MR. ENGINEER, THIS IS TOO BAD.

A year ago, there was a big gang of men at work with tools and derrick and dynamite, blasting away the hill at the junction of Second Avenue and Eighth Street. Thousands and thousands of tons of rock were removed at great expense and dumped down to level up the fill on Second Avenue. The residents breathed a sigh of relief when the job was finished.

Today, if you will walk along to the corner of Second Avenue and Eighth Street you will see a gang of men and a derrick at work again. This time they are lifting up the heavy rocks that a year ago the contractors were paid large sums of money to dump there. The explanation is that "a culvert has caved in."

It is reported that it will take the gang four weeks to remove the rocks to reach the broken culvert. After that a contract will have to be let to some one to build a proper culvert, and after that a gang of men and a derrick will be employed again to replace the rocks they are now removing.

The News has no wish to hurt the feelings of the City Engineer, but it would be lacking in its duty to the citizens if it failed to ask him if that is the sort of work he is paid by the city to perform. The culvert was of the simplest kind of construction. It was of the box-type, and would be labelled exhibit "A" in a "Child's Book of Engineering. Remembering the great need there is of money for the development of the city, it is as much in sorrow as in anger that the citizens look upon this piece of inexcusable bungling.

Perhaps the City Council will take steps to inform the public how many white-visaged second officer standing helped you at the right moment. He Enid, who had just learnt from Jack's of this type of culvert have given way so far, and how many more there in the doorway far above him. are buried beneath the streets of the city.

It is too bad to see public money wasted in this way, without a word of protest from the Council.

CHINA'S POOR LITTLE INFANT RULER.

(Nebraska State Journal.)

A motherly world will not read the manifesto of the 5-year-old Emperor of China without a hearty desire to take him on his lap, wipe his eyes and give him a cookie. "I have reigned three years, and have always acted conscientiously in the interests of the people," says Huan Tung. Yet what can we expect of a 2-year-old child, however conscientious? Of course, he was deceived, as he says, on railway matters. Few men are sophisticated in railway matters at the age of 5. Of course, officials sent out to reform things turned embezzlers. It is generous of the lad to say that "all these things are my own fault," but we shall refuse to believe him. Rather it should be the unanimous sentiment of the world that he be consigned to the S. P. C. C. till this trouble blows over. When China elects its first president, the world ought to insist that nobody be chosen who is not at least seven years old.

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor.
