WORD WAS TOO LATE

Things Might Have Been Different In British Cabinet Crisis—Will Delbos Go Too?

LONDON, Feb. 22: (CP)—Ironically, Captain Anthony Eden when he resigned on Sunday, was not aware that Italy had agreed to a formula of withdrawal of her forces from the Spanish civil war as the basis of the projected Italo-British agreement. Eden had been insisting upon such a concession from Italy before Britain should open negotiations. Actually Italian ambassador Dino Grandi had received instructions to make the concession before Eden resigned but it was several hours after the culmination of the British cabinet crisis before either Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain or Captain Eden were advised. The suggestion is that, had the intimation been made earlier in the day, things might have been different.

French Cabinet Crisis

PARIS, Feb. 22: (CP)—The resignation of Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of Great Britain may have repercussions in France. A cabinet shake-up in this country appears likely with the possibility of Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos whose views are similar to Eden's, being forced out. The French cabinet meets today.

Should Throw Off Its "Shams and Pretences"—Has Confidence, However, That it Will be Reconstituted—Friendship Pact With Germany And Italy Proposed By France

PARIS, February 22: (CP)—Sources close to the Foreign Office said today that French cabinet members will propose a conference with Great Britain to draft common action for friendship with Germany and Italy.

LONDON, February 22: (CP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain shouted to an angry Opposition in the House of Commons today that the League of Nations as a protection against aggression was a "delusion." He demanded the Geneva throw off its "shams and pretences." The League is unable to provide collective security for anybody, Chamberlain declared. "I would stay in the League because I have faith that it will be reconstituted but I doubt very much if it will ever do its best work so long as its members are only nominally bound to impose sanctions or impose force in support of its principles."

As Captain Anthony Eden, resigned as Foreign Secretary, looked on from a private member's seat, Chamberlain declared that Eden had never told him that he considered the conversations with Italy or Germany as a breach of "international good faith."

The Prime Minister was cheered when he said that, if Great Britain wanted talks with Italy, "the sooner we have them the better."

Rt. Hon. Arthur Greenwood, deputy leader of the Labor Party, resuming the debate on Captain Eden's resignation, earlier had told the House of Commons that the "fate of the world now rests in the trembling hands of the Prime Minister."

The debate followed a motion of censure introduced by Labor which stated that "the House deprecates the circumstances in which the late Foreign Secretary has been obliged to resign office and has no confidence in His Majesty's present advisers in their conduct of foreign affairs."

THE BRITISH POLITICAL SITUATION

There was nothing unexpected or particularly thrilling in the speech of Adolf Hitler on Sunday. It was the sort of thing everyone thought would be coming from that source. The sensation of the day was in the resignation of Anthony Eden as British foreign minister and the announcement that the British government was contemplating a tentative arrangement with Italy for the withdrawal of Italian troops from Spain.

It came as quite a blow to many people to hear that the British foreign minister in whom they placed so much confidence had withdrawn from the government after a definite split with Prime Minister Chamberlain. It came at an unfortunate time just when Chancellor Hitler had denounced him to the world as the one person in the way of a possible rapprochement.

DIFFERING VIEWPOINTS

Evidently Secretary Eden, as a good democrat, had felt like a great many others felt that the Spanish people had a right to any kind of government they wished as long as a majority of the people of the country were in favor of it.

Premier Mussolini does not believe in majorities and sees no virtue in them. He knows, as we all know, that majorities are often wrong. He pins his faith rather in rule by those who have the ability to rule. He sees in the Red movement in Spain a movement fomented from Russia with the idea of adding another Red state to Europe, a state that would be practically subsidiary to Russia and wholly under Russian control. Believing this, Il Duce thinks any means of preventing the alienation of Spain to Russia are justifiable.

Throughout the struggle in Spain Canadian people have looked on with varying emotions. They disliked the Fascist movement and, therefore, disliked to see it spread to Spain. The only people in Canada who seemed to be wholeheartedly with the Spanish Red movement were the Communists and near Communists in Canada who subscribed to the funds to aid the government of Spain against the Fascists and a few of whom crossed to Spain and took part in the struggle against General Franco.

Anthony Eden is not a Communist or a Socialist but he thought the people of Spain had a right to be Communist if they wished. That seems to be to a large extent the attitude of the British Labor Party and a considerable section of the Liberal party.

Many will be interested now to see whether Eden continues to support the government or aligns himself with some other group or possibly, like the illustrious Churchill, plays a lone hand for a period.

We can hardly expect that Anthony Eden will be permanently out of the limelight. He has been so prominent a figure in world affairs that he is bound to make his influence felt both in the British Parliament and in the affairs of the Empire. He will be needed.

Lady Margaret Hamilton-Russell, pioneer British woman golfer, has died. As Lady Margaret Scott prior to her marriage, she won the first tournaments for the British women's title in 1893-4-5.

For the first time in eight years more than £1,000,000 ($5,000,000) was put through the totalisator at Wellington, New Zealand, during the early race meetings this season compared with £869,955 ($4,349,775) for the same meetings a year ago.

BOXING ON WEDNESDAY

Display to be Staged at Recreational Centre Here Tomorrow Night

For the Prince Rupert recreation centre boxing tournament to be held on Wednesday evening the tentative card is arranged as follows:

Exhibition bout, three two minute rounds—Marcel Blain vs. Robert Rudderham.

Wrestling—Emile Blain vs. Ken Schubert.

Tournament, three two minute rounds—Bill Barker vs. Lester Grimble; Victor Norberg vs. Harry Lundquist; Bill Long vs. Don MacCowan; Stan Scherk vs. Foster Husoy; Albert Mah vs. Bob Peachy.

Extra bout—Pat Berry vs. Steve Frost.

Main Event, six two minute rounds—Ted Noble vs. Jimmy Bryant.

The arrangements for the evening are in the hands of Albert Mah and the contestants are matched as far as possible according to their ability and not their weight—as boxing at the centre is still in its primary stage. It is hoped that the evening will serve to create a greater interest in the many art and will be the forerunner of another tournament to take place some time next month.

Box proceeds will go into a fund for the purpose of sending Prince Rupert's gymnastic team to the mass display and gymnastic competition at Vancouver at the end of March.

CHAPTER IS BUSY

Hill Sixty Active During Year—Mrs. Manson New Regent—Mrs. Landry Honored

At the annual meeting of Hill Sixty Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, at the home of Mrs. H. A. Breen, Fifth Avenue East, last night, officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Honorary Regent, Mrs. H. L. Landry.

Regent, Mrs. John Manson.

First Vice-Regent, Mrs. G. E. Moore.

Second Vice-Regent, Mrs. H. A. Breen.

Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Frew.

Treasurer, Mrs. R. J. Keron.

Educational Secretary, Mrs. Jack Durran.

Echoes Secretary, Mrs. J. H. Mac-ey.

Standard Bearer, Mrs. James Forman.

Mrs. Landry, the retiring regent, who presided, was presented by Mrs. H. B. Rochester, on behalf of the chapter, with a beautiful pendant and ring set. Making the presentation, Mrs. Rochester spoke appropriately, expressing pleasure that all had felt at working under Mrs. Landry and referring to the goodwill and co-operation which had at all times prevailed. Mrs. Landry responded.

Annual reports showed that the Chapter had been very busy during the past year with a variety of activities, particularly in the way of relief and child welfare work. Over fifty children had been helped with shoes, school books, clothing, milk tickets, etc. Hampers had been furnished a number of families at Christmas and coal, clothing and bedding had been provided for needy people during the winter. The educational report showed that a $5 prize and book prizes had been presented to Booth Memorial School as well as a picture of the King and a school magazine. I.O.D.E. calendar had been furnished to Booth and Seal Cove Schools as well as out of town schools. A challenge cup had been put up for the Sea Cadets. Present efforts were being concentrated towards the milk fund for needy school children. A pair of pillow slips, donated by Mrs. Jack Durran, will be raffled.

Synopsis of Land Act

PRE-EMPTIONS

VACANT, unoccupied, surveyed lands may be pre-empted by any subject over 18 years of age and who is a resident of the Dominion of British subjects, conditions upon residence, occupation and improvement.

Full information concerning Pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Series "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands and Forests, B.C. Bureau of Provincial Information, Victoria, or any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering all land suitable for agricultural purposes within reasonable distance of road and marketing facilities and which are in timberland. It carries by road 1000 feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 800 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land is situated, on forms supplied by the Department of Lands and Forests.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

Pre-emption carrying part time conditions of occupation are also granted.

PURCHASE OR LEASE

Applications received for purchase of vacant and unoccupied Crown land not being timberland, for agricultural purposes.

Minimum price of first-class variable land is $5 per acre and second class (grazing) land, $2.50 per acre. Further information is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series—Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands.

As a partial relief measure, reversal of timberland may be acquired by purchase in equal instalments, with the first instalment suspended for two years, provided the area is cleared and improved within the first year, title being obtained after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stipend.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 100 acres, may be leased as homesteads, title upon a dwelling being erected after the first year, title being obtained after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered from time to time by varying conditions. Annual grazing permits are issued based on certain standards per head of stock. Priority in grazing privileges is given to resident stock owners. Stockowners may form associations for range management. Free partially free parcels, up to 100 acres, are available.

HYGIENE COURT OF JUSTICE

Business Man Accused of Rheumatism

(Before Mr. Justice Kruschen)

JUDGE: Have you anything to say, prisoner, before sentence is passed?
PRISONER: Well, my lord, I can't see that rheumatism is a crime.
JUDGE: In these enlightened days all preventable illness is a crime—just as much as suicide is. You've no right to have rheumatism—lowering your efficiency, spreading gloom, making yourself a liability to your family and your country, instead of an asset. Do you know that rheumatism costs the country millions of weeks of work a year?
PRISONER: But I couldn't help getting rheumatism, my lord.
JUDGE: Don't be so sure! The common causes of rheumatism are constipation and excess uric acid. As man to man, can you stand there and tell me that you can't prevent these?
PRISONER: Give me another chance, my lord!

KRUSCHEN'S SALTS

relieve constipation and rheumatism

Kruschen is a combination of several mineral salts which your body must get, in some way, to keep the blood pure, the inside clean, and the system generally toned up, but which you can't get in Nature's own way without abundant exercise and fresh air. You should have those salts every day; hence the importance of the "little daily dose". Every drug counter sells Kruschen in 25c, 45c and 75c bottles. It's the little daily dose that does it.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH IN GATHERING

By Maurice Davey
Members of the Christian Youth Society met last night in First Baptist Church for their bi-weekly session. President Ken Harding was in the chair. After the routine business was dispensed with several items of importance were placed before the meeting. There was a great deal of discussion. It was decided that the St. Patrick's Dance would be held on the night of March 18 and that a letter should be forwarded immediately to the Board of the Presbyterian Church to ask whether it would be possible for the Society to meet in that church, thus partially carrying out the interdenominational aims of the Society. The hobby groups would meet next Monday night, it was decided. The sewing group will meet at the home of Miss Edith Wilkinson and the photography group at a place to be decided upon during the week.

The devotional part of last night's program was ably led by Rev. R. L. McConnell of Kitimaat.

The guest speaker of the evening was Arthur Sutton, principal of King Edward High School, who spoke on the value of the study of literature to the average person. As a teacher of English literature, Mr. Sutton had plenty of material to draw from in order to exemplify his remarks. The speaker said that a poet sees the same things, feels the same thing as the average human being, yet he sees deeper, feels more deeply and is so emotionally touched that he feels that he has to share his feelings and thoughts with the world. The poet has such a wealth of vocabulary and such a sense of rhythm he finds it easy to say exactly what he wants to say. Thus, Mr. Sutton explained the difference between poet and ordinary man. Mr. Sutton went on to explain that the poet may take, and usually does take, the commonplace of life and glorifies them. As an example, in Robert Burns' "To a Mouse," the poet takes a common field-mouse and glorifies it so that men will think a little more of it. The poet can usually see things about the commonplace that other people cannot see. The example that Mr. Sutton used here was "Gray's Elegy." The scene was a country churchyard and the poet sat in meditation while looking at the lowly graves and he thought that those buried beneath the sod in that country place might have been leaders of the world if they had lived. Thus the speaker showed that literature can keep the student in touch with the past, can give him a better understanding of the present and even the future.

The recent presentation of the three-act play, "One Delirious Night," sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, was a success, the president reported but as all money and tickets had not been turned in as yet, no statement could be given at that time.

The meeting came to a close, after delicious refreshments had been enjoyed, with the Benediction.

Cup And Saucer Shower Is Held

Miss Kathleen Duncan, Who Is To Be Married Soon, Honored at Affair Last Night

Mrs. John Bremner and her laughter, Mrs. John McLeod, were hostesses last evening at a delightful cup and saucer shower in honor of Miss Kathleen Duncan, whose marriage to Rod Smith will take place on March 12. Playing of games was the order of the early part of the evening and later a prettily decorated buggy containing gifts of cups and saucers, was drawn into the room and presented to the bride-elect.

The refreshment table was centered with a handsome cake and a miniature bride and groom. Favors were attached to streamers of pink and white. Mrs. R. R. Duncan, mother of the bride-elect, poured coffee and Mrs. Bremner presided at the tea urn.

There were twenty present as follows: Miss Kathleen Duncan, Mrs. R. R. Duncan, Mrs. H. B. Eastman, Mrs. Murdo McArthur, Mrs. Jack Armstrong, Mrs. J. R. Morin, Mrs. Alex Murray, Mrs. W. Finlayson, Mrs. Thomas Christoff, Mrs. Sam Hougan, Mrs. Joseph Peterson, Mrs. J. W. Eastwood, Mrs. Norman McKay, Mrs. Emil Bosrom, Mrs. H. Hansen, Mrs. Neil Macdonald, Mrs. D. R. Barclay, Mrs. John Bremner, Mrs. John McLeod, Miss Agnes Guyan, Miss Betty Eastman and Miss Cathie Eastman.

IS GOOD MUSICAL

"Broadway Melody of 1938." With Robert Taylor and Eleanor Powell, Showing Here

Robert Taylor and Eleanor Powell again head the cast of "Broadway Melody of 1938," which is a spectacular musical feature being presented at the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week. Also taking part in the extravaganza of music and dancing are Buddy Ebsen, George Murphy, Binnie Barnes, Sophie Tucker and Judy Garland, all of whom are well known and popular entertainers either on stage, screen or air.

Taylor and Miss Powell outshine their performances in "Broadway Melody of 1936" and in "Born to Dance" in both of which they scored great successes.

This is one of the most talked of musical pictures of the year. It was highly praised by those who saw it last night and is proving quite an attraction to local moviegoers.

There is another serious coal shortage in Prince Rupert. There is practically no coal on hand just now and it will be the better part of a week before any arrives.

W. R. Lord, manager of the cannery department of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., in an interview with the Prince Rupert Daily News today, declared that Prince Rupert, owing to its location in relation to the fishing grounds, was bound to become the most important fishing centre on the Pacific Coast.

A well known local barrister who had been convicted of assaulting an equally well known auctioneer, was successful in having the conviction quashed by Judge Young in County Court today. The lawyer had been previously convicted by Magistrate J. H. McMullin and fined $5.
