DECIDE TO APPEAL TO RAILWAYS

Peace River Committee of the Chamber of Commerce Will Urge Need of Line

The Peace River committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce decided at a meeting yesterday afternoon to direct its attention to trying to induce the Canadian National Railway to build the western outlet from the Peace River by the best possible route to the coast. Owing to the adoption of this policy W. H. Tohey, in view of his official position, felt it was best that he should retire from the committee and his resignation was accepted with regret.

The committee had a consultation with Olof Hanson, member for the riding, who spoke of the good publicity work done by the committee and urged that it be continued. At the same time he did not think the government would undertake the work of building the railway as a federal undertaking but only through one of the big railway companies.

WAR DEBTS ARE UNPAID

Another Installment Date Passes Without Obligations Owning U. S. Being Paid

WASHINGTON, June 16.—State Department officials today added an imposing series of red ink figures to the promissory notes received from twelve European governments fifteen years ago and then replaced the note in the "war debts" files for another six months. So passed into default history, another semi-annual installment date, in which the European debtors should have paid into the United States treasury a total of $205,338,754.04.

Americans Had Exciting Time in Moscow Stay

MOSCOW, June 16.—Mr. and Mrs. James R. Cromwell left for Leningrad early today after the unexpected excitement of their stay here during which Cromwell was arrested for taking pictures in the street. Mrs. Cromwell is the former Doris Duke, American tobacco heiress. Before the Cromwells left, police returned Cromwell's films intact. He had explained that he was merely taking street scenes. Upon his arrest he persuaded a policeman to take him to his hotel. There he offered his films for development and official inspection and, after an hour and a half, his theoretical state of arrest was ended.

RAIN IN MAY HEAVIER

REGINA, June 16: (CP)—Precipitation in the Regina district during May was 1.24 inches, nearly seven times as much as fell during April, but three-quarters of an inch less than the rainfall for May 1936, meteorological officials reported.

PLAIN ALARMED AT ARMAMENTS

LONDON, June 16:—Before closing of the Imperial Conference, at which delegates of Great Britain and the Dominions met to consider matters of Empire interest and policy, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain spoke of the vast expenditures on armaments and the burdens which are being loaded on this and succeeding generations. "This cannot be contemplated without grief and consternation," he said.

MONARCHS ARE SOBER

Crowned Heads and Dictators Are Mostly Temperate in Their Drinking

LONDON, June 16: (CP)—Ruling Europe is a sober business. To keep pace with the job, the heads of most of the states keep away from alcohol or imbibe very little. King George is an illustration. He is not a teetotaler but he is rated as the most abstemious of all modern British Kings.

Adolf Hitler, Germany's dictator, drinks no liquor at all. He made his famous putch from a beer hall, but when he has that tired feeling he calls for tea or a glass of milk.

Joseph Stalin, Russia's iron man, is almost as stern. He unbends sometimes for a sip of wine from his native state and on occasions at state affairs drinks vodka or cognac, but strong drink is reported forbidden in his modest home in the Kremlin.

Premier Mussolini of Italy—on a careful diet since he suffered from stomach ulcers some years ago—drinks Tuscan wines but only at meals. He never uses hard liquor, and he tells his soldiers: "He who drinks not at all is a sheep; he who drinks too much is an ass."

Holland's Queen Wilhelmina changes from tea to coffee and from coffee to tea. Wine is served only when there are guests. She may sip port at social functions, but she never touches her country's famous gin.

Tennis at 79 King Gustav of Sweden would not be playing tennis at 79 were he not sparing in both food and drink. But he likes a glass of special Bordeaux at dinner, and perhaps a small cognac with his coffee.

Wine, usually Greek varieties, is served regularly at the palace of King George of Greece. But the King is said to be indifferent to alcoholic beverage. He likes tea. An exception to the rule is the dictator of Turkey, Kemal Ataturk. He doesn't drink while working, but when he lays the cares of state aside he likes to get together with his cronies over "raki," Turkey's national liquor. It's made of pure raisins and is vatted especially for him. Kemal also drinks scotch and champagne along with his guests at banquets.

A dinner is not complete to Leopold of the Belgians without wine. His cellar is rated unusually fine. He learned to enjoy stronger liquor on his frequent visits to Sweden, and he always downs the rather strong "guese," or Brussels beer, when he is a guest of Belgian sport societies.

King Christian of Denmark loves his beer. When participating in army manoeuvres he sits by the roadside drinking it from a bottle in company with his officers and men. Claret usually is served at dinner, with whisky and soda later on some occasions.

PLAN IS NOT NEW

Yukon Annexation Rejected in Nineties Because Members Were Sceptical

VANCOUVER, June 16: (CP)—Premier T. D. Pattullo's announced plan for British Columbia to annex the Yukon is an old scheme, previously advocated 40 years ago, historians here report.

Back in 1895, '96 and '97, before news of the Klondike gold strike percolated through to astound the outside world, the B.C.-Yukon issue had become a live political topic.

In 1897, a member of the legislature introduced a motion to annex the Yukon to British Columbia and the preamble of the resolution spoke of the "natural north and south land and water lines of communication over which there is already a considerable commerce."

The motion was lost when members refused to believe the mineral wealth of the region was worth bothering about. At the time the vote was taken, prospectors were obtaining the first gold along the famed Bonanza Creek, near Dawson city.

Newspapers of the day were filled with projects for the opening of the northern district and contended the Chilkoot Pass route was not as practical as the one through the northern part of British Columbia by the Stikine River, Dease Lake and Teslin River to Dawson.

Previous to the gold rush, the B. C. Legislature dealt with numerous plans to build railways into this north country from the north coast but none passed the house. Though it received less publicity than the Chilkoot Pass, well advertised by Seattle shipping firms and poetic romances of Robert Service, some authorities believed more people entered the Yukon by the north British Columbia and Alberta route than from Skagway. Edmonton trebled its population during the winters of '97 and '98 while prospectors waited for the ice to go out of the Mackenzie River.

Spanish Insurgents Jubilant at Victory Over Basque Capital

Loyalists Blame Germany and Italy For Openly Aiding Rebels—Stubborn Defence Continues in Mountains

NATIONALIST FIELD HEADQUARTERS OUTSIDE BILBAO, June 16:—Jubilant insurgent troops massed in thousands along the roads leading into the suburbs of Bilbao today ready to consolidate their greatest victory since the insurgents reached the gates of Madrid more than seven months ago. Actual occupation of the Basque capital apparently awaited only the decision of the nationalist high command, a matter of hours by direct assault, or a matter of days by pressure that would force the demobilized Basque loyalists westward on Santander, 40 miles away, along the Bay of Biscay coast. It seemed evident that General Francisco Franco, the nationalist commander in chief, would prefer evacuation in order to preserve the historic city from ruin that has overtaken so many of Spain's beautiful cities in this civil war.

The nationalists looked forward to a leisurely pursuit of the loyalists toward the west, and the release of tens of thousands of men for a new and terrible assault on Madrid, the national capital.

Big Casualty List VALENCIA, Spain, June 16:—Loyalist authorities, charging that Italy and Germany openly aided the nationalists in the Bilbao offensive, issued coincidentally today a casualty list naming 2445 civilians dead from air raids on Basque towns during April and 1691 wounded. These were in addition to 520 persons killed and 950 wounded at Durango, March 31. It was charged that, despite the non-intervention agreement, the nationalists received airplanes daily from Germany and Italy, in addition to artillery and automatic weapons.

Martial Law Declared HENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, June 16:—The Basque government has declared martial law in Bilbao, Basque delegates on the frontier announced today. Prisoners said thousands of Basques continued to fight in the mountains and in the "El Gallo" fortifications east of Bilbao, where they were cut off, and had not received the retreat order. The Basques are reported to be struggling to prevent anarchists from burning Bilbao and to keep it from falling into insurgent hands. General Francisco Franco's forces are threatening the capital with a double blow north and south. Insurgent observers report that serious disorders have broken out in the Achuri section of Bilbao and columns of smoke are said to be rising over Baracaldo, two miles north of the ancient city.

Meanwhile the official Spanish insurgent radio station at Salamanca says that Franco expects to complete the capture of Bilbao within the next twenty-four hours.

Back in Patrol LONDON, June 16: (CP)—Germany and Italy resumed participation in the non-intervention committee and Spanish coastal patrol today, a communique issued by German and Italian ambassadors said. Capt. Evan Wallace, acting chairman of the non-intervention committee, has been informed that the two powers will again send delegates to the committee and order warships to renew the patrol work in Spanish waters. The two countries had withdrawn May 31 after Italian and German warships had been bombed by Spanish government planes. German warships bombarded Almeria in reprisal.

New Members Are Honored Banquet of Ladies of Moose Last Night Proved Enjoyable Affair

In honor of several new members who have been admitted recently, there was an enjoyable banquet of the Ladies of the Moose in the Boston Cafe last night, about thirty being present. During the dinner community singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Hugh Smith presiding at the piano and later court whist was played, the prize winners being: first, Mrs. Peter Wingham; second, Mrs. T. O. Morgan; consolation, Mrs. Joe Ratchford.

A pleasant feature of the evening's proceedings was the presentation to Mrs. Hugh Smith of a handsome reading lamp as a token of appreciation for her long and effective service as recorder. The presentation was made by the senior regent, Mrs. William Bussey, who presided. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Sam Hough, Mrs. Richard Long, Mrs. W. B. McCallum, Mrs. William Bussey and Mrs. Hugh Smith.

STATE MEDICINE FORECAST

REGINA, June 16: (CP)—Premier W. J. Patterson of Saskatchewan forecast state medicine would be introduced into the province "step by step," speaking before the Saskatchewan Social Service Council's annual meeting. "We have gone farther along the road to practical state medicine than many places that only talk about what they are doing," he said. "But state medicine will come in this province like dozens of other things—step by step."

Thomas said that forces were determined to go back to their jobs despite the threat of Committee for Industrial Organization leaders to prevent their return by use of picket "flying squads."

Intervention Sought JOHNSTOWN, June 16: (CP)—Mayor Daniel Shields appealed to President Franklin D. Roosevelt today to intervene in the Johnstown steel strike to "remove a murderous element that now infests the city."

EMPLOYMENT OF GIRLS

Several cases have been reported to us during the past few days where local girls have been unable to secure employment while it is claimed that married women who do not need the money are holding the positions. It is a difficult condition. The girls have undergone the expense and work of training for positions which do not exist. On the other hand there are married women who have technical training which it takes in some cases years to acquire and the employers say they cannot afford to train the young people. We draw this to the earnest consideration of the people of the city. Those who can give these girls employment are asked to do so but it is very difficult for an outsider to decide who should work and why. There are often good reasons for the employment of certain people of which the public know nothing and cannot know. Evidently too many girls have taken up stenography as a possible means of livelihood. In most offices there is much more than stenography to be learned. Some girls would never make salesladies. They do not know how to meet the public and cannot learn. To others it comes natural.

DIFFERENT TRENDS

People have different trends of thought. Some are always delving into the past and do not consider a person educated unless well posted in history. Others are always thinking of the future and would try all kinds of nostrums on the people with a view to improving the race. There are also the religious people who are anxious to save their own and other people's souls. There are the intensely selfish people who live for making money or for satisfying their own desires. As opposed to all these are the intensely unselfish people who allow others to impose upon their good nature. There are many people who think more of a dog or cat than they do of a human and there are the types who are cruel to both animals and men. All these types we try to fit into the same mesh in a community. It is the work of the world to fit them together and try to weld them into a something which we call modern civilization.

No matter what the system under which the country is governed we cannot make much progress until we eliminate the selfishness and cruelty from the race or suppress it sufficiently to prevent it being objectionable. Also we have to eliminate intolerance.

Probably intolerance is the worst foe to democracy. It arises from prejudice and is largely a mental condition. It is found everywhere in all classes of society, high and low, rich and poor, young and old. Happily for us, people are daily taking lessons in tolerance and, as a result, the world is improving.

SPORT CHAT

Creighton Lowther, Carl and Frank Ripley, the Maritime provinces' most powerful forward line in junior hockey who played major roles with Amherst St. Pats during the past two seasons, are being sought by amateur moguls in Baltimore for the coming year. Gordon Drillon, Moncton, N.B., rookie who made an outstanding showing with the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League last season, contacted the three Nova Scotians for the United States team. Members of the team which fought its way to the semifinal round of the Canadian play-downs last spring, the three youths said they would give the matter further consideration before making a decision.

Jamaica marksmen will return to Bisley this year after being out of competition in the rifle rivalry for nearly 30 years. Two kings have been crowned since riflemen from this British island looked through their sights at Bisley in 1908, and assurance was given by a committee organizing the expedition to England that a capable team would represent the colony in the hoot this coronation year. The team will sail for the Old Country next month to participate in the hoot, which will occupy ten days from July 7 to July 17. Success attained by Trinidad at Bisley in recent years has served to emphasize the absence of Jamaica, it was said, and the Coronation Bisley Team Committee will make every effort to have a team that would rival the other West Indian colony in rifle efficiency.

Silent Barriers—Canadian Epic

Depicting one of the most important chapters in Canada's romantic early history, "Silent Barriers," film epic of the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway through the Rocky Mountains, had its world premiere under the patronage of Her Majesty the Queen Mother and Mrs. Stanley Baldwin in London, England, recently, and its Canadian premiere in Montreal. The picture is based on Alan Sullivan's book, "The Great Divide," and recalls the tremendous struggle waged against nature by the giants of pioneer railroading in Canada. The picture was made in the Canadian Rockies last summer. This Gaumont British production includes such stars as Richard Arlen, Barry MacKay, Antoinette Cellier, Lilli Palmer and J. Farrell Macdonald, who relive the lives of pioneers who didn't know the meaning of the word "quit." The layout shows a scene from the picture, the arrival of a train at Moodyville. Inset Lilli Palmer, one of the beautiful stars of the picture.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. James Watt, is now operating on summer schedule between here and Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and is expected in port Thursday morning. She is scheduled to sail at 10 o'clock Saturday night on her return south over the same route.

The provincial police boat P. M. L. 8 made a trip yesterday to Port Essington having on board Sergeant J. H. McClinton and Constable R. G. Johnstone. The latter recently arrived from Vancouver to be stationed at Essington for the summer.

Making her first voyage of the season on the Alaska route, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port at 9:45 this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls with a large list of tourist passengers and sails at 1 p.m. for Skagway and other northern points whence she is due back here next Monday southbound. The capacity list of passengers on the Prince Rupert included a San Francisco group of over fifty persons making the round trip under leadership of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Langheldt.

LEGION IS VICTORIOUS

Defeated Navy by Score of Two To One in Football Last Evening

The largest soccer crowd of the season was on hand at the Acropolis Hill grounds despite showers last night to see Canadian Legion defeat Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve two goals to one in the Gilhuly Cup series. As a result of the victory the veterans went ahead in the standing for the season's second trophy.

It was a keenly fought match and either team might have won, play being quite evenly divided.

Within half a minute of the start, Henry Dickens opened the scoring for the Legion. About half a minute before the half time whistle, Jim Bryant equalized for the Navy.

Sonny Dickens scored the winning goal for the Legion in the second half.

At the opening of the game after the teams had taken their positions on the field, Referee George Dawes called for a one-minute silence in honor of the memory of the late S. D. Macdonald who for many years was identified in a prominent way with the football sport in Prince Rupert.

The Gilhuly Cup standing to date is as follows:

	W.	D.	L.	F.	A.	P.
Legion	2	0	0	5	3	4
Vandinks	1	0	1	4	3	2
Navy	0	0	2	1	4	0

PLANS NEW ROYAL ROAD TO ROMANCE

CALGARY, June 16: (CP)—Richard Halliburton, the young man who among other things swam the Hellespont and breast stroked down the Panama Canal as the "S.S. Richard Halliburton," hopes to be the first to sail the Pacific Ocean in a Chinese junk from Shanghai to San Francisco, he told an interviewer here. He plans to start this new adventure in June 1938.
