Employment This Fall at Highest Mark in Several Years

OTTAWA, Sept. 28: (CP)—Employment in Canada on September 27 reached a new high for several years at this season as the upward movement continued. There was a marked improvement in the manufacturing industry of Ontario. British Columbia employment increased to 96,000 from 91,000 a year ago.

Baby Clipper Is Held By Weather

American Airways Flying Boat Unable To Leave Ketchikan For Seattle

KETCHIKAN, Sept. 28:—Unfavorable weather conditions are holding the Pan American Airways "baby clipper" here after a delay of several days. The ship is waiting an opportunity to fly to Seattle. There was a brief period of clear weather here late yesterday, the first in almost two weeks.

Passed Away After Stroke

Mrs. Marie Parmeri Died Yesterday in Local Hospital

Mrs. Marie Parmeri, for twelve years a resident of Prince Rupert, passed away yesterday afternoon at the Prince Rupert General Hospital to which she had been removed early yesterday morning after suffering a stroke at her home, 822 Eight Avenue West. Born in Italy sixty years ago, Mrs. Parmeri had lived in this province thirty-eight years. She had previously lived in Vancouver and came to Prince Rupert from there. She was well known and highly esteemed by many friends. She was a member of the Roman Catholic Church. Mrs. Parmeri is survived by her husband and one son, William Parmeri of Vancouver, and one daughter, Mrs. Dominic (Rose) Sorrenti, Vancouver. The funeral will be held following the arrival of the son and daughter from Vancouver.

Edmonton Simmers

EDMONTON, Sept. 28: (CP)—Highest September temperature since 1898 was recorded at Edmonton this year when the mercury rose to 90 degrees. A new summer high also was recorded beating the 80 degree reading of July 22.

Dr. Derby, Superintendent of the hospital at Bella Bella arrived in the city on the Prince George this afternoon.

Canada Backing Up Chamberlain

OTTAWA, Sept. 28: (CP)—The Canadian cabinet, at a meeting yesterday, endorsed the attitude of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain in regard to the Czechoslovakian crisis as indicated in the British Premier's address last night. Chamberlain announced that steps had been taken to call Parliament into session at short notice to consider any emergency.

Momentous Conference Of Four Powers To Be Held At Munich To Talk Peace

Premier Mussolini Is Central Figure Now In Steps To Prevent War

ROME, September 28: (CP)—Premier Benito Mussolini suddenly became the central figure today of Europe's efforts to avert war. He left Rome tonight for Munich for tomorrow's four-power peace meeting, accompanied by Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano.

Il Duce received an uproarious send-off after accepting the responsibility, as informed sources said, at the request of Great Britain.

Privately it was said that Chancellor Adolf Hitler had accepted Mussolini as mediator of the German-Czechoslovakian crisis.

President Roosevelt has sent a personal message to Mussolini in the interest of world peace.

It is also reported that President Edouard Benes of Czechoslovakia had resigned.

At Berlin Propaganda Minister Goebbels told a throng of Germans today that he foresaw an amicable solution of the dispute "within a few days."

CHAMBERLAIN, HITLER, DALADIER AND MUSSOLINI WILL MEET IN FINAL EFFORT TO REACH SETTLEMENT OF GERMAN-CZECH CRISIS

Tension, Increased By March Threat, Allayed

POLAND REACHES AGREEMENT WITH BENES ON MINORITY QUESTION SO WOULD BE REMOVED AS PARTICIPANT IN IMPENDING EUROPEAN WAR

LONDON, September 28: (CP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain flies to Munich tomorrow for a four-power conference arranged in a final attempt to bring peace in the Czechoslovakian-German crisis. A momentous conference at which Premier Chamberlain will meet Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany, Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy and Premier Edouard Daladier of France was arranged after Chamberlain had informed Mussolini that he had already "guaranteed that Czech promises (to cede Sudeteland peacefully) shall be carried out and I feel confident of a full agreement within a week."

When the Prime Minister made his dramatic announcement to the crowded House of Commons, traditional Westminster calm was shattered as members, fearing the worst, suddenly realized that war may, after all, be averted. Members of the House and peers in the galleries shouted their approval and cheered loudly.

The Prime Minister was visibly affected as he revealed that Hitler had agreed to postpone mobilization of the German army for twenty-four hours to permit of the Munich conference. Mr. Chamberlain's voice suddenly lowered as he declared: "No member of this House will not feel his heart leap that the crisis has again been postponed. I hope that the House will release me now to go and see what I can make of this last effort."

The Premier sat down amid ringing cheers and the House agreed to adjourn until tomorrow.

It was announced that Premier Mussolini had already left Rome for Munich.

WHAT HITLER SAID

During his speech Chamberlain said that Hitler had informed him at Berchtesgaden that "rather than wait" to help the Sudetens achieve self-determination, "he would be prepared to risk a world war."

Declaration by Hitler to Chamberlain that the Czechoslovak situation had become unbearable and "will not be tolerated by me" was disclosed with publication of correspondence between Chamberlain and Hitler. Hitler warned that it was impossible for "us to refrain from giving immediate protection to this Sudeten territory."

Authoritative sources said that Hitler had sent a letter to Chamberlain guaranteeing Czechoslovakia's political and economic independence would not be endangered by occupation of Sudetenland.

Infuriated over the speech yesterday of Prime Minister Chamberlain who described his latest demands on Czechoslovakia as being "unreasonable," Chancellor Hitler according to unofficial reports current here late last night, had been preparing to abandon the deadline of October 1 and march his German forces into the little republic without further delay unless there was an immediate concession to his demands. In his reported decision to strike at once, Hitler was said to have declared: "It rests not with Germany but with the Czech government alone whether it wants peace or war."

While nations of Europe were preparing for war in which all may become involved and mobilization continued feverishly, an optimistic note was struck in Paris last night with a statement that peace might yet be saved through the strong stand of the democracies.

Britons Prepare For War

LONDON, Sept. 28: (CP)—The British admiralty last night announced the immediate mobilization of the entire Royal Navy. All leaves are cancelled and all ships are ready to steam out at a moment's notice. Reservists are also called out. Four hundred fighting craft, four times Germany's strength, are ready. The announcement said that the decision to mobilize had been made as a purely precautionary measure. Other services are also virtually in a state of general mobilization. With the Air Force already mustered, the Army, numbering 450,000 regulars, is also ready for call.

High Bridge On Colleymount Road Is Eliminated

FRANCOIS LAKE, Sept. 28.—The high bridge across Swenson's Gulch on the Colleymount road will be abandoned as it has been condemned for heavy traffic. Unique engineering has made a location which will shorten and lower the new construction which is going on rapidly under Foreman Onie Reid of Vanderhoof. The approaches will necessitate a hairpin turn but, with improved grades, will add to the scenic peculiarities of the route.

WAR CLOUDS

PREVENT FINANCIAL BREAK
LONDON—Special restrictions have been placed on the London Stock Exchange to prevent an abrupt break owing to the European war crisis. Nevertheless British funds continued to slump today.

WOULD STRIKE IN BACK
SHANGHAI—Japanese military forces are still being concentrated on the Soviet frontier. The intention would be for Japan to strike there in the event of Russia jumping into a European war against Germany.

WARSHIPS HURRY HOME
SHANGHAI—Two Italian gunboats hurriedly left Shanghai yesterday for the Mediterranean, apparently speeding home before they might be caught in a British naval blockade should war break out in Europe.

WOULD BE REPRESENTED
LONDON—Czechoslovakia tonight requested some form of representation at the four-power conference. The request was made in a letter to Prime Minister Chamberlain by Jan Masaryk, Czechoslovakian minister to London.

Whifflets

From The Waterfront

Albert B. Barker, veteran purser of the British Columbia Coast Steamship Service, here yesterday afternoon aboard the Princess Louise, was completing his final voyage after thirty-five years of service on the coast. At the conclusion of this trip, he goes on vacation after which he will retire on superannuation. Mr. Barker has served on practically all vessels of the company's fleet and on every run during his long career. He ran into Prince Rupert as early as 1905 as assistant purser on the Princess Beatrice. For the past several years he has been senior purser on the Alaska ships. His successor on the Princess Louise will be Ernest D. Cornelius, another veteran of the service.

BABINE ROAD IS IMPROVED

Now In Best Shape Yet Following Work This Year

BURNS LAKE, Sept. 23.—Work on the Babine Road from Burns Lake this season has put this road in the best shape since the first sleigh road was roughly put through over the route of least resistance. With 15 percent grades and through a boulder strewn area for miles, the old road was hard for the modern cars but, with the reduced grades and curvature and the occasional re-location of the bad spots, an easy grade is offered to Honeymoon Harbor at Pendleton Bay, one of the best camp sites on Babine Lake, being protected from all winds.

Smithers Golf Record Broken

K. G. Houghton Goes Round Nine Holes in Thirty Strokes

SMITHERS, Sept. 23.—The records of the Smithers Golf Club were shattered here on Sunday when K. G. Houghton, playing in company with Olof Hanson, went around the nine holes in 30 to break the previous low of 34 made some time ago. Mr. Houghton is one of the original members of the club and has been a consistent low scorer but has now eclipsed his own and every other best score for the course. The very fine fall weather which is really Indian summer has provided the patrons with an excellent opportunity to carry on their sport very much later than is ordinarily the case.

KITWANGA MARRIAGE

Miss Alice Kryklywa Becomes Bride Of Frederick Doll

KITWANGA, Sept. 23.—St. Paul's Anglican Church, Kitwanga, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Sunday when Miss Alice Kryklywa, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kryklywa of Kitwanga Valley, became the bride of Frederick Doll, youngest son of Mrs. Doll, also of the Kitwanga Valley. The church was crowded as both bride and bridegroom are well known and very popular. Rev. B. Shearman officiated and at the organ Miss Marjorie Shearman played the Bridal March and accompanied the hymns "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love." The bride was charmingly attired in an ankle length dress of white silk crepe and a long tulle veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white gladioli. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Shearman and Miss Nataika Kryklywa. They were attired in pale blue sheer crepe with shoes and head dress to match. They carried sheaves of salmon pink gladioli. Miss Margaret Ellis, as flower girl, was prettily gowned in ice blue georgette and lace. Walter Bard and Jack Bard were groomsmen. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The newly married couple will reside at Kitwanga. They were the recipients of many useful presents.

BURNS LAKE, Sept. 23.—Miss Aileen Hincks of Langford, Vancouver Island, who has been teaching school at Colleymount, was suddenly stricken with appendicitis and rushed to Burns Lake Hospital and operating room. The operation was successful and many friends will be glad to hear that Miss Hincks is making rapid recovery.

Mrs. Jane Green Of Port Simpson Dies And Buried

PORT SIMPSON, Sept. 27.—The death occurred here September 23 of Mrs. Jane Green, aged 66, wife of Philip J. Green of this place. She leaves to mourn her loss, in addition to the widower, four sons—Phillip, Walter, Herbert and George; one daughter, Mrs. Howard Spencer, and a niece, Mrs. E. F. Dudoward. Burial took place on Sunday Rev. T. C. Colwell officiating. From the house the cortege moved to Grace United Church for a brief service, the Port Simpson Concert Band providing the music. Pallbearers were chosen from members of the Young People's Educational Association and Port Simpson Athletic Club.

TERRACE

An instructive and enlightening address was given in Knox United Church on Sunday evening by Rev. William Irving, travelling lecturer for the C.C.F. movement. His subject was "The Place of the Church in the New Social Order."

Under the auspices of the Knox United Music Club, a very pretty shower was held at the Manse on Monday even in honor of Mrs. Archie Hippiusley, formerly Miss Myra Warren. Members of the club had decorated the room in shades of pink and white with one corner arranged as a bower for the bride. After a program of contests and games, the bride was encouraged to hunt for the gifts hidden in the room and many were the useful articles discovered. The evening was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments.
