MONEY CAN'T PAY FOR BLOOD

Stern Words Used by Mr. Justice Riddell in Sentencing a Merchant to Prison for Criminal Offense.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Toronto, Nov. 30.—A surprise was caused at the Toronto Assizes here today when Mr. Justice Riddell, sent Roy F. Brintnell, a well-to-do Yonge Street merchant to the Central prison for seven months. Brintnell was found guilty of wilful neglect in running down and killing Mrs. Sauter, an aged lady, with his automobile.
A number of prominent Toronto merchants got up a petition bearing 8000 names and asking that a fine be imposed, and presented it to the judge. "I cannot accede to this request," said the Judge. I do not impose a fine for the reason that we should not recognize money can pay, even in small part, for the careless shedding of blood."

SHOCKING DISCOVERY IN DOWN TOWN HOTEL TODAY

Body of John Kelemet Discovered Still Warm and With a Terribly Gashed Throat in a Pool of Blood in his Room This Morning

Dead, but still warm, and with a shocking gash in his throat, John Kelemet was found in his room at the Queen's Hotel at 11.30 this morning by Manager George Poppadolos who had the room door forced. Dr. Tremayne was instantly summoned, but Kelemet was beyond aid. Information was at once given the police, and Constable Hamblin with Chief Vickers reached the scene and had the body searched.
A new razor with which the deed had been done was taken from the room. The case is evidently one of suicide, Kelemet having evidently cut his own throat in swift determined manner without even taking off his collar.

Papers found on the body along with $51 in cash, show that he came on the Cetriana from Vancouver on the 26th. Deceased was a member of the Western Federation of Miners, having joined at Nome in August, 1908. An inquest will be held tonight at 8 p.m.

FIRST LOT SOLD FOR $1,200

It Was a Choice Double Corner on Atlin Avenue Close to the Overhead Approach of the Government Waterfrontage ---Looks as if High Prices Will Be Secured

About forty thousand dollars was realized by the sale of Section Two lots this morning before twelve-thirty, when the sale was adjourned for lunch.

Lot 37, Block 1, the first lot which came under the hammer, fetched $1200. It was the double corner on Atlin Avenue where the overhead crossing will be giving access to the Government waterfrontage, and was bought by Aldermen Kirkpatrick and Clayton. Lot 38 fetched $950; 39, $850; and 40 went for $715. Lot 40 marked the point where the bidders wavered off into $5 bids.

The biggest price in the morning was obtained for lots 1 and 2, block 6, which fetched $2775 each; Lots 23 and 24, Block 4, which went for $2075; Lots 1 and 2, Block 3, realized $2380 each, and Lots 17 and 18, Block 4, $1610 each. A great many lots fetched over $1000 and no lot went for less than $625 of those sold this morning. As some 42 lots were sold realizing roughly $38,670, the average price works out to close on $1000 per lot.

quite ready to give his opinion offhand that the contract was legally awarded to the Journal. "I dispute that," said Alderman Newton. "I have all respect for City Solicitor Peter's opinion, but when he gives us that kind of gush I have no use for it."
Mr. Peters objected to his advice being styled "gush," and after an hour's wrangling the Mayor finally ruled Alderman Newton out of order, and adjourned the meeting.

ALD. MORRISSEY PROTESTS AGAINST CIVIC LAW-SUITS

Says That City is Fighting a Losing Battle Against the Contractors and the Mayor and Aldermen Know It

At the city council meeting last night, just before adjournment Alderman Morrissey entered a strong protest against the pressing by the City of the defence in the lawsuits entered by the various contractors over the grading of Section One. He declared that every alderman present was personally convinced that the City was going to fight a losing battle, and the result of it would be the publication to the detriment of Prince Rupert throughout the length and breadth of the continent of those legal proceedings.
The Council will meet again tonight at 8 p. m.

POPE PIUS X CONFERS HIGH HONORS UPON THREE AMERICAN PRELATES

At Great Consistory Held in the Vatican, Archbishop Farley, Archbishop O'Connell and Mgr. Falconio are Made Cardinals—Archbishop Bourne is Created Cardinal for England

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Rome, Nov. 30.—At a Consistory held at the Vatican yesterday, the Pope conferred the red hat, the sign of cardinalship on twenty-two leading clerics. Among those honored were three from America, Archbishop John Murphy Farley, of New York, Archbishop W. M. O'Connell, of Boston, and Mgr. Diomedo Falconio, Papal delegate at Washington.

Cardinal for England.
Archbishop Bourne, of Westminster, was also created a Cardinal, thus re-establishing the English See, which has been vacant since the death of Cardinal Vaughan in 1903. This removes a great grievance under which English Roman Catholics have labored.

Cardinal Farley
Cardinal Farley has been a priest for forty years. He is a native of Armagh, Ireland, but has lived in America most of his life. In 1884 he was private Chamberlain to Pope XIII. He has been archbishop of New York for nine years.

Cardinal O'Connell.
Cardinal O'Connell is the only American born and the youngest of the American cardinals. He was born at Lowell, Mass., fifty-two years ago. He distinguished himself in 1905 by a special mission to Japan. As a result of his negotiations with the Mikado the Catholic Church was placed on good terms with the Japanese Government, and the see of Boston was his reward.

Cardinal Falconio.
Cardinal Falconio will be remembered by Canadian Catholics as the papal delegate who visited the Dominion in 1889. He has been serving in Washington since 1902. Cardinal Falconio has his mother to thank for the great honor Pope Pius has conferred on him, as it was his mother, a peasant woman, who urged her son to enter the priesthood.

ALDERMAN DECLARES THAT CONTRACT RIGHTFULLY BELONGED TO THE "NEWS"

Question of Advertising of Assessment Schedules Came Up Again in Council Last Night—Alderman Newton Insists That "The Daily News" Was the Lowest Legitimate Tenderer—Ruled Out of Order by Mayor

"Moved by Ald. Newton, seconded by Ald. Douglas, that fresh tenders be called for Section 4 Local Improvement Notices."
The above motion was put by Alderman Newton at the Council meeting last night. He claimed that the News and Empire were misled as to the condition under which the advertising had to appear and that the giving of the contract to the Journal was illegal, as the Daily Journal was not in existence at the time the contract was awarded.

"By all that is fair and by all that is legal," said Alderman Newton, finally, "the Daily News was entitled to that contract I am not here for myself alone, but for fair and square dealing with the public."

The Mayor referred the matter to the City Solicitor, who was

GRAVE ALLEGATION

Charge That Hose Was Disconnected to Let Team Pass.

J. L. Weston wrote the Council last night explaining the matter of the shutting off of a hose line in order, as alleged, to let a team of his pass during the Registry fire. He represented that the hose had been disconnected from the hydrant for some purpose by two men, and his teamster had seized the opportunity of re-hitching up his team, which had been unhitched and led some distance away, and hurrying the rig across the line. The matter is still unsatisfactory to the Council and investigation by the Chief of Police was ordered.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS.

Continuation of Woodwater Lake Rain Records Recommended.

Arrangements have been made by Col. Davis for continuance of the keeping of rainfall and meteorological records at Woodwater lake by one of the surveyors of the party now to the take. AN UNSATISFACTORY INQUIRY

Unknown and friendless as he is, John Crawford, who met his death by falling off the Second Ave. sidewalk last Saturday night, deserves that a more searching inquiry than has been made should be made into the causes that led to his death.

Anybody who saw his crushed skull, knew that he died of his injuries. It requires no doctor or official board to announce that fact. The question that demands an answer is: "How did he come to walk off the sidewalk to his death?"

There are two theories to his death, and a third that is a combination of the two. One is that he walked over the sidewalk because it was dark, and the corner was unprotected; the other is that he was intoxicated, and did not know what he was doing.

If the first theory was correct, then it was a matter for a coroner's jury to decide whether or not a charge should lie against the City authorities who contributed to his death by leaving that corner unprotected.

If the second theory is correct then it is a matter for a coroner's jury to decide whether or not a verdict should be returned fixing the responsibility on the hotel keeper who permitted the man to leave his hotel in an irresponsible condition.

The decision made to hold a "police inquiry" instead of a public inquest, is not satisfactory. The safety of every man, woman and child who uses the streets is menaced by the failure to definitely establish the causes that led to John Crawford's death.

TABLOID EDITORIALS

Something should be done to take care of that poor old lady who advertises in the Empire day after day that she lost a purse containing a big roll of bills on the previous day. It was bad enough to lose a wad the first day. It was a coincidence to repeat the misfortune on the following day. But it is an expensive habit for the poor old lady to keep on losing a large roll of bills day after day for three weeks.

Before acting on the suggestion to increase the City Solicitor's salary from $150 to $250 a month, wouldn't it be wiser to see how the contractors' suits fare. This is fair to the City Solicitor. A good solicitor is not dear at $250 a month.

Someone has played a joke on the Empire. Yesterday it reprinted a portion of the story of the pioneer days, especially written for the Daily News by Mr. Thos. Deasy of Massett. The Empire copied it from a Kamloops paper in apparent ignorance of the fact that it originated in the columns of the News two months ago.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"
DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE:
FIRST—"CATCH YOUR HARE"
To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.
As this office produces good printing you may "infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women.

A MONTENEGRIN WEDDING.

Millie Denda Was Wedded in Prince Rupert With Old Customs.
Yesterday the most novel wedding ever held in Prince Rupert took place, when Millie Denda, a fine looking naive Montenegrin girl who has lived for six years in Seattle, became the bride of Peter Vukanovitch.

As soon as the final word had been pronounced by the Rev. F. W. Kerr, he company grabbed the groom and anointed him with wine and he was spirited away, while the bride and the best man dispensed the hospitality. A big feast followed, in which over a hundred roasted chickens—one for each guest—figured. All day and into the night the merry-making was kept up.

HOW TO RECEIVE

First Rule to Observe in Receiving Guests Is Punctuality.
Never under any conditions let the first guest arrive before you are fully prepared to receive.

As a guest enters the hostess should cordially offer her hand. Then should follow an introduction to those in line, if the guest be unknown to them.

Admiral Schley's Own Story

A man died the other day, and with his death passed America's most popular naval hero—popular because championed by the people, though officially denied the full fruits of his long and brilliant service. This man was Admiral Schley, hero of Santiago, one of the great sea-fighters of history. Shortly before his death Admiral Schley completed for Cosmopolitan a series of articles giving his personal recollections of his forty-five years in the navy. He was not anxious to do this for there was at least one old story that an autobiography must reopen. But we urged upon him the fact that nearly four million readers would see each instalment of his story, and most of these readers believed, with Admiral Dewey, that the men who stood on the deck of the Brooklyn that July Sunday in '98 were entitled to the glory of that great victory. So he consented. Not in the cut and dried way, but unlocking his secret soul as he had never done before. The first instalment of the autobiography, the life story of a man worth while in the nation's history, appears in the Christmas number. Subscription to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 10th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, Box 851 Winnipeg.

Two Waterfront Questions.

There are two questions being asked around the waterfront. One is, "Was the Commodore afraid to put to sea when he jettisoned the cargo of the snuff yacht abreast of the Marine Station early in the week?" The other is, "Who is the hunter who shot the tame eagle at Digby Island?"

Do these names mean anything to you? Do you understand their towering significance in the field of literature and art? Have you ever in all your life seen so many names of such eminence grouped together as contributors to one magazine? Such a group would make it a publication beyond price, and that is exactly what we are calling your attention to thithis moment. A magazine whose staff of contributors for 1912 contains all these names. The product of either of the above writers is easily worth the subscription price of $1.50.

Cosmopolitan has endeavored in the past to give its leaders four-fold in return for the subscription price. This policy has increased its circulation until it has outstripped every other American magazine, making it necessary to publish 800,000 copies of the Christmas number. It is our earnest desire to extend immediately the circulation past the million mark, with this end in view, we will, until December 10th, accept subscriptions to Canada at the rate of $1.50.
