Injunction Continued And Constitutionality Trial Manson's Order

Premier Pattullo Questions "Propriety" of Judge's Action in Case—Government Taking Issue to Court of Appeal

VANCOUVER, November 1: (CP)—Early trial to determine the constitutionality of the British Columbia Coal and Petroleum Products Control Board Act was ordered today in Supreme Court by Mr. Justice A. M. Manson who also ordered continuation of the injunction against the government-approved reduction in the price of gas.

The judgment was based on Supreme Court hearing of last Thursday at which seven oil companies and two retailers asked the judge to continue the injunction.

"The plaintiff's contention is that the true purpose of the Act was to interfere with the importation of petroleum products by the plaintiffs from another country, in other words to interfere with trade and commerce. In my view, the plaintiff has set up a case that merits consideration of our courts through trial in any ordinary way.

The injunction restrains enforcement of the Coal and Petroleum Products Board order, approved by the government, reducing gas prices three to six cents.

"Impropriety" Alleged

VICTORIA, Nov. 1: (CP)—Premier T. D. Pattullo, in a statement today, referred to what he termed "impropriety of a judge of one of our higher courts in granting an injunction" restraining the carrying into effect of an important act of the Legislature without first notifying the government of application for an injunction.

The Premier made his statement after receiving advice of Mr. Justice A. Manson's decision continuing the injunction.

The statement, apparently, referred to the granting of the original application for an injunction on October 24. It said that any continuance of granting injunctions without notification may compel the Legislature to take action to preclude anything further of the kind.

Appealing Injunction

Later H. Alan MacLean, solicitor from the Attorney General's department, announced that he was preparing an appeal against continuation of the injunction which he hoped to file this afternoon. He termed in an interlocutory appeal which would get hearing within six days. He said he would try to bring it before a court of appeal sitting which opened today.

VOTING NEXT WEEK

The election next week in the United States when many governors, senators, congressmen and others are chosen in various parts of the country will be a pretty fair guide as to what is likely to happen two years hence at the presidential election. If there is a strong swing toward Republicanism, it seems likely there will be a reversion against Roosevelt policies when Roosevelt or his Democratic successor comes up for endorsement.

We are inclined to think the change of sentiment may not be as great as many people imagine. It is difficult to oppose a spending program. The average person is not concerned particularly with sound policies as long as the dinner pail is kept full. "Let the future take care of itself," seems to be the policy of the average workingman.

And yet it seems plain to the most obtuse mind that the spending program of the United States cannot continue indefinitely. Even four years beyond the present term, which would mean six years in all from now, would be extremely dangerous to say the least.

GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

The way to keep politics out of city government is to have either government by commission or government by a city manager according to many who have studied the question. In one case the commissioner is appointed by the provincial government and in the other the manager is appointed by the city council. The Tolmie government appointed City Commissioner Alder and no one can say that the commissioner has been influenced by that fact or by any other ulterior influence.

Where every alderman has some say in regard to the details of city government these aldermen are bound to have an eye to the next election and that makes their actions political, not necessarily Liberal or Conservative, but political in the sense that their movements are actuated by the wishes of small groups of electors rather than for the good of the whole city. Men are given jobs by aldermen in order that they may support the alderman at the next election. That is politics in its lowest form. When people talk about too much politics in government it means that certain sections of the country or groups of people or possibly individuals are favored in legislation or administration. Any system which will keep us free from this kind of thing is to be preferred. Those who have had experience with city managers say that it is effective.

In the last minute of the game, George Mutch, Preston North End forward, was checked illegally by Young of Huddersfield and a penalty kick awarded. The picture shows the ball hitting the twine, with Mutch in the foreground and Hesford, Huddersfield goalkeeper, falling to the ground after a futile attempt to save. Inset is the hero, Mutch.

Tracing Ancient Mu Civilization

Kootenay Indians May Have Come From Lost Continent

VANCOUVER, Nov. 1: (CP)—Kootenay Indians of interior British Columbia may be the children of the lost continent of Mu, which sank in the Pacific Ocean 12,000 years ago, in the belief of some archaeologists, Charles T. Hamilton said in an address here.

Mr. Hamilton, who has taken an interest in archaeology for many years, said connection was traced through the sign of the swastika, symbol of the priesthood of Mu and one common to the Kootenay tribe.

The lost continent, which some archaeologists claim was a series of large islands, is credited generally with having had a population of 60,000,000.

"As gigantic cataclysms slowly destroyed the continent, its people migrated to the continents bordering on the Pacific," he said of the inhabitants of Mu. "One migration moved westward across Asia, the other across South America and Atlantis, both meeting in Egypt."

"With them they took teachings which parallel and, according to some historians, were the origin of the Christian religion. Temples in Yucatan, Peru and the Amazon valley point to the west as the region whence came the early inhabitants. In India, China and India, they point to the East.

Evidence of a lost civilization today puzzles archaeologists. Mr. Hamilton said. Chief examples were discoveries on Easter Island in the South Pacific of huge stones, thousands of tons in weight, hewn to form Temple pillars. These were taken as indications of existence of a high standard of civilization at one time in the mid-Pacific.

TOY SHOP FOR 'XMAS

Boy Scouts To Carry Out Work Again This Year

With the approach of the Christmas season Prince Rupert Boy Scouts are making elaborate preparations for their tenth annual toy shop. This activity is being conducted by Scout troops across Canada from Victoria to Halifax. True to the fourth Scout Law to be a "friend to all" the Scouts make it their aim that no child, however destitute, will be deprived of toys this Christmas.

A very enthusiastic meeting was held last week when details of organization were completed. The following committee has been appointed to supervise the work: F. A. MacCallum, chairman; P. C. Miller, shop manager; E. R. M. Yerburch, publicity, and E. W. Meadows, distribution.

The Toy Shop headquarters will be situated in the old Dollar Store on Third Avenue and will be open from Monday to Friday afternoons and evenings each week.

The citizens of Prince Rupert are being asked to turn out their cupboards and storerooms and donate any discarded games, books, dolls, etc to the Toy Shop. Such gifts may be left at the Toy Shop itself at the Q & S, at Linzey and Davies or at the Fire Hall. If any persons is unable to leave such articles they will be called for by phoning any members of the committee.

These toys will be repaired and made as good as new by the Scouts under capable direction and will finally make their way into the homes of children for whom Christmas would otherwise mean one more day of cheerlessness.

The co-operation of the community is being asked to make the Scout's tenth annual Toy Shop the most successful in the history of the movement in this city.

Only minor pranks were indulged in on Hallowe'en last night although rickety fences and shaky sidewalks were knocked down or lifted in a few cases. Taken on the whole, fun was of a reasonable and innocent character. Children were out, as usual, setting off fire-crackers and soliciting apples. A damp, cool evening undoubtedly kept quite a few indoors.

VETERANS PROBLEM

Labor Organizations Trying To Care For Men Returning From Spain

VANCOUVER, Nov. 1: (CP) — The problem of readjustment to Canadian life is facing veterans of the Spanish Civil War filtering back to Vancouver in ever-increasing numbers a year or more of service with the international brigades of the government army.

A dozen are here already and 50 more are expected within the next few months. Many are maimed and all are jobless.

There are no pensions for the young men who went to fight for another country on the other side of the world. At present a rehabilitation fund established by the Friends of the Mackenzie-Papineau Battalion provides wounded veterans with medical aid and an allowance of $6 a week.

Contributions to the fund come chiefly from labor organizations. Recently the village of Sointula, Finnish fishing settlement on Malcolim Island, 200 miles north of here, gave more than $200. The financial strain, however, becomes more severe with the return of each veteran.

Of the dozen men here, five suffer from war disabilities. Marcus Haldane lost a leg; Charlie Beaser has an unhealed shrapnel wound in his leg; Jim Bell's right arm is crippled; Kris Kristianson has an injured shoulder and Arthur Tazzaman still has a piece of shrapnel in his right side.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, returned to port at 9:50 this morning from Stewart, Anyox and other northern points and sailed at 1:30 this afternoon for Vancouver and waypoints.

Salmon pieces dropped in Ketchikan at the week-end with large reds selling at as low as 20c with small reds at 9c and whites at 7c. Some small catches brought as high as 24c, 10c and 8c.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local Fish Exchange this morning. The American boat Onah arrived with black cod.

Clever Costumes At Terrace Dance

Colorful Affair in Interior Town On Friday Night

TERRACE, Nov. 1:—On Friday there was a masquerade dance in the Orange Hall at Terrace when many original and clever disguises were presented. The crowd taxed the capacity of the hall to its limit and in all respects the affair turned out to be a huge success.

Cave man danced with fairy. The devil himself cavorted with the queen of hearts. A pickanniny sat on Mammy's knee. Altogether the throng appeared to be a merry mixup.

Several prizes were distributed. Mrs. Ivan Frank and Mrs. Floyd Frank, dressed up as two potatoes, won one of these as did also Mickey and Minnie Mouse in the persons of Mrs. North and Mrs. Dubeau. Peter Van Stolk, as the caveman and Mrs. T. E. Brooks with R. Atkinson, as Maggie and Jiggs, took prizes. Perhaps the funniest of all the funny costumes was that worn by three girls, Ida Schultzik, Eileen Taft and Maxine Llewellyn. These three came in rigged up as a mule skinner with his team of mules, they also got a prize.

Don't Keep on Having Constipation!

If constipation's got you down—so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All- Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All- Bran is not only rich in "bulk"—it also contains the natural intestinal tonic, vitamin B.

Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario. Sold by every grocer.
