TERRIBLE DISASTER DURING LAST NIGHT'S GALE

BOTH SIDES SCORING BY VICTORIES IN CHINA

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Peking, Nov. 29.—Hanyang has been occupied by the Imperial forces. Wu Hang has made a provisional capitulation and it is evident the Government is getting a strong hand in that part of Hupei province, where a few weeks ago the rebels seemed to be in supreme control.

Nanking, Nov. 29.—At an early hour this morning the rebel forces entered by the four gates of the city.

BLAMES SPARKS FOR THE FIRE

Mr. McMullin Makes Investigation for Report—City Council Enquired Into Matter Last Night and Are Considering Evidence.

Government Agent McMullin stated this morning that beyond his own personal investigation into the circumstances of the fire, on which he will in course of report, there will be no inquiry necessary. Mr. McMullin has been making exhaustive enquiry of all concerned and has formed the conclusion that the fire could not have originated from the heating apparatus, as half an hour before the outbreak there was only a very small fire in the furnace. This is vouched for by the janitor.

Mr. McMullin's own conviction is that sparks must have drifted under the building from the piles of burning roots on the cleared Bank of Commerce lots to windward across Fourth street. A photograph taken of the burning building and exhibited hand colored by the Electric Studio today shows the conflagration to be most intense farther forward than the furnace room.

The City Council held an enquiry into the matter of the fire last night, in which particular attention was paid to the serious mistake of coupling hose onto a dry hydrant. No decision was come to last night, but the evidence taken is being considered by the Council.

THE NIGHT O' NIGHTS
Tomorrow Night Is St. Andrew's Ball.

"Yestreen when to the trembling string, the dance gae'd thro' the lighted ha'," sang Robbie Burns the day after one of dear old Scotland's far-famed romantic nights of dance and merrymaking. That quotation is for tomorrow. Tomorrow night is the St. Andrew Society dance in the McIntyre Hall. It promises to be a bright and festive assembly.

WON'T PASS RAILWAY PLANS

Judge Mabee This Morning Refused to Sanction G.T.P. Plans for Construction of Line to Mile 3 Westerly

MEANS LOSS OF $400,000 SUBSIDY

Chairman of Railway Commission Says that the Construction of the Line is in Contravention of the Railway Act—Case Was Heard in Prince Rupert—Judgment May Mean the Saving of the Bays

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—Judge Mabee of the Railway Commission this morning refused Mr. D'Arcy Tate's application that the Railway Commission approve the company's plans for the construction of the line from Mile 0 at Prince Rupert, to Mile 3 westerly. The application was made at Prince Rupert during the sitting of the commission, and judgment was given today.

In his judgment Judge Mabee says that all that portion of the line constructed before January 1st, 1910, while the Commission had jurisdiction to approve of any line built there, is a contravention of the Railway Act.

Mr. Tate wanted the approval of the Railway Commission in order to secure from the Government a subsidy of $400,000 that had been promised.

STEAMER TEES FEARED LOST

Struck a Rock in Kyoquot Sound Early This Morning, During the Gale, and Sends Urgent Message For Help

SIGNALS FADED AWAY AT THREE O'CLOCK

U. S. Revenue Cutter Tahoma is Speeding to Her Assistance, But It Will be Ten O'clock Tonight Before She Will Reach the Scene of the Disaster—Feared That She Has Foundered in the Darkness—Was Well Known Craft

(By Dominion Government Wireless System)

At three o'clock this morning the wireless station at Triangle Island received an urgent message for help from the steamer Tees, of the C. P. R. fleet, which had struck a rock in Kyoquot Sound on the West coast of Vancouver Island, during the gale. No vessel was in sight and the wireless station was unable to pick up a vessel in the neighborhood.

The United States Revenue Cutter Tahoma was communicated with in the neighborhood of Cape Flattery, and she at once made all speed to reach the unfortunate vessel, but it will be ten o'clock tonight before she can be at the scene of the disaster.

While the wireless station was speaking, the signals from the distressed vessel faded away, before it was possible to obtain her exact position. Nothing has been heard of her since three o'clock this morning.

SHIPMENT OF DEER
Another Herd for Queen Charlottes by Princess Mary.

Several shipments of deer have been made from Porcher Island to the islands of the Queen Charlotte group by instruction of the Government, which pays the hunters securing suitable live deer. On her next trip the Princess Mary will take a herd of five. There would have been six, but one was mauled to death by dogs where it was penned on the G. T. P. wharf the other night.

The deer are caught by driving them with dogs into a lake where they can be secured by boat. Porcher Island has plenty of deer to spare, but, curious enough, Banks and Dundas islands have no deer, though there are no wolves there to worry them. The absence of wolves and the abundance of fine grazing make the islands an ideal spot for deer and the importation promises to be a success.

COSMOPOLITAN IN DICKENS

CHARLES DICKENS is still a "best seller." Publishers don't argue pro and con over his books—they just order a new carload of paper, oil the presses, and let them speed on. And it has been over forty years since one morning when the yard was filled with scarlet geraniums and the breath of syringa was heavy in the air the great author followed little Nell. Now that the centenary of his birth (February 7th, 1812) approaches, everybody is thinking of Dickens. We have secured several articles which will tell many things about him that have hitherto been unknown. In the January Cosmopolitan his son, Alfred Tennyson Dickens, will tell you some of his own personal recollections of the great novelist. Later, probably in February, Mary Angela Dickens, his granddaughter, will give an intimate view of Dickens as she remembers him. In fact, in these and other articles on Dickens which will follow—fully illustrated, of course—we shall aim to give you a more vivid picture than has yet been published of the human—the home—side of the great master, written by those who knew him best. Read the articles—they will surely arouse a new interest in the "best beloved" author in your library. Subscriptions to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 10th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, box 851, Winnipeg.

CASES ARE SET FOR HEARING

Mr. Justice Clement Will Hear the First of the Contractors' Suits on Friday—Many Cases on Supreme Court List.

This morning at the temporary court in the McIntyre Hall, Mr. Justice Clement heard motions and arranged cases for the Supreme Court hearings.

A motion by Mr. C. V. Bennett for defendants in the Heilbronner v. Hacker case to allow the evidence of the defendants to be taken by commission at Medicine Hat was refused with costs after being opposed by Mr. A. M. Manson for the plaintiffs.

Permission was granted Mr. W. E. Williams to amend the statement of claim in the suit of Frank Kelly and S. H. Watson against the City of Prince Rupert. Mr. Kelly claims $575 for deductions for delays made from his eighth avenue grading contract. S. H. Watson & Co. claim $13,000 for deductions extras and damages over their Second avenue contract.

The list of trials was arranged as follows:

Thursday—Kelly v. Lindsay, trial by jury. This case is one where the plaintiff claims damages for alleged breach of an agreement, whereby Lindsay agreed not to carry on a cartage business in the city for twelve months after the dissolution of their partnership.

Friday—Kelly v. the City, non jury trial.

THE INSPIRATION OF A MAN

The value of the supreme man at the supreme moment cannot be calculated. He can change a losing cause into a triumphant victory by the inspiration of his presence.

A month ago the Liberal party in Ontario seemed dead. The Conservative sweep in the Federal elections had apparently affected the very atmosphere of provincial politics. And in the hour of darkness, when the hopes of the Ontario Liberals were dimmest, the supreme man came forward.

Newton Wesley Rowell is his name, a man much loved and honored by all who knew him. For years he has been one of the leaders at the Ontario bar. Quiet refinement of bearing and culture, such as his are so, infrequent on the hustings, that politics and N. W. Rowell were not often coupled together in the popular imagination.

His exceptional gifts for organization, for oratory of the better kind and his high character, won for him the offer of the paid secretaryship of the Layman's Missionary Movement in Canada. The salary offered, $15,000 a year, was an indication of the value that was placed on his services in a cause where high salaries are not customary.

With the acceptance of the Liberal leadership by Mr. Rowell, the Liberal party in Ontario has undergone a resurrection. Thousands of good men who had previously kept out of politics have followed him into the fray with enthusiasm. The financial sacrifice demanded of him is greater than the financial sacrifice demanded by the offer of the Layman's Missionary secretaryship. But it is with such fervor and zeal and inspiring devotion that he has made missionary enterprise a force in the civilizing of the world, that Newton Wesley Rowell has embarked upon the great task of leading the Liberal party in Ontario. Some cheap critics have already sneered at his programme of social reforms as a "goody-goody" programme. Ontario has the reputation of being peopled with "goody-goody" people.

Already it looks as if the impossible is to be accomplished—as it so often has been accomplished by the supreme man at the supreme moment—and that on December 11th Ontario will go Liberal again.

TABLOID EDITORIALS.

Mr. H. S. Clements, in a recent speech at Victoria, announced that he would press for a more adequate fishery protection service, saying that "millions of dollars had been lost to the assets of Canada" through insufficient protection.

Mr. Clements is mistaken. The "millions and millions of dollars" have been lost owing to the Canadian fishermen having no adequate market for his fish.

An excellent suggestion is made by the Omineca Herald for reform in the mining law to allow the prospector one clear year from the first of January following his date of staking in which to do his first year's assessment work. The present system works a hardship on the prospector who stakes in unfrequented localities in the midsummer months, and has either to come back quickly after recording or make an early visit in the following spring.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

 DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE: *****
FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your printer." You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."

You can sit down with our catalogue, and quietly prepare your list of Yuletide remembrances, and estimate the total cost there and then. Then forward your list to our Mail Order Department, and your Christmas shopping is done. If you have not received a Birks' catalogue, advise us at once. A card with your name and address will bring it to you free of charge. Do not fail to send your order for Christmas goods at an early date.
