KISPIOX PRODUCE OFFERED

Hazleton Chamber of Commerce Seeking Marketing Arrangements in Prince Rupert

With the object of endeavouring to find some basis by which produce from the fertile Kispiox Valley might be marketed or distributed from Prince Rupert, Bruce C. MacCallum, president of the Hazleton District Chamber of Commerce, has written to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Root vegetables and poultry of a high quality could be offered for the present season with the promise later on of eggs, berries and, even, beef being available.

The letter from the Hazleton District Chamber reads in part as follows:

"We are located less than two hundred miles from you and represent, among other things, the very fertile and beautiful Kispiox Valley, containing approximately 500 square miles of exceptionally productive land, but to date, too sparsely settled. This we hope to remedy shortly.

"Meantime, some of the farmers who are producing on large scale have but a limited market for their output. While part of this is due to the fact that no one of them can make up (say) a carload lot to make a shipment worth while the greatest difficulty is lack of organization and direction to bring them together to sell and ship on a co-operative basis.

"This is one of the more important and immediately urgent tasks which this Chamber has set itself, and we should greatly appreciate anything you could do with regard to discussion with your local wholesale houses (or possibly retail merchants) with the object of trying to find some basis on which Kispiox Valley produce might be marketed in or distributed from Prince Rupert.

"At the present time, that is, for the present season, we could only offer root vegetables, and poultry but within the next two years, we can probably promise eggs, berries, and even beef.

"However, as you know we all need encouragement, and particularly is this true of the down-trodden farmer and this is what we hope to give our local farmers in some measure not later than this year.

"Naturally, we do not hope for immediate results, but we are firmly convinced that we can, with your assistance, produce definite and permanent results in reasonable time. Will you give this matter your kind consideration at your earliest convenience?"

"On a reciprocal basis, we offer you greater use of your shipping facilities in the near future by our merchants and farmers, and co-operation with you in any effort to gain completion of the much-needed Skeena Highway.

"If you are interested, we shall see to it that you are supplied with samples (not exaggerated) of the high quality farm produce available from the Kispiox Valley to back up our claims and aid you in any efforts you may make on our behalf.

"Please let us know if there is any way in which we might extend our efforts on your behalf, and accept our assurance of our whole-hearted co-operation with you."

MINES OF USK AREA

Placer Miners Operating on Creeks—Women Turn Out and Repair Roads

By H. F. PULLEN

USK, June 18—Usk is a little valley snuggled between high mountains. These mountains rear their snowcapped heads up to five thousand feet above sea level. It has been found that there are veins of gold-bearing quartz at intervals in all of them. Some of it is high grade and other veins are not so rich. However, very little effort has so far been made to prove these veins and ascertain whether they hold sufficient gold-bearing ore to make their working profitable.

The only mining property being worked at present is the Grotto group of claims, about four miles east of Usk, owned by the Bell-Bethurem syndicate. Recently a shipment of ore was made to the sampling plant at Prince Rupert and another shipment of better grade ore will be made this month, possibly five or six tons. The returns from this will keep the three men at present employed working on the job.

In addition to this there is the Lucky Luke mine and the Cordillera, both of which have good mineral showings but for some reason are at present not being worked.

Up Gold Creek there is a small engine and dredge working the river sands and a number of placer miners will be operating in Gold Creek and Phillips Creek. They make wages most of the time and some splendid nuggets are shown. These were taken from the river bed. It is said that from a dollar to a dollar and a half a yard can be washed from the Skeena River bars in the neighborhood and just now four wheels have been made for operation there this summer as soon as the water is low enough. Mostly young men of the village have built the wheels and will operate them. It is probable that quite a significant quantity of gold will be secured from the placers and hard rock during the present summer.

Among the Prince Rupert people at present living at Usk is Bert Dodd, formerly of Seal Cove, whose son recently led the group of boys on H. M. S. Fraser in gunnery and torpedo work and has secured his A. B. papers. He is only eighteen years of age.

While I was at Usk Dr. Hugh Morrison, inspector of schools visited the village and gave a lecture to a good sized audience in the Bethurem Hall. Evidently, the people there are intensely interested in education for they asked a lot of questions.

Women Public Spirited

The women of the village take a great interest in public affairs. A group living on the north side was not satisfied with the condition of their road. They claimed discrimination in the appointment of the road gang so they made a demonstration by all turning out in the afternoon with rakes and immediately put the road in front of their homes in good condition. If some of the men had taken a similar course early in the spring there would have been no cause for complaint but men are not as public-spirited as women and the days of self-help seem to have passed.

Usk has a store and post office owned and operated by Lee Bethurem. It has a licensed hotel operated by A. D. McGillivray and a boarding house kept by Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Skinner, who are well known and have been there for many years. The very obliging ferryman is Carl G. Brechin.

Chinese Are Reduced To Eating Bark Of Trees As Flood Water Spreads; 200,000 Are Doomed

Adjusting Of Insurance Is Now Awaited

The mill building of the Reward Mining Co. at Surf Point, Porcher Island, which was destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning, contained ore bins, grizzly, crusher, carriers, ball mill, flotation cells, settling tanks, machine shop, engine room, three diesel engines, compressor, etc. Most of the members of the crew of the mine have now reached the city and are awaiting developments. Nothing will be done until the managing director, J. D. Galloway, and insurance adjusters arrive from Vancouver.

Lobster Season Worst In Years

YARMOUTH, N. S., June 18: (CP)—A decrease of $28,000 in the earnings of District No. 4 lobster fishermen for the last six months was reported in the seasonal statement issued here by Inspector J. D'Entremont of the Department of Fisheries.

Few fishermen were believed able to pay their expenses for the season. The total value of the catch up to May 1 was estimated at $446,000. Poor weather conditions and a large increase in the number of fishermen were factors said to have contributed to the decrease.

Sea Cadets Given Annual Inspection

Capt. R. L. Mitchell of Military District No. 11 Pays Visit To Local Corps

Annual inspection of the local Sea Cadet Corps was conducted last night at headquarters of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve by Capt. R. L. Mitchell of Military District No. 11. Despite the fact that a number of boys have left for summer employment, there was a fair turn-out. Capt. Mitchell put the Cadets through their paces and found their proficiency to be very satisfactory. He addressed remarks to the boys suitable to the occasion.

Capt. Mitchell will sail by the Prince Rupert tonight on his return to Victoria.

Mrs. J. C. S. Dunn, who has been paying a visit at Stewart with her daughter, Mrs. H. McCorriston, arrived in the city from the north on the Prince Rupert this evening and will continue to her home at Massett on the Prince Charles tonight.

Area Covered is Increased By Six Hundred Square Miles And There is No Sign of Any Abatement As Yet

TOKIO, June 18: (CP)—A Domei Japanese News Agency dispatch today said that border patrols of Manchouko and Soviet Russia had clashed at Nanbetsuri, killing one Manchoukan and wounding one. The dispatch said that the Soviet patrol had retreated.

SHANGHAI, June 18: (CP)—Japanese claimed today that the overflowing Yellow River had trapped two hundred thousand Chinese beyond all hope of rescue. Thousands are reported to be eating tree bark in a desperate effort to survive. The flood waters are declared to have extended over an additional 600 square miles during the last twenty-four hours. Japanese reports said that there was no indication of the flood abating. Isolated Japanese army units are experiencing food shortage, it is reported.

Operate Fewer Fishing Boats

Japanese Swordfish Competition Is Felt on Atlantic Coast

BOSTON, June 18: (CP)—Not more than 25 schooners are expected to engage in swordfishing out of Boston and Gloucester this season. In recent years a fleet of between 50 and 60 vessels have operated.

Fishermen contend much of the profit has been taken out of this branch of the fishing industry by the rapidly increasing imports of frozen swordfish from Japan. A fleet of about 15 schooners left Boston and Gloucester in quest of swordfish, joining several that had left earlier in the season.

THE NEW LEADER

Within less than a month, federal Conservatism will be gathering in Ottawa to name a new leader says Toronto Saturday Night. Gradually, as the time for the convention draws closer, speculation over the Conservative leadership outlook tends to become a foremost topic of interest.

While, generally speaking, it is true that the views which the federal politicians hold with respect to the results to be expected from the gathering are mixed, there is one interesting opinion which is fairly widely held by observers whose judgment in matters political commands high regard in federal circles. That opinion is that the coming Conservative convention belongs within the category of gatherings from which miracles are most likely to issue.

The delegates are going to Ottawa largely free of commitments. They may know the candidate for whom they intend to vote if none more attractive appears. But their minds will be open to the appeal of some last-minute entrant if they believe that they detect in his person the essential qualities of the Moses whom the Conservative Party needs to lead it out of the wilderness of opposition back into the Promised Land of power.

A strong belief at the moment is that the coming three weeks will see the search for a Conservative Moses intensified, for the reason that, unless one is found, Hon. Dr. R. J. Manion is likely to be the choice of the gathering.

SOME MISGIVINGS

Solidly based as Dr. Manion's strength is upon his infectious popularity and highly attractive and able personality, enthusiasm for him is not entirely free of misgivings. Furthermore, party success under Dr. Manion would depend upon support and alliances which responsible Conservative circles are inclined to view with increasing caution.

Who, then, is the youthful Moses who may come forward at the convention to confound the current prophecies of a Manion leadership? So far as the field can be conjectured at the present moment, it will have to be one of four individuals, namely, J. Earl Lawson K.C., of Toronto; Major M. A. MacPherson, also a K.C., of Regina; Denton Massey of Toronto, and Col. George A. Drew, another K.C., also of Toronto. Only as a compromise would the aging and failing present leader be chosen again.

PEARL OF GREAT PRICE

SPORT CHAT

Jim Jeffries, a giant young sparring partner for James J. Corbett, watched unimpressed as Bob Fitzsimmons' solar plexus blow felled Gentleman Jim in their heavy-weight championship battle at Carson City, Nevada, in 1897. "I can lick the two of 'em," he declared. And he did. This 200-pound youth built his physique as a boilermaker and brought into the ring a massive pair of shoulders to which were attached thick and powerful arms and legs. He carried perhaps the hardest knockout blow of any previous or subsequent fighter.

Jeffries gained the championship by knocking out Fitz in a bloody battle at Coney Island, June 9, 1899. There was quite a contrasting picture as they squared away this strong, thickly-built challenger facing the 37-year old Fitz, whom supporters said weighed only 157. Jim, willing to take many punches in order to land one of his own, dove into Fitz for six rounds, taking everything the spindly-shanked Cornishman threw at him. Jeffries floored Fitz twice

LONDON, June 18: (CP)—The Football Association has received 556 entries for the English Cup competition of 1938-39. Corinthians, famous London amateurs who included Canada in their world tour, have entered.

In the tenth. Starting the eleventh, Jeffries caught Fitz on the chin with another left. Old Bob's hands dropped and Jeff whipped a right uppercut to the jaw that crashed the champion helplessly to the canvas.

In 1900 Jeffries stopped Corbett in 23 rounds at Coney Island. Two years later he finished Fitzsimmons again in eight rounds at San Francisco. Jeffries fought Corbett a second time in 1903 at San Francisco and this time needed only 10 rounds. After beating Jack Munroe in 1904 Jeffries retired.

OBSERVANCE OF SUNDAY

Law's Queer Quirks Bother Folks In Old Country

LONDON, June 18: (CP)—Visitors to this country, staggered by provisions of the Sunday Trading Restriction Act, find company in distraught natives who say they cannot fathom them either.

A move has been launched with support of some parliamentarians to gain uniformity in interpretation of the Act. This followed issue by the Home Office of a 22-page memorandum explaining the law and exemptions.

J. F. E. Crowder, Conservative M.P. for Finchley and member of a delegation which went to the Home Office to ask something be done about the situation said it was alleged that in some places the Act was not enforced at all.

"A good many people who would like to close on Sunday find they have to remain open," he said, adding "but shopkeepers who do open find they may sell at one counter and not at another."

Fine Distinctions

Anomalies in the Act include these: A druggist may not sell razor blades on Sundays to persons who want to shave. However, he may sell them to men wishing to use them for cutting corns or lancing boils. They are then called surgical instruments.

Seed merchants may not sell fodder for horses or donkeys on Sundays but anyone else may.

Hungry persons may buy fish and chips on Sundays as long as they do not buy them from a fish and chips shop.

Bathers may buy bathing shoes on Sundays but not sand shoes.

Married housewives may buy green peas on Sunday—provided it is summer—but not canned peas. Canned peas are groceries which are banned.

A parent with an obstreperous child may not buy him a tennis ball on Sunday to keep him quiet.

He may buy the ball for a club, however.

Grocers who sell wares in their shops on Sundays may be fined. If they wheel groceries around in a barrow and deliver them they are outside the law's restrictions.

Resorts Complain
Besides these provisions are others making sales legal at certain hours. Illegal at other times. Some seaside resorts enjoy an immunity from the law during 18 Sundays a year.

T. E. Groves, Labor M. P. for Stratford, is drafting a bill which would make it possible for seaside restaurant owners to keep their staffs at work on Sundays and give them days off at other times of the week. As the Act stands employees may work only three Sundays a month. There are five Sundays in July and restaurants complain they will be staffless at the rush season unless they are helped.

H. F. MacLeod will sail tonight on the Prince Charles for a two week visit to Tiell, Queeq Charlotte Islands.

Opening of Salmon Canning Season Set For Week From Tomorrow Evening—Halibut Landings For Past Week Fairly Heavy—Future of Grain Shipping Uncertain

Preparations are being completed for the opening of the 1938 salmon canning season in Prince Rupert district with the commencement on the evening of June 26, a week from tomorrow of fishing with sockeye nets in the various areas. There has been no settlement announced between the canners and the fishermen on the question of sockeye price for the season but, notwithstanding, the expectation seems to be that there will be no interruption on this account with the commencement of operations. Signs pointed to at least a fair run of sockeye, the fish having already put in an appearance. One less cannery on the mainland, Haysport in the Skeena River, will be operating this year.

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the week ending yesterday totalled 677,100 pounds of which 362,600 pounds was from Canadian vessels and 314,500 pounds from American. This brings the season's total to date up to 5,239,250 pounds as compared with 6,043,750 pounds at a corresponding date last year. This year's aggregate of Canadian fish to date is 2,539,350 pounds in comparison with 3,203,550 pounds a year ago while American total is 2,699,250 pounds as against 2,840,200 pounds in 1937 at a corresponding date. The price range for the past week was little different than that for the preceding week. For Canadian fish the high bid of the week was 7.3c and 5c received by the Ingrid H. and Margalice for catches of 19,500 pounds and 8,400 pounds respectively while the low price was 5c and 4c paid the Domino II, Northland and Torberg A. for catches of 8,700, 8,500 and 8,000 pounds respectively. The top price of the week for American fish was 7.5c and 5c which the Cascade and Pierce received for 9,500 and 18,000 pounds respectively and the low 7c and 5c which was the bid most boats landing during the week were offered. Yesterday's landings at Prince Rupert included 82,000 pounds of American for which 7c and 5c was paid and 42,000 pounds of Canadian which sold at 6.4c and 5c to 6.9c and 5c.

With the sailing of the Norwegian motorship Villanger for the United Kingdom and Continent on Wednesday evening of this week, the Alberta Wheat Pool's local elevator is now empty of grain and the future for the plant is quite uncertain. The Pool's lease on the house expires this summer and whether or not it will be renewed is not known. Joseph Bennett, Pacific Coast superintendent of Alberta Wheat Pool elevators, could give no information on being questioned this week as to possibilities of the future. Much, he suggested, would depend on what kind of a crop there was on the prairies this season. Mr. Bennett pointed out that grain shipping from British Columbia ports was at a low ebb now. No wheat whatever was being shipped to the Orient, this having been the case ever since the start of the Sino-Japanese war a year ago. The great bulk of the shipping of Canadian wheat to the United Kingdom and Europe during the past year had been from

Terrace Wedding Pretty Affair

Miss Letty Cardinal Becomes Bride of Omar Levesque

TERRACE, June 18.—A wedding of much interest to Terrace residents took place on Tuesday at 8 o'clock when Miss Letty Cardinal became the bride of Omar Levesque. Given in marriage by Gordon Temple, the bride was lovely in a gown of pink satin with a wreath of orange blossoms encircling her hair and carried a bouquet of long spurred columbine and fern tied with white tulle. She was attended by Miss Enid Waite who looked charming in a gown of pale green silk with a bandeau of gold leaves in her hair.

The setting for the ceremony was the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stout. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Adam Crisp.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served to the guests and a four-tier wedding cake, made by the friends of the bride, centred the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Levesque are to reside in Terrace.

Miss Swanhild Hougen of Tatalrose has been visiting friends here for the past week.

Atlantic ports. Summed up, the future of grain shipping from this coast seems quite an uncertain quantity. Indeed, little as it may have been, Prince Rupert seems to have had its share of grain shipping this year when compared with other coast ports.

Smithers Is Thriving Centre Of Important Bulkley Valley; Has Great Future Possibilities

By H. F. PULLEN

SMITHERS, June 18.—The town of Smithers is the centre of everything in the Bulkley Valley. It has the government buildings, the railway shops, most of the retail business, the hotels, the high school, the Chamber of Mines, the moving picture house. Its future is tied up with the development of agriculture and mining of the whole valley. Hazelton has the scenery, the fur business, the native trade and Telkwa has the coal mine but it is impossible to think of the Bulkley Valley without thinking of Smithers. The federal member makes his home near here at Lake Kathlyn, the holiday centre for the valley.

In view of the town's importance the people of Smithers are bound to feel that the future of Smithers depends upon each and every one of them. They are bound to reflect the dignity of being an important centre by making the place look the part and by throwing off the village ways and acting in a dignified manner. Unfortunately, it has among its inhabitants men who do not hesitate to belittle the place, the people and the country. In that it resembles Prince Rupert and many other places, civic pride is sometimes lacking and, as in other places, moderate and truthful speaking is not always considered a virtue.

Smithers has great possibilities. Farming is as yet in its infancy and, as it develops, the agricultural population will learn to co-operate for their own protection and to forget policies not in the interests of the whole community.

There is one question on which Smithers is almost a unit. It wants the Alaska highway built by way of Hazelton. Just a few are scoffers, mostly for political reasons but I judge, from their expressions, that the large majority of the people are anxious to have the highway and they express themselves in no uncertain terms. They are anxious that Prince Rupert shall pull strongly for the highway and the Hazelton route and the Associated Boards, at the meeting in August, will be asked to express that feeling by resolution.

I spent a Sunday in Smithers and the town was almost wholly deserted on that day. While a few spent at least a part of the day on the golf links, the majority seemed to have gone fishing to the various lakes and streams of the district and on Monday trout proved a delicious dish on the dinner tables of local residents.

Mining is Quiet

There is not much to be said just now about mining. There is still plenty of ore at the Duthie mine, but the price of silver is not sufficiently attractive to the owners to make operation attractive. There are other very good prospects on Hudson Bay Mountain but there is a lack of confidence on the part of the investing public which makes it difficult to raise money for development. There are also good prospects in the Babine Mountains.

KITSEGUKLA

Mathias Wesley was admitted to the Hazelton Hospital last Friday. Dr. Kirkpatrick and Dr. Irish operated upon him. They report that he is doing well and will be discharged in about a week's time.

All the logs are ready for the new Community Hall which is to be built after the fishing next fall. The logs will be sawn at the local mill by Joseph Wesley and his sons.

The lawn grass has also been killed in many lawns and may have to be resown. However, flowers and vegetables are growing and there will be a good show of color pretty soon.
