EXPECTING PEACE, UNCLE SAM READY SHOULD WAR COME IT IS DECLARED

WASHINGTON, April 27: (CP)—The United States does not expect war but she is ready—just in case. This is the feeling here as the experts take stock 21 years after the nation's entrance into the World War, April 6, 1917. Army and navy heads are all set to draw on vast resources. Not only is the U.S. navy strong and growing...

PAIR ARE CONVICTED

Heads of Hedley Amalgamated Mine Each Sentenced to Eighteen Months Imprisonment for Conspiracy

VANCOUVER, April 27: (CP) — Russell E. Barker and William Cox, former president and mine manager respectively of the Hedley Amalgamated Gold mine, were convicted last night of conspiring to defraud the public and conspiring to affect the market price of their company's stock. Each was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment. Both men were acquitted on a third charge of conspiring to defraud by "salting" diamond drill cores from the Hedley mine.

The jury, which deliberated five hours, added a rider to the verdict "deploring the inactivity of the Department of Mines of the provincial government in connection with their action in this case." In his charge to the jury, Mr. Justice D. A. Macdonald said that the mines department was not on trial and it was not within his province to make comment upon it. "But you may say," His Lordship added "why didn't they notify the public and why did Walker (the deputy minister of mines, J. F. Walker) allow thousands of shares to be sold until 11 a.m. (on the day Hedley stock was suspended from trading) although he could have suspended trading at 8 a.m.?"

POLITICS FORGOTTEN

Service Men in Ottawa House Unite to Recall Times as Comrades in War Years

OTTAWA, April 27: (CP)—How ever vigorous their adherence to political parties, war veteran members of the House of Commons have the gift of casting aside partisan allegiances and meeting on the common ground of old comradeship. One of the finest things that has emerged in Canada's political life, for many a year, is the "Parliamentary ex-Service Men's Association."

The term "association" suggests something highly organized, with dignified constitution and by-laws and a statement of aims and policy. So far as this definition relates to war-veteran members of Parliament, nothing could be further from facts. The "Parliamentary ex-Service Men's Association" is merely a title under which, regularly throughout the session, the war-veteran members of all parties get together round the festive board, sing the old trench songs and, in general, keep ever green those ties of comradeship which are fundamental in their lives.

President of the Association is a Liberal, Ross Macdonald of Brantford. The secretary is Howard C. Green, Vancouver Conservative; and the treasurer is C. Grant MacNeill, stalwart of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation. Mr. MacNeill's duties are not particularly heavy. In its two years of existence financial receipts of the association have been zero and official disbursements likewise. His books, therefore, balance.

All Groups In Every political group in the Commons is comprised in the association, with both English and French-speaking Canadian comprising the national representation. Like every other veterans' body the association has a grand president, this exalted office being filled by Sir Eugene Fiset, Liberal member for Rimouski. Sir Eugene is a veteran of the South African War and during the "Last Unpleasantness" was deputy minister of national defense.

The anthem of the association is "Old Soldiers Never Die" and the hymn of praise to the grand president takes the form of the immortal ballad, "The Old Grey Mare, She Ain't What She Used to Be." Three ministers are members, Defense Minister Ian Mackenzie, Pensions Minister C. G. Power and Labor Minister Norman Rogers. The functions of the ministers and of the grand president are principally concerned with being stuck for the first four bi-monthly dinners early in the session. After that, everybody goes Dutch treat.

The governor-general graced one of the dinners last year and pronounced it "a grand party." His Excellency liked it so well that last Vimy anniversary he had the war-veteran members at Rideau Hall for dinner. There are approximately 40 ex-Service members of the Commons, distributed among all parties. Their fortnightly get-together is regarded in parliamentary circles as one of the finest elements in the political life of the capital. On the floor of the House the veterans will take opposing sides and debate with all the vigor of their convictions. But when the smoke of these verbal combats has cleared, they are again old comrades and nowhere is this more manifest than at these gatherings.

As a mellowing influence in the national political sphere, the war veterans of parliament are setting an excellent example. Their "association" is an adornment to the Commons and a tribute to the spirit of the ex-Service men.

LEAGUE OF NAVY MEET

R. M. Winslow Re-Elected Chairman—Reports and Other Business at Annual Gathering Last Night

The annual meeting of Prince Rupert Branch of the Navy League of Canada was held last night at Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve headquarters. Business included the receiving of the financial report, reports of the chairman, R. M. Winslow, and of the Sea Cadets commanding officer, Lieut. G. H. Greenwood, election of officers and appointment of a membership committee. The following officers for the year were elected:

Chairman, R. M. Winslow. Honorary Secretary - Treasurer, W. O. Vigar. Executive—P. M. Ray, F. A. MacCallum, E. B. Baker, G. H. Greenwood, J. H. McLeod, Walter Hume, Dr. L. W. Kergin, Alex. McRae, W. H. Tobey, Orme Stuart, F. M. Good, Dr. R. G. Large and C. C. Mills.

In his annual report W. M. Winslow referred to the greatly enlarged headquarters of the R.C.N.V.R. in which they were meeting. He referred with pleasure to the appointment of Messrs. Landry and Bryant to be second Lieutenants assisting Lieut. Greenwood in charge of the sea cadets. He spoke highly of the services of the commanding officer who had shown a great deal of zeal. Much good work had been carried out by the officers in the absence of a paid instructor from the time of the resignation of C.P.O. Anslow until the end of the year. Bugles and drums supplied by the department on their recommendation had resulted in the boys taking up instruction on these instruments.

The president referred to the presentation of a trophy to the cadets for competition in general efficiency. The Rotary Club also had made a donation toward the work of the sea cadets. There are now 45 cadets enrolled, all properly equipped. A number more have applied.

Passing reference was made to the helpful visit of Captain Mitchell on June 9, the summer camp, and appreciation of the work of the honorary secretary, the resignation of Lieut. Commander Hume and the succession of Lieut. Commander Haworth. Lieut. Geo. H. Greenwood, D.S.C., reported on the improved facilities and their value to the cadets. Eight were now asking to join but could not do so until uniforms were provided. The annual tag day proved successful and the boys looked very smart in their uniforms. The summer camp had proven a success. Sub-Lieutenants Landry and Bryant had done good work in helping to train the lads and Angus McDonald had taken great interest in teaching them first aid, in which they were making good progress.

Lieut. Greenwood told of the organizing of a bugle band which had appeared in public on several occasions and been the subject of favorable comment, such as during the visit of the Governor General and Lady Tweedsmuir when the cadets were inspected, during the May Queen ceremonies and during the Remembrance Day ceremonies.

The average attendance for the year was 78.4, the corps thus coming seventh of all in the Dominion. The esprit de corps had been excellent and the following promotions had been made: Edwin Tobey to be C.P.O. and Cadets Manson, Hankinson, Norton, Greenwood and Davis to be sub-instructors.

Social functions had been arranged by the cadets themselves. Dances were under supervision of members of the executive and the Navy League. The Hill 60 Chapter,

Unified Operation Of Two Lines Is Proposed Without Monopoly

Company Would be formed to lease Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Properties For Number of Years—No Amalgamation

OTTAWA, April 27: (CP)—A plan to deal with Canadian railway problems without consolidation or monopoly is being presented to members of Parliament. It is said to have been instituted by a well known financial man who prefers to remain anonymous. It would bring unified operation of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railway under an operating company through the lease of the two companies' properties for a number of years. A resolution, sponsored by Hon. Charles A. Dunning, minister of finance, will be introduced in the House of Commons today contemplating refunding of Canadian National maturities totalling $200,000,000.

L. H. Haworth Severs Connection With Wheat Pool To Take Up New Post In East

L. H. Haworth, who has been in charge of the Alberta Wheat Pool's elevator here for several years, is severing his connection with the Pool to assume the position of assistant manager of the Co-operative Wholesale Society of Manchester, England, with headquarters in Montreal and expects to leave next month for the East with Mrs. Haworth and daughter.

The Co-operative Wholesale Society of Manchester is a large British organization engaged in the handling of natural products including a great deal of wheat as well as canned salmon and such lines. Officials have visited here on occasions in the past. Mr. Haworth came to Prince Rupert in April 1928 as export manager for the Central Selling Agency of the Wheat Pool. Five years ago on the death of William McIvor, he took over full charge of the elevator. He has also been active in the affairs of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, having just recently been named commanding officer of the local unit.

Many friends will regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Haworth from the city and will wish them well in their new home and sphere.

LETTER TO PATTULLO

Prince Rupert Conservative Association Inquires Regarding Attitude on Alaskan Highway Project

The Prince Rupert Conservative Association has sent the following open letter to Premier T. D. Pattullo in regard to the Alaska highway project, also sending a copy to the Prince Rupert Daily News for publication:

"We congratulate you on carrying on the Alaska Highway project started by the late Hon. S. F. Tolmie but, as citizens of your own electoral district, we call upon you to account for your advocacy of the Finlay Forks route as against the originally proposed Hazelton route. From recent newspaper items we learn that you are now pressing for the Finlay Forks route. In this you do not appear to have consulted either your own government, the Legislature or your own constituency. Whatever interests you may be serving in proposing this route are certainly not those of your constituency. Neither are they the interests of the northern part of the province.

"The route you are reported to favor will side-track the settled farming areas of the Nechako and Bulkley Valleys, will avoid the anthracite coal area of the Ground Hog country, the fur and game country surrounding the Telegraph Creek and Dease Lake districts, the highly mineralized area around Atlin and, perhaps worst of all, will prevent easy access to the coast. Particularly for military purposes, both in British Columbia and in Alaska, a road close to the principal towns on the coast is essential. The Finlay Forks route would take the road hundreds of miles away from Prince Rupert and Stewart and all the important Alaska coast cities. Thus, from the viewpoint of both Northern British Columbia and Alaska, your reasons for favoring this route are extremely obscure.

"Judging by all information yet made public with regard to the proposed Alaska Highway, there is no good reason why it should not pass through Hazelton. Last year in this city you stated emphatically that the Hazelton route would be followed. We protest against any change in your plans and hold you to your statement. With the building of the road via Hazelton we have every confidence in the speedier completion of the road from here to the interior."

B.C. ASKS ADJUSTMENTS

Recently when the Rowell Commission met in British Columbia the provincial government laid before it arguments why this province should receive more just treatment than she has received in the past. There was no asking of alms. All that was requested was an adjustment in order that British Columbia, as one of the provinces of the Dominion, might have more nearly equal treatment with the rest.

Of course, the east does not like this and it trying to show that the most westerly province is asking for favors. An article in a recent issue of Saturday Night claims that the province has been spendthrift and is asking the Dominion to relieve her of her just debts. Nothing is farther from the fact. Years ago Sir Richard McBride went to Ottawa asking for an adjustment from a Conservative government. He was turned down and came home in a huff. However, the province received part of what he asked. Now the federal government is asked to consider a number of injustices and to set them right just as did the Maritimes ask for the carrying out of the terms of the Duncan commission.

It is said in Saturday Night that British Columbia has many advantages and is in an advantageous position. What the writer fails to note is the cost of developing such a huge rugged province in order that it may keep pace with the rest of Canada. We cannot afford to be generous to the rest of Canada when we need the money so badly on our highways.

British Columbia is not a problem child. Let the Dominion give her all that is her due and she will get along nicely.

PAYING FOR LUXURY

Britain is being asked to pay for the luxury of war preparations by an increase of sixpence in the pound on the income tax, for people with large incomes. There is an increase in the tax on tea which does affect every person in a tea drinking country. However, the manufacture of munitions and the building of warships is making busy times in England and Scotland so there will not be much complaint at the cost.

A NOVEL PLAN

Two proposals have been made in order to try to induce people to help carry out the beautify-the-city proposal and the clean-up suggestions that have been made. It is proposed to give a prize to the person having the least attractive home in the city and another to the person having premises most in need of being cleaned up. Due publicity would be given the competitions and the names of the winners would be published. These plans are said to have been successful in other cities and no one can say what effect they might have here.

Capt. Richard Gammon Disposes Of Local Interests and Goes East—Spring Salmon Trolling Improves

Having disposed of his local interests, principal of which were the two big seineboats Zenardi and Bertha G., Capt. Richard Gammon, for many years a well known Prince Rupert seining operator, has left for the Atlantic Coast. He will visit his home province of Nova Scotia as well as at Boston and has an idea of engaging in mackerel seining although his plans for the future are not definitely settled as yet. He will travel to Ontario by rail and, taking delivery of a new car there will drive to the Atlantic Coast. Capt. Gammon has sold the Zenardi to Capt. Charles B. Haan of Queen Charlotte City. The Zenardi is registered as being 53.7 feet long with beam of 15.2 feet and depth of 7.7 feet. Built in Vancouver in 1925, the vessel is equipped with a 100 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse full diesel engine. The Bertha G. has been disposed of by Capt. Gammon to the H. V. Morehouse on a part interest basis. This vessel, 62.1 feet long with beam of 16.9 feet and depth of 7.3 feet, was built at the Prince Rupert dry dock in 1927 and is equipped with a 90 h.p. Washington-Estep full diesel engine.

Spring salmon trolling in waters contiguous to Prince Rupert this April is said to have been considerably better than has been the case for some years past. This has been particularly so around Dundas Island and the flats. It is not to be taken from this, however, that there has been any phenomenal run of fish. Weather, except for a few bad days, has been more favorable than usual. Quite a number of the trolling boats are now out and several camps are in place for the season.

With a fair sized list of passengers, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived in port on time at 10:30 this morning from Vancouver, Powell River, and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

The new 60-foot towboat Taku Chief left Seattle yesterday for the Taku River district where it will be operated. The Taku Chief is sixty feet long and derives power from two 125 h. p. high speed diesel engines.

Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Daly is on the pontoons at the local dry dock today for cleaning and painting. She was taken out of the water this morning and will be out again tomorrow.

Don't Keep on Having Constipation!

If constipation's got you down—so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble. If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All-Bran is not only rich in "bulk"—it also contains the natural intestinal tonic, vitamin B.

Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario. Sold by every grocer.

INDUCTION OF PASTOR CONDUCTED

First Presbyterian Church Receives Its New Minister, Rev. G. H. Funston, Formerly of Stewart

With a large turn-out of members and adherents in attendance the induction of Rev. G. H. Funston, until recently of Stewart, as pastor of First Presbyterian Church here was conducted last night by Rev. David Lister of Vancouver acting as interim moderator. The induction service was followed by a reception for Rev. and Mrs. Funston in the church parlors where Mrs. D. C. Stuart, president of the Ladies' Aid, introduced the members of the congregation to the new pastor and his wife. During a program which followed, with Mr. Lister acting as chairman, pastors of other denominations in the city brought their greetings. In the course of the social hour refreshments were served.

The induction service was along conventional lines as prescribed by the ritual of the church. In an appropriate sermon, Mr. Lister discussed the function of the church first as a divine organism and second as a human organization. He administered the obligation of the pastorate to Mr. Funston and received the pledge of faith and support from the congregation. "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung as a vocal duet by Mrs. H. N. Brocklesby and Mrs. J. L. Lee. Mrs. E. J. Smith presided at the organ, and the choir was in attendance. A poem composed especially for such occasion by Mr. Lister was read and proved of interest. It was as follows:

Blessed Lord, to Thee I Pray,
Entering Thy House today,
Stir all hearts that there may be
Loving fellowship with Thee.

Bless the Preacher, may his word
Witness to Thy glory, Lord,
Fill his heart, direct his tongue
Give him bread for old and young.

Bless the people—all who meet
Humbly at the Savior's feet,
As they worship bend Thine ear
To their waiting souls appear.

To the weary seeking rest,
To the sorrowing and opprest,
To the wayward, sinful, sad,
Grant Thy grace and make them glad.

Let all hearts with gladness glow,
Let all lips with praises flow,
As we gather here to pray
On this holy Sabbath day.

The Reception

Opening the reception proceedings, Mr. Lister read a message of greeting and best wishes from the moderator of New Westminster Presbytery, Rev. Dr. W. A. Cameron.

W. W. C. O'Neill, clerk of the session, conveyed the regrets of Bishop Rix at being unable to attend and also read a telegram from the former pastor, Rev. W. D.

Grant Hollingworth, now of Medicine Hat. Mr. Hollingworth's message assured Mr. Funston that he would find in Prince Rupert a loyal congregation and a friendly people. Mr. O'Neill referred to the fine spirit which attended the call to Mr. Funston. He bespoke for the new pastor the hearty support of the congregation. Mr. O'Neill expressed appreciation of the congregation to Mr. Lister for his excellent help during the pulpit vacancy.

Very Rev. James B. Gibson, congratulated the Presbyterian congregation on the excellent pastor they had obtained.

Bringing the greetings of First United Church, Rev. J. C. Jackson expressed the hope that Mr. and Mrs. Funston would receive the undivided support and loyalty of the congregation.

Rev. E. E. Brandt, pastor of First Baptist Church, looked forward with pleasure to inter-church association with Mr. Funston. The harmony that had prevailed in the past would, he hoped continue in the future.

Capt. Ivan Halsey of the Salvation Army said that there were difficulties in the ministry in Prince Rupert and the pastor would need the full support of his congregation. The Army would do its best to co-operate wherever possible.

P. H. Linzey joined in extending best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Funston. Now was the testing time for faith, he believed. Prince Rupert was a young man's town and it was fitting that the Presbyterian Church should have obtained a pastor of Mr. Funston's type.

In response, Mr. Funston spoke briefly but earnestly. He realized the responsibility attached to the pastorate here. He was confident, however, of happy associations. He was particularly appreciative of the very evident signs of preparation for his coming through the work that was being carried out on the Manse and in other ways.

Thomas McClymont proposed a vote of thanks to the ladies for their continuous efforts in support of the church. Their work had been of inestimable value in keeping the church going.
