CONVENTION TOMORROW

Delegates Expected to Arrive Tonight on Train from Interior Points

Delegates to the convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia are expected to arrive on tonight's train in readiness for the opening tomorrow morning. The meetings will take place mornings and afternoons in the council chamber of the city hall.

Tomorrow morning President Little will receive registrations, appoint committees and get the resolutions before the resolutions committee so that their report may be ready for the beginning of the afternoon.

President Little asks that Prince Rupert people extend themselves in entertaining the visitors. There will be about a dozen ladies in the party, mostly accompanying their husbands. The program of entertainment has already been published.

Reorganization Of British Army Is Proceeding

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The British Army is being reorganized in such a way that regiments will be organized for home protection only or for service in the colonies. Formerly regiments at outposts had a home base from which recruits were obtained for service in India or other parts of the world.

Former Premier Going To Rest

STOURPORT, England, Aug. 3.—Earl Baldwin said today on his seventieth birthday he had been ordered to take a complete rest on account of rheumatism he was unable to stand for any length of time. He is leaving for Aix, France, for a rest.

OPPOSES CHANGE

MONTREAL, Aug. 3.—Paul Gouin, leader of L'Action Nationale party in this province, declared himself opposed to revision of the British North America Act.

C.I.O. Head Uses A. F. of L. Labor

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 3.—(CP)—United States labor circles are chuckling over the dilemma of John L. Lewis in his capacity as a private employer.

The czar of the Committee for Industrial Organization, sworn foe of the American Federation of Labor, recently bought a historic house in Alexandria, Va. It had to be renovated. The C. I. O. has not yet organized the building trades.

Investigators discovered the workmen on the Lewis home were members of the A. F. of L.

AUSTRALIA'S SCRAP METAL GOES FOR JAP ARMAMENTS

A graphic scene on the Victoria docks at Melbourne, Australia, showing piles of scrap iron and other metals ready to be loaded on the Japanese steamer seen in the background, for shipment to Nippon. The Japanese government is importing this scrap metal, from all countries that will permit its export, for the purpose of smelting it down and producing armaments. In reply to a deputation urging the restriction of such exports, Minister for Customs White, of Australia replied there was no shortage in Australia of metal and that the government would not be justified in placing such a ban.

Second Pulp Mill For Prince Rupert Is Being Planned And Engineers Have Already Reported

I. S. Steensland of Minneapolis Says 200-Ton Mill Will Be Built at Seal Cove if Other Company Gets Drydock

A second pulp mill for Prince Rupert is well within the bounds of possibility. I. S. Steensland, executive vice-president and secretary of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Mill Ltd., a concern incorporated here by Minneapolis interests several years ago, announced last evening that his company, backed by Chicago and Montreal interests, planned to build a 200-ton mill for the manufacture of sulphite pulp and anpho-celulose in Prince Rupert. He thinks that the Bulkley mill will get the drydock site and that he will then build on the site already surveyed at Seal Cove.

Mr. Steensland is very enthusiastic over the project. He has had two engineers here investigating conditions and they left for Vancouver yesterday. Another engineer is expected within the next week or so to check up on the others and give a report. This is the second visit of the engineers and their report is very favorable.

Mr. Steensland was associated with J. G. Bjornsted in the proposed scheme last year but Mr. Bjornsted has since died and Mr. Steensland is now working on the project alone. He says he has already interested Chicago and Montreal capital since coming here and has word to go ahead with the plans. The scheme includes the taking over of the timber limits at Usk formerly controlled by Minneapolis interests whose representative was the late John Wilman.

The engineer who is coming next week will be the man in charge of operations when the mill gets under way.

Mr. Steensland has been interested in this district for a long time. He was one of the men who employed Mr. Buckley to organize

U. S. PLANE WRECKED

Eleven Passengers and Crew of Three Missing When Submerged Craft Located

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The United States war department announced today it had received a message from the Panama Military establishment asserting that an army plane had located the Pan-American Grace Airways flying boat missing since last night.

The report said that the plane was totally under water thirty miles northeast of Cristobal with no signs of life. She carried eleven passengers and a crew of three.

Funeral of H. B. Rochester Well Attended

There was a large attendance yesterday at the funeral of the late Harry Brock Rochester, which took place from the Christian Science Church at 3 p.m. George Eckerman, reader for the church, conducting the service. Hymns sung were "Near My God to Thee" and "O Gentle Presence." Percy Miller and Allan Davies were ushers.

Active pall-bearers were P. C. Miller, John Currie, Max Heilbroner, Arthur Brooksbank, S. E. Parker and D. J. Matheson. Honorary pall-bearers were Dr. W. T. Kergin, J. C. K. Sealy, W. R. McAfee, Lieut. Col. S. D. Johnston, G. P. Tinker, Thomas McClymont, Robert Gordon, W. N. Blackstock, City Commissioner W. J. Alder, F. E. Robertson, F. A. McCallum, James A. Brown, Jarvis H. McLeod, John Dybhavn and J. Lindsay.

The short committal service at the grave was conducted by Mr. Eckerman.

Peiping's Gates Open for Foreigners to Come and Go; Japanese Boasts of Two Chief Cities of North China Taken in First Week

TIENSIN, Aug. 3.— Japanese warplanes rained bombs on the vanguard of the advancing Chinese armies at Tehchow on the border of Hopei and Shantung provinces eighty miles south of Tientsin. A column of Japanese infantry supported by artillery and tanks are pressing forward by forced marches to dispute the advance of the Central Government troops.

INSURGENT ADVANTAGES

Franco Forces Claim to Have Cut Communication and Driven Government from Fortified Positions

HENDAYE, Aug. 3.—Two insurgent brigades are reported to have driven Madrid-Valencia troops from the principal mountain fortification on the Teruel front near Bezas and to have cut the main communication artery, a secondary roadway, linking forces in that section of Teruel front.

MINISTERS INVESTIGATE

Hon. J. G. Gardiner and Hon. Norman L. Rogers Have Been Travelling Through Dried Out Parts of Prairies

CALGARY, Aug. 3.—Hon. J. G. Gardiner, minister of agriculture in the Federal Government, and Hon. Norman L. Rogers, minister of Labor, who have been making a personal survey of conditions on the prairies with special reference to the dried out sections, stated last night that one of the first problems was to deal with the cattle in the dried out sections. It was quite probable that some plan would be made for the department of agriculture to take over the cattle and have them fed and marketed in such a way as not to flood the market with that kind of beef and at the same time prevent total loss to the farmers. It seemed quite sure that the cattle could not be wintered in the districts where they now are.

It was also suggested by the minister that an extension of the irrigation methods which had already been adopted in a small way would help improve the situation for the farmers in preventing recurrence of this year's experience.

Heavy rains have fallen in the southern part of Alberta including a considerable section of the hitherto dried out country. This will not only improve this year's late crop but will also give late feed for the cattle in some districts.

Revisiting City Dean Criticizes Church Equality

EDINBURGH, Aug. 3: (CP) — Very Rev. Charles L. Warr, Dean of the Thistle and Chapel Royal, said in a speech here Presbyterianism's doctrine of equality now is "a mere fiction and pretence."

The Moderator of the General Assembly, with his chaplains and the rest, had been exalted into "a kind of national archbishop," said Dr. Warr. The Church of Scotland had departed from the idea that all ministers, as regards their status, stood in a position of complete equality.

"The doctrine that all men are equal has never worked in this world and never will," he asserted, "and it was not likely that it would work in the church."

LOG CUTTING KEEPS STEADY

A total of 23,387,790 board feet of logs was scaled during the month of July, according to a report issued from the local forestry office by A. E. Parlow, district forester.

In addition to the logs there were scaled 42,479 ties and 300 cords of firewood.

PRICE OF SILVER

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Silver was quoted here today at 33 3/4c.

Japan claims that in the week of undeclared war she had captured the two main cities of northern China, Tientsin and Peiping.

Japanese guards today were lifted from the Peiping gates and free permission was given foreigners to come and go.

Around Peiping unconfirmed reports said that the Japanese officials had formed a list of 125 who were being tracked down and taken into custody.

Mrs. Chiang Kai Shek is organizing the women of China to take part in the war against Japan in every possible way that a woman can help. She is impressing upon them that they must be prepared to make sacrifices for the sake of their country and its freedom from foreign domination.

The Chinese army, it is announced, is planning a counter attack on Peiping with the hope of recapturing it.

Albert Kidd Free Of Murder Charge

Fifteen-Year-Old Nanaimo Lad Declares Shooting of his Father was Accidental

NANAIMO, Aug. 3.—Magistrate Beavor Potts refused yesterday to commit Albert Kidd for the murder of his father last month.

Albert took the stand in his own defence and claimed that the gun went off accidentally while he was preparing to fire it off to scare away burglars.

Previously at the inquest a coroner's jury had found that the shooting was accidental.

Legion Gives Big Reception To The Minister of Defence

PENTICTON, Aug. 3.—Hon. Ian McKenzie, Minister of Defence, was no longer a minister of the crown when he landed here yesterday but Comrade Ian McKenzie when he attended the annual convention of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire, a meeting of which he had not missed in fifteen years. Captain McKenzie was given a wonderful reception.

VIEWPOINT OF FRANCE

Yesterday we published without comment an article giving the viewpoint of General Francisco Franco in regard to the Spanish situation. Naturally we do not agree with him. While we do not accept the doctrines of communism we agree that a country is entitled to any kind of government it wants. If it wants communistic government it is up to them. We take no exception to the kind of administration they have in Russia if they want it. They have a right to it even if it was brought about by means of terrible slaughter of millions of innocent people and is still kept going by suppressing with an iron hand all opposition. Evidently the people there are not ready for anything like responsible democratic government. For us it would be terrible but for them, if they want it, we are pleased if they have what they want. We have no right to dictate to them and they have no right to interfere with us, as they at one time attempted to do.

To a very large extent opposition to our democracy comes from illiterate people who have studied little except red propaganda. We are sorry they do not know any better, but there is hope for them that they will learn and their children will prove better educated and more widely read than their parents. In the meantime they have a right to their opinions and for the present they do no harm.

General Franco doubtless means well. He has been trained in a school that looks upon force as something to be used for the betterment of mankind. Evidently when he started the rebellion he did not expect the civil war to last long. He expected the Spanish people would rally to his standard and that he would have a walkover much as did Mussolini and his Blackshirts in Italy. Possibly he realizes now that if he had allowed the Spaniards to form their own government and rule in their own way they would have gradually evolved into a democracy just as Russia is trying to do today. The difficulty that faced him and his followers was that if the "Reds," as he calls them, were allowed to get hold of the reins of government they might have been as bloodthirsty as were the Bolsheviks of Russia.

It is up to the nations that use common sense in their administration such as United States, Great Britain and the nations of the British Empire, the Scandinavian countries, and Switzerland to keep their feet, educate the people and teach the extremists that they are wrong. In this lies the hope of the world and the path of peace.

The Letter Box

THE COLLAPSE OF HIGH HOPES

Editor, Daily News:—It was a cold night in December; the train was one-and-one-half hours late, making it around 2 a.m. While waiting I chanced to get into conversation with a middle-aged man who was expecting his wife in on the G.T.P., and settled in the Prince George country, amid the high hopes of the past.

But how he talked of the country — its resources, the Grand Trunk, the Liberal party, and Sir Wilfred Laurier — when we were interrupted by the whistle of the approaching train. As we went out the door, the headlight flooded the tracks and the platform, an old freight engine thundered past, followed by a long string of oiltanks, flat, stock and box cars. A trainman was waving a lantern from the top of a box car, the fire was flying from the brake shoes, the Conductor was waving a lantern from the side door of an old baggage car, which was followed by a string of obsolete passenger equipment. When this tri-weekly mixture did come to a halt, and the racket had ceased, we had clasped hands in our farewell grip, when I chanced to say "This is not the train you expected during your pioneering days!" His hand tightened on mine as he said "Wilfred Laurier would turn in his grave if he could realize this, and know that his party is now in power the third time since he was obliged to hand over his much loved enterprise to the enemy!" He turned from me to greet his wife, who was descending the steps of an old passenger car, which I boarded to start my journey to Prince Rupert, which was four divisions away. Owing to the early hour in the morning, taking a berth was out of the question but one very soon learned that it made no difference whether one took a drawing room, a berth, or a seat in the day coach, as sleep was out of the question on this train, which was a real replica of Bill Nye's slow train through Arkansas, which overtook that cow the third time.

But after a tedious and tiresome journey we landed in Prince Rupert. I first saw Prince Rupert just twenty years ago, and now found that the people had worked wonders in the building of their part of the city. The huge mass of rock that the government and railway were going to put into the harbor, had been leveled down; there were paved streets and sidewalks, water mains and sewers; there were power, light, and telephone lines; there were modern homes, bank buildings, hotels, stores, school, churches and parks. I wandered down along the waterfront, and the Bill Nye train that I had ar-

The same old sheds of twenty years ago were greeting the same old steamers Prince Rupert, George and John.

As I wandered over the high foot-bridge, I turned and looked out on the empty harbor. In the silence of my surroundings I hear the voices of Laurier, Emerson, Fielding and other political giants of the past, telling of the future of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and how the new port of the Pacific was going to square our country out to the sea. I turned and looked down the yards, the same little shed that was a makeshift for a modern round-house was still there. The Terminal elevator has neither cars nor ships within sight of Bernice Palmer says . . .

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, and all kinds of trades to keep commerce on its toes. Jack Dempsey Washington Tyler, negro, of Oakland, has a trained turtle he rents out to clean clogged drain pipes. Three pretty local Mexican girls catch leeches and sell them to folks with black eyes. The leeches draw the blood from the shiner and obviate needless explanations. And a neighbor's boy rents out his banty hen to take care of "day old chicks" until they are able to shift for themselves. While my own young offspring will carry his sister's books to school for a small consideration. San Francisco has a group of young men who will squire a lady at so much per or even act as a fourth at bridge! This agency is run along lines similar to any employment agency and references are required from both parties. However, this is one case where the lady pays. Evidently they like it, because from a group of three young men, it has grown into a regular business. CHEERIO!

Birthday Party Held Last Night

Miss Edith Johnstone Guest of Honor; Recipient of Gift

Last evening an enjoyable surprise party was given by George Madill, Wallace Block, in honor of the birthday of Miss Edith Johnstone. The evening was spent in contests and dancing. Prize winners were Miss Kathleen Bulger, Miss Elsie Finley, Robert Manson and Ken Green. After the serving of delightful refreshments by the host, a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut by the guest of honor. Presentation of a silver bracelet, a gift from her assembled friends, was made to Miss Johnstone by Mr. Madill. Other guests included Misses Joy Green, Margaret Guilch, Eileen and Phyllis Hamblin, Edith Connery, Elsie Davis and Tom Johnstone, Morty Vineberg, Maurice Davey, Wilfred Hicks, Joe Landrey and Victor Bell.

She Dreaded Going Upstairs

Woman's Fear of Rheumatic Pains

One of the many troubles that afflict rheumatic sufferers is the difficulty of getting up and down stairs. Such was the case with this woman, before she started taking Kruschen, but now she finds it no trouble. Read what she says:—

"I have been taking Kruschen now for over 12 months, a half-teaspoonful in hot water first thing in the morning, and I feel a new woman. I had very painful rheumatism in my knees and back and also my head was getting very bad. I used to dread walking upstairs, now I am very thankful to say it is no trouble at all and I scarcely have any pains. I feel better in health than I have done for years."

—(Mrs.) G.M.

Two of the ingredients of Kruschen Salts are notable for their work in dissolving uric acid. Other ingredients of Kruschen assist Nature to expel the dissolved acid from the system.

PAVING THE WAY FOR START OF REGULAR TRANS-CANADA FLIGHTS

Making a leisurely survey flight from Vancouver to Montreal, examining airports along the route and gathering data for the forthcoming trans-Canada airway, officials paving the way for start of regular commercial flights are pictured as they stopped at Lethbridge. (Top) and at Edmonton as part of their flight. Standing in front of the Lockheed-Electra transport aeroplane owned by the department of transport, as it stands on the Lethbridge field are, A. D. MacLean, federal superintendent of airways; Philip G. Johnson, of Seattle, newly-appointed vice-president in charge of operations of Trans-Canada Airlines Ltd.; Wing Com. D. R. MacLaren of Trans-Canada Airlines Ltd.; D. B. Colyer of Chicago, vice-president of United Air Lines Ltd.; Mayor D. H. Elton of Lethbridge and Squadron Leader J. H. Tudhope, M.C., chief pilot of the aeroplane. Squadron Leader Tudhope is shown again at lower left broadcasting a message from the aeroplane to a radio beam station 150 miles away. The trans-Canada machines will fly by radio beam a greater part of their route. At right, is a view of the Lockheed's control cabin with pilot and co-pilot in their seats, as it looks from the passenger's seat. There are 37 dials on the instrument panel to aid in handling the ma-

Crop Prospects Throughout Canada Are Revived

OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—As the harvest season approaches, the general farm crop situation throughout Canada shows little deviation from the trend which has been evident for the past few weeks. All Eastern Canada and British Columbia continue to show fine prospects while the drought stricken prairies face failure over a wide area with low yields expected from those fields which still promise a commercial crop. The Maritime Provinces and Quebec are now in need of rain but the recent hot dry weather has facilitated haying. Harvesting is under way in Ontario with prospects for all grains fair to good. Fruit crops are promising in all the eastern provinces. Hail damage in Manitoba has caused some loss over fairly extensive areas. Harvesting has begun and early crops seem fairly safe from rust damage although late fields may be seriously affected. The feed situation in Saskatchewan and Alberta has brightened appreciably as a result of recent rains but with harvesting already start-

Pickets Guard All Textile Factories

MONTREAL, Aug. 3.— Pickets guarded the outside of nine Quebec Province textile mills while the leaders of the strike of close to ten thousand workers waited for the employers or the Quebec Government to make the next move.

Weather Forecast

(Furnished through the courtesy of the Dominion Meteorological Bureau at Victoria and Prince Rupert. This forecast is compiled from observations taken at 5 a.m. today and covers the 24 hour period ending 5 p.m. tomorrow.)

Synopsis — Pressure remains low off the northwest and the Queen Charlotte Islands. Heavy rains on the north coast and fair and warm elsewhere.

Prince Rupert District and Queen Charlotte Islands—Strong south to west winds, foggy and cool with rain.

West Coast of Vancouver Island—northwest winds, becoming fresh to strong with increasing cloudiness.

ed, further moisture can be of little help to grain crops and yields will be low.

Pretty Wedding This Morning At Anglican Church

Miss Marguerite Cooke Weds Joseph Graham Wilkinson And Leaves for Victoria

The wedding took place this morning an hour before noon at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral, of Miss Marguerite Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooke, fourth Ave. West, to Joseph Graham Wilkinson of Esquimalt, B.C., wireless operator on H.M.C.S. Skeena. Rev. Mr. Goodrich officiated.

The bride was very beautiful in a gown of coronation blue with accessories to match and carried a white prayerbook. The bridesmaid was Miss Grace Clark, at-tired in a darker blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds, also very charming. The groom was supported by Matthew Harris.

During the signing of the register, Miss Swanna Olofson played "I Love You Truly" on the pipe organ.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents and the young couple are sailing on the steamer Catala for Victoria where they will make their future home.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

The Union Steamship Company has been reorganized and is now the Union Steamship Company of British Columbia, Limited. The new board of directors includes Harold Brown, president and managing director, J. K. MacRae, chairman, Gordon Farrell, Ernest E. Luckerfeld and M. J. K. Allen. Among those actively identified with the new company are W. C. Woodward, W. G. Murrin, Wm. Crawford, W. H. Malkin, Bryce, W. Fleck, and F. H. Clendenning. The company operates twelve ships in the coastal service.

It is not quite certain whether all the fishing boats have arrived from the banks since the closing of the fishing season. Some of the boats have landed catches at Butedale and these have not yet been returned. The probability is that there will be no more sales on the fish exchange.

Some very high freak prices were paid for spring salmon at Ketchikan yesterday. Two boats sold theirs at 14 1/2c a pound. Fish have been scarce in Ketchikan and the canneries have been working only a few hours a day.

Tourist evidently got what they expected yesterday. Most of them had been told about Prince Rupert's rain and they had a sample of it. In spite of the many boats in port the waterfront was very dreary and the downpour kept up most of the day.
