

Ten Persons Lose Lives in Crash Near Bozeman, Montana, Late Yesterday

DISASTER

BOZEMAN, Montana, Jan. 11: (CP)-Still another major disaster of the air lines occurred fourteen miles northeast of Bozeman late yesterday when an eastbound passenger plane crashed and burned, taking ten persons to their deaths.

One of the victims was Douglas MacKay, Hudson Bay Co. official from Winnipeg and formerly identified with the Canadian Press at Ottawa.

Owing to the intense heat, spectators of the crash were unable to get close enough to render any assistance. They advised authorities here and a party was at once sent out to bring in the bodies.

A biting blizzard today threw a storm in the Bridger Mountains delaying attempts to recover the remains.

Air line officials said the cause of the crash was undetermined. The plane was piloted by Nick Mamer who had flown over a million miles without injuring a passenger. The plane went into a
