ATTACK ON ITALY ABANDONED

Rome Quick to Answer Spanish Government Threat—Insurgents Still Advancing

PARIS, June 27: (CP)—The Spanish loyalist government has abandoned the idea of attacking Italian cities in retaliation for Italian air attacks on Spanish cities. Great Britain and France intimated to Spain that they would not support such a move in fear that it would lead to general warfare.

Italy Saturday notified France the Fascist Air Force would wipe Spanish government cities off the map if the Barcelona government should bomb Italian cities. The Italian Charge D'Affaires Prunas conveyed a message from Premier Mussolini to Foreign Minister Bonnet. Prunas said the first Spanish government bomb dropped on Italy would signal open war.

France has been asked by the Spanish loyalist government to reopen the Pyrenees to shipments of war materials but it is doubtful if such a request will be met.

Insurgents reported further advances yesterday on three fronts in the vicinity of Valencia, Madrid and Cordova.

SAME TRAIN IS WRECKED

Crack Olympian of Milwaukee Lin In Another Fatal Smash-Up In Montana

INGOMAR, Mont., June 27:—The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad suffered another disaster Saturday with a second train wreck in a week, again with the line's big yellow transcontinental Olympian westbound from Chicago to Tacoma, which crashed head-on at dawn with an eastbound laden with C C C workers. One C C C youth, Robert Eckert, Portageville, N. Y., was killed. Another, Edward Kohlbrener, Buffalo, was seriously injured. Scores of others were shaken up. Railroad officials said the Olympian failed to wait at Incomar as ordered and crashed into the special west of the town. A mistake by the engineer is blamed.

Ingomar is 120 miles west of Cluster Creek where a week ago the Olympian crashed through a flood-weakened bridge with a loss of life of nearly fifty persons. The body of an eight-year old girl was recovered from the creek bed yesterday, bringing the number of known dead up to forty-four with three still missing and presumed to be dead.

One of the persons in Saturday's wreck had just left hospital where he had spent a week suffering from injuries sustained in the wreck the week previous.

Express Rate Boost On Fish Being Sought

SEATTLE, June 27: (CP)—Fisheries interests here are preparing to fight against an application which has been made by express companies to increase express rates on fish from the Pacific Coast by ten percent. Such an increase would add almost half a cent to the present rate of 4.28c per pound. As competition of eastern fish would make it impossible to increase the price of Pacific Coast fish on the eastern markets, the increased express rate would mean a lower price for fish on this coast. No date has yet been set for the hearing of the application by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

STOCK MART FEELS BOOM

NEW YORK, June 27: (CP)—As a consequence of a strong buying wave, the heaviest since 1933 and for which trading experts have been unable to account, security values on the New York market finished the week at some five billion dollars higher than at the first of the week. A tendency to stocks swung upward at high noon Saturday and initial losses of fractions to a point were converted into advances of four or more. The buying wave centred on steels, motors and other pivotal issues, Canadian issues were quiet.

RECAPTURE CHENCHOW

Claimed by Chinese—Fierce Airplane Fight With Conflicting Reports

Japan Warned

Great Britain and France Would Act if Island of Hainan Occupied

SHANGHAI, June 27: (CP)—The Chinese yesterday claimed the recapture from the Japanese invaders of the important centre of Chenchow. In a fierce airplane battle yesterday, the Japanese claimed that they had brought down from 33 to 36 Chinese planes, losing only three themselves. On the other hand, the Chinese claimed to have brought down two Japanese ships and lost none themselves.

The Chinese also reported today that they had made four successful air raids on Japanese positions along the Yangtze River, damaging five Japanese gunboats. They said as well that they had destroyed five Japanese planes near Wupu and had undermined a number at Anking.

New international complications were believed impending as Japanese spurred armed operation threatening the strategic island of Hainan off coast of French Indo-China. The reports said Japanese were preparing to occupy the island which is separated by the 150-mile Gulf of Tongking from French Indo-China and commands the eastern approach to the colony.

United States reported to Japan against alleged slapping of the wife of Lieut. Thomas Massie the naval officer involved in the famous Honolulu Massie case of 1932.

Japan Warned

The quota of licenses for the Naas River is three hundred and for the Skeena 850. If these quotas are exceeded, the weekly close season of forty-eight hours will be extended.

APPEAL BY ROOSEVELT

Chief Executive Threatens to Intervene in Primaries if New Deal Threatened

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27: (CP)—President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in an address to the nation at the week-end, virtually asked the people to vote for "Liberal" candidates in the November elections. He asserted the right to intervene in behalf of candidates in primary contests of the Democratic party.

The President expressed dissatisfaction with "the progress we have made in finally solving our business, agricultural and social problems" and said he believed the majority of the people wanted him to "keep on trying."

Mr. Roosevelt pointed the New Deal toward new reform horizons and asserted his right to oppose Democratic primary candidates who flouted Liberal principles or who misused his name.

Conservative Democrats countered President Roosevelt's declaration of war against anti New Dealers with warnings that voters would resent "goose-stepping a leader."

McBride Anxious To Secure Highway Communication With Outside As Soon As Possible

By H. F. PULLEN

The last community of importance before entering the mountain pass leading to Jasper Park from Prince Rupert is McBride. It nestles contentedly between hills with the waters of the upper Fraser River flowing close by and surrounded by fertile fields which have suffered less than any other interior area this year from the drought which has injured the crops in other places.

Did I say that McBride nestled contentedly? That was an error. McBride people are anything but contented. They never will be content until they have a highway to connect with the outside. This was explained to the writer some dozen or more times. It requires only about fifty miles of new construction to enable them to get through to Kamloops and Vancouver. Already they can drive to Tete Jaune Cache and from there to Valemount in only about fifteen miles. That is in the Prince George district and construction of it is promised providing the Kamloops district will connect up some thirty odd miles at its end. Negotiations with that end in view are now going on. It would, undoubtedly, be a great thing for the whole valley if the connection could be made.

Another smaller work that McBride wants is the connection by road with the proposed new timber operation at LeGrand. A camp has been established there and a railway spur has been ordered. It is understood that a mill will be erected in time for operation next spring and, in the meantime, investigations are being made to determine exactly what the nature of the operation will be and how extensive. Naturally, McBride is deeply concerned in the outcome as it means much to them.

It is four years since I last visited McBride and the town has improved very considerably since that time. The buildings are painted and look quite smart. The people put on a good face. They have been establishing the municipality on a sound basis. It is governed by a commission consisting of H. J. Edgar, chairman, E. Gunderson and F. W. Waller who are agreed on carrying out a conservative policy.

A Red Cross hospital has been established with three nurses and it has already proved its value. The provincial government gave $2,500 to purchase a building and the people have provided about $1,500, the Red Cross guaranteeing the cost of operating over and above what the local people are able to do.

A portion of the village is sewer-ed and it has an excellent water system. It is lighted by electricity provided through co-operation with the railway company.

In regard to farming operations, it is pointed out that the place is eminently suited to mixed farming and that a number of the farmers are living wholly off their places.

I should say that McBride will steadily forge ahead and in time become an important centre.

WILL FLY ATLANTIC

Howard Hughes Planning to Leave Los Angeles This Week For New York

LOS ANGELES, June 27:—Howard Hughes, millionaire oilman aviator, will take his big monoplane over the Atlantic to Paris within two weeks on a "leisurely" cruise that may break all existing transatlantic speed records.

Hughes says he will leave Los Angeles Wednesday to make a non commercial flight from New York to Paris on behalf of the 1938 world's fair of New York. The dark-haired young sportsman said he will try for no records. However, it is expected he will span the ocean in 24 hours. Lindbergh took 33½ hours.

and that a number of the farmers are living wholly off their places. I should say that McBride will steadily forge ahead and in time become an important centre.

WHY KNOCK HOME TOWN?

There are in Prince Rupert plenty of well meaning people who are always ready to knock their home town. They see little good in it and almost invariably exaggerate anything that is not favorable. For instance, if the price of fish should be found to be half a cent less than last year they talk about the bottom having dropped out of the fish market. The moment business is a little quiet it is immediately "the quietest we have ever known." When it rained recently they grumbled about it and told of the hardship of living in a place where it rains all the time when at the same time the interior was so hot that they would give almost anything for one of Princes Rupert's showers.

What is true of Prince Rupert is true of every other place. During a recent trip the publisher of this paper found that every place had its detractors. They did not mean to injure their home town but they did so continuously. They seemed to be always looking for the bad points. They would expand on the terrors of summer frost, the horrors of drought, the terrible condition to contemplate when the Terrace mill had only two months orders ahead, the perfectly awful condition which existed by reason of the fact that there was a slow market for poles.

May we suggest to all including ourselves that, if there is nothing good to say about the home town, then it is better to be silent. It is usually the person who is not succeeding well in his business who knocks the town. It is bad for the town and bad for the knocker's own business to be always looking for the weak spots.

GET TOGETHER MORE OFTEN

In order that there may be closer friendship and improved business relationship between people of Central British Columbia and Prince Rupert, it is very desirable that they meet often and learn to know each other. There is to be a big day at Terrace on July 1 and a still bigger event at Smithers on or about August 5. Those will be very suitable occasions for meeting interior people. Very soon we may expect an excursion to Prince Rupert from interior points and, doubtless, there will be many visitors come to the city.

SCHOOL CHANGES

Owing to the proposed reorganization of the city schools, made necessary in connection with the establishment of the Junior High School at the Booth Memorial building, the staff at Booth School will be changed this year, the teachers taking positions in the other schools. Doubtless, these teachers will view with regret their departure from the institution where they must feel that they have done excellent work for the city and where their influence has been so excellent. Happily, the opportunities for continuing the work in the other schools will be just as great and the city will not be the loser. Changes are bound to come from time to time and sometimes readjustments make for improvement. Prince Rupert must keep in line with other cities in such matters as junior high schools and curriculum adjustments. The new system is the one recommended by experienced teachers and Inspector Morrison will, doubtless, see that the accommodation for junior pupils is adequate and proper and the rearrangement plan carried out in the interests of all the pupils.

A SCOT FROM DUNDEE

The C.I.O. organizer, who evidently does not like Premier Pattullo, claims that his name comes from the Spanish "I trample," the intimation being that he is of southern European origin. William Millar of this city says that the Pattullo came from the county of Angus, Scotland, near Dundee, not far from where he lived. The original name was Pattulloch and some of the members of the family still live at and near the old home.

PICKETS AT PEG'S HOUSE

Odd Situation at United States Army Post in Hawaii

HONOLULU, June 27.—Two young women picketed the Honolulu police station and City Hall bearing placards saying their activity was retaliation against "unfair police picketing of Peggy's House" in Washaw, adjacent to Schofield Barracks, largest army post in the world.

"There are fifteen houses now, Why not more? How about it, Mister Mayor?" one of the placards said. The pickets disappeared while Chief of Police William Gabrielson and other officials hunted the statute books for a possible law to stop the demonstrations.

The marble tournament was in full fury. One little boy had missed an easy shot, and let slip a real cuss word.

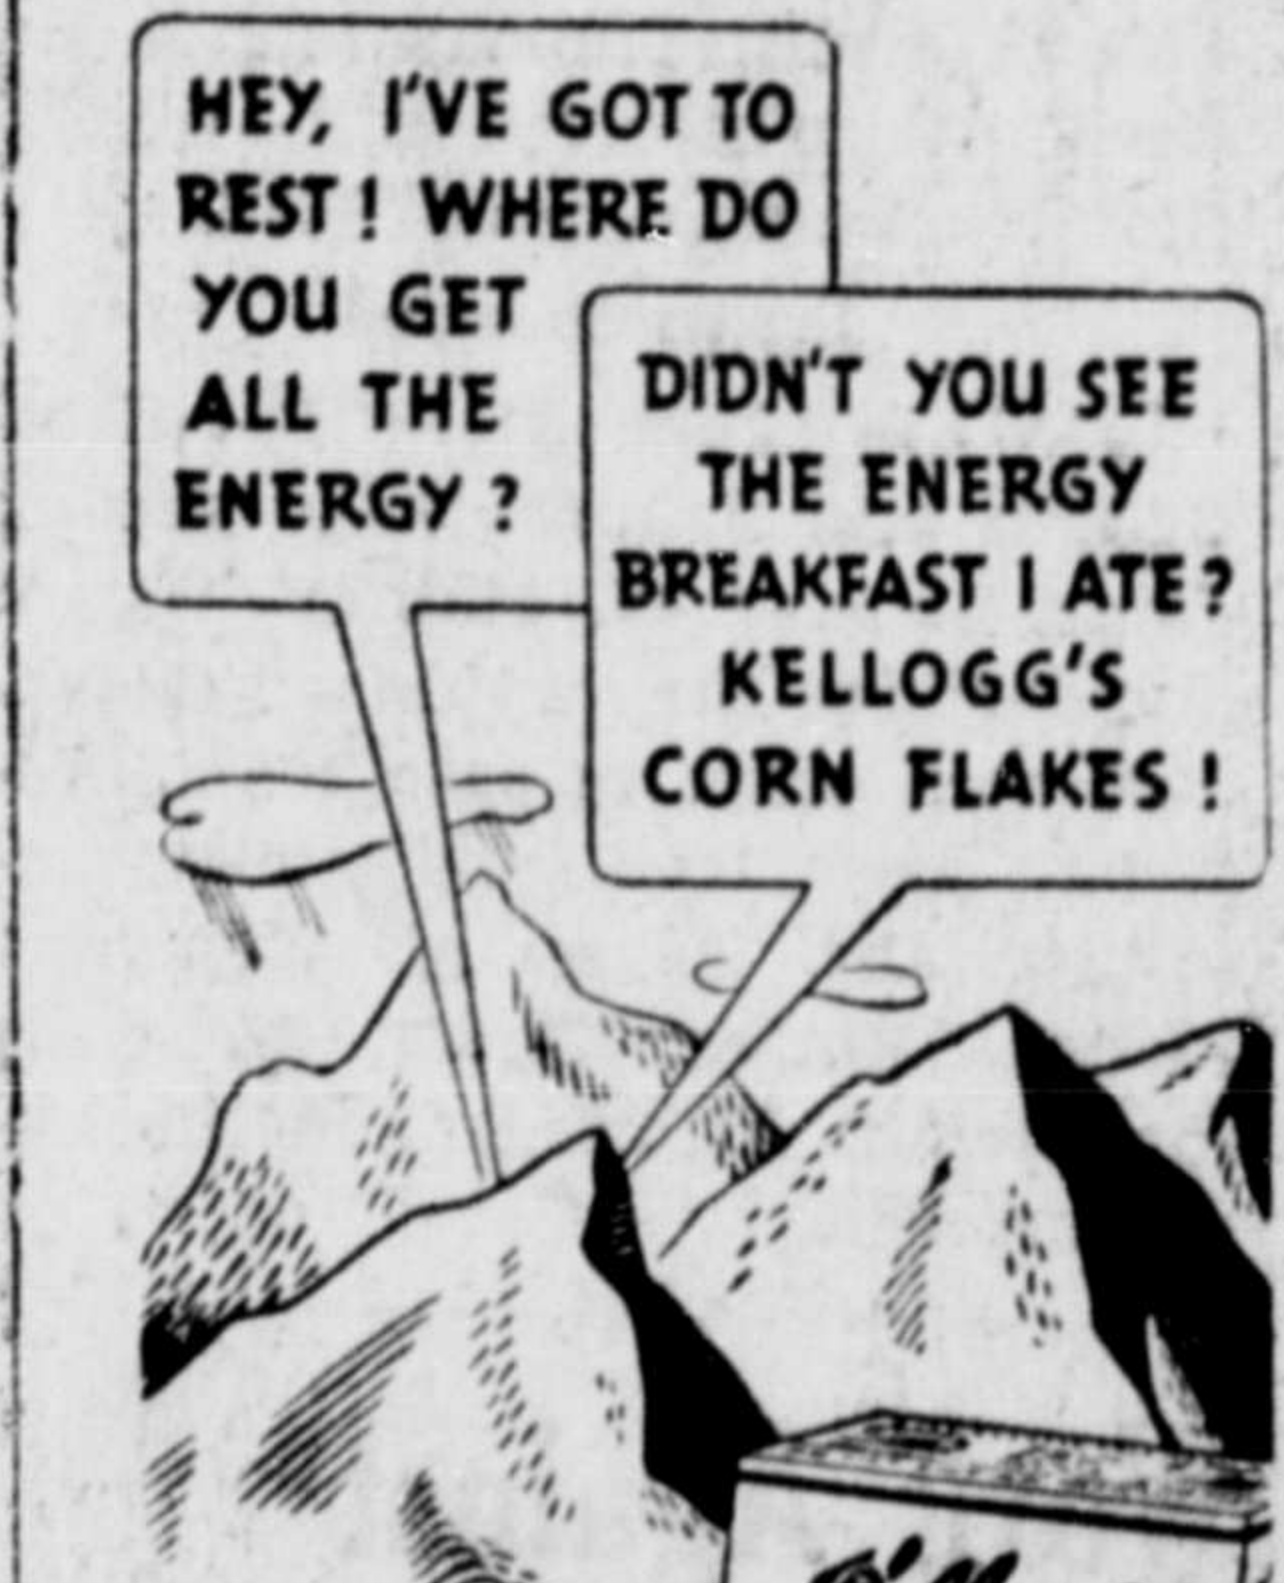

"Edward!" called a man from the spectator's bench. "What do little boys who swear when they are playing marbles turn into?"

"Golfers," was the reply.

"I have been twitted with being a turncoat," exclaimed the street-corner orator. "Years ago, I admit, I supported the Liberal party. Then I had a reason. But now, gentlemen, there came a triumphant gesture, now I have lost my reason."

A lady was entertaining the small son of a friend. "Are you sure you can cut your own meat, Willy?" she inquired.

"Oh, yes, thanks," answered the boy politely. "I've often had it as tough as this at home!"

WHO OWNS CANADA'S BANKS?

Who are the owners and what do they do?

JIM BROWN, carpenter—your next-door neighbor—may be one of the supposed "Big Shots" who own the banks in Canada. He may own a couple of shares, or maybe only one.

Women, executors or trustees of estates, and retired people, comprise about 63 per cent. of the shareholders in one of Canada's banks, taken as an example.

Analysis of this particular bank, which may be regarded as typical, shows that women own nearly half of its shares. Farmers, merchants and professional men are the most numerous of the classes listed.

There are 260 occupations represented among the shareholders. They include:

Accountants, actors, barbers, bankers, bee-keepers, boat-builders, bricklayers, carpenters, cheesemakers, clergymen, dairymen, dentists, doctors, drovers, druggists, farmers, fishermen, forest rangers, funeral directors, grocers, insurance agents, jailers, journalists, linotypists, lobster buyers, miners, oil operators, plumbers, policemen, railway employees, ranchers, sailors, scalars, sheriffs, stenographers, stevedores, timber cruisers, tobacco farmers, trappers, and others.

These are among the folks who own the banks and so must be a part of that bogey with which some people seek to scare you—that fabled "international bankers' ring". They are mostly Canadians—your fellow-citizens—decent people like yourselves.

50,185 people hold the 1,445,000 chartered bank shares issued. Seventy out of every hundred shares are owned in Canada.

The average share-holding is 28.8 shares—but all through the use of bank share certificates you will find hundreds who own from one to five shares.

There is no concentration of ownership and power in the hands of any small group. These shareholders annually elect directors. There are 172 directors of Canada's chartered banks. Their addresses dot the map of Canada from coast to coast. They are men of proven business ability; their own success has proved their judgment good; that judgment is always alert in safeguarding your money.

Their business experience reinforces the skill and training of the salaried bank executives in conserving the interests of the depositors, note-holders and shareholders.

Loans to bank directors, firms in which they are partners and loans for which they are guarantors, as of February 28th, 1938, did not exceed 1/100th part of the total loans made by the chartered banks. That is about the usual proportion. Monthly returns have to be made to the Government showing these borrowings.

No director may vote, or even be present at a meeting of the board when loans in which he has any interest are under discussion.

The law prevents a bank from doing certain things. A bank is prohibited from lending on mortgages, for loans must be of short term and quickly realizable.

A bank is forbidden to engage in trade. It must not buy, or lend against its own shares or the shares of any other chartered bank. No bank, bank director, or bank employee is allowed to hold shares in the Bank of Canada.

A bank must not let its name appear on certain prospectuses, nor may any of its staff represent insurance companies.

There are heavy penalties laid down for violation of any of these and other provisions of The Bank Act.

Your bank provides machinery for carrying out adequately the most widely varying, day-to-day transactions—financing farmer or factory, merchant or miner; simplifying business, facilitating the exchange of goods and services.

Canada's chartered banks are owned by your fellow-citizens, directed by men known as competent leaders of business and managed by able men risen from the ranks whose whole business life and experience has been in the bank.

They are at your service.

Timely Recipes

STRAWBERRY AND PINEAPPLE JELLY

Four cups (2 lbs.) juice.
7½ cups (3¼ lbs.) sugar.
1 bottle (1 cup) fruit pectin.
Crush or grind 1 medium fully ripe pineapple and 1½ quarts fully ripe strawberries. Add one-third cup water. Stir until mixture boils, simmer, covered, 5 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.
Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add bottled pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard one-half minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 11 eight-ounce glasses.

LUCKY ESCAPE

CARBON, Alta., June 27: (CP)—Samuel Poxon considers he was very lucky when his gas-laden truck crashed into a telephone pole. The steering gear broke and the truck headed straight down a 200-foot bank leading to a creek. It struck the pole at the brink and was brought to a halt. The pole moved eight inches in the ground but held.

DOMINION DAY HERE

Further Arrangements Made For Celebrating Canada's Birthday

Further arrangements for the Dominion Day celebration at Prince Rupert were completed Friday evening at a meeting of the executive.

Chief matters under discussion were those in connection with the fact that it is the Dominion of Canada's birthday. The parade which will be headed by a fire truck and the Boys Band will leave the corner of Second Avenue and Sixth Street at noon. Then will follow the two Junior Football teams which will be transported in trucks supplied by the Dominion Dairy. Then will follow the children and grown-ups.

At the Acropolis Hill after the Junior football game there will be the ceremony of the flag raising. It is hoped to have detachments of 2 men from the local Naval Volunteer Reserve and the battery. Brief talks will be given by City Commissioner W. J. Alder and an invitation has also been sent to Premier Pattullo to take part in the celebration.

Then will follow the junior sports and the senior sports. The relay race for the Spartan Cup promises to be an outstanding event. There will also be the Dominion Day Football Cup final. In the evening there will be a grand dance at the Moose Hall.

Former Big League Baseball Catcher Visitor To City

A visitor of interest particularly to the sporting fraternity was in Prince Rupert yesterday in the person of Johnny Kling, a former catcher of the Chicago White Sox in the American League and now part owner of the Kansas City Club in the American Association League. Mr. Kling was an interested spectator at the game yesterday afternoon between Ketchikan and Prince Rupert, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell. The Big League backstop between the years 1903 and 1912 was introduced to the crowd.

Mr. Kling, who is engaged in the hotel business in Kansas City, was returning south after making the round trip to Alaska aboard the Prince Rupert, accompanied by his wife and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stein.

SPORT CHAT

Tex Rickard, ace promoter and master of ballyhoo, arranged the first great international heavyweight championship of modern times in 1921 when France's gallant soldier-fighter, Georges Carpentier, unsuccessfully challenged Jack Dempsey in Boyle's Thirty Acres, New Jersey. Back in 1896 James J. Corbett had knocked out Charley Mitchell of England and the Canadian Tommy Burns had beaten Marvin Hart in 1906 but neither of these gripped the interest of boxing fans as this post-war attraction Rickard billed as the "Battle of the Century." So fancily did Rickard build up the bravery of the French soldier and his ferocity that 100,000 fight followers, anxious to see the Frenchman wallop Dempsey, whose lack of a war record turned many against him, formed a perspiring mob in the pine-banked bowl near Jersey City on July 2.

The fight itself didn't measure up to its billing. Only in the second round did Carpentier threaten the Manassa Mauler. And the challenger was knocked out in the fourth. Georger shot over his famous overhand right to Dempsey's jaw midway in the second round. He followed this with a left and right, his renowned "one-two," and then tossed a wicked inside right-hand uppercut. The blows staggered Dempsey. Jack rocked back on his heels, groggy. But they didn't drop him. The champion retreated, gathered his scattering wits and returned to the onslaught, punishing the frail torso of the blond warrior with nasty, damaging blows.

The crowd had cheered Carpentier's momentary attack but it seemed to sense, as the Frenchman apparently did, that Jack had weathered the storm, could take Carpentier's strongest punches without falling and would wear down the invader. Carpentier changed his style of attack in the third round and tried to turn it into a boxing match but Dempsey wouldn't be denied. He loosed a devastating offensive. In the fourth

Dempsey sneaked through a left hook to the jaw and, as Carpentier's knees sagged, planted a hard right on his chin. Carpentier went down for a nine count. When he arose Dempsey shot a left to the solar plexus and then a right to the chin and flattened the Frenchman for the full count.

PR. RUPERT IS WINNER

Outhit Ketchikan In All Games Of Baseball Series and Won Two Out of Three

Outhitting the visitors in every game, Prince Rupert won two out of the three baseball games played over the week-end with Ketchikan. The much-touted Alaska visitors did not make the showing that was expected of them and Prince Rupert is confident that it will give a good account of itself when it goes to Ketchikan for the return series at the first of next week.

In Saturday night's game Prince Rupert won 6 to 4. Yesterday afternoon Prince Rupert won 17 to 7 while the visitors nosed out on the long end of a 10 to 9 count in the final game.

Bill Lambly hurled a splendid game for Prince Rupert and for seven innings pitched no hit ball. In the eighth inning V. Jones, Ketchikan right fielder, connected for a one base hit between first and second. Rupert started the scoring in the third with two runs and in the fourth added four more rallies. Ketchikan chalked up three runs in the eighth and in the ninth added another on an over-throw at third.

Batteries — Ketchikan, Enoch Bauer and Helland, Rupert, Gurvich and Lambly.

Sunday Afternoon

Sunday afternoon's game was featured by some snappy fielding on the part of the locals who pulled off several double plays and by the heavy hitting of McIsaacs, Ketchikan third baseman, who poled out a homer. Sonny Stiles pitched the whole nine innings for Prince Rupert.

Sunday Evening

Johnny Comadina started on the mound for the local team in the evening and was replaced by Stiles in the fourth. Lambly took up the burden in the seventh and finished the game. McIsaacs made another home run with one on.

All the games were featured by good crowds, indicating that there is still a good interest in baseball in Prince Rupert.

The Ketchikan team left this morning at 2:30 on its return home. The series resumes on July 3 and 4 at Ketchikan.

Miss Nellie Gurvich and Miss Marian Miller returned to the city on Saturday from a ten-day visit to Frizzell's Hot Springs on the Skeena River.

Mrs. Howard Steen will sail on the Prince George tomorrow morning for Vancouver in company with her son, Tom, who is returning to Oshawa, Ontario, after paying a visit to his home here.

GOOD RAINS HAVE COME

Crop Benefit and Forest Fires Smothered in Peace River—Parts of Saskatchewan Still Dry

EDMONTON, June 27: (CP) — Soaking rains on Sunday brought much needed moisture to both the British Columbia and Alberta Peace River sections and smothered serious forest fires which have been raging for the past couple of weeks. In some sections there was as much as two inches of rain. Most of the fires were put out and those which were not are now under control. In the vicinity of Grande Prairie, where there were scattered showers at the week-end, developing into rainfall of substantial proportions yesterday, fires for a time covered an area of 1800 square miles, doing damage roughly estimated at $23,000.

Heavy rains continued in southern Alberta at the week-end with the Milk and other rivers becoming more swollen and flooding more land on both sides of the international boundary line. At Warner in Southern Alberta a two-and-a-half inch rainfall in an hour and a half was reported. The rainfall has extended eastward from Lethbridge into Southwestern Saskatchewan. Some sections of eastern Saskatchewan are still failing to receive moisture and, unless there is immediate rain, they are again faced with complete crop failure.

Corp. Harold Raybone, provincial police, returned to the city on the Catala last night from a trip to Vancouver on escort duty.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calmed but have no calmed mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

Suffers Drought

Interesting Experiment With Crested
Wheat Grass—Lack of Home
Town Newspaper Felt

By H. F. PULLEN

Burns Lake is one of the prettiest little towns along the line of the Canadian National Railway east of Prince Rupert. With a lake on one side and a wooded hill on the other, it gets away from that feeling of flatness which characterizes some places. While it misses the serene majesty of mountains like Rocher de Boule or Hudson Bay which make Hazelton and Smithers so attractive, it has a picturesque layout and those who live on the hillside have a view that is almost unsurpassed.

But there is more to Burns Lake than scenery. As is boldly announced in an arch of welcome, it is the entrance to Tweedsmuir Park and is the shipping point for the whole of the Francois Lake and Ootsa Lake farming country.

This year, unfortunately, Burns Lake has suffered from drought. While other places east and west have had a few helpful showers there has been no rain at Burns Lake since the snow went away. The whole interior has been too dry for good hay crops and of these dry places the driest has been Burns Lake.

Interesting Experiment

It is possibly this tendency to dryness, which has often been a great advantage, that has made the farmers of the district turn to something which may tend to overcome drought. They are experimenting with crested wheat grass in place of timothy hay. It is said to give a good crop in the driest season because its root system extends for seven to ten feet into the ground. It is a perennial that improves each year. If the seed is threshed, the straw is almost as good as first class hay for feed. It will grow a crop where nothing else will. In fact this grass is looked to as the farmer's salvation both on the prairies and in any district that is likely to suffer from insufficient moisture.

One of the farmers who is giving crested wheat grass a trial is Fred Madsen of Danskin. He had a small acreage last year and sold his seed for 22 cents a pound. Others are trying it or planning to do so.

Ray Commons, manager of the bank at Burns Lake, is keenly interested in the experiment and is urging his customers to try it. The chief objection to it is that the seed is rather expensive just now and money is not plentiful.

Unfortunately, Rev. Frank Bushfield has found it necessary to stop publication of his little newspaper "The Advance" owing to lack of sufficient support. This is a loss to the community. A home town newspaper seems very desirable and Burns Lake will soon be a good centre for a man who can run his own printing plant to operate.

MADE PULP
AND PAPERLate Senator E. W. Tobin Was Prominent Quebec Industrialist

OTTAWA, June 27: (CP)—Summoned to the Senate in 1930, Edmund William Tobin, whose death occurred last week, was a pioneer in the pulp and paper and newsprint industry in the province of Quebec. Through the Brompton Pulp and Paper Company, with which he was connected and of which he was afterwards president, he played a prominent part in building up the newsprint exports of Canada until they reached the strong position occupied today.

While he will be remembered principally for his connection with pulp and paper, Mr. Tobin met with success in other spheres of business activity and also in politics. He achieved a commanding position in Quebec as a lumber merchant. It was his association with lumber ventures which first brought him into touch with pulp and paper.

He sat as a Liberal in the House of Commons for the Quebec seat of Richmond and Wolfe from 1900 to 1930, being re-elected in the elections of 1904, 1908, 1911, 1917, 1921 and 1926. He was at one time Mayor of Bromptonville and Brompton Falls and warden of the County of Richmond.

His business interests included connection with the Lotbiniere Lumber Company, Trois Pistoles, Quebec of which he was president, Federal Asbestos Company and Capital Trust Corporation.

Mr. Tobin was born at Brompton Falls, Quebec, on September 14, 1865. His parents were both of Irish descent. He began his business life as a general merchant and lumber dealer. In 1893 he married Elizabeth Jean Nott of Devonshire, England, and to them were born four children, Pearl (Mrs. Dr. Beaudry, Bromptonville), Kathleen (Mrs. J. H. Blue, Sherbrooke), Beatrice (Mrs. J. O. Asselin, Bromptonville) and Ashton. Deceased was a Roman Catholic.
