Premier Tonight

Premier Pattullo opens his campaign tonight in the Moose Hall and doubtless there will be a good crowd out to hear him. At the last meeting he gave a friendly talk to his constituents. This time he is in a more belligerent mood and it is possible there may be some fireworks. At any rate it will not be the same kind of meeting as the previous one. Mr. Pattullo is a born fighter and is at his best when there is opposition. He should be worth hearing tonight.

A Pleasant Campaign

The political campaign is opening well. At the meeting held last night in the Moose Hall the Conservatives started the campaign in an exceedingly temperate and pleasant manner. There was no mud-slinging and the discussions were conducted on a very high plane. Everything points to a fight strictly within the Marquis of Queensberry rules and with well padded gloves.

The Letter Box

PLEA OF THE NATIVES

Editor, Daily News:

We, the Nishgah Tribe of Indians, which includes the Indian villages of Kincolith, Greenville, Canyon City and Gittlakdamix, wish to heartily thank the people of Prince Rupert for their kind invitation to come to Prince Rupert and co-operate with them in the celebration of the Coronation of their gracious Majesties, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. Our Indian peoples have always been very loyal subjects of the Crown. While joining with the white people in these Coronation ceremonies, we feel that it is only just and right that we bring to the attention of the white people certain grievances which we feel we have. We are not bringing these grievances before you merely as a matter of complaint but in the hope that it may be of some service in having these wrongs (as we believe them to be) remedied.

In the first place, the Indians feel that they have not been fairly treated in the matter of the question of the original lands which they owned when the whites came to the country. This question in the past has been taken up with the Dominion Government at various times but recently we have been prevented

PRINCE RUPERT DRY DOCK AND SHIPYARD

Shipbuilders and Engineers.
Iron and Brass Casting.
Electric and Acetylene Welding.

Specialists on Sawmill and Mining Machinery.
All Types of Gas Engines Repaired and Overhauled.

from organizing and bringing this subject before the Dominion Government.

In the second place, the Indians feel that they should be allowed the right to enter into the affairs of government by being allowed the right to vote the same as the white people. It is true Indians are allowed to vote providing they leave their reserves and live as white people but, in that case, they lose all their Indian rights and we feel that we should be allowed the franchise while still living upon our Indian reserves and exercising our rights as Indians.

In the third place, the Indians feel that there is a discrimination against them in the matter of relief and pension payments in which they are not treated as well as white people, much smaller amounts being allowed to the Indian. It will be more necessary than ever for the Dominion Government to increase the amount of relief to the Indians of the Naas by reason of the fact that many Indians, both male and female, have recently lost the means of earning money because one of the two canneries on the Naas has been closed down and a great many Indians are thus thrown out of work during the summer months.

Speaking generally, the Indians think that the time has come when they should be given the same rights and privileges as white people, while at the same time keeping their reserve and Indian property for the reason that the Indians were the original owners of the land and were here before the white people. We think this is only just and right.

We are making this protest in the hope that the people of Prince Rupert will be sympathetic to the desires of the Indians for improvement in their conditions and that they will give the Indians their moral support in any movement for betterment.

CONSERVATIVES

actually had had deficits. Borrowings had not been accounted for. It was like an individual claiming he had made ends meet during the year by paying current accounts without rent or water rates. Continued borrowing meant more taxation and it was the working man, the farmer and the small business man who must pay. The Conservative party intended to stop further borrowing, to balance the budget by drastic economy and elimination of waste and extravagance and to lower interest rates. More assistance would be given to municipalities. Liquor profits and motor licences would be shared with them and social services would be taken care of to a certain degree.

Mr. Evitt did not think the north would suffer if the number of seats in the legislature were reduced as proposed by the Conservative party. Dr. Patterson promised to have due regard for rural districts. Possibly the number of seats in the north would not be cut. In any case, the south would also be cut. A highway commission, independent of political control, as proposed by the Conservative party, would be a Godsend to the province. It would mean a definite program of road work carried out permanently. As for the local road ten miles had been built in twenty-one years. Of this three miles and a $65,000 bridge had been built by the Conservatives during five years of office. Six and a half miles had been built in sixteen years by the Liberals.

Mr. Evitt spoke in favor of the divorcing of civil service from politics, continuity of tenure and promotion by merit; re-establishment of confidence in the mining industry by revision of the Securities Act, assistance of prospectors and reorganization of the department; conservation of forest wealth by stopping of destruction and waste and reforestation; assistance to the agricultural industry and encouragement of producers' co-operative schemes; settlement of areas already provided with roads instead of indiscriminate settling of unsuitable and isolated areas; more practical educational system; a real plan of health insurance fair and of service to all.

"If elected," concluded Mr. Evitt, "I would endeavor to represent you as a business man and give a good business administration not for Conservatives alone but for Liberals, C. C. F., Social Credit and all."

Mr. McPhillips

As far as the provincial election in Prince Rupert was concerned, Mr. McPhillips thought it became a question of hearing the lion in his den. It was fitting, Mr. McPhillips thought, that charges should be made right here in the seat of the Premier against this government. He had no hesitation in denouncing the Liberal administration as propounders of broken pledges such as work and wages, establishment of utilities and highway commissions and economical administration. The blame must fall fairly and squarely on the Premier. The biggest issue of the campaign, the speaker declared, was that of extravagance of administration. Not only the income but borrowed money had been spent. Where had it all come from? What was the "nest egg" to which the Premier had referred? Mr. McPhillips challenged the Premier to say how much money his government had taken from Workmen's Compensation Board funds. The speaker listed as extravagances the trips of the Premier and ministers to Ottawa and the coal enquiry. Talk of British North America Act amendment was all poppycock. What could the "little voice" of British Columbia do in amending the B. N. A. Act? The calling of an election after three and a half years when it need not have been called for five years was another piece of extravagance. Two sessions in one year had not been necessary. Now the Premier promised to give British Columbia the Yukon. He said that his government stood committed to take over the "Arctic boneyard" with its liability of $305,000 a year. Mr. McPhillips saw the hand of Premier Mackenzie King who was friendly to the United States. It would not be diplomatic for the Dominion to permit the United States to run a military road through the Yukon but, if it belonged to British Columbia, the international aspect would be removed. The speaker reminded the Premier of the "Shooting of Dan McGrew." They had shot Dan with bullets Duff would be shot with ballots on June 1. And then the undertaker, Mr. McPherson, could come around with his hearse and take the boys home. The Conservatives would never permit British Columbia to be made the causeway for a foreign power. The health insurance scheme of the government also came in for the denunciation of Mr. McPhillips. The plebiscite was merely a sham. Why had not the government let the public know all the truth about Hedley Amalgamated. He challenged the government to produce the Richmond report in full before June 1.

Bowser had been beaten in Vancouver. Oliver in Victoria and Tormie in Saanich, declared the speaker, and so could Pattullo be beaten in Prince Rupert. He believed that any government would be prepared to give Prince Rupert cabinet representation if a man fit to take it was sent to Victoria. In Mr. Evitt the Conservatives had an excellent candidate here.

"The present government has shown itself unworthy and incompetent and, through the Yukon Annexation proposal, insane. On June 1 vote Conservative and take a hand in the shooting of Dan McGrew!"

ONE OF THESE DAYS HE'LL BE LOOKING FOR A JOB

HE'S stretching up, that young man of yours. One of these days he'll be into his first pair of long trousers. Before you know it, he'll be one of the group of young Canadians who must be provided with jobs. And won't you be proud and happy the day he brings home his first week's earnings!

It's fortunate for our young men that industry is fast expanding in Canada, for growing industries mean more jobs and opportunities. Canadian Automobile Manufacturers at the present time employ over 18,000 men and women, and in the hundreds of other Canadian industries from whom they purchase raw materials, parts and supplies, an even greater number are earning their livelihood.

Increased employment means increased Canadian payrolls — more money to be spent for food, clothing, furniture, for the needs and comforts of life. And the production of these motor cars and trucks provides still more employment, and a greater demand for the products of farm and factory, forest, sea and mine.

The continued growth of the automotive industry will promote prosperity throughout Canada, and provide more wealth for Canadians in all walks of life.

In 1936, Canadian Automobile Manufacturers spent over sixty million dollars in Canada in payment for purchases of materials and parts — and for services, including transportation. When you purchase a motor car or motor truck that is manufactured in Canada you are contributing directly to the employment of Canadians, and to the revenues of Canadian transportation systems.

For statistical and further information about this industry, write to Automotive Industries, 1006 Lumsden Building, Toronto.

One of the interesting features of the Coronation Day parade here on Wednesday was the pipe band organized by Sam Leslie which, in the course of the street procession, played several enlivening airs which were appreciated more especially by the Scottish folk and those with a taste for this type of Caledonian music. Miss Flora Leslie, daughter of Mr. Leslie, was the drummer which made the group especially unique.

Halibut Landings For Week Over Half Million Pounds—Phippen Undergoes Renewal Work—Halibut Limit Raised at Seattle

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the week ending yesterday totalling 517,500 pounds were fairly heavy. Of this total 252,000 pounds was brought in by Canadian vessels and 265,500 pounds by American. The total of landings for the season to date stands at 3,427,000 pounds as compared with 2,923,600 pounds at a corresponding date last year. This year's Canadian landings have reached a total of 1,893,890 pounds in comparison with 1,614,800 pounds last year while the American total is 1,533,200 pounds as against 1,308,800 pounds a year ago. High price of the past week for Canadian halibut was 7.7c and 5c which the Balsac, Ingrid H. and Mac West received for catches of 17,000, 11,500 and 12,000 pounds respectively while the low price was 7c and 5c which several vessels received for their fares. For American fish the high price of the week was 8.6c and 6c paid the Sirius for 12,000 pounds and the low 8c and 6c which a number of boats received. While the price average was somewhat higher it was quite steady.

HOSPITAL MEETING

Business at Session Last Night Largely of Routine Nature—Reports Presented

The board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was in regular monthly session last night. Business was almost entirely of a routine nature. G. P. Tinker, president, was in the chair and directors present were W. M. Brown, G. V. Wilkinson, Frank Dibb and Dr. J. H. Carson, also H. W. Birch, managing secretary, and Miss Jean Harrison R.N., lady superintendent.

The fire chief's report stated that fire equipment in the hospital and Nurses' Home was in good order. The house committee reported the purchase of a laundry stove as well as renewal of planking on the Green Street entrance. Hospital Day having fallen on Coronation Day, its observance locally was deferred until later. The lady superintendent reported the institution quite busy. Disbursements for the month totalled $4443.25, the cost per hospital day being $2.50.

Capt. Jim Morrison's general service boat F. H. Phippen has been at the McLean Ways at Seal Cove for the past week having her stern renewed, new bulwarks put in and other general repairs carried out. Tonight the Phippen leaves on a trip to the Queen Charlotte Islands, taking C. V. Evitt, Conservative candidate for Prince Rupert, and J. T. Harvey on an election campaign tour.

Three halibut vessels sold catches at Seattle yesterday. They were: Paragon, 33,500 pounds, New England, 9 1/2c and 6 1/2c; Chelsea, 39,000, Washington, 9c and 7 1/4c; Faith, 5,500 pounds, Whiz, 10 1/2c and 7c. The Paragon also had 2,000 pounds of sablefish for which 4c per pound was paid. The Chelsea was the first of the Seattle fleet to land a catch under the Seattle Halibut Production Control Board's regulation whereby vessels, fishing in Area No. 3, are permitted to bring in, after having made two trips, a limit of 3,500 pounds instead of 3,000 pounds per man. The Chelsea reported having considerable trouble during the last voyage with sea lions off Chirikoff Island. She had several fish showing the characteristic depredation of the sea lion which takes one bite out of a fish and leaves the rest, the fish thus being rendered worthless for marketing.

R. G. Johnston, manager of Inverness cannery, called this morning on the Cardena for a business trip to Rivers Inlet.

SHIRLEY IN NOVEL ROLE

Popular Child Star Has Part Of Waif in "Stowaway"—Sings And Talks Chinese

Teeming with danger, excitement, thrills, war-lord bandits, and Shirley Temple as a little waif who talks and sings Chinese, the new film, "Stowaway," is this week-end at the Capitol Theatre.

As Ching-Ching, the adopted daughter of a missionary couple killed in a rebel raid, Shirley is picked up by Robert Young, a carefree young millionaire who is touring the world. Shirley, accidentally stowing away in Young's car on a cruise ship, is instrumental in his meeting Alice Faye, pretty fiancée of stuffy young Allan Lane.

While waiting for Allan to join her at Hong Kong, Alice tours the town with Young and his little protegee, all of them having a glorious lark.

Allan then appears to claim his bride-to-be, but they part in a fierce quarrel. Meanwhile Young is told by Chinese authorities that he cannot adopt Shirley, being unmarried, and must put her in a local orphanage. Determined not to part from her, he proposes to Alice that she become his wife in name only, then proceed to Reno for a divorce. This she does, but Young, realizing he is really in love with her, follows her to Reno and, with Shirley's artful aid, wins her consent to stay married.

Shirley's supporting cast includes, in addition to Robert Young and Alice Faye, Eugene Pallette, Helen Westley, Arthur Treacher, J. Edward Bromberg and Astrid Allwyn.

William A. Seiter, who visited Prince Rupert last summer with his wife, Marion Nixon, directed "Stowaway."

A FEW TOOLS
 Are Worth While

Spring brings to light many small jobs that anyone can do—if he has the right tools. These do not necessarily cost much money. Don't borrow your neighbor's, own your own. We have all kinds of tools at various prices.

"and it's easy to pay for under the HOME IMPROVEMENT PLAN"

Do you need a modern home? Are you dissatisfied with the out-of-date interior, the shabby exterior of your house? Then why not make those improvements you have always wanted, and enjoy a brighter, happier place to live in? You can do it so easily — and comfortably — under the Home Improvement Plan. Decide on the work you want done and get an estimate of its cost.

SIMPLIFIED FINANCING
 Any contractor, supply firm or architect can help you arrange a Home Improvement Plan loan if you need it, to finance the work for you, or you can apply direct to your banker. No security or endorsement needed; you simply show that you can repay in instalments and the loan is made, the work proceeds, your home is made brighter and more livable and men get needed jobs.

Full information on the Home Improvement Plan and what it covers may be obtained from your local committee, your Provincial Chairman, your bank or the National Employment Commission, Ottawa.
