Dominion Government Has In Mind Program To Give Work To All Employable People

OTTAWA, April 5: (CP)—Pending report of the Rowell Royal Commission on Dominion-provincial relations, the federal government proposes to reserve its decision on the proposal of the National Employment Commission that it assume the whole cost of relief for employable persons, Hon. Norman Rogers, minister of labor, told the House of Commons last night.

The Dominion government had in mind a broad program of national development and conservation, said the minister of labor. It had in mind plans which would enlarge national income and lead to the absorption of all people into gainful occupations.

HIGHWAY TO ALASKA

Evidently the government at Victoria is in favor of the Alaska Highway as being a very important factor in ford, England. Kiki went to hospithe development of the province, both from a tourist and on the floor. industrial point of view. It will forward this connection between United States and Alaska in every way possible. L. Magnusson's deliveries had but naturally will not put up the money with which to Springs cricket club batsmen puzbuild it.

In the first place British Columbia cannot afford to took all 10 wickets for 20 runs of build this highway and in the second place it will be built which one batsman made 12. for the use of the United States and the people of Alaska, the benefit of British Columbia being only secondary. If Canada builds it, this country will probably get a quid pro quo from the United States.

Those who think that this highway will be construct- lish Football League club. There is also a discussion going on regarding the ($350) each. route to be followed. Some people think the highway will Famous South African sportsgo by way of Vanderhoof, Finley Forks, and thence in a man, Sir Abe Bailey who last year more or less direct route to the Yukon and Alaska. In that had a leg amputated, watched Kencase it will not be of any service to Stewart or the Naas River country and also to the country between Vander- course. hoof and Hazelton. Taken all in all it seems as if there are so many problems to be settled before the work is done that it may be years before the dirt begins to fly.

LIKE RUPERT HIGHMAY

The Alaska Highway at present seems even more remote than the highway connecting Prince Rupert and Terrace. There was a time when meetings were held in Prince Rupert and demands made that the highway be completed within three or four years. Investigation of the cost and the difficulties of construction have made it. necessary to modify the views of local people and they realize that it must be some years before public opinion can be focussed on the need for this highway sufficiently to secure a vote of three or four million dollars to complete it. The people in the south must be shown that the need is very great and that the benefits accruing warrant the expenditure of such a large sum.

We think that Prince Rupert has not been well used in the matter of highway construction and this does not apply to any particular party. With only ten to twelve miles of highway built in twenty-five years, it cannot be said that people here are not patient. The difficulty has been that for several years this work was used as a relief measure and those employed did not do a real day's work. Many of them were not able to do it. Yet politically it is considered that a large sum has been expended on the highway.

The telephone service to Vancouver will be working within a few days. Construction work is booming. Three hotels are up. A couple of pool halls are getting in shape for opening. Stores and offices are being erected Squatters' shacks are increasing beyond the townsite.

People might think it rains a lot in Prince Rupert but" it's got ab solutely nothing on this place, writes the vounger Mr. Alder. There is plenty of mud and water on the roads but there is gold in the hills and the trucks some how or other manage to navigate the roads and bring out the precious metal. There are frequent reports of new strikes in the vicinity and the Wass Lake country is now opening up.

The congregation of First Presbyterian Church, at a meeting last night, extended a call to Rev. H. G. Funston of Stewart to the pulpit Grant Hollingworth who left some time ago for Medicine Hat. Mr. Funston, whose name was the only one proposed, has already intimated his willingness to accept a call should it be extended.

The induction of the new pastor will be held on April 26 with Rev. David Lister of Vancouver, at present supplying the pulpit, officiating.

Rheumatic Pains Gone

JUDGE CONGRATULATES EX-PRISONER

Welcome Reformation

"I remember your case very distinctly and I congratulate you on your recovery. I hope you now realize how serious your crime-rheumatic pains-was and how easily it can be avoided."

The judge then added that if the few remaining foolish people would only realize that a little daily dose of Kruschen Salts is as necessary to cleanliness as soap and water there would be fewer aches and ailments. There would be less suffering from the pains of rheumatism, neuritis, gout, sciatica or lumbago. Constipation would be on the wane and there would be fewer cases of getting run-down, and far less likelihood of catching colds.

Christian Youth Society Meets

P. H. Linzey Speaker Last Night-Various Matters of Business

P. H. Linzey was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Christian Youth Society last evening in First United Church. His address, which was aimed directly at young people, formed the usual devotionai period on the program.

As the attendance was not up to the usual mark there was no business of real importance. However it was decided to have an outing of some sort on Good Friday, most likely a trip across the harbor Miss Venetia Feero and Maurice Davey were appointed to make arrangements.

The Society will hold its annual spring dance in May, the date to be set. Miss June Armour was appointed convenor for this af-

The Easter play will be held in the First United Church at the evening service on the Sunday be fore Easter Sunday, a week from next Sunday night. It was an nounced that plans are gradually taking shape for this occasion.

As there was no special program or the evening the members present spent the remainder of the evening spinning yarns and playing the piano, while the two chefs Bob Irvine and Bruce Stevens, prenared and baked delicious waffle with Harold Ivarson helping. I was the rarest treat the members have had in many a day for they were real waffles with all the trimmings.

Constable Alex Gaunt of the city volice left a few days ago for Vanouver on escort duty and, while away, will also take his annual vacation. The prisoners he took south ncluded Tom Young, who had been entenced to three months' imprisonment for operating a still at Billmor; James Chatham, sentenced to three months' imprisonment at Smithers for theft, and a local boy who had escaped from the provinial industrial school at Coquitlam and was recaptured at Smithers. The prisoners from Smithers were brought here by Constable W. H. Davidson of Smithers.
