DEFEND ARMS INCREASE AS GUARD AGAINST HOSTILE AIR RAIDS

Defending his greatly increased estimates for national defense against the bitter attack of parliamentary opposition members, Defense Minister Ian Mackenzie, supported by Premier King and other government leaders at Ottawa, repudiated the suggestion that increased Canadian araments were part of an empire program and painted a picture of possible hostile aerial attacks on Canadian grain elevators, ports and key points. He declared that the estimates were justified as expenditures for adequate defense of grain and food stores which could be subjected to bombardment from aeroplanes of a hostile nation operating from aircraft carriers. A view of the grain elevators at Quebec City, which according to the minister's word picture, might be vulnerable to attack, is shown here. At the left an anti-aircraft gun, designed particularly for coastal protection, according to Mr. Mackenzie (inset), the government sought defense expenditure increases totalling $14,000,000.

Everything Points to James Dawe, Well Known Skeena Fisherman, Having Perished

Following an investigation of the disappearance Sunday night of James Dawe, well known Skeena River fisherman, from his trolling boat Elsie L., of Squadaree, provincial police have little doubt butthat Dawe lost his life by accidental drowning. The police boat P. M. L. 8 returned to lary, in hospital with twelve stab port late last night from the scene of the supposed tragedy. The body has not been found.

It is believed that Dawe was taking up his trolling poles preparatory to coming in and that a rotted railing on the top of the cabin of the boat gave way and he fell in. The water is fortyseven fathoms deep at the point · where the empty boat was found and there is a strong tidal current. A person falling in there · would have little chance unless he was an exceptionally good swimmer.

A burning lantern was found in October 26 * the empty boat and everything was in order.

British Columbia has produced minerals of an aggregate value of $1,515,728,149.00.

The gross value of the industry for the first six months of 1937 is estimated to be $36,383,540.00. This is an increase of 53.4% over the value for the corresponding period in 1936.

Indications are that this year's production will exceed that o any previous year in value, which is a splendid commentary upon the stability of the mining industry in this prevince. Led by Joseph Haycock the Patrons are recalled by many as the genesis of the United Farmers' political movement in Canada. For four years the P.I.'s were an effective group in the Ontario House and put the older parties on their mettle. Mr. Haycock was defeated in the 1898 election. The new party broke up.

The Protestant Protective Association rose from the agitation born of the payment of $400,000 by the province of Quebec for Jesuit estate claims. It became an issue in the Dominion House and was echoed throughout Ontario. With the ebb of sectarian sentiment the P.P.A. movement subsided.

The general election of 1905 ended a long Liberal regime, after 30 years in the saddle. Conservatives, first under Sir James Whitney, then Sir William Hearst, were in office till
