MORE MARRIAGES

One evidence of the progress of Canada is the fact that last year there were eighty thousand marriages as compared with seventy-six thousand the previous year. The number of births in the same period declined. Possibly the new marriages may turn out more productive than those that preceded.

ANOTHER SIGN

A report from Great Britain shows that more high-powered cars are being purchased in that country than in the past, the percentage of gain being quite remarkable. Possibly it is the mechanizing of a country which precedes its downfall. What is the use of high powered cars if the population of the country is going to diminish?

EMPLOYMENT INCREASING

Another report from London shows that the output of coal in South Wales is steadily on the increase, that more miners are being employed and that there is a general increase of prosperity in Cardiff where ships are awaiting their turn to load for export. Then thousand more miners are being employed in this coal field than was the case a year ago. That seems like progress.

SHIPBUILDING PROGRESS

Shipbuilding is on the increase in England as well as Scotland. There are 285 vessels in course of construction in Britain just now of which 91 are being built in the north of England, 20 of them on the Tyne, at least one big motorship is being built for American owners. The largest contract is for a new passenger and cargo liner to be built on the Tyne of 26,500 tons. This is the largest to be built there since the Mauretania. This also looks like progress. It is reported that no country in the world except Germany is doing as much ship construction just now as Great Britain.

AIRPLANES AND AIRPORTS

Throughout Britain airplanes are being built and airports established. The country is steadily becoming air conscious and vast sums of money are being spent in bringing the country up to date in landing fields and hangars. This also is looked upon as progress, even if the object to a large extent is to provide a fleet of experienced fliers for defense purposes.

SAMPLING GOING ON

Plant Shipment Put Through Quickly and Efficiently Expected Before Long

While only one shipment of ore has so far been put through the new ore sampling plant at Prince Rupert, others are due to come soon from various sources such as Terrace and Smithers and the possibilities are that the plant may be kept busy well into the fall.

There is at present a more or less permanent staff of two at the plant, one a mechanic and the other a laborer. Douglas Lay, the engineer in charge, is today standing over control of the plant, ready to take over control of the plant.

Visiting the plant a few days ago a Daily News representative noted the system in use there. The ore is first crushed fine enough to pass through a half inch sieve. Then it is quartered and mixed three times and a portion of the mixture is crushed to pass through a quarter inch sieve and finally ground fine enough to go through a one-eighth inch sieve. A small sample of this is sent to Victoria where it will be analyzed for metallic mineral and a check for fifty percent of the value will be sent to the shipper of the ore, the balance of the money, if any, being sent when the ore is finally sent to the smelter and refining received.

Added to the method in comparison with others, Mr. Lay said that the system of sampling is exactly the same as that done at the smaller camps that this is a hand sample whereas at the larger everything is mechanized.

The local plant is thoroughly up to date and seems to do the work well. Individual notices are used for all except those of the printers and for the monthly report.

Should shipments arrive by water the big wharves used by the railway for loading lumber can be swung into use and it holds the scales of ore right at the entrance to the mill.

All that is needed now is for the proprietors to ship in their ore and keep the plant busy.

HIS TALK ENJOYED

Rev. Dr. J. E. Henderson Addresses History Club on Interesting Theme at Luncheon Hour Yesterday

"The Equality of Service" proved to be a theme around which the speaker, Rev. Dr. J. E. Henderson, spun a web of applications that kept the members of the History Club and visitors keenly alert with enjoyment for nearly an hour during the luncheon hour following the regular weekly luncheon at which he was the guest of honor.

Dr. Henderson declared that the motto of equality was settled. "Let them be the motto of the Prince of Wales was 'I serve.' It was only through service that the individual could realize his highest self. It was the real chance of becoming great.

The speaker then referred to the value of the service done to the community and to the individual. It was an effort to build men in the service of mankind. It brought them in tune with the infinite. Nature was full of service everywhere. The flower gave of its beauty, the tree of its shade or its fruit.

Dr. Henderson then spoke of the value of intelligent service as opposed to useless attempts at service and finally dealt with the value in developing the noble character. The object was the making of noble men. Intelligently applied service became a social force. The story of all great movements was the story of great individuals. An age became great when there was a multitude of great souls. The civilization of today was built on a great man, a great soul working together with the divine. Nothing great ever just happened. It was wrought in time and travail.

Cost Of Flying In North High

Plane in Yukon Territory Tell Of High Cost of Fuel Supply For Cars, Planes

PRINCE RUPERT, Sept. 3. (N.P.)—"Flying high" applies in more ways than one to the operation of an air transport service in the Yukon territory.

George J. Simmons and L. E. Cook of Northern Airways Limited, arriving here at the end of a 24-hour flight from Carcross, Y. T., told of the high fuel cost in the northern country, where motorists today pay $1 a gallon for gasoline. At one time airplane fuel was retailed as high as $2.50 a gallon.

Added to this, the fliers said, is 150 hours of unrecompensated flying every winter to replenish their gasoline caches at important points.

Besides a regular mail service between Carcross, Atlin and Telegraph Creek, B.C., and Whitehorse and Mayo, Y.T., much of their business is in the form of charter flying, transporting mining men and supplies to their mines in the spring.

Jimmy Walsh, British lightweight boxing champion, has cancelled a trip to South Africa for an Empire title fight with Laurie Stevens, holder of the Empire title.

T. H. Cotton, British open golf champion, lost by three and two to A. P. Padgham, last year's titleholder, in an 18-hole match watched by a large crowd at London.

He used a different coin every time but Trevor Wallace, captain of Sea Lake cricket club, lost the toss in all five matches this season. And Sea Lake won them all.

It sounded like the League of Nations when the International Summer School played a game of soccer. Shouts in German, Italian, Swedish, Danish, Dutch and English rent the air.

A scheduled 12-round fight between Ronnie James and Douglas Kestrell in London ended with Kestrell's disqualification. He refused to start in the 11th round because he signed for a 10-round bout.

HARVESTING IS NOW ON

Excellent Weather in Bulkley Valley Smithers Fair Opens

SMITHERS, Sept. 3:—The last four days have been ideal harvesting weather in the Bulkley Valley after all the wet weather that had inflicted itself upon a long-suffering farming community and the farmers have been very busy taking advantage of their opportunity to gather in the crops still unharvested.

Timothy seed is now being cut and as soon as that is completed the grain will come under the binder. The crops are all heavy and all that is needed is a continuance of fine weather for the ripening and harvesting of the grain.

The Smithers Fall Fair is in full swing today and shows a fine exhibition of local produce from this year's crops. The present fine weather, while being a boon to the fair in one way, will work against it in other ways as many farmers and their families will not take time out to visit the fair while the weather is so perfect for their farm operations. It is expected that there will be a good attendance under any circumstances and it is hoped that the fair board will find the exhibition as great a success financially this year as it proved to be last year. Horse racing will be a feature of the fair and the race track has been put into excellent shape for this attraction. The Smithers Band will be in attendance for the occasion.

NEW YORK CAR HERE

New York Man and His Family Visiting City After Transcontinental Drive

A big Lincoln touring car, bearing a New York licence plate and the dust of many miles of transcontinental travelling, is a rather unusual sight on the streets of Prince Rupert today. The car is that of A. H. Ehrenclaw of New York City who brought it in on last night's train from Hazelton after having driven across the continent accompanied by his wife and four children. They will proceed to Vancouver tonight aboard the steamer Cardena, taking the car with them.

Mr. Ehrenclaw would have welcomed the opportunity to have been able to say that he had reached Alaska in the course of his long trip but it was, of course, impossible to drive there and it would have taken too long to go north from here by boat although he was still considering going so this morning.

This is probably the first New York licensed car ever to be seen here.

Timely Recipes

CHEESE SOUP

Four cups milk, 2 or 3 slices onion, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 3/4 cup grated cheese, yolks of 2 eggs.

Scald milk with onion. Remove onion. Melt butter in top part of double boiler. Blend in flour. Add hot milk and seasonings and stir constantly until mixture thickens. Cook five minutes. Add beaten egg yolks. Cook one minute and add grated cheese. Beat with egg beater and serve at once. Egg yolks may be omitted but they make a richer and more delicious soup.

BUILDING IS AHEAD

Value for Year to Date More Than Twice That of Last Year Despite Light August

Building permits for the month of August in Prince Rupert amounted to the slim total of but $300 which, at that, was ahead of the $225 in August last year. So far this year permits have reached a total of $21,243 or more than double last year's $9,708 at a corresponding date.

Two permits were issued in August—one to V. Lewis for the construction of a workshop at a cost of $75 and the other to John Watson for repairs to his residence on Fifth Avenue East amounting to $225.
