OFFICIAL LONDON STATES IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO STOP "GREAT TRAGEDY"—URGES PEOPLE OF ALL NATIONS TO INSIST ON FREE NEGOTIATION—DOMINIONS CALLED

Hitler Stands Firm For Sudetenland Annexation

IT IS HIS LAST PLAN FOR EXPANSION IN EUR-OPE BUT HE INSISTS THAT HE WILL SEE IT THROUGH NO MATTER WHAT COMES

LONDON, September 26: (CP)—An official statement issued here today made it clear that, if in spite of all efforts made by Prime Minister Chamberlain, Germany were to attack Czechoslovakia, France would go to the aid of the republic and Great Britain would stand behind France. Russia would also join France and Great Britain in a triple fight to aid Czechoslovakia in the event of German invasion.

The Foreign Office statement added: "It is still not too late to stop this great tragedy and for the people of all nations to insist on settlement by free negotiation."

Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner, and representatives of other Dominions were requested today to call at Premier Chamberlain's residence tonight and consult regarding the crisis.

HITLER NOT TURNING BACK

Chancellor Adolf Hitler declared at Berlin tonight:
 "I have decided that we shall place Czechoslovakia's Sudeten area under German sovereignty" and added that, if President Benes "does not want peace we will have to take matters into our own hands."

Addressing a huge throng in the Sportpalast, Hitler said that Germany and Italy will stand together and "will be able to defend themselves as a solid block if the worst comes to the worst" in settling the Sudeten problem which he said was Germany's last and final problem.

This declaration followed a review by Hitler of his relations with the principal European powers in which he voiced dissatisfaction with the 1936 naval treaty with Great Britain, limiting Germany's naval power.

Hitler spoke of German unity and declared he was speaking for the whole nation.
 "Germany is not interested in oppressing other people," Hitler declared. "Its foreign policy is directed solely at being of service to German peoples."
 Hitler declared that Czechoslovakia's Sudeten territories are the last in Europe which Germany will seek to annex. Already he had renounced Alsace-Lorraine, he declared.

Europe Vies With Despair As Fateful Week In Europe's Affairs Commences

International Crisis Over Czechoslovakia Is Unbroken

British Parliament to Assemble—London Papers Blame
 Hitler—Berlin Press Says Issue is Simple

LONDON, September 26.—The British Parliament has been summoned for Wednesday to consider the European crisis in the light of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's latest demands on Czechoslovakia. The cabinet was in session today, Sunday and again today and last night it was reported in authoritative quarters that Great Britain had decided to co-operate in preventing German aggression in Czechoslovakia. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain had luncheon with King George yesterday. Over the week-end there were conferences between the diplomatic representatives of various nations. With tension terrific, the crisis continues much the same with hope in some quarters and despair in others. There is still the possibility that there may be yielding somewhere in the situation between Germany and Czechoslovakia which threatens to embroil Europe and the world in what might be the most terrible conflict in history. Chancellor Adolf Hitler, on the one hand, continues, apparently, adamant in the demand that Sudeten areas of Czechoslovakia shall be delivered over to the Reich by October 1. The Czechs, on the other hand, continue mobilized at full strength in readiness to resist the first move at invasion to enforce Der Fuehrer's demands.

 The attitude of Great Britain and France is one of increasing stiffen-ing against Hitler.

 London newspapers place the responsibility for peace or war in Europe squarely on the shoulders of Hitler. The Times says: "If war comes, Hitler will be responsible not only to the world but particularly to his own people." It has been stated that the point on which Premier Chamberlain and Chancellor Hitler came to the parting of the ways last week was Hitler's refusal to demobilize German reserve forces.

German newspapers crystallize
 the issue by declaring that the "only question in dispute is the method of evacuation of Sudeten areas."
 As for claims of Poland and Hungary in respect to minorities in Czechoslovakia, the German papers contend that they should be entitled to self-determination.

 Czechoslovakian spokesmen reiterate that the Anglo-French proposals of a week ago were agreed to by Czechoslovakia only in the interests of peace. There could be no further surrender, however, by Czechoslovakia as a basis of agreement. This was why general mobilization of the country's fighting forces had been ordered.

Prague continues quiet as preparations for war continue. There were further clashes in Sudeten areas with more casualties at the week-end. Both Germans and Czechs claimed unjustified attacks.
 German armies are reported to be preparing to cross from Saxony
 into Czechoslovakia.
 Evacuation of Czechoslovakia by British, Americans and other nationals continues. Forty-five British subjects were reported to have crossed the border at one point, taking only hand luggage with them.

Mussolini Enigmatic
 The position of Italy in connection with the Czechoslovakian crisis is still enigmatic. Premier Mussolini, voluble as usual, is nevertheless indefinite. He still professes friendship for Germany but he has not said how far he is ready to go in demonstrating it, merely suggesting that Italy may be forced into war. The general opinion is that Il Duce is leaving the way open to keep out of any war which would appear to be suicidal to his nation. Speaking yesterday, he deplored the prospect of it being necessary to resort to arms to settle the Czechoslovakian crisis.

 Russia's attitude continues to be one of waiting to see what other nations will do.

Premier Edouard Daladier and Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet of France arrived yesterday by airplane to confer with the British government in regard to the situation. Last night the French Premier and his foreign minister conferred for more than two hours
 with Prime Minister Chamberlain and his colleagues and they remained over for further meetings today.
 Prior to leaving Paris yesterday,
 Foreign Minister Bonnet received the Japanese ambassador to France.

NOT NECESSARILY WAR

The international situation is so complicated that it is difficult to discuss it even a few hours before the time of publication. It is realized that the situation may change at any moment. Yet many very thoughtful people still do not think there will be war. Here is what Beverly Baxter, writing in MacLean's, said of the situation as he saw it several weeks ago:

"I realize that Germany intends to develop the Czechoslovakian crisis to its maximum intensity—even to the very brink of war. Nevertheless, I do not consider that policy a sign of strength on Germany's part rather a confession of weakness. Therefore, if we admit that weakness can be a menace as well as a domineering strength, I still claim that it is a menace that should not engulf Europe in war."

ESTEEM FOR BRITAIN

Many people have read Beverly Baxter but, in view of the present crisis, we cannot refrain from quoting another paragraph or two from Mr. Baxter's interesting article:

"You have heard that British prestige has been trampled in the mud and that the British flag is held in contempt by nations glorying in their own strength. Nor do I deny the many humiliations that have roused the deepest resentment in all who have British blood in their veins.

"Yet, when I travelled across Europe shortly after the events of that fateful week-end, I found the name of Britain held in such high esteem and in such honor in one country after another that I was moved to a pride of citizenship that I could not have expressed in words."

BRITISH UNITED

Evidently the British people are united in their stand in support of Czechoslovakia. The most outspoken group, probably because they speak without wearing the shackles of responsibility, are the more radical groups who have joined with the radicals of France in urging their governments to stand firm against aggression.

In Canada we also find a unity of mind which has not been apparent in the past. We find the imperialists of the country possibly the most moderate in their expressions. The Communists, socialists, peace advocates and similar groups are outspoken in their stand against Germany aggression and are ready to urge the use of armed force.

While we do not know how the Quebec people feel about this, we can hardly expect anything but unanimity among them considering they would be lining up with the French people and against a nation that has flouted their religion. As we see it Canada must be a unit on the general principle of standing firm before it is too late. If Hitler takes Czechoslovakia, Germany will be far stronger than she is today and the democracies will be in grave danger.

Weather Forecast

General Synopsis—The pressure is abnormally high over British Columbia and remains comparatively low over the Queen Charlotte Islands where rains have been general while in all other parts of this province the weather has been fair. Prince Rupert and Queen Charlotte Islands—Fresh to strong south east winds. Mostly cloudy and cool with showers. West Coast of Vancouver Island—Moderate east to southeast winds, fair and much the same temperature with fog patches at night.

BOTH SIDES

British Statement

The official British statement on Czechoslovakia today said: "It is stated in official quarters that during the last week Prime Minister Chamberlain has tried with the German Chancellor to find a way of settling peacefully the Czechoslovak question. It is still possible to do so by negotiation."

"Germany's claim to the transfer of Sudeten areas has already been conceded by the French, British and Czechoslovak governments."

"It, in spite of all the efforts made by the British Prime Minister, a German attack is made upon Czechoslovakia, the immediate result will be that France is bound to come to her assistance and Great Britain and Russia will stand by France."

"It is still not too late to stop this great tragedy and for the people of all nations to insist on settlement by free negotiation." The statement came from a highly authoritative source.

Adolf Hitler

Chancellor Hitler said in his memorandum: "This is the last and final one. It is nothing but a realization of what President Benes has promised. All parts that want to join the Reich must do so now."

Three million Germans were being oppressed in Czechoslovakia. Czechoslovakia had begun after the war with a lie and the father of this lie was President Benes who had declared that such a state as Czechoslovakia existed. There was only one solution and he had decided not to stand aside without action, Hitler asserted.

He had demanded, continued Hitler, that Sudeten territory be ceded to Germany and Benes had agreed. Now Benes had gone back on his promises.

This was his (Hitler's) last and final proposal that Germans in Czechoslovakia be returned to their native country.

Benes was refusing, suggested Hitler, because he believed he had the backing of France and Great Britain.

He had made proposals for disarmament, Der Fuehrer said, but other powers had refused. So Germany now has "an armed force the like of which the world has never seen." It had a most modernly equipped army and an unparalleled air force that can protect Germans against any and every attack.

He followed a practical policy of peace, however, Hitler continued, and was able to settle Polish-German policy. This was because he was dealing with one man and not with a democracy.

Man in the Moon

Yesterday was a dull time just suited for brooding over the possibility of war but some of us refuse to brood. We are not at all sure there is going to be a war.

Jake says he hates rain on Sunday because the beer parlors are closed and he never saves enough money to buy a bottle of hard stuff.

Someone might have said to Mr. Chamberlain before he went to Germany: "It's a great world if you don't weaken."

The Fuehrer says he wants the world And with a thundering voice he hurled His deft to the winds. If Duce is also keen to get A world or two within his net But it's difficult, he finds.

It's tough to be a Czech or a Jew in Europe today.

Everyone seems to realize quite well that fall is here. Perhaps that is how Adam felt when he fell.

Someone revives an old suggestion that Prince Rupert should have horses for tourists to ride up the mountain.

PARK SUPERVISOR

Editor, Daily News: If you allow me a little space in your paper, I would like to say a few words for the people and children who enjoy the park and the playground. It is a pity that the city or Gyro Club cannot see their way clear to keep the present man farther than the first of the month. If they ever want to put another man on that kind of work they will have a very hard time to find one like him. I think that I know a little about that kind of work and have seen that man different times at his work. He is a man that will have no trouble in getting a job. He is also a man of all trades and I understand that he is going away from here when he is finished. The reason I mention this I think he has a good program in his head for entertainment and improving those places. Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valuable space in your paper F. RIFFOU.

AVOID NEEDLESS CHANCES

PROVED WAY TO TREAT COLDS

Doubly proved—in world's largest colds-clinic, and by everyday use in more homes than any other medication of its kind. No "doing." Just massage VapoRub on throat, chest, and back at bedtime. Relief begins almost at once. And long after sleep comes, VapoRub keeps right on working. Its poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm, relieves irritation and coughing, helps break local congestion. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

REAL CURE FOR WORLD

Kingdom of God Among Men is More Than Ever Needed

At morning service in the First United Church yesterday Rally Day was observed. It was the four hundredth anniversary of the placing of the Bible by royal decree in the churches of England. Rev. J. C. Jackson, who occupied the pulpit, referred to the Bible—the Bible chained and the Bible free. Were the sacrifices that were made to have it printed and read having the reward that they deserved? Too often they were forgotten and the precepts that should be practised were neglected and the world was the sufferer from the neglect. During the service the Junior Choir sang effectively the Canadian Girls in Training camp hymn, "God Who Touchest Earth With Beauty."

In the Sunday School several of the pupils told stories of the Bible. Miss Marie Boulter sang "Holy Bible, Book Divine."

At the evening service Mr. Jackson spoke of the people today. Six hundred years ago Pope Gregory struck a note of encouragement in that time of pessimism when many said the world was coming to an end. The Roman civilization was at an end and the people saw disaster. The Bishop of Rome saw instead the Kingdom of God and laid the foundations of a new Europe by using the time to point out the great spiritual eternal verities. The business of the church is always the same. Tackling the present situation by economic conferences and peace pacts was tackling the problem from the wrong end. The only solution was the "Kingdom of God Among Men." This gave a plan to live by, a person to live with and a world to live in. The Christian today was living in the Kingdom of God. It was a most real thing. Instead of saying "business is business" people should say and practice the Sermon on the Mount, and they would find the Kingdom of God which was peace among men of good will, was already here. "Till mankind has the faith to see this and the will to practice it there can be little peace. The solution is there if man will accept it."

The senior choir sang the anthem "Lift up Your Hearts," and arrangement of H. M. Butler's words to a setting of H. A. C. Lanton. Mrs. R. G. Large was soloist.

LIVED HERE FOR YEARS

Mrs. A. Frebourg Passes Away In Vancouver Hospital To Which She Had Been Taken Recently

Mrs. Albert Frebourg, well known pioneer woman of this city who left the city a few weeks ago for the south, passed away at the week-end in a Vancouver hospital according to word received in the city today. Formerly a Mrs. Anderson, she was married in 1910 in the old Anglican Church at the head of Centre Street by Canon W. F. Rushbrook to Albert Frebourg, Olier Besner and the late Mrs. Besner having been attendants on the occasion.

Mrs. Frebourg was of German birth but had spent most of her life in Canada. She was active in the work of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Anglican Church and her cheery presence will be missed by many friends in homes and benevolent organizations.

Besides the widower, Mrs. Frebourg is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Stuart of Seattle.

WHY DOES ANYBODY BORROW FROM A BANK?

WHY does anybody borrow money?

Here is the answer: Usually to make a profit or to use the money for his advantage.

Be the borrower a farmer, marketing organization, lumberman, miner, fisherman, rancher, manufacturer—none ever borrows from a bank and pays interest except to gain a benefit outweighing the interest charges.

Every Canadian dollar represents tangible wealth already produced, or wages paid for services rendered.

Every Canadian dollar issued can be described accurately as to purpose, as a wealth-producing, wage-paying, profit-seeking dollar.

Occasionally some borrowed dollars become temporarily deadweight debt—perhaps you suffer a loss for a season through drought or other natural calamity. But with a better season, better prices and brighter business, the loser has a chance to recover his losses.

"I borrow $1,000 from the bank, paying interest because the bank is rendering me a service," one man instances. He goes on thus:

"Why do I borrow the $1,000? To use in a business deal and make a profit.

"My deal concluded successfully, I repay the bank and have a profit of say $100, which I put to my credit in the bank.

"The bank has back its $1,000 and interest, and I have $100 I didn't have before.

"Multiply that borrowing of mine, my use of the money, my repayment and my profit, by many borrowers, day after day, and you see what is happening as a continuous revolving process throughout the year in the business world."

A farmer borrows for seed, cultivation or harvesting; a fisherman borrows for bait, boat or wages; a manufacturer borrows against raw materials being fabricated, to pay wages to finish and market his goods—but none of these borrows except in the hope of profit to himself, in supplying the needs of others.

Banking is not mysterious. A farmer's co-operative marketing organization uses bank credit so that the farmer may get cash for his crop at the elevator without waiting for it to reach Liverpool.

A merchant borrows from the bank and is enabled to pay his bills early, take advantage of discounts, and pass part of his saving on to his customers.

A small farmer with 20 hogs borrowed $50 for feed, paid $1.75 interest and was enabled to sell his hogs for $100 more than he would have got on an earlier market. His net profit was $48.75. That is an authentic case. Here is another:

A hog-raiser on a large scale paid $100 interest on a loan for feed. He writes us that he made a net profit of nearly $2,000.

These are instances of the kind of services bank credit, exchanged for individual credit, performs as an everyday routine, in Canada. Any community can supply scores of similar examples.

What is money? Coinage, Bank of Canada notes, bank notes, deposits.

Chartered banks now issue their notes up to a legal limit of 85 per cent of their paid-up capital. Yearly this is being reduced and the right of note-issue as steadily vested in the Bank of Canada.

A chartered bank's notes are the first charge on its assets. In case of trouble they must be paid off before a single cent can be paid on deposits or on any other debts owed by the bank. To make doubly sure that notes will be redeemed, each bank pays into a fund held by the Minister of Finance, an amount of cash equal to five per cent of the average of its bank notes outstanding. This is called the "Bank Circulation Redemption Fund." The total of this fund is available for the purpose of redeeming the outstanding notes of any bank.

Notes of the Bank of Canada are money—legal tender—cash—that Bank's notes and deposits are backed (July 30, 1938) by 56.26 per cent of gold and silver bullion and foreign exchange.

Notes of the chartered banks, too, are money—their promises to pay; every dollar backed by more than twenty dollars of assets. They are redeemable, on demand, in cash.

Your deposit in a chartered bank also is money—you can buy things with it. It arose from your labour, production and thrift. It is redeemable in cash. It is a measure of your real wealth. You may make payments by cheque upon it. When your cheque goes through the Clearing House system, it must be met by the bank on which it is drawn. Any balances as between banks have to be settled in cash daily.

Your Canadian dollars are useful factors in a system that produces wealth for all of Canada.

THE CHARTERED BANKS OF CANADA

Your local branch bank manager will be glad to talk banking with you. He will be glad to answer your questions, from the standpoint of his own experience. The next article in this series will appear in this newspaper. Watch for it.

Kitkatla Couple Married Today

This afternoon at four o'clock St. Andrew's Cathedral was the scene of a pretty wedding when Edward Innis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Innis of Kitkatla, was united in marriage by Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, the Dean, to Miss Maggie Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis of Kitkatla. The ceremony took place amid a large gathering of friends from Kitkatla, Naas and Skeena River districts.

The bride, who was attired in a white wedding gown and matching veil, was attended by Mrs. Flora Hill as matron of honor, Silas Innis, uncle of the bride, and James Lewis, uncle of the groom, attended the groom.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner will be served at the Commodore Cafe and a dance later in the Boston Hall for which arrangements have been made for one hundred and fifty guests. The bride and groom will leave tomorrow for Kitkatla where they will reside.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to go

The liver should pour out two pounds of fluid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just dumps in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk. A more bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of nature, but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

LANDMARK IS BURNED

Old Klondyke Hotel on Fulton Street Virtually Destroyed By Flames This Morning

The old Klondyke Hotel building, one of the landmarks of Fulton Street at the corner of Seventh Avenue, was virtually destroyed by fire this morning. Flames consumed the upper of three floors and the effects of water and smoke ruined the two lower ones. The only occupant of the building was Mah Moon, a Chinese gardener. The property was owned by the estate of the late Mrs. G. Reda.

The flames, as far as can be learned, originated from a defective chimney on the top floor. They quickly went through the roof of the old frame structure and, by the time the fire department reached the scene after being called by a passerby, the conflagration was well under way. Heavy smoke hampered the firemen in their work and it was half an hour or so before the flames were brought under control "Slim" Iverson, one of the firemen, was struck on the head by a flying 2 by 4 and was stunned for a time but not seriously injured. Yeoman assistance was given the fire department by Corp. G. H. Soles and Constables Alex Gaunt and Terry Stewart of the city police.

The time of the fire was 7:20 a.m.

Charles King, chief steward of vessels on southern runs of the Union Steamship Co., is at present, aboard the steamer Catala relieving Chief Steward Bert Ebdon who is ashore at Vancouver for a few trips.
