WAY PAVED FOR OFFER

Consider Proposal From Catholic Church

Paving the way for an offer to be made by the Roman Catholic Church to establish a new hospital in Prince Rupert, the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital last night, on motion of W. O. Fulton, seconded by Frank Dibb, passed a motion that, "in the event of any person, firm or corporation coming forward with a proposal to erect and operate a new hospital, a special meeting be called within two weeks to consider such a proposal."

In bringing up the subject, Mr. Fulton said he understood the Sisters of St. Anne had a suitable site on Fourth Avenue and had a fund of $200,000 which they were ready to spend on a hospital if suitable arrangements could be made. This might meet the requirement for a new hospital. The raising of $30,000 by canvass under present conditions would, to say the least, be an enormous

In seconding the resolution, Mr. Dibb thought the present board should be given full opportunity to make public its position.

In further discussion, the concensus of opinion seemed to be that any such offer as that sugrested should be considered. After all, the important thing was a more adequate hospital.

Mr. Fulton expressed the opinion that the offer might be forthcoming within a week.

Frank Dibb, W. M. Brown, G. F. Tinker, S. D. Macdonald and G. Wilkinson, members of last year' board, were re-elected directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital for the year 1937- at the annual meeting last night of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association. They, together with City Commissioner W. J. Alder and possibly another city nominee; Government Agent Norman A Watt and F. S. Walton, representing the provincial government, and a representative of the Prince Rupert Medical Association, constitute the 1937 board.

Following the adjournment of the annual meeting, the board gathered in a brief session and named G. P. Tinker as president of the board for the year with F S. Walton as vice-president and H. W. Birch as managing secretary.

The annual meeting was one of the best attended in years, the expectation that a new hospital building project will be embarked upon this year undoubtedly being to a large extent responsible for the increased interest.

> Francois Lake has now frozen over but the ice is not very safe as yet, Capt. McKinnon reports. I couple of nights ago Henry Anderson of Southbank, his wife, sister-in-law and two months' old baby had a narrow escape when an open car in which they were driving up the south side of the lake went through the ice. All were plunged into the water but managed to scramble ashore after the car sank. The experience was a particularly unpleasant one as it was some forty below zero and after they got out of the water soaking wet they had to travel about a mile to the nearest dwelling. By the time they reached there, their clothing was frozen to them but, apparently, none suffered any very serious after-effects.

Another car and a team of horses also went through the ice recently but the horses were saved.

When discussing the votes for public buildings in British Columbia, David Spence, Conservative for Toronto-Parkdale, objected to an item of $150,000 for a public building at Prince Rupert which he said was "the deadest town in British Columbia."

Olof Hanson, M. P. for Skeena. said he was glad the remark had been made because it gave him an opportunity to say that Prince Rupert was one of the greatest Pacific ports, occupying a position of great strategic importance, with railway facilities second to none.

"Come up and see us some time." Mr. Hanson suggested to Prince Rupert's critic.

Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative member for Victoria, endorsed Mr. Hanson's observations and said nobody really knew the potential value of that Pacific outlet to a great country. "Even without Mae West," he said, "we have attractions there for hundreds of thousands of people."

Party Lines Broken

Party lines were practically forgotten in the House when Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, on motion to go into supply, urged that steps be taken to hold a constitutional convention at which would be represented all schools of thought in provincial legislatures and Dominion Parliament with a view to obtaining agreement on needed amendments to the British North America Act. No vote was taken but it was agreed by many speakers, including Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King, that the discussion had served a good purpose in bringing the problem to the forefront.

"The question is primarily one of procedure," said Mr. King. "I believe the method suggested might be described as the ideal one. Personally I have long held the view that this would be the right course to pursue and, at times, have so expressed myself. The difficulty would be to get all concerned to enter the project in the right spirit of unity."

This Is Normalcy

Roger W. Babson says that business conditions have men to work on this job which just reached normal after seven years of crashing downwards and climbing slowly back. This does not mean that we are again up to 1929 which was an abnormal year but that we are back to the average of 1925, 1926 and possibly 1927. As a nation we are that but individually we may not be there. Some have slipped during the depression and others have slipped in the upward climb. Some communities will never recover. The depression gave some people time to get their second wind and renew their efforts, to them it meant only a resting period in preparation for renewed efforts.

In Prince Rupert we are evidently back to normal. Some people are making money, some are losing and others again are about holding their own. We are all hoping that before the end of the year we shall have passed higher than the normal mark for it may be expected that conditions will continue to improve for three or four years but they may not improve as rapidly as we expect if the plans of a number of financiers are carried out and efforts are made to prevent any recurrence of the 1929 period of inflation with its inevitable crash.

Medicated Vapors. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by body heat, are breathed in for hours—about 18 times a minute -direct to the irritated air-passages of the nose, throat and chest.

This combined poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm-relieves irritation-helps break congestion. While the little patient relaxes into comfortable sleep, VapoRub keeps right on working. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Avoids Risk of Stomach Upsets This safe, external treatment cannot possibly upset the stomach, as constant internal "dosing" is so apt to do. It can be used freely, as often as needed, even on the youngest child.

Now White—Stainless

Thanks to a new process, VapoRub now comes to you in white stainless form. Only the color is removed; it is the same VapoRub—the same formula and the same effective dou-
