British Ambassador Is Improved

Hopes Held For Recovery Of Diplomat From Grave Wounds; Britain May Break Relations

London Demanding Satisfaction From Japanese Government—Meantime Horrible War Continues Unabated Along Wide Front With Indecisive Results

SHANGHAI, August 27:—(Canadian Press)—Distinct improvement in the condition of Sir Hughe Knatchbull-Hugessen, British ambassador to China, who was shot by machine gun bullets from an airplane fifty miles from Shanghai while travelling from Nanking to Shanghai yesterday at the express order of King George VI to endeavor to end Sino-Japanese hostilities at Shanghai, was reported in a medical bulletin tonight. The right kidney is punctured but bleeding is decreasing. His back is broken but the spinal cord is uninjured. The ambassador rallied following a blood transfusion early today. His medical attendants expected to know fairly definitely today whether or not he will recover.

From London an Associated Press dispatch reported the British government to be considering breaking off diplomatic relations with Japan unless full satisfaction is obtained for the wounding of the ambassador. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden takes a serious view of the matter. Japanese naval officers expressed regret at the incident and Japanese government officials visited the hospital. No official apology was, however, made although the Japanese government explained that the incident was not intentional and it was a case of mistaken identity. The suggestion was offered that the ambassador's car should have had a larger Union Jack right across the top and then there could have been no chance for a mistake. Personal reports are being sent from the hospital to King George on the progress of the ambassador.

Japan hurled waves of attackers against two Chinese battalions which were forced to hold Lotien until reinforcements arrived. The Chinese command ordered second line machine guns trained on the backs of front line troops and to fire on their own countrymen if they retreated. Japanese claimed having obtained a foothold in a drive into the Kiangwin district just northwest of Shanghai. The dogged Chinese were resisting bitterly other advances which the Japanese claimed along a wide front.

Major General Sadao Fujii, commander of Japanese forces north of the Great Wall, was killed in action yesterday. Meantime the Japanese blockade of the Chinese coast continues. One Chinese vessel, with one hundred men on board, was sent to the bottom yesterday. The Japanese government, according to a statement in Tokyo, has no intention of evacuating Shanghai despite continued efforts of Great Britain and United States to exclude it from the war zone. Tourist hotels in Shanghai are all closed now as well as cabarets, theatres and dance halls. All night life is stilled by horrors of war which are said to be too terrible to publish. The United States consulate at Nanking has been closed and all insurgents enter fallen Basque Capitol following its surrender yesterday. SANTANDER, August 27: (Canadian Press)—Following its surrender Wednesday, insurgent forces yesterday entered this strategic Basque port and provisional capital of the Basque provinces. A portion of the city was in flames last night. In the Madrid region, loyalist forces claimed victories over the insurgents yesterday.

Rebels Warned. LONDON, August 27:—The British government is threatening to take firm action if the Spanish rebels continue their attacks on British shipping in the Mediterranean.

Football Team Off. Local Players to Have Series At Ocean Falls Saturday And Sunday. The local football team to play Ocean Falls in a series of two games on Saturday and Sunday will sail on the Princess Adelaide tonight for the paper town under the management of George J. Dawes. Return home will be made on the Princess Charlotte Monday morning.

The team consists of Johnny Pierce, William Murray, George Parsons, Albert Dickens, George Howe, Andrew Ronalds, S. St. Denis, Laughlan Gillies, Henry Dickens, Robert Armstrong, Darrow Gomez, Stanley Veitch and Herbert Morgan. Also included in the party making the trip are Mrs. Albert Dickens and Bert Morgan.

Mrs. Gillis Couture left on this morning's train for a trip to Montreal and other points in her native province of Quebec. Americans are being urged to leave the interior of China.

Washington Anxious. WASHINGTON, D.C., August 27:—President Roosevelt and his cabinet have decided upon vigorous action to safeguard American shipping off the Chinese coast, it was said last night in well-informed quarters. Possibility of joint action with Great Britain is suggested. Both nations are reported to be moving towards heavy reinforcements of their Pacific fleets. United States is considering a ban on export of arms to the Orient. This would become automatic under the country's neutrality laws were war officially declared.

Tenders For Federal Building Here To Be Called Within Two Weeks, Ottawa Minister States

Plans for the new federal building here have now been finally approved and in about two weeks' time it is expected that tenders for its construction will be called, it was announced yesterday afternoon by Hon. Ian MacKenzie, minister of national defense, following his arrival from Vancouver aboard H.M.C.S. Fraser. During the afternoon Capt. Mackenzie made an inspection of the site in a portion of the old court house square on Third Avenue. Certain alterations in the plans required by the departments concerned had caused some delay in their final approval, Capt. Mackenzie explained.

While here the minister of national defense also inspected the recently completed new building of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve as well as the armory of the 102nd North British Columbia Battery. He was, as well, a visitor at clubrooms of the Canadian Legion.

Accompanying Capt. Mackenzie and Mr. Pattullo to the Canadian Legion clubrooms were the Mr. Gray, Major Duncan Bell-Irving and Ben Hethery.

The visitors were loud in their praises of the clubrooms and expressed their realization of the work of the Legion as a whole and of the branch itself. Captain Mackenzie was particularly glad to meet the ex-service men. He has been long active in returned soldiers' activities and assures the ex-service men that their interests are very dear to him. In as far as possible he said, he will support their claims for a fuller recognition of the needs of the ex-service men who require help in their efforts to re-establish themselves.

This morning Capt. Mackenzie left by train for Ottawa. He will be met at Hazelton by Olof Hanson, MP for Skeena. Arriving with the minister of national defense aboard the Fraser, were Premier T. D. Pattullo and Hon. A. Wells Gray, minister of lands. Mr. Pattullo will be here until the first of the week when he will leave for a tour of the central interior. Local committees and delegates are meeting the Premier during his stay here.

Mr. Gray is acting as official representative of the British Columbia government in connection with the visit to this part of the province of the Governor General, Lord Tweedsmuir.

Coming north on Wednesday Premier Pattullo and Capt. Mackenzie met the Governor General and his party at Stule Lodge in the Bella Coola Valley.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL

Evidently there are still a number of people in this country who think that the Governor General represents the British Government and to that extent this country is subservient to Great Britain. This is not correct. Lord Tweedsmuir was appointed by the King on the recommendation of the Prime Minister of Canada, Right Hon. R. B. Bennett. He is the official representative in Canada of the King and does not in any way represent the British Prime Minister or his cabinet.

Suppose the King were to take up his residence in Ottawa, he could then dispose of the services of the Governor General in this country, but it would be necessary to appoint one for Great Britain at London and he would be appointed on the recommendation of the British Prime Minister. In days to come it might be desirable for the King to reside part of the year at the capital of each Dominion, say a year at Ottawa, a year at Canberra, a year at Wellington, a year at Capetown, a year at London and possibly a year in India. That would make the kingship very real to all parts of the Empire.

Since the Governor General represents the King only and not his British advisers, it has become necessary for the government in London to appoint a high commissioner in Ottawa who is the medium of conversations between the British and Canadian governments. He is the diplomatic representative of the British Government in Canada and naturally onerous duties fall on him.

CANADA'S POSITION

Canada is in theory independent of Great Britain just as she is independent of other Dominions but Britain is the only country in the Empire with an effective military and naval force ready for action at any time. Particularly important to Canada is the British Navy which insures protection for Canadian ships and Canadian citizens in any part of the world. Canada pays nothing for the upkeep of this navy but obtains all the advantages which come from being part of a great world power. Until this year she has not been in a position to even protect her own coasts. This defenceless condition is being gradually overcome and to that extent at any rate Canada is planning to take her part in the defence of the Empire.

The presence of the King's representative in Prince Rupert this week makes us think of these things. We are glad to have Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir here and to be made to feel that we are really a part of the British Empire. The Daily News joins with the rest of the community in extending them a hearty welcome to the city.

The Letter Box

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

Editor, Daily News:
The following is a copy of a letter sent to the City Commissioner recently on matters pertaining to the City Fire Department by the Trades & Labor Council of Prince Rupert.

It is thought that the public should know the nature of the protest registered and the reply or the fact that no reply has been received.

"W. J. Alder, Esq.,
"Commissioner,
"City.
"Dear Sir:
"We the members of the Trades and Labor Council of Prince Rupert and affiliated unions vigorously protest the arbitrary method of appointing a new Fire Chief for this city.

"It is felt that, in accordance with accepted practice, civic positions to be filled should be advertised in the public press to afford qualified local citizens and others the opportunity of sending in their applications.

"As the present staff of the city fire department has functioned efficiently for a number of years we protest the need for reorganization unless the public, who are entirely dependent on this department for a certain measure of protection, are given ample reason for such reorganization.

"A large number of citizens are keenly opposed to the procedure adopted.

"Yours truly,
"Thomas Elliott,
"Secretary"

In commenting on the subject the Trades and Labor Council feel that the duties of firemen do not include painting or repairing public buildings as tradesmen and contractors paying taxes on increased trades license are eligible for such work.

We feel the public should be informed as to what inducement was offered to the new chief to resign from a responsible position at Saanich to accept a minor position here.

Thanking you for the publicity and the space given this letter.

T. H. Elliott, Secretary,
Prince Rupert Trades & Labor Council.

GYRO PLAYGROUND GAMES

Editor, Daily News:

Last night was the second game of the senior girls' soft ball league of the Gyro Playgrounds between Acropolis Park and Seal Cove. The game throughout was fine, but unfortunately it had to be stopped at the end of the fifth inning because it became too dark to play.

At this point a dispute of a disagreeable nature arose, not about the darkness but who had won the cup. Since the league has been drawn up each team has won two games, therefore there is still one game to be played.

The purpose of these league games is to provide the members of the various parks with recreation of a healthful and enjoyable nature and when disputes arise it defeats the purpose of the efforts of those who direct these activities.

Why do we play games? And why are trophies given to winning teams? Firstly we play games not for the honor of winning solely but for the sport the game provides.

Secondly, cups are not given to be fought over but to be played for and should merely provide an incentive and stimulate the efforts of each member of each team so that he or she will give their very best in a sportsmanlike manner that the game may be more keen.

Why must these disputes arise simply because there is a cup at stake? Why should young ladies behave unladylke and unsporty on a field of sport? Why not disregard the ball and bat altogether and have a fight? It would certainly save the directors a great deal of trouble in the matter of drawing up leagues, etc.

At the end of a game each member of each team should come off the field with the feeling that whether the game was won or lost, he or she had played their best and enjoyed the game.

If this is the case, then the game has served its end in producing in the player a feeling of satisfaction, as well as a sensation of physical well being—the natural outcome of healthful exercise. If a player becomes angry or disgruntled during or after a game it has a marked detrimental physiological effect upon him and it is better that he or she had not played at all.

Everybody loves a winner but also everybody admires a good loser. The late King George V, who was loved and admired by all, had a code of living in which he included a few lines that run something like this: "May I always be a winner, but if I am destined not to win, then may I find it within myself to be a good loser."

Therefore, let there be no more disputes or no more display of poor sportsmanship and bad manners on these fields of sport. If an issue arises the team captains have a perfect right to protest. But they must do so in the proper manner in order that the word "sport" may not become ambiguous.

H. E. Munday of Victoria and his son, another member of the big shot firm in the Capital, are in the city today looking over some of the property they own here and making plans in regard to it. They expect to return south tomorrow.

SPORT CHAT

English League soccer marks its golden jubilee this season. In March, 1888, William G. McGregor sent a circular to a few soccer clubs outlining a plan to provide home and away games. His idea clicked and the Football League, now popularly known as the English Football League, was formed April 17 the same year with 12 members. This kindly Scotsman of Perthshire birth, Aston Villa leader, sensed the need for competitive play in football but by no stretch of the imagination did he realize to what broad lengths his scheme would be carried.

On the eve of the 1937-38 season opening - this Saturday - there are 88 entries, 22 in each of four divisions, including the 12 "originals." The second division was formed in 1892, the third (southern) in 1920 and third (northern) a year later. As representatives prepare for the bruising eight-month battle, the season is marked at the outset by retirement of the game's most colorful figure, Alex James. The Arsenal and Scottish international has signed a seven year contract as director of a football pool - a business that has grown to huge financial proportions in recent years.

The canny Scot ended last season as a sort of player-coach but preferred to finish his brilliant career with cheers ringing in his ears rather than continue. "If you become a manager you lose your self-respect," he said. But the powerful Gunners, perhaps England's most colorful team, are far from shattered. They are "hankering" for Byrn Jones, Wolverhampton's fleet forward and a record transfer fee of $70,000 is being discussed. They are also keen on 19-year old Eddie Carr of Durham.

The season's opening features are billed for Wolverhampton and Valley Parade grounds, London, home of Charlton. The Wanderers are on the "spot" as they meet last year's league champion, Manchester City, while Charlton - runner up and wonder team of the loop that toured Canada and the United States during the summer - entertains Leeds United. The Athletics advanced from the third to premier league in three years. Sunderland's cup-winning aggregation begins the season against Middlesbrough and Preston North End, vanquished in the cup final, opens fire against Grimsby Town.

Clubs are relying mainly on home-town talent this year. Apart from the Jones transfer, the market for high-priced players is dead. Never before in the game's history has the young player had such a chance to establish himself. Only minor changes in the rules and regulations herald the season's opening while many clubs, counting on prosperity gates, have enlarged grandstands.

"Prince and Pauper" at Capitol Theatre as Week-End Feature Offering

History, romance and adventure are combined in the film version of Mark Twain's immortal "The Prince and the Pauper" which comes to the Capitol Theatre as the feature offering at the end of this week. The well known story is that of two babies born in London at the same moment in the the Sixteenth Century—one the young Prince Edward, heir to the throne, and the other Tom Canty, the brat of a ruffian and thief. Their lives become tangled up because they look exactly alike. Billy and Bobby Mauch of Peoria, Illinois, play the parts of the boys.

All the color and drama of Sixteenth Century England is brought to life on the screen and a dramatic moment is the coronation scene in which the pauper boy, who has exchanged identities with the Prince is almost crowned King of England.

Errol Flynn, handsome young Irish star, plays the part of a dashing swordsman and befriender of the two boys. Phyllis Barry, as a barmaid, Alan Hale, Robert Adair, Henry Stephenson, Halliwell Hobbes are also important members of the cast.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Having on board forty-one tourist passengers who transferred to the steamer Prince George today to make the trip to Anyox and Stewart and thence back to Vancouver, C.N.R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. James Watt, arrived in port at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and will be here until tomorrow night when she will sail on her return south over the same route. The Prince Charles brought in also a number of local people who have been holidaying on the Islands. This is the final voyage of the Prince Charles on summer schedule although it is expected she will remain on the run for another month on fall schedule before being replaced for the winter by the Prince John.

Pilots Charles Elliott and E. C. W. Dobbin, with their Waco seaplanes, arrived here yesterday after having been at Tweedsmuir Park attached to the party of the Governor General.

Making her final voyage on summer schedule, C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Edward Mabbs, arrived in port at 10 o'clock this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and sails at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening south-bound. The vessel brought north a good sized list of passengers.

Miss Molly Frew, who for the last two months has been holidaying with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davey, in Vancouver, returned today on the Prince George and left immediately by train for Terrace where she will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frew, who are holidaying there.

Post-Nuptial Shower Held

Affair is Held in Honor Of Mrs. Tommy Glenn

Mrs. H. B. Eastman, Eighth Avenue East, was hostess last evening at a delightful miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Tommy Glenn, formerly Mrs. Gladys Fowler, whose marriage took place recently. There were about twenty-five guests present.

An enjoyable evening was spent playing bridge, prize-winners being Mrs. G. Krause, Mrs. S. L. Peachey second and Mrs. Parsons, consolation. During the evening a gift box, prettily decorated in blue and white, and containing many lovely and useful gifts for Mrs. Glenn, was drawn in by two little girls dressed in blue.

Delicious refreshments were then served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McLeod, who have been on a trip to Vancouver and Seattle, returned home on the Prince George this morning.
