Smith's Inlet and Burke Channel Gill-Netters Go Out

Gillnet fishermen of Smith's Inlet and Burke Channel in the southern part of Prince Rupert district went out on strike yesterday, joining the Rivers Inlet fishermen who have been out for the past two weeks, according to word received officially here today. A total of two thousand boats are now involved in the strike.

Crews of some seven or eight seineboats in the Butedale area have also gone out on strike, demanding a higher price for plinks. Plenty of sockeye are reported running in Rivers and Smith's Inlet and Burke Channel.

Good runs of fish continue in both Skeena and Naas Rivers. The boat average in the Skeena yesterday was sixty and in the Naas forty. Outside boats were averaging twelve fish.

SALUTE OF WHISTLES

Will be 100 Years Next Tuesday Since First C. N. R. Engine Moved

MONTREAL, July 14.—A salute of thousands of engine whistles, which will be heard from one end of the Dominion to the other, will mark the centenary of the start of the first Canadian passenger train and the commencement of the second century of service by the Canadian National Railways. Instructions have been issued from headquarters here that the whistles of all engines under steam throughout the National system are to be sounded for one minute at noon on Tuesday, July 21. All Canadian National shops and roundhouse whistles will join in the salute.

It was at noon on July 21, 1836, that the Dorchester, the first engine in Canada, started from La Prairie for St. Johns, Que., hauling the first passenger train over the Champlain and St. Lawrence Railway, the first link in the chain of railways that are now component parts of the Canadian National system. Just one hundred years later the engines of the system will echo the starting whistle of the old Dorchester.

The salute will be given by all engines, whether running on the lines or in the yards, and will be heard by millions of Canadians.

YACHTS IN NORTH NOW

Virginia, 180-Footer From Los Angeles, Due Here Within Next Week

SAMONA II IN

Los Angeles Boat Made Call Here Yesterday—Others in Over Week-End

The annual movement of fine southern yachts to local waters is now getting under way. Some splendid vessels have already called but more and larger are still expected in the near future. One of these will be the 180-footer Virginia in which Mr. Cord of Los Angeles, manufacturer of Auburn and Cord automobiles, and party are due within the coming week enroute to Alaska on a fishing cruise. The Virginia, formerly owned by the Richfield Oil Co., is about the last word, it is said, in yacht construction from the standpoints of outward appearance, design, construction and interior appointments. She was built in Germany four or five years ago and has quizzier bow and stern. She is equipped with two 300 h.p. diesel engines and carries a crew of 22. Not long ago she made a cruise to South America, Africa, the Mediterranean and the British Isles.

The finest yacht to visit Prince Rupert so far this season was the Samona II, another Los Angeles boat, having on board Willits J. Hole, wealthy land owner and rancher of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Hole and grandchildren, which was here yesterday bound north. The Samona II, which was here once before two or three years ago, made only a brief call going north but will be here again in about three weeks southbound. Mr. Hole and party joined the Samona II at Seattle. Their principal objective on the cruise is fishing and they plan going as far north as Skagway. The Samona is 150 feet long and is equipped with two 500 h.p. Winton diesel engines which make her a very speedy vessel. She has a crew of 12 under Capt. Allen. The Samona II was built in 1931, made her maiden trip around Cape Horn to the east coast of South America and last winter cruised to Ecuador.

Smaller Visitors

Another yacht in yesterday was the John Barry, a 44-foot vessel from Seattle, which arrived Sunday evening, moored at the floats of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club and left yesterday for Skagway, visiting various points of interest enroute and calling here southbound. On board was the owner and skipper, Philip R. Sears of Seattle, and party of seven guests. The John Barry is equipped with a 75 h.p. Scripps gasoline engine. Three years ago Mr. Sears was here with the Rosita.

Still another yacht to visit port at the week-end was the Portola of Seattle, commanded by Capt. C. E. Baden and with the owner, C. A. Whiffin, and party on board. It arrived on Friday and left Saturday for the north. The Portola, which will also call here southbound, is 86 feet long, equipped with a 100 h.p. Atlas diesel engine and is handsomely appointed. It moored while here at the floats of the Armour Salvage Co.

Dr. Cadman attracted country-wide notice by the questions and answers that were part of his Sunday radio service. It was through these that he displayed his amazing memory and broad knowledge of general subjects, seldom, if ever, hesitating in answering the questions propounded. Interest in that part of the service was manifested in the demand in printed form for the questions and answers. This re-

DEATH OF CHURCHMAN

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman Became Well Known as Radio Preacher—Native of England

NEW YORK, July 13.—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, noted churchman, who was one of the first to realize the value of the radio in church work and whose religious voice was probably the most widely known in America, passed away on Sunday and his funeral takes place today.

He instituted at the Young Men's Christian Association in Brooklyn a Sunday afternoon service that was regularly broadcast. Through his agency he was said to have spoken to more people than ever before in history had been addressed by a preacher.

An eloquent speaker, liberal minded and tolerant and having a wide acquaintance with facts over the whole field of knowledge, Dr. Cadman made his radio service attractive to persons of various religious beliefs.

His fame as a pulpit orator and the quality of his sermons had spread far beyond the confines of the Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, the pastorate of which he assumed in 1901 to continue for the remainder of his active ministry. As pastor of that church he gained rank as one of the outstanding Protestant ministers of the country.

National recognition of his leadership came to him in 1924, when he was elected president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the highest office among the Protestant churches of the country. He was re-elected for several years and during his incumbency won many additional honors for the quality and quantity of his religious leadership.

Dr. Cadman was one of the most prominent and active workers at the World Conference on Faith and Order held at Lausanne, Switzerland in August, 1927. In connection with the discussion on church unity he delivered what was regarded as the most important addresses on the subject. He asked that greater recognition be given by Protestants, Catholics and Jews of the contribution which each sect has made to the religious progress of civilization.

"Reformed communions may learn that the Roman Catholic communion has stodd for nobler ideals than Protestantism is wont to concede," he said. "Roman Catholicism, on the other hand, might profit by recognizing that Protestantism has chartered a new freedom for Christian faith and progress."

"The Hebrew Scriptures enlarged the church consciousness of those early Christians who were nurtured by the noblest teachings of the Old Testament."

Dr. Cadman attracted country-wide notice by the questions and answers that were part of his Sunday radio service. It was through these that he displayed his amazing memory and broad knowledge of general subjects, seldom, if ever, hesitating in answering the questions propounded. Interest in that part of the service was manifested in the demand in printed form for the questions and answers. This re-

Cooling Breezes Help Some Sections of Central Canada and Prairies—Death List, However, is Still Mounting Slowly.

PORT ARTHUR, July 14: (CP)—Rain to quench widespread forest fires was the crying need today of Northern Ontario's mineral and forest belt. Hot dry weather bringing about fifty fires to the northern area, continued today as fire fighters kept active. In the meantime cooling breezes were sweeping down from the north to bring relief to sections of Central Canada and the prairies but in many districts temperatures were still high and the death list is slowly mounting. Five hundred are dead from the heat, either directly or indirectly, in Ontario.

PATTULLO DUE TODAY

Premier Delayed Between Atlin and Stewart in Course of His Northern Flight

Premier T. D. Pattullo of British Columbia after paying his first visit to Dawson since he left the Yukon in 1909 to locate in Prince Rupert, having arrived there on Sunday from Whitehorse and Atlin, was at Ketchikan overnight on his way to Stewart following his departure during the day from Atlin after a call at Whitehorse. He spent a few hours at Atlin. After a short stop in Stewart he is expected in Prince Rupert tonight.

Yesterday Premier Pattullo sent a message from Atlin stating that he was leaving there for Stewart where he expected to be last evening. He had not arrived at Stewart at nightfall and as flying conditions were not considered favorable in that vicinity for a strange flier, with heavy clouds although the ceiling was high in spots, there was some speculation until word was received this morning that the party was safe at Ketchikan. Conditions were more favorable this morning.

It was thought that the Waco seaplane, piloted by Capt. E. C. W. Dobbin, which the Premier is using on the northern flight, might have "set down" on one of the many lakes between Atlin and Telegraph Creek on account of unfavorable weather. The third member of the party is Ben Hethy, the Premier's secretary.

The Premier, while here, expects to make a trip to Terrace and the Queen Charlotte Islands.

AFFECTS LOCARNO

London Thinks Conference May Be Postponed—Paris Fears Breakdown

LONDON, July 14: (CP)—The newly announced Austro-German accord has brought from some quarters the prediction that the foreign affairs committee of the cabinet may advise postponement of the conference of Locarno Treaty signatories which is scheduled to be held in Brussels in the near future.

In French official quarters in Paris eventual breakdown of Locarno security efforts is hinted. A virtual alliance between Great Britain and France and Belgium is seen as a possibility.

PLAN FOR HOSPITAL

Project Further Considered And Memorandum to be Presented To Premier

After receiving and considering at some length a plan for a new 50-bed unit of fireproof concrete construction, the cost of which has been found to be considerably higher than was at first anticipated, the hospital board, at a special meeting last night, decided to have a brief in regard to the new hospital project prepared by W. M. Brown, Dr. J. H. Carson and J. T. Harvey, local barrister, for presentation to Premier T. D. Pattullo this week.

The brief will set out the requirements, what may be expected locally in the way of financing and suggesting measures of civic and provincial assistance.

The idea is to have an appropriation passed at the next session of the legislature. A meeting of the entire hospital board with Mr. Pattullo may be arranged.

The proposed new building would be of two storeys with full basement and surgical cupola. The basement would include boiler room, staff dining rooms and sleeping quarters. The main floor would have superintendent's and secretary's offices, main kitchen and private wards. On the second floor would be the maternity department and nursery as well as more wards. The cupola would contain two operating rooms and various adjuncts.

The whole project is, of course, contingent on financial arrangements being made.

Those present at the meeting were: W. M. Brown, president; G. V. Wilkinson, S. D. Macdonald, Frank Dobb and Dr. J. H. Carson, directors; H. W. Birch, managing secretary; Miss Jean Harrison, lady superintendent, and Henry Whitaker, provincial architect.

WE DO NOT REALIZE

Judging from the remarks of tourists who visit the city, the people of Prince Rupert do not properly realize their blessings. We are told by these visitors that we do not realize our good fortune in living in so picturesque a place. They say they look on Prince Rupert as one of the prettiest little cities they have seen. It is picturesque above words. It is neat, clean, cheerful, happy and hospitable. Judging from them, the people here have all the virtues that can be imagined without any of the vices. Nowhere these tourists have been have they seen anything approaching Prince Rupert as a place to live and enjoy oneself. These are among the views given by some of those who come here and talk, as one stranger to another.

Frankly we did not know the city was so fine or the people so excellent. We naturally knew we were a pretty decent sort of people just as when the dealers tell of coal as being "run of the mine" but, like their coal, with rather too much dust in it. We were not sure that our streets were good, that we were properly sewered, that we were always happy and contented, that we had no weeds by the roadsides, that the back yards were always perfectly cleaned in spite of the Junior Chamber campaign.

We are glad to know from all these unbiased witnesses that everything here is perfect, only we happen to know that they go to many other places and tell them pretty much the same story only in some cases they are even more gushing than they are here.

WHICH IS MORE IMPORTANT

In Britain the Chancellor of the Exchequer has been bravely facing a tremendous debt and straining every effort to balance the budget. There he looks across at one of his neighbors who is piling up a heap of stones ready to throw. He decides Britain must have a heap of stones of her own to throw back if the neighbor happens to get up some morning with a grouch. Debt or no debt, budget or no budget, the most important thing is to keep the highest heap of stones on the whole row.

In Canada all the authorities, including Sir Edward Beatty and all the Prime Ministers of all the provinces, are agreed that the greatest problem in Canada today is not balancing budgets but giving work to the unemployed. Only one of these has suggested that extreme measures should be taken to meet this emergency, just as extreme measures are being taken in Britain to meet their's. The man who made the suggestion and urged it at Ottawa was T. D. Pattullo, premier of British Columbia, but while they realize it is important they cannot see it as a problem that needs tackling with courage just as they tackled the armament problem in Britain.

CHICAGO IN LEAD

Needed But One Run to Defeat New York Giants Yesterday—Detroit Going Strong

CHICAGO, July 14: (CP)—Hank O'Day scored Babe Herman for the only run in yesterday's game at Wrigley Field and the Chicago Cubs won over the New York Giants to give the mathematical leadership of the National League to the Cubs over the idle Cardinals. The Giants slumped into the second division below the Cincinnati Reds who were defeating the Phillies at Cincinnati.

In the American League the lead of the New York Yankees was reduced to eight and a half games as the Yanks, playing at home, were defeated by the Chicago White Sox while the Detroit Tigers, at Shibe Park, were winning over the Athletics. The Washington Senators, playing at home, took exclusive possession of third place over the Boston Red Sox by winning easily over the lowly St. Louis Browns. The Red Sox lost to the Cleveland Indians with whom they are now tied for fourth place.

Prophecy Relating To Modern Times

Interesting Discussion at Meeting Of British Israel Society

Eleven members of the British Israel Society met in the Toc II. Rooms last evening for scripture study and spent a very interesting and instructive evening. President P. H. Linsey was in the chair. In many cases it was stated, prophecy has become history. Men and women all over the world are reading the Bible hoping to find light in this dark period and seeking to understand these scriptures which refer to this time, and this time exclusively. Many scriptures bearing upon today had not come to maturity even in the Victorian period.

Articles on Palestine and the Near East crisis were read by the president and the respective claims of the Arabs and Jews discussed.

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC?

Anatomy, as taught in orthodox schools has proven the existence of a network of nerves between the brain and all tissue cells in the body. Chiropractic has discovered that an interference with the normal transmission of nerve energy to any part of the body can result in ill-health in that part of the body supplied by the affected nerve. A partial displacement of one or more spinal segments can produce pressure and irritation on nerves. A displacement of the spine may be caused by falls, strains, accidents, etc.; weeks or months may pass before symptoms are noticed. A chiropractor is specially trained to find subluxations and knows how to scientifically make a correction. The modern method of treatment is not associated with a great deal of discomfort. Why not call at my office and talk over your health problem with me? An examination will not obligate you in any way.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

After a five-day visit to port, H. M. C. S. Vancouver sails at 1 o'clock this afternoon. She will meet H. M. C. S. Skeena, which has been around the west coast of Queen Charlotte Islands, and the two Canadian destroyers will proceed to Seattle where a big celebration is being held this week. Later the Vancouver and Skeena will meet H. M. S. Apollo of the West Indies station which is due soon in British Columbia waters in the course of a coast cruise but which will not be coming to Prince Rupert. The Vancouver is due back here August 5 for another five-day visit. The Skeena is coming here July 31 to remain until August 6.

Nine boats, four from the westwards, sold halibut catches totaling 207,000 pounds at Seattle yesterday as follows: Radio, 40,000, Sebastian-Stuart, 8 3/4c and 8c; Kodiak, 32,000, Whiz, 9c and 8c; Atlantic, 29,000, New England, 8 3/4c and 8c; Lituya, 27,000, McCallum, 9c and 8c; Oceanic, 18,000, Booth, 9 1/2c and 8c; Presho, 15,000, New England, 9 1/4c and 8c; Lively, 15,000, Washington, 10c and 8c; F. C. Hergert, 16,000, San Juan, 9 1/4c and 8c; Ethel S., 15,000, Booth, 9 3/4c and 8c.

The Mermaid has brought back to Seattle a halibut market two years ago by the Lively and thrown back into the water off the Queen Charlotte Islands. The fish had grown six pounds in the two years, records of the International Fisheries Commission showed. It was caught in almost the same spot as it was thrown overboard. The Onah recently landed in Ketchikan a 17-pound halibut which had been marked and released at Larch Bay north of Cape Omaney.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, is due back at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Stewart, Anxox and other northern points and will sail soon thereafter for Vancouver and waypoints.

James Boyd, supervisor of fisheries for District No. 2, returned to the city yesterday afternoon from a trip to Rivers Inlet and other areas down the coast on inspection duties.

NORWEGIAN LADY DIES

Mrs. Turid Rysstad Passes Away This Morning After Illness Of a Month

The death occurred at 10:30 this morning at her home on Seventh Avenue East near Seal Cove of Mrs. Turid Rysstad, wife of Buorgulf Rysstad, local salmon troller, after an illness of about a month. Mrs. Rysstad had spent about three weeks recently in the Prince Rupert General Hospital and it was only about a week ago that she returned to her home.

Fifty-one years of age and born in Norway, Mrs. Rysstad had resided in Prince Rupert about eight or nine years. Besides her husband, she is survived by four children—one daughter, Tarjar, aged 18, and three sons, Torgier, 16; Olav, 13, and Knut, 10.

Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers and there will be rites of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of which deceased was a member.

The husband was on the troling grounds when Mrs. Rysstad's condition became critical yesterday and he was called home, arriving this morning.
