Prince Rupert Boy Climaxes Scholastic Career As Winner Of Governor's Gold Medal

EDMONTON, May 12: (CP) - Roy Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Thomas of Prince Rupert, won the Governor General's gold medal for the University of Alberta with the highest standing among honor students, Dean W. H. Alexander announced last night.

Thomas will receive the award and his Bachelor of Science degree with honors in physics at the convocation on Friday.

Awarded a fellowship by the University of California, Thomas will continue his studies at Berkeley.

"The receipt of the gold medal by Thomas sets the seal upon a very distinguished high school record and reflects the greatest of credit upon the winner," the Dean said.

The honors course is open only to the most capable students.

VICTORIA, May 12: (CP)-Hon. George Pearson, minister of labor, port on the south China coast, revealed last night that the provincial government was opposed to the reopening of forestry camps to the provincial government, as for single unemployed men which serted. were recently closed down. The best way of taking care of these men, the government feels, is by SELASSIE public works on a contract basis; with provision for the use of a certain amount of relief labor. To such a program, it is felt, the federal government should contribute

During the months of February and March there were 6000 fewer persons on relief in British Columbia but this, it is suggested, is due to the fact that unemployables were cut off provincial relief rather than that there was an increase in employment.

Britain happens to be an ally of Italy but not of Hitler, at any rate not yet. It would be interesting to know which side Italy would take if there should be any unpleasantness develop between Britain and Germany. In the meantime, the best way to secure co-operation from any foreign power seems to be to make ourselves so strong that we may be looked upon as a valuable ally. Already the rearming of Britain has proven effective.

I can bring back prosperity to this country. If I cannot, nobody can and, if we do not have prosperity soon 'God Help

We admit that is not what Mr. Herridge said but it is the impression it conveyed to at least one brain through one pair of ears. Possibly Mr. Herridge is right. At any rate he seems to think he is, just as Mr. Bennett, his brother-in-law, seemed to think he was a few years ago.

material itself cost approximately 46 cents a yard retail. Ruffled and cut to perfection, it looked like the sheerest chiffon and is the first example made public of how British manufacturers have succeeded in duplicating a printing process hitherto a guarded secret of the Swiss.

The inevitable organdies for Ascot were shown to have acquired a new quality—they can be rained on and still retain their crispness. Prices per yard ran from 30 to 85 cents and colors favored were the West shore new cyclamen and a soft apple green. Hats worn with them were definitely bonnet, with a curled ostrich plume, or flat as pancakes with posies decorating the centres of the crowns. This group of dresses would be termed summer wedding or garden party in Canada.

Mr. Irish has been stationed for the capture of Nanking by the Japanese. Prior to his leaving Chungking in March, that far interior city had been raided only once by Japanese bombing planes, Mr. Irish says. The objective of the six planes which came over was the air field on the outskirts of the city. A small loss of life was inflicted.

Mr. Irish had not personally witnessed any warfare, he said, but had seen plenty of the results, especially on his 800-mile trip down the Yangste River from Chungking to Hankow by steamboat and thence by railway across to Canton and on to Hong Kong where he embarked for Vancouver.
