DAILY EDITION  Friday, June 11, 1937

War Time Premier

Sir Robert Borden, who died yesterday, was Canada's wartime prime minister, chosen because of his known moderation in politics, his keenness on winning the war and his firmness of character. When he formed a union government in 1917 he was supported by many thousands of Liberals who were more intent on winning the war than on party politics. With the authority of a huge body of the electors he undertook the policy of conscription and when the war was over he strongly supported the League of Nations as a means of preventing more wars. He was one of Canada's great men.

Social Credit in Alberta

An interesting situation arose in connection with Social Credit at the little town of Grimshaw in the Peace River district of Alberta recently. The member for the district, W. J. Lampley, who was one of the insurgents recently in the Alberta Legislature, was endorsed by the executive of the Social Credit party on the casting vote of the chairman. That same evening forty members of the party met and discussed the question and reversed the action of the executive, voting instead to continue support for Premier Aberhart and expressing the opinion that, if Social Credit was to be implemented, it would be under the leadership of Mr. Aberhart. He was the only man who could do it and he should be given his own time to carry it out.

Evidently there was no question before the people there of sidetracking or ignoring Social Credit. They are still hoping that it will be brought about, possibly still having an eye to that $25 a month over which they have been so long disappointed.

Gravelled Roads

If the map recently issued by the backers of the Monkman Pass Highway is correct there is not a gravelled highway in the Peace River district whereas most of the roads in British Columbia are gravelled and can be travelled at almost any time of the year. It is easy to see why the Peace River people are so keen on having their highways improved. After a big rain it is practically impossible to travel in that country by car.

Show the Visitors

We hope the visitors to the city today will take note of the fact that Prince Rupert has been an incorporated city for the past quarter of a century and that, during that time, all the highway the province has constructed in this neighborhood has been about a dozen miles in the general direction of Terrace. Even within the city the townsites company left the people with all the streets and avenues to construct and the provincial government of that day received as their portion of the loot a quarter of all the city lots, on the unsold portion of which they have paid no taxes until this day. The reason for bringing this up just now is to show that, as a matter of justice, we should have a big slice of highway constructed in this neighborhood each year. We have to take these opportunities of laying our case before the people of the south in order that, when these matters come before the legislature, they will realize how badly Prince Rupert has been treated by the governments at Victoria in the matter of highways.

YANKS IN LEAD NOW

Chicago White Sox Drop to Third Place in American League—Cubs Climb in National

CHICAGO, June 11: (CP)—The tie between New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox for supremacy in the American League was broken yesterday when the Yanks scored a heavy-hitting 10 to 3 victory over the White Sox in Chicago. The White Sox dropped into third place below the idle Cleveland Indians who are also a full game behind the Yankees.

In the National League the Chicago Cubs downed the Brooklyn Dodgers 9 to 3 at Ebbets Field and climbed to within half a game of the league-leading New York Giants who were idle with the St. Louis Cardinals on account of rain. The Boston Bees lost a close decision to the cellar dwelling Cincinnati Reds and remain in all but a mathematical tie with the Brooklyn Dodgers who are below them in sixth place in points but even in ratio of games won and lost.

Yesterday's Big League scores:
National League
 Cincinnati 6, Boston 5.
 Chicago 9, Brooklyn 3.
 Pittsburgh 4, Philadelphia 5.
 St. Louis-New York, postponed on account of rain.

American League
 Philadelphia 3, Detroit 4.
 New York 10, St. Louis 3.
 Washington 3, St. Louis 6.
 Boston-Cleveland, postponed on account of wet grounds.

Man in the Moon

Good afternoon. When is this try spell going to let up?

Elections are over, Edward Windsor is safely married, the war scares are getting tame, what is there to write about today?

The Vancouver Chamber of Commerce is here today, so let's celebrate.

They come from the south one hundred strong;

To many a tribe do they belong.

We like to see them, to hear their tales,

And swap with them some hard time wails.

So let us drink to our visitors cheery

And talk of ourselves 'till they grow weary.

A very thin man met a very fat man in the hotel corridor. "From the look of you," said the latter, "there might have been a famine."

"Yes," was the reply, "and from the look of you, you might have caused it."

Old stories are sometimes just as good as new. Here's an old story:

King Edward VII, after lunching at David Sassoon's house, left on foot and was asked the time by a small boy waiting outside.

"Just half past three," he answered.

"Well sir," said the boy, "they say the bloomin' old King is inside that 'ouse. I've been waiting for an hour to see 'im come out, and I aint going to wait no longer; 'e aint worth it."

"I quite agree with you," said King Edward, laughing, "but there's no need for you to wait any longer. I'm the bloomin' old King."

Now that we have most of the sages of the business world in the city why not spring that old one on them, about the pulp mill. They'll appreciate it.

Jake says the Vancouver people get all our money anyway and they are here today to find out why we don't send them more.

GO STRONG IN TENNIS

Mr. and Mrs. Horton, Now Of Prince Albert, Win Northern Saskatchewan Title

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Horton, who moved from Prince Rupert to Prince Albert last year, are still going strong in tennis play. In the Northern Saskatchewan provincial tournament, played recently at Prince Albert, with players from various outside cities participating, Mr. and Mrs. Horton won the mixed doubles championship. Mrs. Horton got as far as the finals of the ladies doubles and reached the semi-finals in ladies' singles. Mr. Horton was eliminated in the first round of the men's singles by last year's provincial champion by a score of 8-6, 4-6, 8-6.

Writing to the Daily News, Mr. Horton says that crop conditions around Prince Albert this year are the best they have been for years. There has been considerable warm weather and the present outlook is very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton find quite a change living on the prairies again after spending several years in Prince Rupert. The shorter days particularly are noticed, it being quite dark at 8:45 in the evenings there. They hope at some future date to come back to Prince Rupert.

VANDINKS WIN GAME

Defeated Navy Two to Nil in Gilhuly Cup Football Game Last Night

Vandinks defeated Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve by a score of two to nil last night in the second game of the Gilhuly Cup football series. It was a hard fought game and a creditable display of soccer was turned in. The Vandinks scored both goals in the first period. Minor Simonsen being responsible for one and Sam Krause for the other. Dennis, Vandink's centre forward, was the star for his side but might have been more effective had he not done quite so much running around. Johnny O'Neill starred for the Navy. G. J. Dawes was referee.

The Gilhuly Cup standing to date is as follows:

	W	D	L	F	A	P
Legion	1	0	0	3	2	2
Vandinks	1	0	1	4	3	2
Navy	0	0	1	0	2	0

There will be a general meeting of the Prince Rupert Football Association Saturday night to consider a proposal to send a local all-star team to Ocean Falls.

"ALL-BRAN LIVES UP TO REPUTATION"

If you are troubled with common constipation, read Miss Bundy's enthusiastic letter:

"I used to feel poorly all the time—just down and out. After reading an advertisement about ALL-BRAN, I got a box. It has helped me ever since."—Miss Mary Bundy (address on request).

Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings "bulk" to exercise the intestines; vitamin B to tone up the intestinal tract.

Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water. This soft mass gently clears the intestines in a safe, natural way—without any of the weakening action of pills and drugs.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—with every meal in severe cases. Serve as a cereal with milk or fruits, or cook into recipes. Remember—ALL-BRAN is a food—not a medicine. You buy it at the grocery store. Made by Kellogg in London.

BLACHFORD IS MASTER

Eminent Canadian Violinist Transports Audience of Music Lovers to Realms of Delight

One of those treats which occur only too seldom for Prince Rupert's lovers of really good music came last night when Frank Blachford, noted Canadian violin master, here to conduct examinations for the Toronto Conservatory of Music, was heard in recital at First Presbyterian Church. The recital was arranged by Miss M. A. Way and Miss Swanna Olafson to whose initiative in making it possible the local musical community is indebted. The audience was transported to realms of delight by Mr. Blachford in a program of nearly two hours which was entirely devoted to violin music. At the close the artist was tendered an ovation to which he graciously responded with two request encores.

Opening in a rather heavy vein, Mr. Blachford presented "Sonata in A Major" by the old master, Corelli. Differing from the modern sonata form, this consisted of a group of four small numbers—largo, giga, adagio and gavotte. Fine tonal effects were deftly portrayed by the artist in the largo. In the giga lilted bowing effects ran almost the entire gamut of the strings. The brief adagio preceded the gavotte with its odd echoing effects.

Grieg's spirited "Sonata in G, Major," characteristic of the Norwegian composer's temperament and radical in form, was a real test of Mr. Blachford's masterly technique. There were three movements—allegro vivace, allegretto tranquillo and allegro animato. Again there was recourse to the full range of the strings with a rare bowing and fingering skill, the culminating allegro being strident and impressive.

Mr. Blachford then turned to lighter vein with Mozart's "Minuet" and its flourishing string crescendos. Bach's slow-moving "Air on G String" embellished with tremolo effects, Gossec's well known "Gavotte" with sharp effects enhanced by a notable up-bow staccato, and Wieniawski's "Obertass" featuring first fine "G" string chording and then to the other extreme in high "E" string harmonics.

Debussy "En Bateau" gave the artist an opportunity to display quiet and soft interpretative talents. "A Memory," by Jean Brancombe, a Canadian girl, was a thoughtful number. Two string harmonics, in various positions, were featured in Chaminade's "Serenade Espagnole." Juon's "Berceuse," while not so well known, gave opportunity of tasteful discrimination. The fast moving "Moto Perpetuo," giving full exercise for free bowing and rapid fingering in a continuous staccato, brought the regular program to a stirring climax.

The audience was not to be denied an encore so Mr. Blachford returned to render two favorites—Beethoven's "Minuet in G" and Kreisler's "Liebesfreud." It was fortunate that these two numbers were given as it afforded the audience a real opportunity to appreciate the expression and interpretative skill of the artist in numbers with which all were acquainted.

Mr. Blachford's accompanist was Charles P. Balagno who was most capable. On Mr. Balagno a heavy duty devolved and he acquitted himself with his usual skill and understanding. Mr. Blachford, in the course of the program, paid tribute to Mr. Balagno, acknowledging the difficulties which he had faced with only brief opportunity for preparation.

T. C. Wilding presided at the door. Usherettes were Misses Jean McLean, Helen Green, Annie Peterson and Frances Moore.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Interesting Nuptials Last Night Of Miss Lillian Lowe and George Peters

An event of outstanding interest uniting a very well known and widely popular local couple took place last evening in First United Church, Rev. C. D. Clarke officiating, when Miss Lillian Marguerite Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lowe of this city, became the bride of George Edward Peters, son of Mrs. Isabel Peters, formerly of this city and now residing in Victoria. There was a large congregation in attendance at the nuptials. Four generations of the bride's family were present at the rites.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the bride entered the church upon the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, as Miss Swana Olafson played the Wedding March. The bride was lovely in a beautiful gown of white satin cut in Princess lines with Victorian lace collar and veil caught up with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaid was Miss Ella Steen who had a dainty gown of yellow net with hat to match and carried a bouquet of mauve and yellow stocks.

The matron of honor, Mrs. E. P. Smith, sister of the bride, was lovely in a gown of green net with hat to match and carrying a bouquet of carnations.

Tommy Fraser was best man. During the signing of the register "All Joy Be Thine" was sung beautifully by Mrs. J. H. McLeod. Ushers were Lee Gordon, H. G. Kennedy and W. M. Watts.

Reception Follows

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Fifth Avenue West. The happy couple received congratulations and best wishes beneath a white wedding bell which was suspended from an arch of yellow and white. The bride's mother, who assisted in receiving, wore an attractive gown of delph blue with hat to match and corsage of pink roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. D. Clarke and the groom responded suitably. The toast to the matron of honor and bridesmaid was proposed by W. M. Watts and responded to by the groomsmen.

Telegrams of congratulations from relatives were read.

The bride's table was lovely, centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride. There was a lace cloth with yellow tapers and white hearts. Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie and Mrs. G. W. Nickerson poured. Mrs. James Batt cut the cake and serveurs were Mrs. T. W. Brown, Mrs. J. DeCarlo, Mrs. William Rogers, Miss Anne Boddie, Miss Ruby Krikevsky and Mrs. T. Fraser.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Peters sailed on the Prince Rupert for a month's honeymoon trip to Vancouver, Victoria and as far south as Los Angeles. The bride's going away costume was a rust ensemble with brown accessories and corsage bouquet of cream roses. On their return here the couple will reside on Fifth Avenue West.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of numerous friends. The bride has lived here since girlhood and for some years has been a member of the office staff of the Rance and Hardy grocery. The groom is in the service of the Canadian National Railways.

Invited guests were:

Miss Anne Boddie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Batt and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blackstock, Mr. and Mrs. C. Campbell, Miss Ethel Christy, Mrs. R. Dowther, Mrs. Jean DeCarlo, Miss Dolly Derry, Mrs. Tommy Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glass, Mrs. Lee Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. W. Brown, who left at the first of the week for the Omineca mining district on legal business, was taken ill after arriving in the interior and is now in Vancouver to receive treatment.

Taken ill again on Wednesday morning, S. D. Macdonald underwent an operation in the Prince Rupert General Hospital yesterday after which he was reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

"RAINBOW ON RIVER"

Bobby Breen Picture Featured At Capitol Theatre This Week-end

A lavish musical drama boasting a strong story plot, a fine cast, elaborate settings and a group of songs by the talented nine-year old star, "Rainbow on the River," featuring Bobby Breen, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the feature offering this week-end.

The play presents Bobby as a waif raised in the southland by a devoted negro servant, Louise Beavers, until he is taken away to live in New York by his grandmother, May Robson. In the new environment, Bobby yearns to be back with the colored mammy and the simple life he had led. Finally, after a number of dramatic sequences, there is a reunion in the great city which leaves everyone happy.

In addition to the theme song "Rainbow on the River," negro folk songs by Stephen Foster, spirituals and some well known favorites are sung.

The cast also includes Charles Butterworth, Alan Mowbray, Benita Hume, Marilyn Knowlden and Henry O'Neill.
