The vessel had trouble with her steering gear during a raging fifty-mile northwest gale and, while wallowing in the seas, her cargo shifted and she developed a twenty-six degree list. For a while she appeared doomed to be carried ashore on the rugged coast but was able to mancouvre herself clear. Meanwhile, two United States coastguard vessels, the Canadian government steamer Armentierres and the salvage steamor Salvage King reached the stricken vessel. Under convoy of these vessels, she made her way under her own power with the steering gear tmporarily fixed to replace the damaged rudder into Victoria yesterday. During the storm she lost her first officer, Trygve Bragdo, overboard.

Bernice Palmer says

Knees are again very much in the public eye as skirts, like prices, go up. And curls bob all over the place. Long curls, short curls, saucy curls, demure curls, every head one sees is curled, coiffures are in... Perhaps this trend will keep skirts longer at least for evening wear. Somehow a short "formal" and a stately coiffure don't click-or do It looks as though even we oldsters had fallen under the Shirley Temple spell.

And speaking of Shirley-Twentieth Century-Fox received so many letters from irate mothers whose children fashion themselves after the child star, requesting that the youngster be shown in little girl! roles instead of the smart-aleck cracking blues singer parts beyond; her years, as in recent pictures! that they starred her in "Wee Wil-Winkle" to be seen in a few days in Prince Rupert.

HAVE YOU SMOKED A TURRET LATELY?

IF every nagging wife, and every fault-finding husband would make it a point to "cool off" by smoking a Turret in silence, before saying a single word, many a home might be a pleasanter place in which to live. Turrets are so soothing because they are made from an original and unique blend of fine Virginia tobaccos. Even the package is better-it has a handy calendar on the back to keep you up to date. If you haven't smoked a Turret lately, try a package today. Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

"Yes, and many a wife has been driven to desperation by a carping, fault-finding husband.

"Probably, more promising marriages have been wrecked, more homes broken up, by nagging partners than by any other one cause."

"Husbands and wives are human beings-prone to faults and shortcomings. Yet, by adjusting themselves to each other's personalities, lasting happiness is possible.

"Later in this series, I will tell you how these adjustments can sometimes be made. But remember, nagging is worse than useless, always. Avoid it as you would avoid a snake.'

The British motorship Moorby, with a cargo of 8382 tons of wheat loaded from the local elevator. sailed Christmas morning for the United Kingdom or Continent. There was no definite word up to this morning of the approach of the Swedish steamer Olof Berg which was originally reported due today to load a full cargo for the United Kingdom or Continent.

Owing to a heavy blizzard which held her all Saturday night at Hardy Bay on the north end of Vancouver Island, Union steamer Catala, Capt. John Muir, did not arrive until 5:15 Monday morning from the south, sailing two hours later for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points. The vessel, which had a light northbound passenger, list, is due back here at 8 o'clock this evening southbound.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, delayed by having made her monthly call at Kitimaat on the way north, arrived in port at 7 o'clock Christmas morning from the south and sailed at 11 a.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.
