Czecho-Slovakian Situation Tense Again as Peace Conversations Are Suspended

Troops Moving

Great Britain is Playing Important Part in Averting Crisis

CZECHS YIELD
PRAGUE, May 25.—Czecho-Slovakia yielded today to Chancellor Hitler's protest against air raids over German territory, the Czech government ordering that no planes henceforth approach nearer than three miles to the border. France urges Czecho-Slovakia to withdraw troops from the border to appease Hitler's demands.
LONDON, May 25: (CP)—The central European situation arising out of the question of the German minority in Czecho-Slovakia took a new and somewhat less reassuring turn yesterday with the announcement that conversations between the Sudetan leader, Konrad Henlein, and Premier Milan Hodza of Czecho-Slovakia had been suspended for the time being. Henlein has imposed terms, it is said, which it may be possible for Hodza to accept. Hope was expressed in official circles that there might be a resumption of negotiations by the end of the week. Meanwhile, the situation continues to be the focal point of the grave attention of international statesmen.
With Chancellor Hitler of Germany reported to be sending more troops towards the Czecho-Slovak border, the frontier situation has become more acute.
Special precautions are being taken against disorders within Czecho-Slovakia between conflicting elements.
Germany Protests
Germany has made a strong protest to Czecho-Slovakia over alleged violation of the German frontier by Czech military planes. An official news agency charges that planes crossed the frontier four times yesterday.
Nazi funeral honors were bestowed at Eger, Czecho-Slovakia, on two Sudetan Germans whose deaths in frontier shooting last Saturday provoked the grave crisis.
Only municipal governing bodies were affected by the elections held in Czecho-Slovakia on Sunday and it appears that there will be no direct national effect from them.
Pledged to Peace
Talk of peace at the week-end had succeeded war tension in Europe. Both Czecho-Slovakia and Germany had pledged themselves to peaceful discussion of the German minority problem in Czecho-Slovakia. Konrad Henlein, leader of the Sudetan German minority, and Premier Milan Hodza were to meet again Tuesday following a 20-hour discussion Monday. The hope was that their talks would result in clarifying the whole political situation. A primary demand of Henlein's was for immediate withdrawal of Czech troops from Sudetan territory. There was doubt that Hodza's attitude in regard to that demand could be favorable.
Hodza had indicated that steps would be taken to meet the Polish and Hungarian minorities.
Great Britain appears to be playing a prominent part in the averting of another war crisis in central Europe. It is revealed in London that Chancellor Adolf Hitler has given assurance that he has no intention of marching German troops into Czecho-Slovakia.
In Paris it is reported that United States is being asked to support French and British efforts to prevent a conflict in central Europe.

WAS HELD IN ESTEEM

Late Archie Watt Had Been For Many Years Associated With Railroading in this District

The death on Sunday night at Chilliwak, where he had lived in retirement for the past year, of Archie Watt, for many years divisional master mechanic of the Canadian National Railways with headquarters at Prince George, removed one of this district's most highly esteemed pioneer railwaymen. Some years before the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway into Prince Rupert in 1914, Mr. Watt had arrived in Prince Rupert, bringing with him two locomotives and other equipment which had been brought out to the coast to Vancouver over the Canadian Pacific Railway. Mr. Watt was associated with the laying of track on the new railway here and some of the standard gauge trackage which he put down in the local yards still remains. Mr. Watt was located at Prince Rupert for years before being moved to Prince George as divisional master mechanic. Although his headquarters were changed, he continued, however, to be a frequent visitor to this city, the mechanical equipment over the entire division between Jasper and the coast coming under his jurisdiction. On retirement almost a year ago, Mr. Watt was succeeded as divisional master mechanic by J. W. McAuley.
Starting as an engine wiper with the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway at Point St. Charles, Quebec, in July 1890, Mr. Watt rose through the posts of locomotive fireman, engineer, machinist, shop foreman, mechanical foreman, locomotive foreman, general foreman and master mechanic. He came west in 1908 to be identified with track laying at Saskatoon on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and it was from there that he came to Prince Rupert. Resourcefulness was one of Mr. Watt's outstanding qualities. Large in stature and genial in personality, news of his death was received with a sense of deep personal regret by the many people who knew him.

LONDON, May 25.—Lord and Lady Astor entertained at a brilliant Empire Day ball in London Monday night. Their guests included the King and Queen, the Duke and Duchess of Kent, United States Ambassador and Mrs. John P. Kennedy and Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh. Lady Astor American-born member of parliament, has issued a denial to assertion by British Liberals and Laborites that world affairs are being "settled" at Cliveden, the huge Astor estate on the upper Thames, to the detriment of the democratic nations. Lady Astor belongs to the English group which favors conciliation with the German Nazis and supports the Franco cause in Spain. Lady Astor's husband, Lord Astor, is chief owner of the London Times.

BEATTY'S PROPOSAL

OTTAWA—Proposal for unification of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways aimed at solving the Canadian railway problem, relieving debt burden, was presented to a special Senate rail committee yesterday by Sir Edward Beatty. It would effect a saving of $75,000,000 per annum. Communication systems would be included in the unification.

FOREIGN POLICY

OTTAWA—In a long awaited statement on foreign policy, Premier King yesterday told the House of Commons that Canada cannot be drawn into war through application of League of Nations sanctions because, by general practice and consent, they are no longer effective. As an independent nation, there is little likelihood of Canada attacking any other nation or being attacked. If a situation arose where warlike action was proposed, it would be a matter for Canadian Parliament to decide.

TERRORIZED KINGSTON

KINGSTON, Jamaica — Thousands of marching strikers have terrorized Kingston since Monday by parading the streets and stopping every branch of business and industry. Three persons, including a mother and her son, were killed yesterday as police fired on mobs. First outbreaks had occurred Sunday night in Kingston's waterfront strike as striking stevedores attacked a car carrying food to workers who stayed aboard a United Fruit Co. Vessel. Two British cruisers have arrived from Bermuda to help the government to restore order.

BOTH CLAIM WINS

SHANGHAI—In the Sino-Japanese war, General Chiang Kai Shek yesterday declared that another effective Chinese counter-offensive in the Lungai Railway section had resulted in the recapture of three cities and a dozen villages from the Japanese invaders. However, the Japanese claimed that they had captured an important city and were within striking distance of Hankow. A Japanese navy squadron steamed up the Yangtze River from Wuhu and took a number of villages.

Water Rising In Skeena Normally

No Danger of Floods This Year—Warm Weather Brings Level Up

As a result of the warm weather of the past week, water has been rising steadily in the Skeena River. There is no exceptional amount of snow in the mountains this year and there appears to be no particular danger of floods this summer. So far, the rise of the water in Skeena and Bulkley rivers has been of quite normal proportions.
Government Telegraphs reported that the water in the Skeena at Hazelton dropped about six inches last night.

MERELY A POCKET

The present recession is merely a pocket in the general forward movement, according to Roger Babson, the famous statistician. It is not a depression that can in any way be compared with the great depression that started with the collapse of 1929.

The very fact that Canada is not seriously affected by the recession indicated that it is not as serious as was expected by some people. There seems to be a general impression that before the end of the year the recession will have been forgotten.

EUROPEAN SITUATION

By the time this is in print, possibly, the European situation will have changed considerably but just now it looks as if Chancellor Hitler was putting up a pretty good bluff to Czecho-Slovakia. The situation is so different from the Austrian impasse that similar action cannot be expected. Three and a half million Nazis can make a lot of noise and might be a source of danger if they were given too much rein. If they could be cut off territorially from the rest of Czecho-Slovakia and handed over to Germany, it would be a good thing but to do that would be to hand over a very considerable minority. The only way to avoid conflict is to see that the German sections are treated with exact equality with other citizens of the country.

Should there be an outbreak of hostilities France would immediately become involved and the probability is that other nations would be drawn in. Britain and Italy might, as a result of the recent treaty, be kept out of the conflict but no one can be sure what may develop. Russia may possibly decide to make common cause with several other central European states against Germany. The whole situation is fraught with uncertainty and danger. What is certain is that once hostilities commenced, there would be a deplorable loss of life and terrible suffering before any settlement could be made.

Constipated? You Should Get at the Cause!

Lots of people think they can't be "regular" without frequent trips to the medicine chest. "I just dose up and get it over," they tell you. But doctors know they don't "get it over" at all—until they get at the cause of the trouble! Chances are it's simple to find the cause if you eat only what most people do—meat, bread, "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement. If that fits you, your ticket is a crunchy breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B. Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

At the close of the meeting a reel of motion pictures was shown, much to the delight and amusement of the members. These had been taken by Dr. R. G. Large during the performance of the opera in the theatre.

Plans for next year's activities were placed in the hands of the executive, and, from suggestions given, it promises to be a very full season.

Victoria Day Quiet In Town

Weather Was Cloudy and Unsettled—Angling Season Opens

The spell of fine summery weather which Prince Rupert has enjoyed for the past week appears to be changing. Cloudy skies yesterday afternoon yielded a few light showers. The sky still looks rather threatening. However, the barometer is still high and steady and there are those who hope that it may soon clear up again.

The thick night fog was slow in clearing away Tuesday and rose into cloudiness and rain as the weather man predicted. Continued warm weather is the official forecast.

It was a quiet Victoria Day in the city with no celebration program on this occasion. In the way of entertainment the Gyro Club had a clear date for its Maytime dance in the Moose Hall last night, and the affair drew out a large crowd.

At Port Simpson a two-day celebration program was concluded and some people from town were over there. Yesterday also marked the opening of the angling season and, with ideal weather conditions for trout fishing, quite a few parties were out.

Skeena Tragedy Is Investigated

Provincial Police Proceed From Smithers to Hazelton

SMITHERS, May 25.—A few days ago some tourists passed through Smithers from the United States with a light canoe on top of their automobile heading for Hazelton. On Friday the town was shocked to hear that two young men who had formed the party had been thrown into the Skeena River from their canoe near Skeena Crossing while trying to navigate this river and that one of them had been rescued by Indians while the other Julius Wanter, had been swept down the river to his death.

With the water rising fast on account of hot weather the Skeena River is far more ugly than it is when the water is receding even though it might be higher at the time.

Details of the accident have not yet been received but the police have gone from Smithers to Hazelton to investigate.

Glazie and Dicky Hedstrom, neither of whom can swim, were rescued by Steve Salter, engineer of the steamer Prince Charles, who unhesitatingly plunged into the water in full attire to assist them. DO YOU EVER HAVE THAT "ALL-GONE" FEELING?

You needn't—not if you follow the lead of the millions who know the health value of Eno's "Fruit Salt". Just about nine times out of ten, physical disturbances are caused by some form of constipation. Incomplete elimination causes headaches, dizziness, nausea, sour stomach and many other minor and major ills. Strong purgatives—harsh mineral salts, of which Eno has no trace, are likely to do more harm than good. A dash of Eno's "Fruit Salt" in a glass of water morning and night soon gets at the source of the trouble. Eno safely rids the intestines of those toxic poisons which slow a man up and make him miserable. Doctors prescribe Eno and take it themselves. It is both effective and safe—for young and old. Eno is pleasant-tasting, acts mildly—a simple, natural way to good health. Life today calls for Eno's "Fruit Salt". Order a bottle from your druggist now. Handy size, 50c; Household size, 85c.

Smithers Couple Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Carruthers Are Honored By Friends

SMITHERS, May 25.—Mr. and Mrs. George Carruthers of Smithers received one of the surprises of their long residence in Smithers Friday evening when 50 friends swooped down upon their house to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Taken completely by surprise they were at a loss to know how to handle such an invasion but the matter was completely settled by the guests themselves who had come equipped with all the necessities of the evening including games, refreshments, a large wedding cake and a fine silver presentation.

During the evening H. F. Noel presented the silverware to Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers in a neat and happy speech and this was fittingly responded to by Mr. Carruthers. The guests all joined hands and sang "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

It was a happy occasion for all present and completed 25 years of happy married life for the principals.

FIRES IN FORESTS

Conditions in Smithers District Now Quite Hazardous

SMITHERS, May 25.—Another forest fire started in the vicinity of Smithers Friday when a serious conflagration sprang up at the end of Seymour Lake only one mile from town and, fanned by a strong southwest wind, was headed for Smithers with two or three farm homes in its path.

The forestry officials were all out of town on account of other fires in the valley but the local police took the situation in hand and rounded up all the available men and high school boys in town and quickly transported them to the scene of the trouble equipped with shovels and other apparatus.

Soon after the fire started a change of wind took it off in a different direction than it had started out on and so saved considerable trouble and anxiety. During the night it had died down and is now under control.

For several years this district has been virtually free from forest fires, due largely to the absence of any prolonged spells of hot and dry weather. This year, to date, there has been very little rain and the recent hot days have created a situation that might become quite serious shortly if there is not a change in the weather that will bring some rain.

sett. It is not yet known definitely whether the Nootka Packing Co. Will operate at New Massett although it is possible that it may. A good run of pinks is expected at Massett Inlet this cycle year.

The Seattle Fish Exchange will be closed next Monday which will be Memorial Day and a general holiday in the United States.
