Aklavik Bride Finds Thrills In Northland

WINNIPEG, Feb. 9: (CP)-Pioneering women of other days may have found life in the northland dull and dreary, but the bride of today living in the north finds airplanes and radio bring civilization to her doorstep.

Mrs. Frank Riddell, who was Miss Norah Prince of Winnipeg has written to Winnipeg friends telling how a pioneer bride finds the north country at Aklavik, near the mouth of the Mackenzie River, in Canada's sub-Arctic.

She can tell, via the radio, when, there is fog in London or when a French government falls. Her house is cozy, warm and threeroomed. She even has an electric washer.

Principal drawback, she writes, is the difficulty in getting household help. The natives are almost. useless and very expensive.

This quotation is from the book "Fascism," published in Rome and written or prepared by Premier Mussolini. Parts of the book. at least, are very interesting and for that reason a number of brief extracts from it are given here.

"Fascism is not only a law-giver and a founder of institutions, but an education and a promoter of spiritual life. It aims at refashioning not only the forms of life but their content—man, his character; and his faith. To achieve this purpose it enforces discipline and uses authority, entering into the soul and ruling with undisputed sway. Therefore it has chosen as its emblem the lictor's rod, the symbol of unity, strength and justice."

Double Bill Offered at Capitol Theatre For Middle of This Week

"San Quentin," a fast-moving melodrama of prison life relieved of some of the drabness of previous pictures of this kind, and "Mr. Dodd Takes the Air," a story dealing with the experience of a radio singer, comprise a double bill picture program being shown this mid-week at i the Capitol Theatre.

Pat O'Brien heads the cast of "San Quentin" which also includes such popular players as Humphrey Bogart, Barton MacLane, Joseph Sawyer and Ann Sheridan. While the story is laid in and about the famous California penitentiary, it is enlivened by many scenes outside. The lives the prisoners lead-some good and some evil - form the theme of the story.

Kenny Baker, well-known radio sqinger, has the leading role in 'Mr. Dodd Takes the Air." playing the part of a young electrician in a small town who suddenly finds; himself to be a famous radio star. Frank McHugh, Alice Brady and Gertrude Michael are also prominent members of the cast.
