SPANISH WAR CRISIS AGAIN

LAST WORD FROM C. C. F.

Weaver Would Not Only Keep Out Orientals But Everybody Else, He Tells Local Audience

Socialistic Talk

Three Hundred in Attendance At Good-Natured Public Meeting Last Night in Moose Hall

"If we were in power at Ottawa I think it would be good policy not only to keep the Oriental out but every one else—English, Scotch, Japanese, everybody," asserted George Weaver, C. C. F. candidate for Prince Rupert in the provincial election at a public meeting in the Moose Hall last night. "First we should be able to take care of our own people who are already here and then we could see who we could let in." Mr. Weaver declared that it was not in the platform of the C. C. F. to give the vote to the Oriental and this was not an issue in this campaign. He reiterated the C. C. F. belief, however, that Canadian-born Orientals should have the same rights as any other Canadian-born person but also qualified this statement by saying that the C. C. F. did not propose to put anything over against the will of the majority of the people. The C. C. F. Mr. Weaver said, had not brought the Orientals here but they had been brought here by the other parties in order that their labor might be used to exploit the white man. The C. C. F. had proposed legislation at Ottawa to keep further Orientals out but Liberals and Conservatives had United against it. The campaign in regard to the Orientals, Mr. Weaver branded as "hypocritical cant." It was a mess for which the C. C. F. was by no means responsible.

Mr. Weaver delivered a good-natured final election address before a friendly crowd of about three hundred persons. His discourse consisted largely of an expounding of socialistic theories in regard to economics and he discoursed upon somewhat academic lines in regard to currency, credit, the profit system, etc. G. W. Rudolph was in the chair.

Not Begging Votes

The C. C. F., Mr. Weaver said, had not begged for votes in this campaign as the other parties had done. They appealed to the intelligence of the people which should guide their votes. He suggested that the people should consider the economic rather than the political situation. "Business administration," about which one heard so much, had got the country nowhere. Now was the time he thought to let economists rather than politicians run the affairs of the country. He believed that members of the legislature should devote their whole time to that job instead of making it a part-time job and incidental to a member's other business. There was not a C. C. F. member of any house who held another job.

It had been said that organized labor had not endorsed the C. C. F. Labor organizations were forbidden by their charters from taking part in political movements but industrial conferences had been set up by the C. C. F. in the south and trades unions had become affiliated. Scores of trades union members were also members of C. C. F. Clubs. The Independent Labor Party was one of the foundation bodies of the C. C. F. Organized labor was steadily coming towards the C. C. F.

Unable to attack the C. C. F. platform, the other parties had descended to a campaign of misrepresentation of the C. C. F., said Mr. Weaver. The Oriental vote talk was an illustration of this.

CROP YEAR LOOKS GOOD

Conditions Ideal so Far at Terrace For Fruits and Other Lines

TERRACE, May 31:—Cool, showery weather is bringing the orchards around Terrace into full bloom and present appearances promise a good crop of hay. Up to the present there has been no frost to check progress. Cherries and strawberries have sometimes in the past been caught by frost, thus marring the early crop.

This time everything agricultural and horticultural is the best in years.

AUSTRALIA IS BEATEN

Illness of Australians Contributed To Defeat in Davis Cup Play

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., May 31: (CP)—Australia's ailing tennis forces were swept off their feet in the North American zone tennis finals at the week-end and the United States had no difficulty in winning.

Bryan (Bitsy) Grant, acrobatic Georgia midget, trounced Jack Bromwich, young Anzac substitute, after California's Don Budge routed the veteran Jack Crawford in the opener and, with only one more victory in three matches required to settle the outcome, Budge and Gene Mako of the United States played yesterday in the doubles against Crawford and Vivian McGrath, one of the Aussie invalids, Budge and Mako winning 7-5, 6-1, 8-6. United States now meets the European zone winner for the right to challenge the British.

The other Australian invalid, Adrian Quist, was withdrawn from the singles on account of his illness was out of the competition entirely.

MORE NAZI FIGHTING CRAFT ARE SENT TO TROUBLOUS COAST—CHAMBERLAIN CONFERS WITH EDEN—FRANCE BLAMES GERMANY.

LONDON, May 31: (CP)—British and French warships moved into Spanish waters tonight as a swift tempo of events aroused grave fears for peace following the German bombardment of the Spanish port of Almeria and the withdrawal by Germany and Italy from the twenty-seven nation neutrality committee. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, in the House of Commons, referred to the situation as "grave" and said that he had expressed to the German charge d'affaires in London the earnest hope of the British government that Germany would take no action which would render it graver still.

LONDON, May 31: (CP)—At least nineteen persons, including five women and a child, were killed today in a German bombardment of Almeria "without warning," official Spanish sources declared. A hasty survey of wreckage left by shells from five German war vessels counted at least fifty-five persons injured, thirty-nine houses destroyed and eight others badly damaged. The bombardment was believed to have been as reprisal for the bombing Saturday by a Spanish government plane of the German battleship Deutschland in which twenty-four German sailors were killed and eighty-two wounded. The Deutschland bombardment took place off Ibiza.

GETS POST AT DAWSON

Former Anyox Man Appointed Territorial Secretary-Treasurer For Yukon

Piercy Powell, who was located for seven years at Anyox prior to the closing down by the Granby Co. there in August 1935, has received the appointment of acting territorial secretary-treasurer for the Yukon with headquarters at Dawson, according to word received in Prince Rupert. He succeeds F. H. Osborn who for many years has been territorial secretary-treasurer, the appointment commencing as from May 1.

Mr. Powell, who left for the Yukon immediately after the close-down at Anyox, was for years treasurer of the Canadian Legion at the smelter town. He was employed in the general office and store there and also did some court reporting work. He is well known to all former Anyox people.

Mr. Powell writes that he likes the Yukon and sees great possibilities there. It will be many years, he believes, before its gold resources are exhausted. The climate in summer is splendid and in winter is by no means unbearable. The past winter has been the mildest experienced in the Klondike for many years.

ITALO-SPANISH INCIDENTS

In Rome Premier Benito Mussolini demanded not only full satisfaction for the bombing of the Italian auxiliary naval ship Berletta off the port of Palma and the death of six of her officers but also guarantees against the repetition of such attacks. Catalan government officials announced at Barcelona today that they had confirmed that an Italian submarine had launched a torpedo that sank the Spanish passenger liner Ciudad in the Mediterranean yesterday. Fifty passengers were drowned.

French officials declared in Paris today that the Deutschland's presence at Ibiza was "justified neither by the international police mission nor a need to get supplies."

Any Fool Can Criticize

Dale Carnegie, in his book "How to Win Friends," says: "Any fool can criticize, condemn and complain—and most fools do."

Judging by the ordinary political campaign there are still a lot of fools in the country. As we have said before, it is easy to criticize but more difficult to do things. Mr. Aberhart was a little tin god in Alberta as long as he criticized only but the moment he attempted to do things he was damned by everybody and he has not yet really started to carry out his promises. Let him try and the critics will increase in number.

Now take this election. Mr. Pattullo is the man who has been doing things. He has put the province on its feet financially and he has been fighting the battles of the British Columbia people at Ottawa with the result that he has secured already between two and three million dollars, which would never have been secured had the leader not been an outstanding man. Yet he is being criticized from almost every political platform. Some Liberals even criticize that he is too fair.

People Have Commonsense

People do not criticize a man or a party which is down and out. It is because the Premier is a strong man that he is subject to severe criticism and because those who would supplant him believe he is likely to win again. All opposition guns are turned on him because he is the outstanding figure.

A few foolish people are going around telling the people they will lose their votes if they do not vote for one of the newer parties. This is not likely to have any effect because, fortunately, the people of Prince Rupert have sense enough to know what it means. We believe that Mr. Pattullo will win because we have faith in the sound commonsense of the people here.

The Last Word

This is the last time we shall have an opportunity to say anything in regard to the present election campaign. When the newspapers come out tomorrow most of the people will have voted. We suggest that the people protect their own interests by giving Mr. Pattullo such a majority as will show the people in the east that his own people are behind him. Let them show the pulp mill people that we really want the pulp mill in Prince Rupert. They are watching the election outcome. Let us keep the wheels of industry moving and help forward the good times that we are bound to get if no untoward action is taken to stop it.

If the Premier does not make good now, there will be plenty of opportunity to defeat him at the next election. In the meantime, why throw a monkey wrench into the wheels of progress?

PIRATES MOVE UP

Are Leading National League By Two Full Games While Yankees Have Two-and-half Game Margin in American

ST. LOUIS, May 31: (CP)—By virtue of defeating the much-touted St. Louis Cardinals both Saturday and Sunday, Pittsburgh Pirates increased their margin of leadership in the National League to two full games over New York Giants who lost to the Phillies at Philadelphia yesterday after having won a double-header Saturday. The Chicago Cubs defeated the cellar-dwelling Cincinnati Reds at Wrigley Field yesterday and confirmed their hold on third place above the Cardinals. The Boston Bruins defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field and the two clubs are now tied for leadership of the second division.

The New York Yankees continued their winning streak by routing the Philadelphia Athletics at Yankee Stadium yesterday and now have a two and a half game lead over the Detroit Tigers who are in second place ahead of the Cleveland Indians who lost again to the Chicago White Sox yesterday. The Athletics, as a result of a three-game week-end losing streak at the hands of the Yanks, have dropped from fourth into sixth place below the Boston Red Sox and the Chicago White Sox. The Red Sox lost to Washington yesterday after winning Saturday.

SIX MEN'S SAVINGS are Necessary for ONE MORTGAGE LOAN

SUPPOSING that six of your neighbors pooled their savings to provide you with a mortgage loan of $3,000 on your home . . .

Then you would have a clear picture of how an average mortgage loan is made possible through Life Insurance savings.

To provide funds for a mortgage of $3,000 on your home, a Life Insurance company requires the accumulated savings of six policyholders.

Today, the savings of policyholders have made possible an investment of $382,000,000 in first mortgages on city, town and farm properties in Canada.

Policyholders whose funds are invested in such mortgage loans are not by any means all wealthy men. On the contrary, they are average thrifty individuals who are safeguarding their future by entrusting their savings to Life Insurance.

Just a Few Pithy Reasons

The South has consistently fought your Premier. Sustain his hand! Vote for him!

Evitt would cut down our representation; therefore our influence. Do not let him! Vote Pattullo!

Never swap horses while crossing a stream! Let the Premier finish his job!

Pattullo secured two more seats for the north, increasing your influence. Evitt would reduce them! Fight for the North! Sustain your Premier!

Let progress toward recovery proceed, not recede. Sustain your Premier!

Evitt says a private member can do more for us than a Cabinet Minister. Please do not laugh!

The Liberal Party cannot lose in the Province. Sustain the Premier!

Conservatives! Remember a vote for Evitt at this time amounts to a vote for the C. C. F. Sustain your Premier!

All representation is necessarily absentee representation. Vote for Pattullo who can give it 12 months instead of 3 months per annum.

The Premier appeals to the independent voter and asks to be sustained so that he can finish his job.

Vote for your Premier who has more influence than a dozen private members.

Vote for brains, courage and integrity. Vote for your Premier.

Harry Lincoln of the Canadian National Railways general offices returned to the city on the Catala last evening from a vacation trip to Vancouver and Vancouver Island.

F. W. Guernsey arrived in the city on the Catala last evening from Vancouver, being on his way to the Ecstall River to visit the copper-sulphur property which he is having developed.

While playing the street on Fifth Avenue East yesterday, Bessie Anne Johnsen, three-year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Johnsen, was struck by a car driven by Al French. Due to the alertness of the driver, the car was stopped in time and the child suffered no injury.

One good thing about the election campaign — Mr. Pattullo learned Prince Rupert had a radio station.

C. W. Dawson, federal architect, is expected in the city this week from Victoria on business in connection with the new federal building undertaking here as well as will the completion of the interior of the Royal Canadian Volunteer Reserve building on the waterfront.

W. H. Tobey, F. A. MacCallum, D. G. Borland, J. A. Frew, William Cruickshank, G. E. Phillips, A. R. Nichols and S. A. Bird returned to the city on Saturday evening's way freight train from Terrace where Mr. Tobey paid an official visit Friday night in his capacity as district deputy grand master of the Masonic Lodge.

Dr. George E. Darby, medical superintendent of the Bella Bella Hospital, returned to Bella Bella aboard the Catala yesterday after a trip to England. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret Darby, who has been in Vancouver. Mrs. Darby, who was also in England, is at present visiting in Eastern Canada and will be returning to the coast later.

Pattullo's Policy—Beg, borrow and go bankrupt, for tomorrow we may die; and our children can pay our debts. (125)

Timely Recipes

LEMON MERINGUE PIE

Here's a recipe for Lemon Pie F. Ordeliousness it can't be beaten. Better still, it's easy and economical to prepare.

Three quarters cup evaporated milk, 3/4 cup hot water, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 4 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon butter, grated rind of 1 lemon, 4 tablespoons lemon juice.

Mix sugar, cornstarch, salt water and evaporated milk. Cook in a double boiler (stirring until the mixture thickens) for fifteen minutes or more. Beat the egg yolks slightly, add the hot mixture. Return this to the double boiler and cook five minutes longer. Add the butter, lemon juice and rind. Pour into a pie crust which has been previously baked and cover with a meringue made from the beaten whites of the eggs to which four tablespoons of sugar have been added. Brown in a slow oven. Serves five or six persons.

THINK THIS OVER

THINK THIS OVER before you cast your ballot on Tuesday. If you elect a C. C. F. government in this province, credit will immediately be cut off, the flow of capital into the province will be stopped, within a year the people of this province will be on the verge of starvation. There will be no money for relief, social services or even to carry on the functions of government. Face these things squarely as they are as inevitable as the setting sun, for the government of this province has no power to create money. If you re-elect the Liberal government with its admitted inability to get along without borrowed money, its extravagance, its apparent incapability, the result will take a little longer but the ultimate result will be the same. The province will end in bankruptcy with the same cutting off of credit. The alternative to these two is to vote for the Conservative Party, a party pledged to economy, to cessation of excessive borrowing, to the good government of the province for the benefit of the people of the province. You don't want your children to starve. Vote for Evitt.

To Salmon Trollers

Messrs. Woodsworth and Telford, leaders of the C. C. F., advocate votes for Orientals. How long do you suppose it will be after Japs get the vote before they obtain trollers' licences and dominate trolling as they now do gill-netting? You know Japanese contractors supply Jap labor in a block as required.

Will they not also supply Japanese votes in a block where Japanese interests demand it?

You know that Japan is claiming the right to fish in international waters off British Columbia. What will happen here, if the Japanese have the franchise, when we are called upon to vote on the question of allowing Japanese encroachment upon our fishing grounds?

The white races are not allowed the franchise in Japan. Why should we give the Japs the vote here? Japan admits the races will never mix. You must admit them to be right. Are you prepared to give them equal rights with yourselves in your fishing and fraternal organizations? Will you accept them in your boat crews, in your lodges and in your homes? You must do this if, as Mr. Woodsworth says, we are to assimilate them.

Think this matter over carefully before you vote C. C. F.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

The freighter Evelyn Berg, Capt. Hansen, arrived in port at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from Ketchikan and after discharging three carloads of frozen fish for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways, sailed for Seattle at 3 p.m.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 7 o'clock last evening from the south with a fair-sized list of passengers and sailed at 9 p.m. for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning southbound.

Crews of two coastal liners, the most of whom are registered in Vancouver, will vote in Prince Rupert tomorrow as absentees from their own ridings at the provincial election. The two steamers which will be here on election day will be the Catala southbound from Stewart and Anyox and the Princess Louise southbound from Alaska.

High School Tea And Dress Show

Large Attendance at Affair Saturday Afternoon Which Was Complete Success

Students of King Edward High School staged a novel tea and dress display at the Oddfellows' Hall Saturday afternoon, the affair being in aid of the fund to purchase new basketball sweaters and outfits. There was a large attendance and the affair was a complete success.

Dr. E. E. Lucas, the principal, received the guests and Miss Irene Mitchell directed the serving of refreshments. The men teachers poured and the boys served. Allan Kergin and John Good were in charge of the home cooking sale.

The dresses produced by the girls of the home economics classes were modelled by some thirty-five or forty Grade Ten girls.

The hall was attractively decorated under the direction of Hiro Yamanaka and Hugh Forrest.

LAST WORD

The Conservatives talked of the C. C. F. having taken their platform. The C. C. F. platform, except for a few minor revisions to simplify it, had been drafted in 1933. Did the Conservatives have a platform in 1933? There were no Conservatives in 1933. They were all independents.

Mr. Weaver referred to the fact that so many people had been left off the voters' list. He suggested nothing improper since all parties had evidently suffered. The method of preparing the list, however, appeared to be inefficient and impractical. There would have to be a better system.

Referring to the talk of a local man as member, Mr. Weaver pointed out that this was not a "Prince Rupert" election but a "provincial" election. Places that were lucky had a town council to take care of local matters.

The speaker felt it was a duty for every one to exercise the franchise. Those who failed to do so had no right to criticize. The person who refused to vote on the grounds of indifference showed lack of mentality. Whether one voted or not one had to take the consequences.

Socialistic Theories

Mr. Weaver gave some attention to a letter in the press signed "Observer." Private ownership of the means of production he (Mr. Weaver) contended denied the right to which every living thing on earth was entitled—namely the right to things upon which to live. In return for "social service" every person was entitled to a share of "social wealth."

Discussing subjects such as currency and credit, Mr. Weaver referred to the "fallacy of issuing dividends." There was already social credit in British Columbia in the form of relief. One could not issue dividends against something one did not own.

Value could only be created from the natural resources with the application of human labor. Under the present profit system the worker received only one-quarter of the value which he produced.

"We have learned to produce and to distribute socially," concluded the candidate. "Now we must learn to own socially."

During a question period which followed such subjects as absentee vote, the Oriental question, the pulp mill, collective bargaining, socialized capitalism and health insurance were discussed.

Investors in pulp mills, etc. Mr. Weaver declared, did not bring wealth into the country but took it away. They were merely "racketeers" and "pirates."

Premier Pattullo had not really pledged himself to support collective bargaining, Mr. Weaver declared. The tendency of the Liberal government had been against the interests of the workers.

"Socialized capital" was really "Fascism" or "Nazism."

"By all means vote 'yes' in the health insurance plebiscite," urged Mr. Weaver.

Jack Lambert, who claimed to be an "advertising salesman," asked what would happen to him if the C. C. F. got in. "We intend to do away with all parasites," declared Mr. Weaver.

Bernice Palmer says . . .

Today is one of those lazy sort of days when, released from the house after a rain, you don't feel like settling down to real work but more like visiting so that is what we will do. For the past two days it has rained until today the sky looks rather shamed at behaving so badly in California and the sun is shyly smiling through a few sulky clouds. In last night's paper, one optimistic reporter, still refusing to believe California weather could depart so from its regular course, spoke of the downpour as "the gentle brush of an angel's wing, a kiss that touched the sleeping seeds and bade them wake"—he evidently didn't get caught in the same downpour I did or perhaps the angel who brushed me used to be a prize fighter. And to top it all, his poetic outburst appeared on the sports page where hardy he-men, muscle bound and grim, pose in sunbaths.

One thing about a wet day, it gives one a chance to become better acquainted with one's family. Yesterday, while preparing a noodle ring for supper, Bernice Patricia, age three years, set up a demand for some noodles to blow bubbles with. This I refused, and, deciding to get her own way by fair means or foul, she began to cry at the top of her voice. Having taken Parent's Magazine for some eight years and being an ardent follower of Angelo Patri, I promptly proceeded to ignore the outburst and went calmly (?) on with my work. Finally, unable to stand my silence any longer, she said, "Mummie, I wish you would do something about that child. Give her what she wants so she will stop crying!"

REVERIES

(With apologies to Liberal "Memories")

When Mr. McGeer addresses us tonight he will no doubt tell us what a splendid man is Mr. Pattullo; he will tell us of British Columbia's return to prosperity under Mr. Pattullo; he will tell us of the fine new Fraser River Bridge; of work and wages; and he will, with pleasant words and witty anecdote, promise that, if we will but elect Mr. Pattullo again, he will give us the moon (and the Yukon Territory).

Oh, if we could only forget! If we could only forget that Mr. Pattullo and his cabinet were slammed and maligned and consigned to perdition by this same Mr. McGeer as recently as 1935; if we could only forget that Mr. Pattullo, in forming his government in 1933, entirely ignored his now trusty henchman McGeer (forsooth); if we could forget these little discrepancies, then we might possibly understand the present mischievous co-partnership of Duff and Gerry. Truly, politics maketh strange bed-fellows!

Yet they have much in common, these two. Is there not a similarity between the Vancouver City Hall and the Fraser River Bridge—both monuments to the monumental vanity of man? Do not both gentlemen suffer from the same effervescence that causes them to flit hither and yon by air at the public expense upon the slightest pretext? Are not both wont to use almost dictatorial methods in foisting their brain-children upon an aghast and wondering public? A strange and dangerous pair, these two. Take heed, consider well tonight, before at the instance of one you tomorrow give the other enough rope to hang not only himself but all of us.

Take heed; consider well before you vote:

Think you 'tis safe your sovereign power to yield

Into the hands of one who boasts, 'tis wrote,

"I shall dictate, if any, in this virgin field

"Of untold wealth and plenty? I'll control

"The fate of you and yours, and lead you free

"By my deft borrowings!" The years unroll,

And, in anticipation now, we see

Our children's children crippled by the debt

That's theirs through our mistake.

No Duff; Not yet!

No, Mr. McGeer, we fear that we cannot give your spend-thrift friend another chance just yet. The perfidy of his last government (and we mean LAST) is far too painfully fresh in our memories.

Perhaps after four years of sanity under Conservative government, the healing hand of time may renew our confidence and sweeten the sour taste in our mouths. But our faith has been too sadly shaken to allow us to support him now.

We fear that this Pattullo-McGeer business can only be Work, Wages and Health Insurance under a coat of soothing syrup. The voice tonight will be the voice of blarney, but the hand will be the hand of Duff, K.C.
