Japanese Almost Within Range Of Deserted Capital of China—Breach with Russia Widens

Hong Kong Ready

Precautions Are Being Taken Against Japanese Air Raids

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—Japanese forces, advancing another five miles on Saturday, are reported to be almost in range of Nanking, the deserted capital of China, where Chinese defenders are said to be on the point of revolt. Chanching was heavily bombarded today.

Japanese today reported the capture of three key strongholds of the Nanking defence lines, bringing them within striking distance of the last fortifications before the capital. Official communiques said they had occupied Kingyin on the Yangtze River, Wutsin, north of Wisuh on the Shanghai-Nanking railway line and Ithing, southeast of Nanking. There was further bombing of the Canton-Kowloon Railway over which Japan has charged Britain has been co-operating in delivering munitions to China. Japan has gone so far as to charge that Great Britain has been supplying China with all general materials of war and also with dum-dum bullets and poison gas.

The isolation of Shanghai by the Japanese has now been completed, the invaders being in complete control of all transportation communication and public services. With shortage of food, the Chinese have been out on famine rations. Disease is becoming more extensive.

Meantime, complications between Japan and Russian appear to be developing further. Japan charges unfriendly treatment by the Russians of its consular representatives at Vladivostok.

Warning of Nations

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29. (CP)—In announcing yesterday that United States, like Great Britain, France and other powers had made representations to the Japanese government at Tokyo insisting on respect of its rights in the taking over by Japan of control of maritime customs, communications and other services at Shanghai, Secretary of State Cordell Hull stated that this was not a joint move by the nations. They had consulted and co-operated with the representations of each had been made individually to Japan.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull announced today that the United States had served virtual demand on the Japanese government that it consult the American government before undertaking any changes in Chinese maritime customs. The step followed reports that the Japanese military in Shanghai were preparing to take over the customs and came after earlier notes from Great Britain and the United States notifying Japan that the two nations expected to be informed of any contemplated changes.

Japan Insist on Rights

TOKYO, Nov. 29. (CP)—A Japanese Foreign Office spokesman today declared that Japan insisted on her right to act independently in Shanghai without necessity of consulting Great Britain or the United States.

BULLETINS

TRAPPER IS SAFE

Edward Miller, trapper, is safe back at McBride after having been snowbound for six weeks while taking in supplies to his trapline north of McBride, according to word received here today. He suffered no ill effects although he underwent some hardship. A police party had gone out to search for him.

CASE IS DISMISSED

In provincial police court this morning Stipendiary Magistrate Andrew Thompson dismissed, on account of lack of evidence, a charge against the local halibut boat Vera Beatrice of fishing halibut in Area No. 2 with an Area No. 3 licence. R. L. McLennan was counsel for the department and J. T. Harvey for the defendant.

ANNUAL BARGAIN TRIP

The Canadian National Railways will operate a "bargain trip" excursion to Prince Rupert on the train leaving Prince George at 2:15 a.m. December 7 and arriving Prince Rupert the same night. Passengers are not required to return east to their homes from Prince Rupert until 6:00 p.m., Friday, December 10. Tickets will be good for travel in coaches and no baggage will be checked. Children five years of age and under travel at half the adult fare.

ALEX STRACHAN DIES

VANCOUVER—Alex Strachan, former Prince Rupert laundry manager, died here yesterday. He was 52 years of age and died following a brief illness. Born in Scotland, he had lived in British Columbia for more than 26 years, having been once at Trail

HOLY LAND DISORDERS

JERUSALEM—One British police officer was dead and many persons were injured as a result of a series of disturbances following the execution on Saturday of Sheik Faran Saiti, alleged Arab trouble maker in the Holy Land. The police officer was slain as he was engaged in putting Arab terrorists under arrest. There were numerous bombings.

FOG LIFTS IN LONDON

LONDON—A three-day fog one of the thickest the country has ever experienced, was lifting off southern England last night. It had paralyzed highway, maritime and aerial traffic and even train services and was directly blamed for at least twelve deaths. There were scores of street accidents. Otto Kruger, well known screen actor, was among the fog casualties, having sustained head injuries in a car accident.

PARLEY IN LONDON

LONDON—Diplomatic conversations between Great Britain and France opened today. The European situation will be discussed including the German demand for colonies. It is possible the discussions may be extended to take in the Sino-Japanese situation following the collapse of the nine-power conference. Premier Camille Chautemps and Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos of France arrived in London last night from Paris. The British foreign secretary, Capt. Anthony Eden, is laid up with influenza and may or may not be able to attend the meetings.

YOUNG NATION'S GROWING PAINS DEMAND REMEDY; IS COMMISSION'S FUNCTION

Complex Problems Will Come Before Rowell Investigation In Dominion-Wide Scrutiny of Intergovernmental Relations Opening Today

WINNIPEG, Nov. 29. (CP)—The Royal Commission on intergovernmental relations between Dominion, provinces and municipalities, of which Hon. Newton Wesley Rowell is chairman, arrived in Winnipeg Saturday and will hold its opening hearing here today. W. A. Anglin, K.C. of St. John, New Brunswick, has been appointed chief counsel for the commission.

OTTAWA, Nov. 29. (CP)—Seventy years of nation building will come under review by the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial relations in its Dominion-wide sessions beginning today at Winnipeg. Out of that stock-taking will probably be suggested a remedy for current confusion in administrative powers and revenue sources between the Dominions and provinces. What action is taken on the commission's recommendations, of course, will depend on the various governments.

The need for some action has been emphasized by an epidemic of provincial and municipal deficits across the country and by an apparent deadlock over social legislation.

The difficulty of solving this basic national problem is indicated in the fact that consideration must be given to these complex and varied factors; each in itself a major problem:

Simplification of tax collection and redistribution of the proceeds between governments; a new allocation of legislative powers, with social services probably being administered on a national basis; assumption by the Dominion of part of the provincial debts; revision or elimination of provincial subsidies; reduction of the multiplicity of governments and overlapping of services.

Remedies Suggested

Reorganization of Canada's haphazard tax system on a scientific basis is generally accepted as a prerequisite to reform of federal public finance. Some economists suggest classifying taxes according to their most efficient agency for collection, federal, provincial or municipal government.

Property taxes, for instance, might remain with the municipalities. Succession duties, income and corporation taxes might be more equitably collected by the Dominion, for the benefit of the country as a whole since wealth so taxable has been concentrated by geography and tariffs largely in Ontario and Quebec.

This, it is argued, would compensate for the varying taxable capacities of the different sections of the country and alleviate inequalities in the incidence of the tariffs. It would also serve to protect "exposed" areas particularly vulnerable to fluctuating income.

The revenue thus collected, at a minimum of duplication, nuisance, inequity and expense, might then be portioned among the governments on a per capita basis.

In the field of social services, the situation is as acute. The provinces have the legal authority but lack financial power since such services were not even contemplated when the British North America Act divided taxing powers in 1867.

Some compromise plainly seems necessary. Conservative Leader R. B. Bennett (then prime minister) said in the House of Commons on April 11, 1934: "Unless there is a (Continued on Page Two)

SHOT AT PREMIER

Young Fascist Arrested in Cairo On Charge of Attempted Assassination

CAIRO, Nov. 29. (CP)—Four shots were fired yesterday at the car of Mustapha Nahas Pasha, the Premier of Egypt, as he rode through the streets of a Cairo suburb. He was not struck. A twenty-six year old man, Izzedin Abdil Khader, belonging to the Green Shirts, extreme Fascist nationalist organization, was arrested and is being charged with attempted assassination. Khader is the grandson of the famous Arab rebel leader, Abdel Khaber. He was seized by guards.

Following the abortive attempt to assassinate the Premier, there was rioting as a result of which twenty persons are in hospital today, four of them gravely injured.

The police clamped down on the Green Shirts party. The President of the group, Ahmed Hussein, and all its three hundred members were arrested.

NOT ALL HARMONY

Conservative Leader Bennett and Senator A. D. McRae Seem to be at Loggerheads

TORONTO, Nov. 29. (CP)—The Toronto Daily Star, in an Ottawa dispatch Saturday, quoted General A. D. McRae, former Conservative national organizer, as saying: "While R. B.'s in, I'm out." Quoted further, General McRae, now a Senator, said: "The Conservative party can win the next election but, whether or not they can win it with Mr. Bennett as leader, I am not prepared to say."

Bennett's Reply

VICTORIA, Nov. 29. (CP)—Mr. Bennett told the Canadian Press in Victoria that he had "nothing at all to say" in connection with the Toronto Star dispatch. He said, however, that he was practically certain no means could be found to bring General McRae back to the position of Conservative national organizer.

Liberal Policy to Make Whole World Canada's Market—Importance Of Pacific Ports

VICTORIA, Nov. 29. (CP)—"We will send trade agents through the world to sell the goods you produce and we will sell the goods wherever we can. That is the way we will wipe out unemployment, re-establish industries and make Canada the great nation it is destined to be," Hon. J. G. Gardiner, minister of agriculture, said in a Liberal by-election campaign meeting Friday night.

The minister said that the natural outlet for all products of British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan was becoming more and more naturally every year the Pacific Coast seaports.

LADNER BOY WHEAT KING

World's Best Grain Award Again Captured by Canada In Chicago

Is School Boy

LADNER, Nov. 29. (CP)—Gordon Gibson, aged 13, attended public school classes here today, unaware yet that he had been crowned Wheat King at the Chicago Livestock Exposition, bringing the title to British Columbia for the first time. Although the winning entry was in his name, he had little to do with the actual growing which was done by his father, William G. Gibson.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29. (CP)—Canada won three championships Saturday on the opening day of the International Livestock Exposition. The major awards were announced today including decision of the International Wheat King for which Herman Trelle of Wembley, Alberta, was again in the field but which was captured by Gordon Gibson of Ladner with Reward variety of hard red spring wheat. The sample with which Gibson retained the world wheat championship for Canada weighed 65.2 pounds to the bushel.

PEACE IS REJECTED

Spanish Insurgents Kill One Hundred Women and Children with Aerial Bombs

LONDON, Nov. 29.—It was reported here Saturday that both Spanish loyalist and insurgent authorities had rejected overtures of foreign authorities with a view to ending the Spanish civil war by Christmas.

Nearly one hundred persons, mostly women and children, were killed yesterday when insurgent bombing planes raided towns and villages nearby Madrid. Of the total killed when bombs dropped on Colemanar, Viejo and Ocaña, only two were men, the rest being women and children.

Still another forty persons, including women and children, were killed by an insurgent air raid on Guadalajara today as planes continued to bomb the Madrid front.

New York Stock Market Brighter

Rally of Last Day or So Attributed To Newly Enunciated Government Policies

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Supposedly in response to new governmental policies as enunciated by President Roosevelt including determination to balance the budget and reduce public expenditures, the New York stock market showed further revival on Saturday when issues went up from one to six points in active trading. The market during the last day or so has had a much more cheerful tone.

WILL IT PROVE EFFECTIVE?

The former Prime Minister was brought in toward the end as the big gun in the campaign to win the election for the Conservatives in Victoria today. What many local people are wondering is whether the drive will prove effective or not. As we have said before, the result will prove very interesting. The Ministers of Defense and Agriculture and the debatable Gerry McGeer have been making the thunder for the Liberals and there had been a very active campaign for the third party man, who is himself a good speaker. We should get word of the result tonight.

It is possible that the outcome of today's election may influence the federal government in regard to its trade policy with the United States. Northern British Columbia stands to gain by keeping close trade relations with the south, particularly in connection with the operation of their lumber mills. In the south they sell fir lumber to Britain and this trade may be affected adversely under proposed changes.

WINCH'S SPEECH IN LEGISLATURE

Harold Winch, one of the outstanding men of the C.C.F., is said to have made a splendid speech in the Legislature last week on the Macdonald report on coal and oil profits. He is reported to have spent all day Saturday and Sunday studying the two volumes of the report and on Monday made a masterly exposition of the report. Evidently young Mr. Winch is not afraid of hard work.

DUPLESSIS PADLOCK LAW

The application of the Padlock Law in Quebec under which the Government of the Province has the right to lock up and keep the key of any premises where a conviction is secured against people trying to spread subversive doctrines is being much discussed in the east. Public opinion seems to be divided as to the wisdom of taking such extreme measures and there seems to be a somewhat general fear that such action is liable to lead to even stronger action in the future. The federal government refuses to be a party to such action just as it refuses to be a party to Premier Aberhart's vagaries.

Dinner To Artiste

MISS AIKO SAITA

The visiting Canadian born Japanese artiste, Miss Aiko Saita, who was trained in Italy and spent two years singing in Japan, was honored guest at a dinner given in the Commodore Cafe by the Prince Rupert Japanese Association Saturday evening. Sadao Suga presided and with him at the head table, in addition to the guest of honor, her sponsor and her accompanist, were Dr. R. G. Large, president of the Prince Rupert Philharmonic Society, Tom Shimizu, President of the Prince Rupert Japanese Association, Mrs. Shelford Darton represented the Ladies' Music Club, and Miss Kathleen Lang, the Japanese Mothers' Club. Others present included Sergeant J. H. McClintock, Charles Balagno, Hugo Kraupner, Leonard Cripps, W. J. Raymond, H. F. Fullen and a number of local Japanese residents.

After dinner Mr. Suga spoke of the pleasure it was to have Miss Saita come to sing in this city. She was an outstanding Japanese lady who was trained in different parts of the world, and her vocal efforts had won great praise.

Dr. Large welcomed the visitor on behalf of the Philharmonic Society under whose auspices she was to sing.

Miss Lang welcomed Miss Saita on behalf of the Mothers' Club. She said she had heard a great deal about their visitor and she hoped to see and hear more of her.

Miss Saita, being called upon to say a few words, bashfully remarked that she did not mind singing but she was quite unable to make a speech. She thanked all for the fine reception given her. Everyone had been very kind.

The gathering closed with the singing of "God Save the King."

rearrangement of the powers of this parliament and of the legislatures of the provinces, in the very nature of things the 'social' problem cannot be dealt with."

It is often contended that national social problems are most effectively and most conveniently dealt with on a national basis. Otherwise, there are the dangers of separating responsibilities for raising money and responsibilities for spending it and the danger of establishing varying standards of living across Canada. On the other hand, however, is the desirability of local autonomy to the greatest possible extent and the fact that local authorities are best informed on district problems.

Question of Subsidies

Economists differ widely on the continuation of subsidies to the provincial governments, a source of dispute since Confederation. Some maintain subsidies are an admission of the failure of the tax system, to perform its proper function.

It has been suggested that the Dominion eliminate subsidies and take over as much of the provincial debt as could be carried for the amount now paid out in subsidies. This has been considered but it is understood that they be relieved of as much debt as could be carried at the Dominion's lower rate of interest rather than at the existing provincial rate.

The objection is seen that, though such an arrangement would probably be made as a final assistance to the provinces, they might again come to the Dominion for aid in the next emergency just as they did after the "flood" subsidy adjustments of 1936 and 1937.

Some change is also felt necessary because at present the Dominion government is in danger of becoming the chief creditor of some provinces which raises the question of possible infringement of provincial sovereignty in fact if not in name.

This Dominion assumption of debt might, of course, be accompanied by some provision for regulation of future provincial borrowing. In the United States, those states having borrowings most restricted are said to have best survived the depression. Regulation might be effected through a kind of national loan council.

The suggestion will doubtless be made to the commission that the three prairie governments and three maritime governments be merged for economy. Elimination of some overlapping between township and county governments may also be advanced.

REMEMBER PEOPLE'S NAMES

HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE
By DALE CARNEGIE... Author of the famous book of this name

FOR INSTANCE

"Politicians know the value of remembering names. They have learned the truth of the saying that: 'To recall a voter's name is statesmanship.' To forget it is oblivion."
"In business and in social contacts the ability to remember names is quite as important as it is in politics."

"A man's name is the most important thing in the world to him. Since history began, men have sought to perpetuate the memory of their names. The Pharaohs built pyramids; our modern multi-millionaires endow libraries and museums to insure that their names will not be forgotten."

"Much as we want other people to remember our names, we seldom make any effort to remember theirs. We don't take the time and energy necessary to fix names in our minds."
"When we are introduced to a stranger and talk for a few minutes, half the time we can't remember his name when we want to say goodbye."

HAVE YOU SMOKED A TURRET LATELY?

ONE never forgets a name which is associated with enjoyable experiences. That is why the name "Turret" has been pleasantly familiar to thousands of cigarette smokers for many, many years. The unique and original Virginia blend... the satisfying goodness of the tobacco... the unvarying high quality of these famous cigarettes are something to remember. If you haven't smoked a Turret lately, try a package today. Notice, too, that there is a handy calendar on the back of every package.

John Freidham and Jack McRae returned to port Saturday after a two week's trip to Queen Charlotte Island points on the former's trailing boat Victory. They encountered a lot of bad weather which held them up considerably.
