Says R. B. Bennett of American-Canadian Trade Treaty

OTTAWA, Feb. 29: (CP)—Canada made a bad bargain in the trade treaty with the United States, a bargain which would bring ruin to many Canadian industries, R. B. Bennett told the House of Commons yesterday.

Mr. Bennett said that the present treaty was substantially the same proposition as had been offered the former Conservative government by the United States. He had rejected it, taking the stand that it was detrimental to the interests of the Dominion "because it gives everything we have and gets little in return."

DUFF IS SENATOR

Well Known Nova Scotia Member Goes to Upper Chamber

OTTAWA, Feb. 29: (CP)—William Duff, Liberal member for Antigonish-Guysboro and for many years a party stalwart in the Maritimes, has been appointed to the Senate, Premier W. L. Mackenzie King announced last night, stating that the by-election to choose his successor would be held on May 23.

Through his long interest in fisheries matters, Senator Duff is well known on the Pacific Coast. He was a member of the Royal Commission which several years ago visited Prince Rupert in the course of an investigation of the industry on this coast.

FLOATING CANNERIES

Salmon Packers Will Be Forced To Use Them, Declares C. C. F. Member

VICTORIA, Feb. 29: (CP)—E. E. Bakewell, C. C. F. member for Mackenzie, told the Legislature yesterday that British Columbia fishery interests would be compelled to use floating canneries on scows. He declared that the cost of a cannery is the same for one month as six in preparation and installation while a permanent cannery could operate only during a short run of fish in one locality. On the other hand, floating canneries could be towed to new grounds.

Mr. Bakewell urged the government to seek financial aid from Ottawa for a scheme whereby young men could be used in fish conservation.

Snoqualmie Pass Highway Clearing Work in Progress

SEATTLE, Feb. 29:—State public works crews are engaged in clearing Snoqualmie Pass highway of great snowslides which during the past week resulted in three motorists losing their lives by being buried in avalanches.

The length of highway affected is 4 1/2 miles with one slide two thousand feet long and sixty feet deep over the road.

Temperature is still freezing but this is not hampering the work.

In other parts of the state nearer the coast, roads are being threatened with floods. At many points highways are under water to a depth of as much as one foot as a result of heavy rains of the last few days but, so far, there has been no serious damage.

"NO HORSE" TOWN NOW

Lottie Doesn't Live Here Any More—Gone To Country

Prince Rupert is no longer a "one horse town." In fact this is a "no horse town" since Lottie doesn't live here any more.

Lottie was the last equine left in Prince Rupert. She was a familiar figure for years on local streets as she trudged along with Valentin's milk delivery.

However, the years have been creeping up on good old Lottie so a few days ago she was placed aboard a train and shipped to Woodcock where she will spend her declining days doing odd jobs on W. C. Little's farm.

Johnny Walker, Prince Rupert's only horseshoer, says he is going out of that kind of business and will have to apply himself to the more up-to-date forms of blacksmithing.

HOUSE HAS LIVELY DAY

Liberal Member for Lillooet, George Murray, Critical of Postponement of By-elections

Plantura Turns Tory

Sympathizes With Premier Who He Says is Helpless in Hands of Party Machine

VICTORIA, Feb. 29: (CP)—The Legislature had its most interesting day from a political standpoint so far this session yesterday when George M. Murray, Liberal member for Lillooet, issued a statement to the press criticizing the government for postponing the Omnica and Burrard by-elections while Clive Planta, who had been elected in the Peace River at the general election as an Independent Non-Partizan, speaking in the debate on the Throne Speech, declared himself to be now a Conservative.

Postponement of the by-elections in Omnica and Burrard to an indefinite time was termed a most arbitrary and autocratic act by Mr. Murray in his statement. "In denying these electoral districts representation in this House, the Premier will raise around him a hornet's nest of trouble," the member for Lillooet stated. "By refusing to grant the immediate exercise of the franchise, he plays the entire province into the hands of extreme radicals who will find in this action material with which to organize unrest. By this action he also further alienates those members of the Liberal party who have been calling for a provincial convention."

Mr. Planta's Position

Mr. Planta, in announcing that he was now a Conservative, explained that he had supported the Liberal government in previous sessions because thousands of Conservatives had helped to elect the Liberals rather than place affairs in the hands of the "Socialist group." The Peace River member stated that he sympathized with Mr. Pattullo who was, he said, entangled in the party "machine" to which homage must be paid and which was responsible for the inaction of the government in many matters.

High School To Stage Plays In Month of March

At the regular meeting of the King Edward High School Dramatic Club yesterday the main business concerned the costumes needed for "The Mouse Trav." This play calls for styles of some forty years ago for six women and one man. Miss Tracy Currie, teacher of home economics, is in charge of costumes and Nelson Allen will assist Roth Gordon in the matter of scenery and stage effects. The plays themselves are scheduled for Friday, March 13.

Pilot Crosson Leaves Prince George Friday On Way to Fairbanks

Mary Joyce, Young Roadhouse Keeper and Two Companions Are Missing in Northern Wilderness While Making Long Trip by Dog Team

PRINCE GEORGE, Feb. 29:—With a large new plane for commercial air service in Alaska, Joe Crosson, noted northern flier, left Prince George yesterday for Whitehorse enroute to Fairbanks. He took delivery of the plane at Burbank, California. If she is still missing when he arrives in the north, Pilot Crosson will undertake a search for Mary Joyce, 27-year old roadhouse keeper, who has not been reported since February 9 when she left Burwash Landing in the Yukon in continuation of a dog team trip from Taku to Fairbanks.

While the young woman is overdue, no great alarm is felt as to her safety. It is believed heavy snows of the past few days probably held her up. She is accompanied by two companions—Jimmy Allen, a white man, and an Indian guide.

INSURANCE OF HEALTH

Subject Is Now Before Caucus in Victoria Preparatory to Legislation Being Introduced

VICTORIA, Feb. 29:—The question of health insurance is now before the Liberal caucus here preparatory to the introducing of legislation in the House on the subject. Many divergent views are being considered. There is keen interest in the form of legislation that will be presented.

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce a few days ago presented its views to Victoria on health insurance, stating that it was opposed to the suggested form of legislation or to legislation at all at this time on the subject.

AN AID TO NEW SETTLERS

E. T. Kenney, member for Skeena in the British Columbia Legislature, speaking in the House this week, suggested that there should be lists of available farm lands in the hands of each government agent so that intending settlers could easily find out what lands were available and what the cost would be. The present system he thought was a clumsy one.

We agree with Mr. Kenney that everything possible should be done to assist land settlement in British Columbia and the first thing to do would be to get the vacant lands on partially settled districts taken up. Often there is clearing on these lands already done and in some cases buildings have been erected. If a visitor to the district could find out at once what the cost of one of these reverted farms would be there would be some prospect of securing new settlers.

WORK AND WAGES

It is announced that ten thousand men at present on relief will be taken on by the railways to undertake maintenance work which has been held up for lack of funds. The government in this case will pay part of the cost of work which will be beneficial to the whole country and will help out the railways in their struggle to give proper service and make the roads pay their way. It is to be hoped that the government will find other means of increasing employment in different parts of the country, especially in British Columbia, and that before the year is out all able-bodied men will be profitably employed.

PUBLIC OPINION STRONG FORCE

Professor Harry Warren says that Britain and United States acting together could prevent war. Evidently he means that they control so many of the war supplies that their withdrawal from any country would cripple them to such an extent that they could not proceed. As it is today United States and Canada are both supplying materials of war to the belligerents in Africa. Canada has most of the world's nickel and the demand for it has increased of late and yet Canada does not supply it direct to Italy or Abyssinia. Only an aroused public opinion in Britain, United States, Canada and other supplying countries can stop the dealing in war supplies and thus discourage fighting.

New Metlakatians Win Again Over Prince Rupert in Most Thrilling Game in Long Time

The New Metlakatians again won over Prince Rupert in basketball last night. A packed house of hoop fans saw one of the most exciting games ever played in this city. The visitors were ten down with seven minutes to play when they took off their shirts and went to work. When the smoke of battle cleared and the fans got through shouting the Alaskans were on the long end of a 46 to 43 count.

It was a fast game right from the starting whistle with both sides doing some pretty ball handling but the Annette Island crew was not missing any shots while the city squad had plenty of tough luck in its shooting. It was Marsden and Hayward who put the Americans ahead at half time with the score reading 24 to 21.

In the second half the British Columbians started to get down to business and, with seven minutes to go, had a 10-point lead. The yelling fans thought that Rupert had the game salted away but they didn't reckon on Ronald David and Tiny Marsden. The visitors slipped up the speed of the game a little and they had a one-point lead with a minute to go. Then they sank another one which gave them a 46 to 43 win.

This game will go down in the books as one of the fastest ever seen in these parts.

Intermediate Exhibition

The Scythians demonstrated to the crowd just why they were champs of the first half by defeating the Intermediate All Stars 38 to 24. The first half was fairly close with the Rest on the short end of an 11 to 16 count. In the second half the Scythians continued going strong to win 38 to 24.

Grotettes defeated a picked ladies' team 13 to 8 in a rough game. The score at half time was 4 to 6 in favor of Grotettes. In the second half they held their opponents down to 4 points while they speared 7.

SPORT CHAT

The "Miller" is back—and the groans of tens of thousands who saw him shy, lunge and then canter on riderless in last year's Grand National still find a ghostly echo. Will Golden Miller repeat? Memories of that $10,000,000 blunder are hard to forget, and with news that the once great and gallant "Miller" will run again in the Ajin-free steeplechase classic, March 27, bookies and fans alike are recalling the 1935 race with misgivings. That was the "fall heard around the world"—a bombshell that left 200,000 spectators gasping as Jockey Gerry Wilson rolled over and over like a Japanese tumbler on the smooth greensward beyond Valentine's Brook, while the "Miller" raced on. "His heart refused and he shot me out," Wilson said while still dazed from the fall.

The bookies reaped a golden harvest of something like two million pounds sterling, but even with all that currency jingling in their pockets they found it hard to believe that the great-hearted "Miller" had refused. Oddly enough, too, newsreel photos show that Golden Miller made a perfect "four-point" landing on the jump that sent Jockey Wilson spinning into space. In the light of calmer reflection, the most widely accepted explanation is not that the "miller's" heart refused, but that he was startled and thrown off stride by the flash and billowing bursts from "smoke bombs"—clearly seen in photos of the incident. The "bombs" were reportedly used in a clash between rival photo companies. One concern had bought the exclusive rights to pictures inside the racecourse, much to the annoyance of the other company. The "outsiders," however, hit on a scheme to get the pictures and a few minutes before the race they hastily brought up high platform-towers rearing above the grandstands—and started to shoot the scene from there. But the "insiders" were prepared for just such an emergency. When the field hove in sight they touched off smoke-bombs just as the ace-high favorite, Golden Miller, started to take the fence.

As the winner of the 1934 chase, the "Miller" will again be an odds-on favorite this year, bracketed with the 1935 winner, Reynoldsdown, which set a new record for the gruelling 4 1/2-mile race in nine minutes, 20 2-5 seconds. The new mark clipped one-fifth of a second from the 1934 record established by Golden Miller. Both horses are nine years old, both Irish bred. The "Miller," according to experts, is faster between fences than Reynoldsdown, but he will have to carry the maximum weight of 175 pounds, while Reynoldsdown will pack seven pounds less.

RADIO INTERFERENCE

Editor, Daily News:—
Regarding radio interference in this city, this has been gradually going from bad to worse since Christmas and during the past week it has been impossible to get anything until after midnight.

There are the amateur radio operators, practising the alphabet with a buzzer set, some infernal machine that keeps being turned on and off from 7 p.m. on and then there is the local station trying to improve its inadequate outfit after it has shut down until one feels like throwing his radio receiver outside.

The local station should never have been allowed in the first place to have the control room in the city and, whereas it is supposed to operate on 580 kilocycles, it is also on 1120 and on the short-wave band. In addition to the above we have the squealers with their home made sets, squealing all over the dial.

What we want in this town is a full time radio inspector who is not a service man and, until we make some concerted action, these troubles will never be cleared up.

Why not start a radio association again and get some action? Until we do we will continue to be bothered with all these nuisances caused by people who have no consideration for others as long as they are amusing themselves by tinkering with something that they never will be able to understand.

H. S. MEADOWS.
RADIOS OUT OF LUCK

Editor, Daily News:—
May I add my voice to that of your correspondent in Thursday's Daily News regarding the interference all radio owners are subjected to these days.

We have been told that this is a freak zone and that we cannot expect good reception here. These conditions we cannot help out, when man-made interference is also added, then action should be taken to control these pests. What the causes really are it is difficult for the uninformed to say but we do know that they would not be tolerated in any other city of this size.

We have a new form which has found expression the last few nights and which consists of a glare something like a fog horn and which is so strong that it cuts all programs out utterly and has appeared generally about 9:30 p.m. This, added to the grinding and roaring always with us in the earlier part of the evening practically precludes the possibility of any reception.

Radio owners in Prince Rupert are certainly out of luck and some action should be taken at once to have conditions improved.

PRINCE RUPERT RADIO FAN

TROUBLE IS LOCAL

Editor, Daily News:—
I am glad to see the lead being taken regarding local radio interference: Seal Cove. In fact that end of the city generally, is still getting very fair radio while, except for a little in spots, the rest of the city has had nothing. That Seal Cove gets good radio shows the trouble to be local and not atmospheric. Is there no one whose duty it is to clear up this trouble?

Maid of Orleans Has Been Salvaged—Co-operative Establishing Station at Rennell Sound—Inverness First Cannery on Skeena

Fears were expressed last night that the famous old auxiliary sailing vessel Maid of Orleans, which ran ashore in a snowstorm on Sarah Island just north of Milbank Sound during a blinding snowstorm early Wednesday morning, might be pounded to pieces in stormy weather. However, latest word received today from Capt. Paul Ar-sociation is building a large float and fish station.

Earlier in the week it was stated that William H. Dempster, pioneer coast salmon cannery operator, who died recently in Victoria at an advanced age, had built the first salmon cannery on the Skeena River at Aberdeen. It now appears that the plant of J. P. Todd & Sons at Inverness, built forty-six years ago, was really the first cannery on the Skeena. Bob Johnston, still manager of Inverness, became identified with the Inverness plant soon after it was built and is still going strong.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. J. E. Boden, arrived in port at 10:30 o'clock last night from the south and sailed at 5 o'clock this morning on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The vessel was waiting for the rising tide to call in the Skeena Slough where she has not been for the past four weeks on account of ice conditions.

C. N. R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Neil McLean, sailed last night for Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands but was unable to get very far out on account of stormy weather and returned to her dock here at 10:45 this morning to wait out the gale.

BUILDING IS LIGHT

Only one building permit was issued in the city in February, this providing for a $300 addition to the residence of Peter Thompson on Fifth Avenue West. Building permits so far this year represent a value of $2400 as compared with $2880 in the first two months of 1935.

Robert Blance Is Honored On His Retirement

Members of the various departments of the staff of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. gathered in the engine room this morning to make a farewell presentation to Robert Blance who retires today as marine superintendent for the company with which he has been identified almost continuously since 1913 when he brought the company's steam trawlers out from England. The presentation was made to Mr. Blance, who is retiring on account of ill health, of a handsome case of pipes and humidifier. In making the presentation, A. A. McEwen expressed suitable sentiments on behalf of the staff, extending the best wishes and regret of all. J. E. Boddie, chief engineer, will also take over the duties of marine superintendent following Mr. Blance's retirement.

WOMEN ARE IN PRAYER

Impressive Gathering Yesterday Afternoon at First United Church

(By Lieut. Hilda M. Bridge Salvation Army)
"It's a terrible day and wicked under foot," said a messenger as he delivered a parcel to the back door yesterday morning. And it was the morning of the Women's World Day of Prayer!

Over shoes and umbrellas were the order of the day—but I ventured forth and right glad I am that I made the effort to brave the elements.

Upon arrival at First United Church I found a goodly number of women already there. Miss Swanna Olafson was at the organ and it was so pleasant to sit down and relax under the soothing influence of soul-inspiring music. The service was soon under way. Mrs. C. D. Clarke, wife of the pastor of the Church, led us in the opening hymn, "Lord of Our Life" and called us to worship with the reading of the 100th Psalm. The congregation united in the responsive reading and a prayer of confession after which Mrs. R. C. Large soloed very feelingly. "This is my Prayer."

The Scripture Lesson, the 35th chapter of Isaiah, was read by Mrs. Helen Macfie of the United Church. Another hymn "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun" and then followed a period of intercessory prayer led by the following:

Mrs. George Kelsey of St. Peter's Church, praying for the League of Nations, Mrs. J. B. Gibson of St. Andrew's Cathedral, "The Empire, King, Queen and members of the Royal Family;" Mrs. Dafoe of First Baptist Church, "The Church;" Mrs. J. R. Morrison, First Presbyterian Church, "Youth Everywhere;" Adjutant Eva Laycock, Salvation Army, "A More Wide spread Interest in the Cause of Temperance;" Mrs. L. J. North of the Pentecostal Assembly, "Missions and Missionaries."

The Idea of the Day

Following another hymn "O God of Love, O King of Peace" Mrs. Clarke referred us to the presentation of projects as outlined on the program of which each woman had a printed copy and then gave us some very interesting information. "Where was the idea of this World Day of Prayer born?" I didn't know, and was very pleased to find that the idea had originated on the North American Continent.

Even before the year 1900 the Presbyterian women of Canada had for years set apart a day of prayer for all their missionary enterprises. In 1920 Women's Missionary Boards of the various churches united in a Dominion wide observance of the Day of Prayer. The same year the United States took a similar step and two years later the American and Canadian women united in a continent wide day of intercession, and the first Friday in Lent was chosen as the permanent date. But this was not the end; nor have we yet seen the end. Now in Great Britain, Europe, Asia and Africa there are hosts of women whose prayers mingle with ours as they follow the same outline of services that we follow year after year. As far back as 1927 the observance could truly be said to be world-wide. (And I had been thinking of this as a fairly recent venture.)

During the closing hymn "The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, is Ended" I thought of all those women throughout the world who had met together, who were in service together, or who would soon gather; some of them with dark dusky skins, some away in the Orient, some in the Old Land, some here in Canada—and I thought of my Mother—and I prayed that God would bless them all; these women of all the world who met together yesterday to pray that very soon we shall realize the promise of Him who said "on earth Peace, Goodwill towards men."
