INAUGURATING THE WARD SYSTEM.

Following in the footsteps of every reactionary and wardbossed city on the continent, instead of in the footsteps of those progressive cities which have discarded the ward system, the Council of Prince Rupert has announced its intention, before going to the voters, of dividing the city up into three wards. The ward boundaries proposed are as follows:

West Ward-All westward of a line drawn from the water up Sixth street to Fraser street; thence easterly to Fifth street and along the line of that street produced and Fulton street to Fifth avenue; thence along that street westward to Taylor street; along that street, crossing block 27, section 5, in a straight line to rear of blocks 30 and 31; thence along that line, crossing to Comox avenue in line with the eastern boundary of the Government reserve and taking in all the remainder of the platted portion of the city west of that line.

East Ward-All east of a line drawn from the waterfront along McBride to the lane in the rear of Ninth avenue, including all the platted portion of the city southerly; thence westerly to opposite the alley between blocks 41 and 42, and thence southerly to the bounds of the city.

Center Ward embraces all the territory between these two bounds.

The full intent of the division of the city cannot be understood until the boundaries are traced off on the map. Then it Lots 14 and 15, block 12, section 7, will be seen that while East Ward embraces all the territory east of McBride street, the rest of the city has been gerrymandered until Center Ward in its effort to comprise the Lots 3 and 4, block 22, section 7, $550 Comox avenue district has been carved up to look more like a duck's foot than a city ward. The boundary line is taken up | $1100 pair. and down lanes, and across lots in some places to secure the Lots 11 and 12, block 22, section 8, desired effect. The News entirely accepts the Council's word that the fixing of the boundary lines is the result of a very great deal of careful thought and study.

The possibilities of the gerrymander are quite well known to any "practical" politician. The Ross government in Ontario was credited with keeping itself in power for thirty-three years by a judicious altering of the boundary lines of the of section two, have a full report on various constituencies so as to hive the Grits. At its best the contour of the new wards is a joke. At its worst it is a menace. The circumstances under which it has been brought about make it appear much more a menace than a joke.

A PRESENT OF A CORNER LOT TO ALD. HILDITCH.

For eighteen months the ratepayers and business men of anoth 40 chains, thence east 40 chains to Second avenue have been hindered in their business by the point of commencement, containing 160 impassible nature of the street. Even after spending thousands of dollars on it for a graded roadbed, the surface of the road was left looking like a rock-strewn shore. So noticeable was it that many unkind people said Second avenue was being deliberately sacrificed in order to help those streets on which the aldermen and their friends are located. This was probably an unjust accusation. It was probably just a coincidence that the steam roller started outside the Mayor's house. and has stayed round about Sixth street ever since.

A few weeks ago Alderman Hilditch moved his place of Dated Oct. 31, 1911. residence from Hays Creek into the heart of the proposed new Center Ward. He also bought an old building on Center street to move to a lot on Third avenue, near The News office, the to purchase the following described lands: city kindly loaning him necessary timbers for the job. It was east boundary and about five (5) chains while the moving was in progress that the irate deputation of Second avenue ratepayers swooped down on the City Hall.

The Chairman of the Board of Works heard their grievances for awhile and assured them that he would see that the road was cleared of boulders to permit of the road being opened for traffic. Then he added words something like this: "You need not be afraid that the work will not be done, gentle- of Victoria, B. C., intend to apply for permission to purchase the following demen. I had already instructed the City Engineer to clear away scribed lands: the boulders to let me get my house along."

The News is very anxious to see that building put in place, chains, thence east 40 chains, thence north but in a spirit of self-sacrifice it is willing to forego that pleas- of commencement, containing 120 acres, ure. The News instead proposes that a public subscription be taken up from all the lot owners from Center street to Seal Cove to present Alderman Hilditch with a fine corner lot at Seal Cove on condition that he place his old building on it. In this way at a comparatively small expense we would quickly get the roads placed in order from Center street to Seal Cove, and our good neighbor would be richer by a fine corner lot.

The News would be the only sufferer, but we would gladly make that sacrifice to get those roads in order.

Cosmopolitan and Dickens

CHARLESE DICKENS is still a 'best seller." Publishers don't argue pro and con over his books -they just order a new carload of paper, oil the presses, and let them speed on. And it has been over forty years since, one morning when the yard was filled with scarlet geraniums and the breath of syringa was heavy in the air, the great author followed little Nell. Now that the centenary of his birth (February 7th), 1812), approaches and everybody is thinking of Dickens. We have secured several articles which will tell many things about him that have hitherto been unknown. In the January Cosmopolitan his son, Alfred Tennyson Dickns, will tell you some of his own personal recollections of the great novelist. THE WAY OF AN OCTOPUS

Will Canada Stand for the Exploitation of Her Timber and Natural Resources as the States Have Done?

Charles Edward Russell has made for the Cosmopolitan a thorough investigation of lumber trust methods-he has followed the slippery trail of the lumber octopus literally from coast to coast-and he has the "goods." You will be surprised at his revelations—that the tremendous power of the trust, its brazen indifference to all but its own interests, its hold upon legislators, its highway methods of national pocket picking. It will be a great series of articlesvitally interesting to every one who has ever bought any part of a tree. The first article will appear in January. The Dream of Boys and the Ambition of Men is to Travel

"Take me somewhere east of Suez Where the best is like the worst."

How would you like at this moment to be reclining under the awnings of a palatial steamship, sailing through sunny seas to sunny lands? Nothing to do but smoke your pipe and dream. Or in the soft, velvety night, under the southern cross, with the warm land breeze fanning your cheek, gliding along enchanted shores to the music of throbbing engines and the swish of phosphorescent waters.

To the traveler the fascination of the Far East is beyond the power of expression. There is an indefinable charm in the life and customs of a people whose civilization was old before ours was born. The following are just a few of the places to be seen.

JAPAN

JAPAN—The wonder of the nineteenth century, whose achievements in war and peace have won the admiration of the world.

CHINA

CHINA—Like a huge giant slowly awakening from a long sleep. Japan's commotion has disturbed the Flowery Kingdom—the seeds of western civilization have been sown and now we await the harvest.

INDIA

INDIA—"The brightest jewel in the British crown," with its marvelous history of blood and treasure, its black hole of Calcutta, its massacre of Cawnpore, its siege and relief of Lucknow, where "ever on the topmost roof the banner of England flew" and where "Havelock and his Highlanders" went through "blood and fire" to the rescue of the beleaguered garrison.

CEYLON

CEYLON—The isle of spicy breezes and tea plantations.

THE RED SEA

THE RED SEA—Who has not read the story of Moses, the emancipator of his people, leading the Children of Israel from the land of the oppressor? How the Egyptians with their chariots and horses were swallowed up in the waters of the Red Sea.

THE SUEZ CANAL

THE SUEZ CANAL—Through which pass the ships of all nations.

PORT SAID

PORT SAID—"The wickedest place in the world."

EGYPT

EGYPT—The land of the Pharaoh and of the Nile. The land of the pyramids, from whose height "forty centuries look down upon you" and likewise upon the grave of many a valiant "soldier of the Queen." Aboukir Bay, the scene of the battle of the Nile, immortalised by the famous poem "Casabianca."

"The boy, oh, where was he?
Ask of the winds that far around
With fragments strewed the sea
With mast and helm and pennant fair
That well had borne their part.
But the noblest thing that perished there
Was that young faithful heart."

THE MEDITERRANEAN

THE MEDITERRANEAN—Which floated the navies of Greece and Rome in their time.

GIBRALTAR

GIBRALTAR—The frowning evidence and symbol of British power.

LONDON

LUNDUN
LONDON—The world's greatest city.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK—The home of John D. Rockefeller and Christy Mathewson.

Then home again to your own fireside, where on the long winter nights you may in fancy travel again to strange lands and see strange sights.

Admiral Schleys Own Story

A man died the other day, and with his death passed America's most popular naval hero-popular because championed by the people, though officially denied the full fruits of his long and brilliant service. This man was Admiral Schley, hero of Santiago, one of the great sea-fighters of history. Shortly before his death Admiral Schley completed for Cosmopolitan a series of articles giving his personal recollections of his forty-five years in in the navy. He was not anxious to do this for there was at least one old sore that an autobiography must reopen. But we urged upon him the fact that nearly four million readers would see each instalment of his story, and most of these readers believed. with Admiral Dewey, that the men who stood on the deck of the Brooklyn that July Sunday in '98 was entitled to the glory of that great victory. So he consented. Not in the cut and dried way, but unlocking his secret soul as he had never done before. The first installment of the autobiography, the life story of a man worth while in the mas number, Subscription to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 10th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50.
