Pattullo Administration Endorsed Against Combined Opposition In Legislature Division Yesterday

VICTORIA, Oct. 28: (CP)-Pattullo government strength last night defeated by a vote of 29 to 16 a want of confidence motion introduced by the Conservative Opposition leader, R. L. Maitland K. C. The want of confidence motion, in the form of an amendment to the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, regretted that "administrative policy action of this government had failed to adequately deal with the problems of farming, roads, unemployment and municipal aid having regard to the great increase in the amount of taxes and revenue being collected by the government from the people of Attorney General Gordon Wismer said that the provincial government had no intention to defy a court injunction but had merely warned the people that, if the legislation was ultimately declared valid, it would be effective from the date the price cut order was supposed to become operative namely October 26.

make cash sales, selling only on charge accounts. Some other stations got customers to sign receipts for gas instead of paying while still others continued to sell at the old price of 27c for ordinary grades. A few stations sold at the reduced price of 24c.

A point of uncertainty seen by some in view of the government's statements was the possibility that, fixing order between now and then might be liable to prosecution.

WHY WEALTH?

Yesterday we mentioned that people who bought Irish sweepstake tickets were foolish because the chance of winning was too great. In thinking about the reason why people want to win a little fortune all at once we ran across the opinion of a biologist who says that the three great impulses in human life are to love, to be im- R. They want to be! important or they want to be able to play instead of work. to date:

If importance is the aim, it is an attainment that has little value, especially in these days when people are taught to sneer at prominent people. If the opportunity to play is sought, one must be sure that he knows how to play. Many people come to the end of their business or professional careers and find themselves out of a job with nothing to do that interests them. They are, indeed, in a sad way. They usually die. What is there to live for?

Many people who win sweepstakes find themselves with more money than they can use.
