Airplane Tragedies Taking Toll

Eleven Die In Czech Crash In Germany And Fear For Others Held

Six Men Believed Killed When Royal Air Force Machine Plunges Into Sea—Mexican Ship May Have Come to Grief in Storm

NEW YORK, August 13: (CP)—A series of airplane mishaps today caused eleven deaths and aroused anxiety for eleven other persons. A Czechoslovakian passenger plane crashed near Kehl, Germany, killing eleven. Six British Royal Air Force men are believed to have been killed when a plane crashed into the sea near Cork Light off Felixstowe, England.

Fears are held for eleven Mexican passengers of a missing Compañia Mexicana de Aviacion plane which was missing during a storm over the jungles of the Gulf Coast since yesterday.

Meanwhile the German air liner Hindenburg left New York at 8:02 p.m. Eastern Standard time today on a return flight to Berlin across the Atlantic Ocean.

TROUBLE FORESEEN

War Preparations of Germany—Possibility of Attack

LONDON, Aug. 13: (CP)—Anxiety continues in international circles over Germany's military preparations ostensibly in readiness for maneuvers in September which will be the largest since the first war. Tense feeling has spread among Europe's major powers today from Great Britain to the Balkans. Reserve units have not been called up which have not been engaged in such exercises since 1914.

In some quarters these preparations are thought to be in readiness for a coup against Czechoslovakia unless there is an early settlement of the minority problem satisfactory to the Nazis. Inhabitants on both sides of the Czechoslovak frontier are apprehensive.

Fortifications along the Polish frontier are also regarded as significant. In Berlin the only official statement is that the preparations are merely for routine autumn maneuvers. London government sources discount German warlike intentions.

AUDIT IS ARRANGED

Salmon Cannery Books Covering Period Since 1933 To Be Checked Up

VANCOUVER, Aug. 13: (CP)—The Board of Arbitration in the dispute between cannery and fishermen over the 1938 salmon price yesterday arranged for Peat Marwick Co., of Vancouver, chartered accountants, to make an audit of the books of four of the principal packing companies, representing seventy-five per cent of the operators in Northern British Columbia waters where the dispute occurred.

The companies to have their books audited will be the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co., the Canadian Fishing Co., British Columbia Packers and J. H. Todd & Sons.

The auditors will review the books of the four companies over the period from 1933 to 1937 to decide if 1937 figures are a fair standard representative of the industry's costs on which to base the 1938 prices.

The companies have agreed to meet the audit cost estimated at $1000. The audit, it is expected will take about two weeks.

The Board appointed the auditors after the cannery and fishermen had failed to agree on the firm to be used.

The Boston Bees defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers and ousted them from leadership of the second division.

Man in the Moon

Last night I went on a moonlight excursion. No, not on the Prince Charles. This was another excursion and it was a mystery trip.

Jake says he also had a trip and it ended in a deadlock. That's the way with some of these trips. The mystery is how they get away with it.

A lot of people will be making mystery trips to Prince Rupert on Port Day. It's a big event and everybody should be happy.

Jake says he guarantees everyone who helps celebrate The Day a year of success and happiness and general prosperity. There's a gamble for anybody.

WHAT WILL BE THE END?

What will be the end of the Spanish embroglio? It seems evident that Italy and Germany do not intend to keep out of the dispute. Fighting still goes on and just, when it seems as if the end is near the fighting flares up again and the slaughter continues. The difficulty is that both sides have received help from the outside but especially the insurgents.

The government has been sending out propaganda literature in one form or another during the past year or more, latterly showing how the government has been carrying on in a democratic manner, improving conditions while fighting against the invader.

To the real outsider who knows nothing of the conditions except from publications from various sources, mostly on the government side, it would seem as if Russia fomented the trouble at the beginning by encouraging the Spanish socialist and communist government to enter on a policy of despoliation. This so roused the conservative classes that they saw nothing for it but to commence a war in defence of their property. Having got the war started, the Russians failed to come to the support of their friends to a sufficient extent to enable them to put down the uprising while the fascist countries sent not only arms and ammunition but troops to fight on the side of General Franco. The government side got some support from France, England and Canada and United States but not sufficient to offset the Italian and German help.

The defence of the government troops has been the wonder of the period. With poor military training and without that desirable cohesion which seems necessary to victory, they have fought valiantly and many deeds of heroism will be told in future generations.

NO UNITED FRONT.

J. S. Woodsworth, national leader of the C.C.F., is strongly opposed to the United Front which means he would not like union with the Communists. He says it was a similar union in Germany that gave rise to Hitlerism. He declared in Vancouver that all this talk of a United Front came from the Communists. The C.C.F., Mr. Woodsworth said, believes firmly in social democracy.

It seems as if the C.C.F. was steadily developing along the lines laid down by their late British Columbia leader, Rev. Robert Connell, who, while a socialist of very long standing, did not see the possibility of bringing about any immediate plan for socialising the country. His idea was to do so gradually rather than by a sudden overthrow of the present system, as the Marxians advocate. It was because he favored this plan that the C.C.F. threw him over and chose another leader. He was a "firm believer in social democracy" but so far we have heard no suggestion of throwing Rev. J. S. Woodsworth over and appointing a more radical leader.

Evidently Mr. Woodsworth sees the danger of extreme measures. Extremists on one side develop extremists on the other. Even the Communists are beginning to realize this and are moderating their tone.

BASKETBALL IS SPEEDY

Westview Beats Acropolis and Seal Cove Wins Over McClymont

The Gyro basketball league saw two fast games played off last night at the Exhibition Building. There was some very good and some not so good basketball in these two games. In the first game, a fast hard fought battle, Westview beat Acropolis Hill by a score of 24 to 14, while the strong Seal Cove quintet beat McClymont Park in the second game by a score of 12 to 8.

The Westview-Acropolis affair provided most of the thrills of the evening. In this game Blain of Westview opened the scoring with a beautiful one hand shot from well back, then went on a shooting spree to score a total of 15 points.

Westview really had the goods last night. In every department of the game they were full value for their win. The floor play of the team as a whole was beyond reproach. Every man had a chance. There were no stars. Forwards Brown and Lee unselfishly fed Blain who scored most of his points from direct passes. Currie was a standout at guard and Cook Grimson both held their ends up.

Acropolis started well but the phenomenal shooting of Westview was too much for them and they wilted badly after the first few minutes.

O'Neill and G. Brown, for Acropolis, were the team standouts. Brown scored eight of his team's points while O'Neill was responsible for four more.

Acropolis lost two men on fouls. Mentenko in the first half and Eastwood, who went in to take Mentenko's place and lasted only a few minutes before he too was asked to retire with four personals. In all, eleven fouls were called on Acropolis.

Some good floor plays, engineered by O'Neill and Brown, were wasted when no one was able to

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dearly beloved husband and father, Frederick W. Wesch, who passed away August 13, 1936.

Two years have passed, we miss you more.
Quickly and quietly came the call
His sudden death surprised us all.
We have lost, but God has gained.
One of the best the world contained
His life was one long sacrifice
His heart was true and tender
He tried so hard for those he loved.
Then left us to remember.

Sadly missed by his wife and family.

Seinefish Are Now Beginning to Show Up In This District—Halibut Landings Fall Off With Closing of Area No. 2

Seine fishermen are now beginning to take salmon in more substantial numbers in waters contiguous to Prince Rupert such as the Naas River, Lowe Inlet and Butedale although there is still much to be desired. The run of pinks in Massett Inlet has not materialized to any extent to date. Gill netters in the Skeena and Naas Rivers are averaging about twenty sockeye to the boat with seventy to eighty pinks. There has been a falling off in the coho run on the trolling grounds.

As a result of the recent closing down of halibut fishing in Area No. 2, the past week was marked by a sharp falling off in halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert, only 271,000 pounds being brought in. Of this 79,500 pounds was landed by three Canadian vessels and 191,500 pounds by eight American boats. With the landings light, prices showed a distinct upward movement. The top price of the week for Canadian fish was 9.5c and 6c paid the Atli for 8000 pounds and the low 7.8c and 5c received by the Constance B. for 32,000 pounds. For American fish the high price of the week was 10.3c and 6c paid the Hazel H. for 21,000 pounds and the low 9.2c and 6c which the Arrow received for 35,000 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Holtby and two children, Monica and Gwen, returned home Thursday after being guests of Hubert Ward on a boat trip to Mr. Ward's mine on Princess Royal Island.

Ingenuity in signalling a ship to land was displayed recently at Skidegate when the steamer Prince John stopped in response to messages sent from shore to ship by use of the horn and lights of an automobile. Owing to repairs being made to the Queen Charlotte City dock, the Canadian National steamers have not been able to call there of late. The steamer Prince John was not aware of this when it came in with a sick man on board for the Queen Charlotte City Hospital. The ship was about to pass Skidegate by on the way to Queen Charlotte when Dr. McCall and R. G. McKenzie, who were at Skidegate, signalled the steamer with the horn and lights. The John thereupon turned into Skidegate and landed the sick man who is now progressing favorably at the Queen Charlotte Hospital.

The new cannery and reduction plant of the B.C. Packers at Paoofi, Queen Charlotte Islands, has now been completed and is ready to start packing. Local labor was to a large extent used in construction of the plant.

Capt. Albert Jones of the trawler Steveston reports Hecate Straits virtually alive with pink salmon. There is some speculation as to whether these are Queen Charlotte Island, mainland or American salmon. Old timers say they are Island salmon.

According to word received from the Queen Charlotte Islands, the residents of Skidegate and Skidegate Mission are still somewhat agitated about the refusal of Canadian National boats to land at the new wharf at Skidegate which has been declared too small. A petition has

MANY GET PENSIONS

All Provinces Now Share In Old-Age Payments, 175,675 Last Year.

OTTAWA, August 13: (CP)—The Dominion treasury paid out $28,524,567 in old-age pensions for the fiscal year ended March 31, figures obtained from the finance department here disclosed. The Dominion pays 75 per cent. of the pensions so the pensioners received somewhat above $38,000,000.

This was a considerable increase from the year before when the Dominion's contribution was $21,149,351. Some of the increase was due to a greater number of old people claiming the pensions last year but it was also attributable to this being the first full year that Quebec and New Brunswick had old-age pension schemes in operation.

New Brunswick started its pensions on July 1, 1936, and Quebec on August 1, 1936. When the scheme started in these provinces there was a rush of applications which cluttered the receiving offices and accordingly many of the payments had to be made retroactive. These payments also appear in last year's figures although really applying to the late months of 1936.

In Canada all provinces now are under the old-age pension scheme for persons over seventy. They are entitled to $20 a month if their private income does not exceed $125 a year. If the private income is above that, the pensioner is entitled to enough to give him or her $35 a year.

Payments Uniform.

Pension payments are uniform throughout Canada. This differs from practice in the United States where each state decides the monthly pensions to persons over sixty-five. Under social security legislation the Federal Treasury at Washington supplies half the amount of the pensions paid in each state with the proviso that in no case shall the Federal share be over 15 a month. States that pay $35 a month have to supply $20 monthly themselves.

In Canada all the cost of administering the fund must be paid by the provinces.

At the close of the last fiscal year the total number of old-age pensioners in Canada was 175,675. Following are the numbers of pensioners in each province with the percentage of pensioners to the total number of persons over seventy in the province in brackets: Alberta, 9,725 (52.23 per cent.); British Columbia, 11,563 (42.55); Manitoba, 11,800 (52.70); New Brunswick, 11,142 (59.61); Nova Scotia, 3,827 (50.56); Ontario, 57,530 (35.91); Prince Edward Island, 1,211 (31.07); Quebec, 46,490 (48.37); Saskatchewan, 11,775 (53.35); Northwest Territories, 9 (7.44).

Dominion contributions for the last fiscal year by provinces follow: Alberta, $1,590,571; British Columbia, $1,955,951; Manitoba, $1,997,107; New Brunswick, $1,333,673; Nova Scotia, $1,836,704; Ontario, $9,527,168; Prince Edward Island, $167,330; Quebec, $8,386,230 (including back payments); Saskatchewan $1,757,834; Northwest Territories, $1,714.

Since the old-age pensions first came into effect in 1928 the Dominion treasury had contributed to the end of the last fiscal year $123,398,824.

In addition the Dominion provides old-age pensions for blind persons more than 40 years of age. This is done by a special provision in the Old-Age Pensions' Act and is also on the basis of $20 a month. At the end of the fiscal year there were 1,946 and the Federal contribution amounted to $128,418.

BISHOP RIX AT HAZELTON

Conducts Ordination, Communion And Baptism at St. Peter's Church

HAZELTON, Aug. 13.—Rev. G. A. Rix, Bishop of Caledonia, arrived in Hazelton last Friday and on Sunday morning conducted special services in St. Peter's Church, a large congregation being in attendance.

Carol May, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Myros, was baptized by the Bishop.

Frank Burling, missionary in charge, was ordained to the diaconate, being presented to the Bishop by Rev. J. E. Birchall, rector of Smithers. His Lordship preached a most impressive and helpful sermon.

The Bishop was assisted at the Holy Communion service which followed by Rev. J. E. Birchall and the Rev. Frank Burling.

During his visit to Hazelton the Bishop stayed at St. Peter's Rectory. An informal reception was held on Saturday when a number of people availed themselves of the opportunity of meeting His Lordship.

Experiences Of Local Boy At Francois Lake

FRANCOIS LAKE, Aug. 13:—

Master Dave Edlund of Prince Rupert is spending the holidays in the Francois Lake district and every moment is fraught with new discoveries. He got within twenty feet of a young bull moose, caught a big grey trout at Francois Lake and was the guest of the Hougen family at Tatalrose, the McPhail Ranch on Bald Hill and at the home of the Harris Orchestra on Francois Lake, finding odd moments in which to visit his father, Albert Edlund, who is foreman on telephone line construction.

His latest experience was when a defective stove-pipe set fire to the bunk tent which blazed merrily. With rare presence of mind, young Davey seized his father's pet razor and cut the burning cloth from the tent and halted the blaze which was still burning. His father's socks, having just undergone a bath, offered a solution to the boy who quenched the remaining fire with the socks. Albert will also require a new razor. No great damage was done as the fire was confined to one cloth which may be easily repaired.

Find Sundays In Winnipeg Quiet

American Tourists Find It Difficult To Put In Time

WINNIPEG, Aug. 13: (CP)—A stopped clock added to the disgruntled state of mind of two American tourists visiting here on a Sunday.

Tired and thirsty after trudging the streets in a vain effort to purchase drinks other than those sold in cafes and drug stores, the pair glanced at a clock in the Canadian Pacific rotunda before departing for the west.

The clock was out of order and rather than confuse passengers officials had covered the face. This was explained to the United States visitors. One of them replied dolefully:

"Oh, I thought it was just part of your Sunday requirements in this city. Everything else is so tightly closed I thought perhaps you had to cover your clocks too."

TERRACE

Mrs. C. J. Norrington arrived on Monday from Prince Rupert and is the guest of Mrs. Will Robinson.

Sunday brought a severe electric storm to Terrace and district although no damage has been reported. The storm was especially severe in the Lakelse Lake country.

The delegates of the Board of Trade and other visitors to the Smithers celebrations returned on Monday and reported an excellent show. The orator for the Indians Jack Joseph, is receiving special mention for his timely remarks reminding the white inhabitants of the Bulkley Valley of their very recent arrival in the country.

Mrs. R. Jeats of Vancouver is visiting here with Mrs. O. J. Kirkaldy at her summer home at Lakelse Lake. Mrs. Jeats and family lived here some years ago.
