TWO MAYORAL CANDIDATES WILL MEET TONIGHT

NEWTON TO FACE HILDITCH AT THE EMPRESS TONIGHT

"MOST CERTAINLY I WILL BE THERE," HE TOLD AN INTERVIEWER TODAY—WILL BE READY TO DEFEND HIMSELF AND TO ATTACK ALD. HILDITCH, TOO.

Alderman Newton will most certainly be present at Alderman Hilditch's first mayoralty campaign meeting in the Empress Theatre tonight. Interviewed especially on the subject this morning by a News reporter, he said:

"Am I to be present at Alderman Hilditch's meeting? Well, I don't think I have been invited yet, but wait." He caught sight of a distinct public invitation to himself to be present, read its terms closely, then said decidedly: "Most certainly I will be there. I had not seen this invitation before. There is no reason in the world why I should not be present."

Alderman Newton added that he was ready to defend his own position and to criticize that of Alderman Hilditch both broadly and in detail at need, and fully bore out by his demeanor the general idea that he is the last man to shirk a face to face discussion of the issues with his Council Board adversary. He will be at the Hilditch meeting—"there with bells," as the people say gleefully.

"My estimate of my standing in the public favor at present," he remarked today, "is that I can make it with a 75 per cent. vote in my favor." Alderman Newton's supporters make the figure 80 per cent.

PIONEER'S BODY BROUGHT TO REST AT METLAKATLA

JOHN CUNNINGHAM OF PORT ESSINGTON, FUR TRADER AND MERCHANT FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY IN B. C., WILL BE BURIED BESIDE HIS BROTHER.

By the Venture this morning was brought to Prince Rupert on the way to Metlakatla the body of the late John Cunningham of Port Essington, who died at New Westminster last week at the age of 71 years. Mr. George Cunningham, nephew of the deceased, brought the body from New Westminster for interment at Metlakatla, where his uncle had been in the fur trade 35 years ago.

It was one of deceased's last requests that he should be buried there beside his brother. The family of Cunningham is one of the oldest pioneering stocks of Northern British Columbia. The late John Cunningham settled first at Metlakatla as a fur trader, and afterward started a store at Port Essington, where the firm still does business in general trading.

PIONEER HOME GOES

Interesting Landmark of Early Prince Rupert Vanishes

Purchased from "Uncle Jerry" by L. Leroux, the substantial shack which occupied a site on the G.T.P. reserve, near McBride Street and the Government wharf, has been removed piecemeal to Seal Cove, where it will be used as a store. This shack is an interesting one, as it was for long the home of Prince Rupert's first bride, Mrs. H. L. Robinson. Captain Robinson built the shack in the G.T.P. survey days. It was amongst the first homes of Rupert then.

The building was purchased last summer by "Uncle Jerry," who added to it, and used it as a launch-ledge. He had intended to have it moved to his summer camp at Tuck's Inlet, but the idea was abandoned.

Alderman Newton will hold his third mayoralty campaign meeting in the Empress Theatre on Monday night. Moving pictures and music. Be present and hear local issues discussed.

Several Well Known Prince Rupert People Southbound This Morning.

The Princess May continued her trip south from Skagway at nine sharp this morning. Among her passengers from Rupert were Mrs. W. H. Vickers and boy, Mr. S. P. McMordie, Mr. J. Lorne McLaren, and Mr. A. W. McKnight. Mr. McKnight is bound for his home in the east, and will return to Rupert after a short stay.

JOHN DYBHAVN ENTERS CONTEST

Eye Request of Scandinavians Mr. Dybhavn Will Try for a Seat at the Council Board—Alderman Newton Is Endorsed.

Mr. John Dybhavn, one of the best known members of the Scandinavian colony in the city, has this morning given notification of his intention to run for alderman. The decision followed a resolution passed at a meeting held downtown last night largely attended by Scandinavians and others, at which it was asked that Mr. Dybhavn consent to run as candidate in Ward 3.

The meeting also passed the following resolution unanimously: "That this meeting endorses the candidature of S. M. Newton as mayor and W. H. Montgomery, W. Shaw, W. Kerr, T. Maitland and H. Douglas as aldermen."

Alderman Newton will hold his third mayoralty campaign meeting in the Empress Theatre on Monday night. Moving pictures and music. Be present and hear local issues discussed.

HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

Annual General Meeting to be Held Jan. 26th.

Friday, January 26th, has been fixed as the date for the annual general meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association. A directors report will be then presented, and the secretary, Mr. Wright, is preparing this in draft to be passed upon by the Board at a special meeting before the 26th inst. All who have contributed $5.00 or over to the hospital funds during 1911 will be entitled to vote at the general meeting.

HOSPITAL PLANNING

Suggestions for Design of New Wing—Vancouver Man Applies.

Claude Jones, a Vancouver architect, wrote the Prince Rupert Hospital Board recently requesting permission to submit plans for the new wing proposed, unless the competition was confined to local architects. The communication, after some discussion, was referred to the building committee. H. H. Clark suggested that a plan by a specialist in hospital design would be desirable, and it was also suggested that the architect might be able to offer useful suggestions to the architect employed.

TO BUILD LEAD STACK

Granby Will Smelt Silver-Lead Ores at Goose Bay Smelter.

Mr. Duke Harris of Hazelton stated today that on his way north he saw Mr. Williams of the Granby Company, who announced that it was his company's intention to erect a lead stack at the new Goose Bay smelter in order to treat the silver-lead ores from Hazelton.

HOSPITAL PROBATIONERS

Two Have Set to Work—Four More Are to Come.

Two probationers have started work at the General Hospital, and four more are needed. At the Hospital Board meeting yesterday afternoon applications were considered from a number of young ladies in Victoria and elsewhere, and these were referred to the house committee for consideration and report.

Is Recovering.

Mr. J. C. McLennan, city assessor, who has been ill with bronchitis lately, is reported today to be recovering from the attack.

Alderman Newton will hold his third mayoralty campaign meeting in the Empress Theatre on Monday night. Moving pictures and music. Be present and hear local issues discussed. 3t

GOOD RECORD FOR RUPERT

During the Holiday Month Less Than Half Last Month's "D. & D.'s" Were Fined—Police Commission Report.

Only seventeen cases of "D. & D." had to be dealt with during last month, according to Chief Vickers' report presented at the meeting of the Police Commissioner yesterday afternoon. Considering the fact that this includes the most of the holiday season and that the number is less than half the record for last month, the figure is interesting. Chief Vickers reported an orderly city for the most part, the only serious cases being that of V. Stella, committed on the charge of attempted murder, and the serious assault case now pending. The sum of $534 was collected in fines, the largest items being $100 fines for gaming house convictions and for supplying. There were seven $25 and cost cases from Comox avenue. The question of warm, wet-proof overcoats for the constables will probably be considered by the new commission.

Most of them are voting for Bullock-Webster. 4t

AMEULANCE ON WAY

Much Needed Hospital Adjunct Has at Last Been Shipped.

Word was received from the Ledoux Carriage Co., Montreal, and read last night at the Hospital Board meeting that the ambulance ordered some months ago is now complete and has been shipped. The ambulance may be expected within a week or so now, and arrangements must be made for the horsing and housing of it. The idea is to have it near the fire hall for use in emergency.

SUPT. E. LOVE DECIDES TO RESIGN FROM THE SERVICE OF THE COUNCIL

Is Dissatisfied at Being Superseded at the Electric Light Plant Without Notice---Says He Has Been Hampered in His Work by Council Mismanagement

In view of the action of the City Council last night in placing Mr. Matthews in charge of the light plant, and offering Mr. Love the continuance of his superintendency at a salary of $160 per month, Mr. Love will resign his position altogether. He expressed his intention of doing so this morning, and stated that he would take up business for himself in Prince Rupert. Mr. Love is dissatisfied with the method taken by the Council in superseding him as superintendent of the light plant without notice, and his attitude is one of disgust. "They would keep a man continually writing reports for their meetings," he remarked, "when the work of the telephone department alone would take up the superintendent's whole time. Both phone and light departments are in shape for big extension and will be busier than there is staff for for the coming year. The arc light system I planned in shape to install in three days, and have the stuff coming by the next boat, and the telephone department is taxed to the capacity of the cables and cannot grant extension of service urgently demanded because the present Council so mismanaged affairs that they could not afford to grant me the switch board I asked for months ago. Yet the phone department is the one municipal enterprise which has reaped a profit. I could have made it reap thousands of dollars more with increased advantage to the citizens if they had given me fair support."

WORKMAN'S SPADE CUT UP A SACKFUL OF DYNAMITE

THE SACK WAS HIDDEN BENEATH A PILE OF MANURE—MORSE CREEK RESIDENTS HAD A NARROW ESCAPE FROM GOING TO HEAVEN YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Good fortune alone saved a city workman named Mairs from instant death by dynamite yesterday afternoon. Mairs dashed his shovel clean through a pile of dynamite sticks wrapped loosely in a sack, and concealed deep in a pile of manure at the back of the Pacific Transfer stable, near the Morse Creek pump house. The manure was being taken to cover the pipe line from the dam to the pumping station. How the dynamite came to be there is a mystery, but there was as much as one man could carry away. The probability is that the explosive was buried in the manure to keep it from freezing, and perhaps forgotten. It is a considerable time since dynamite was used in this vicinity, the Watson contract being finished, and the city line excavated. City Engineer Davis is investigating the matter, but is assured that the dynamite is not city stuff.

WILL BE NO NAVY BILL AT THE PRESENT SESSION

DEFINITE ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE AT OTTAWA—QUESTION OF NAVY WILL BE LAID OVER UNTIL A CONFERENCE IS ARRANGED WITH ADMIRALTY.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Ottawa, Jan. 6.—That the Government will not bring down any navy bill at this session was definitely stated today, and an announcement of its naval policy will be forthcoming. It is said that the failure of the late Government to act in regard to the several tenders for the construction of the navy and the return of the deposits to the tendering firms by the present Government clears the way for a new start. This, however, will not be made until after a conference with the British Admiralty, which will take place after prorogation.

MINING IS GOOD NEAR HAZELTON

Mr. Duke Harris is on His Way Back to Look After the American Boy Property—Outlook Is Extremely Optimistic.

Mr. Duke Harris of the Harris Bros., who with John Mullan located the American Boy group at Hazelton, was a visitor at The News office today before taking train for upriver. Mr. Harris was returning to look after the property after a visit to his home in the south.

Early this morning the Venture arrived from the south with mail, freight and passengers. These included the Rev. W. T. Rushbrook, formerly pastor at Port Essington, whose recent bereavement has aroused for him great sympathy in Rupert. He is coming to assist Bishop Du Vernet. By the Venture there arrived also the party of Prince Rupert lady teachers, who went below for their Xmas and New Year vacation. Misses Milligan, Johnston, Mercer and Martin were welcomed back by their friends and pupils.

"Everything is looking good up the river," he declared. "I have been in all the leading camps in Alaska and British Columbia in my eighteen years of mining and prospecting, but I never saw a camp that looks so good as Hazelton. I look to see a very big camp up there yet. I have also seen some of the ores from around Kitseles, and they have got some good properties there, too," he said. Very generously he declared that the Silver Standard property at Hazelton (owned by Messrs. McHugh and Angus Stewart) had the very best silver-lead ore he had ever seen anywhere.

Alderman Newton will hold his third mayoralty campaign meeting in the Empress Theatre on Monday night. Moving pictures and music. Be present and hear local issues discussed. 3t

The recent floatation of the American Boy company proved very satisfactory, some 55,000 shares being sold in Hazelton alone. There is now all the money needed to develop the property, with ore enough in sight to recoup the stockholders. Two shafts are down and work has started on the No. 3 vein. By July it is expected to have 500 tons of hand picked ore ready for shipping.

"What is Love Worth?" will be Rev. Warren H. McLeod's subject in McIntyre Hall tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Morning worship at 11 o'clock, followed by communion service. Bible school and Brotherhood Baraca Bible class at 2:30 p. m. Music conducted by Mr. John E. Davey. Strangers and visitors always welcome. All Baptist services held in McIntyre Hall, Third avenue, near Sixth street.

TRYING TO RUIN CANADA.

The announcement made yesterday that the Federal Government will try and secure freer trade relations with the West Indies is certain proof that Mr. Borden and his Cabinet are bent upon ruining Canada, lowering the price of wages and handing away our natural resources. If we allow the goods of the West Indies which we want to come in unhindered and allow the West Indies to purchase from us unhindered the good things that they want, then there is nothing ahead for Canada but ruin. No nation can expect to bow the knee to Baal in this manner and achieve national greatness.

But this is not the worst. If once we permit ourselves to sell to the people of the West Indies, for good coin of the realm, the various things that we want to sell and that they want to buy it is almost certain that the next step will be annexation. Our statesmen are no match for the clever and astute politicians in the West Indian Legislatures, one of whom at any moment may slip through a bill providing for the annexation of Canada.

What is to be done to meet the national menace of fuller and freer trade? At the time of writing The News has received no further despatches, but it may safely be presumed that Col. Sam Hughes and the other leading patriots of our country are preparing to make some militant speeches. Mr. Arthur Hawkes, alias John V. Borne, the gentleman of alleged Swedish origin and Canadian education who engineered the appeal to the British-born in a similar crisis in our national history some months ago, should be recalled from his jaunt to the Orient to engineer similar campaigns on a more extended scale. The birth might be divided into years, so that we could all be labelled like old port with the year of our vintage. These again could be subdivided into the Monday-born, Tuesday-born, Saturday evening-born, etc., classes.

A fund should be provided by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association to educate the people to the dangers of extending the scope of our national customers. Some lurid posters, some even more lurid speeches and a plentiful supply of Union Jacks for waving purposes would be found effective.

The customs returns for the month of December showed that we taxed our trade to the extent of $7,333,349. Any effort to reduce this taxation must be combated, because it is by taxing ourselves that we become rich.

After having gone into power by educating the public up to the dangers of opening up freer trade relations with our 92,000,000 neighbors, it is a strange madness that now actuates Mr. Borden and his Cabinet to endeavor to secure free trade relations with our equatorial brothers in the Caribbean Sea.

A NIGHT-SWIM AMONG SHARKS

STORY OF SIR PETER LUMSDEN'S GREAT SWIMMING FEAT IS REVIVED—STORIES OF WHAT PLUCKY MEN AND WOMEN HAVE ACCOMPLISHED IN WATER.

Burgess' recent record when he swam the English Channel, wonderful performance though it was, is not by any means the most wonderful performance that man has proved himself capable of, even out of his natural element. Among the more unusual swims on record was that accomplished in the China Sea in January, 1860, by Lieutenant Lumsden, now General Sir Peter Stark Lumsden, G. C. B.

This young officer was sailing a small boat in Talienwan Bay when a gale sprang up and capsized it. Darkness had fallen, the low shore was many miles away and invisible, and a heavy, choppy sea was running. Moreover, the bay was infested by large man-eating sharks.

To an ordinary individual the situation would have seemed wholly desperate. But Lieutenant Lumsden was no ordinary individual. He was known as the finest swimmer in the army and one of its best all-round athletes. And he made up his mind to fight for his life to the last gasp.

First, he divested himself, one by one, of all superfluous articles of clothing, retaining, however, his flannel shirt, which he found an assistance rather than a hindrance, as it helped to support him in the water when floating. For the first few hours he held fast to a presentation gold watch, but presently finding that that even its small weight sufficed to handicap him somewhat, he let it go.

First, he divested himself, one by one, of all superfluous articles of clothing, retaining, however, his flannel shirt, which he found an assistance rather than a hindrance, as it helped to support him in the water when floating. For the first few hours he held fast to a presentation gold watch, but presently finding that that even its small weight sufficed to handicap him somewhat, he let it go.

For eight solid hours he swam the English Channel, buffeted continually by heavy cross seas, not knowing for certain whether he was progressing toward the shore or away from it. At length he heard the sound of breakers, and putting forth his last ounce of strength, he gained the land just as dawn was breaking. Then he swooned away, and when he awoke to consciousness the sun was high in the heavens.

What a Plucky Girl Did.

Another remarkable feat of the kind was performed by a young lady passenger on the Queensland liner Quetta, which foundered in Torres Straits in the summer of 1890. Though sucked down by the sinking steamer, this plucky girl, on coming to the surface, boldly struck out for the shore, nearly twenty miles distant.

Sixteen hours later she was seen and rescued by a party of pearl fishers. She was then still swimming strongly, and the shore was only about three miles away.

Sixteen hours is not, however, a record as regards actual time in the water even for a woman. In May, 1880, Agnes Beckwith swam for thirty continuous hours, or over seven hours longer than the time occupied by Burgess in swimming the channel. It need hardly be said, however, that the conditions governing the two exploits were wholly dissimilar.

Swam Thirty-seven Miles.

Another, and perhaps even more remarkable, swim of a similar kind was performed many years ago in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River by a man named Jergensen.

Owing to the snapping of a rope used as a temporary bridge he was thrown into the rapids at the top entrance to the gorge and actually floated and swam a distance of thirty-seven miles down the river before rescued. Much of the journey was through broken water and amid whirlpools in which no boat could have lived.

RAISING FROGS FOR A LIVING

MISS ISABELLE MORGAN, AN ORIGINAL KIND OF GIRL, HAS DISCOVERED AN ORIGINAL AND PROFITABLE OF MAKING A GOOD LIVING.

Frog farming is an enterprise carried on by at least one girl today.

Miss Isabelle Morgan is a pioneer in this line. Before taking up the occupation of frog farming she was a stenographer in Baltimore. The strict business training then gained she considers the basis of her success.

When the strain of office hours

Especially large, fine specimens are shipped by Miss Morgan for use in biological laboratories. These often bring as big a price as three dollars each.

The frog reserve of this Maryland girl consists of a series of marshy ponds, each enclosed by fine wire fencing. This prevents the escape of the frogs and insures their safety against snakes told on Miss Morgan's health, her physicians ordered her into the open air and she returned to her home on a farm. A progressive, ambitious girl in touch with large interests finds such a situation difficult. In looking back Miss Morgan considers it the most fortunate incident of her career, for she embarked in her present business.

Maryland is one of the six states that lead in supplying the country with frogs, and the marshy lowlands on Miss Morgan's father's property offered suitable environment for the work.

The bullfrog is the variety with which it is most profitable to stock a farm, as their large size makes them especially valuable as a table delicacy, and their greedy habits render them easy to capture. When sold for food one to four dollars per dozen.

and turtles. From May to July the ponds are closely watched for eggs, which are removed to another enclosure. Here the eggs hatch and the giant bullfrog tadpoles slowly develop through a period extending from one to three seasons. These tadpoles often reach a length of six or seven inches. They are carefully guarded, as not only the bulk of the full grown frog, but also the number of years necessary for this growth depends largely upon the tadpole before its transformation.

The frogs Miss Morgan sells for eating purposes have the legs skinned and shipped in ice water. The choice specimens destined for laboratory use are first selected.

It requires some time to establish a well organized frog reserve. When once the business is launched Miss Morgan's experience shows that it is both interesting and profitable.

THREE DAY CURE FOR DRINK HABIT

Appeals to the Business and Professional Man, the Banker, and Man in all the Higher Walks of Life

BECAUSE OF THE TIME IT SAVES THEM

When a man's time is worth a great deal more to him than the cost of a drink habit cure he is not going to drag along for twenty-eight to forty-two days taking a treatment when he can get a cure in three days, without hypodermic injections, and be surrounded with every comfort of home.

A PERFECT CURE.

The Neal internal treatment cures the periodical, occasional or moderate drinker and the nervous man who has to drink to keep from becoming nervous. It takes away all inclination to drink, all desire and craving to drink, by neutralizing the poison of alcohol in the system and ridding the blood of the poison by a rapid system of elimination, leaving the drinker in the condition that he was before tasting liquor, so far as the effect of alcohol may be concerned—all appetite for drink gone—and he a new man.

The treatment consists of the internal administration of a harmless remedy, tonic in its action, that removes the craving for liquor in a very few hours.

DRUG HABIT CURED.

At the Vancouver institute we also treat drug addictions with uniform success. Call, write or phone for booklet, giving full information.

312 FEET

Is the distance at which Mr. Beedall of Pennsylvania shot a crow with his 16-bore green gun. He considered his feat of such importance that not only was the distance measured by a civil engineer but his statement was sworn to before a justice of the peace. Of course such a shot is only possible with a GREENER GUN. No other gun in the world shoots so far and close as the Greener. This has been proved over and over again from the time of the Great London "Field" Gun Trials of 1875, when the Greener gun beat 102 guns by the world's best makers and won the Field Cup for choke bores. There are many other features about the Greener gun, fully described in our latest catalog. Let us send you a free copy.

TO RENDER ACCOUNT

City Council Will Hold Stewardship Meeting on Tuesday.

Last year's Council is gracefully dying. A meeting was held last night to wind up routine business, and the Mayor appointed Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Empress Theatre for the "rendering of an account of their stewardship" by the Council. A report was brought in last night by the committee on the Labor Temple site. It was decided that a plebiscite will have to be taken by the next Council on this. All Section 1 local improvement by-laws were finally passed last night and another item of importance dealt with was the separating again of light plant and telephone superintendence. Mr. Matthews was appointed light superintendent and Mr. Love was left in charge of the phone department at $160-per month.
