PASSING OF PROMINENT EDUCATOR

Dr. Arthur Stanley Mackenzie Left Lasting Monument in Dalhousie

HALIFAX, Oct. 3: (CP)—Dr. Arthur Stanley Mackenzie, president of Dalhousie University from 1911 to 1931 and member of the Nova Scotia economic council, died here Sunday after a brief illness.

It was given to Dr. Mackenzie to build his own monument—a new Dalhousie University. During his 20 years as president of the "Little College by the Sea," Dalhousie witnessed a new orientation. It grew under Mackenzie from a provincial college to an institution with a national outlook and national mission.

"It may be said of him," declared Dr. Archibald MacMechan in conferring an honorary degree on the retiring president in 1931, "that he found Dalhousie brick and left it marble." The almost spectacular growth of the university began when he assumed the office of president in July, 1911 and continued throughout his long term. He was the mainspring of every endeavor to enlarge its usefulness and to develop and expand its facilities.

The first alumnus to become president, he found it a college of one brick building with small invested funds and with physical assets valued at less than $500,000. During his term of office, the medical school, the law school and dental school were reorganized and incorporated and won high international reputations; the arts and science faculties were enlarged and departments of commerce, engineering, pharmacy, music and fisheries added.

Students increased in number from 411 in 1911 to nearly 1,000 in the year he relinquished office and the staff increased from 63 to three times that number.

Under Mackenzie a new university campus, Studley, one of the most beautiful in Canada, became the site for the New Dalhousie. Buildings of native stone with architecturally pleasing facades arose. The university grounds, buildings and equipment took an accrued value of more than $2,100,000 and the invested funds aggregated $2,400,000.

For many years he played a large part in the annual Conference of Canadian College Presidents which shape and direct the educational policies of the whole country and he also added greatly in founding and manning the National Council of Scientific Research.

Nova Scotia Born
 Dr. A. Stanley Mackenzie was born in Pictou in 1865 and was the sixth College President that little Scottish county gave to Canada.

The gratifying sum of $146 was realized as a result of the tag day on Saturday in support of the Boys' Club work.

Interior Members Take Up Fight For Greater Use Of Prince Rupert In Shipping

MORE GRAIN COMING

While no official word is available, it is understood here that activity at the local elevator may be resumed before long. Report has it that the plant is shortly to be filled with grain from the new crop on the prairies. There is no information here as to a new leasing of the house which was dropped by the Alberta Wheat Pool last summer.

PRINCE GEORGE, October 3.—During a recent visit to Vancouver, H. G. Perry M.L.A., accompanied by J. G. Turgeon M.P., held a conference with Mr. McIvor, of the Canadian Wheat Board and Mr. Glendenning of the Empire Shipping Company, on the matter of increased use of the Prince Rupert grain elevator and the port of Prince Rupert.

As a result of the conference Mr. Turgeon has approached the federal government through Hon. Ian A. Mackenzie with suggestions that arrangements be made to further ocean trade between Prince Rupert, the Orient and the ports of Great Britain through the transport of the fish for which Prince Rupert is famous and a portion of the Alberta and Saskatchewan grains, by ship subsidies if no other means are available.

Mr. Turgeon points out that while large quantities of grain which naturally should go to market by Pacific coast ports are being shipped eastward by rail because of the fact that Vancouver elevators are taxed to capacity, Prince Rupert's government elevator is standing idle.

Mr. Turgeon further suggests as a means of making use of the Prince Rupert elevator that the North China subsidy granted for shipping between Vancouver and North China, which has been interfered with by the present state of war in China, be switched to subsidize steamers in carrying grain and other commodities from Prince Rupert to the United Kingdom, so that with full cargoes of grain assured Prince Rupert would soon take her place among the busier ports of the Pacific seaboard and bring into profitable operation the government's large investment in the presently idle Prince Rupert elevator as well as its line of railway through northern British Columbia.

Hanson Appreciative
 Olof Hanson M. P. for Skeena, interviewed in Prince George was appreciative of the co-operation from this district. For some time he has been trying to get a subsidy on shipping from Prince Rupert to the U.K., so grain can be marketed through that port. He and George Nickerson of Prince Rupert, got an unanimous resolution passed recently at the Central B. C. Associated Boards of Trade convention at Smithers requesting the federal government to subsidize six sailings per year at a total cost of $60,000.

"In the national interest of Canada, I am firmly of the opinion the government should not only subsidize shipping from Prince Rupert during the development of the traffic, but develop the use and facilities of this all year round port," stated Mr. Hanson.

MESSAGE TO HIS PEOPLE

King George Praises Subjects—Chamberlain Faces Criticism—May Visit Italy

Munich Defended

Duff-Cooper Explains Why He Resigned From Cabinet

LONDON, Oct. 3: (CP)—In a message to his subjects yesterday, King George VI praised the people for their fine spirit of calm resolve during the anxious days of the war crisis. He expressed confidence that the new era of hope and peace for the world would ensue as a result of the fine efforts of Premier Chamberlain for peace.

With the applause of the Empire still ringing in his ears for the averting of what seemed imminent war last week, there were some black clouds on the horizon for Premier Chamberlain today as he made his stand before Parliament to defend the foreign policy of his government. He faces the prospect of a solid Labor opposition as well as defection among some important members of his own Conservative party.

Hopes of Premier
 Addressing a tumultuous house, Mr. Chamberlain declared that fresh opportunities for disarmament had been opened as a result of the four-power Munich agreement. Firm in his defence of the Munich negotiations, Chamberlain stated, however, that "disarmament will never again be unilateral. We tried that once. It nearly brought us disaster. If disarmament is to come, it must come by steps and with active co-operation of other nations." The Prime Minister said that Great Britain would continue to build up an efficient army and defences but believed that eventually disarmament would be possible as a result of the Munich conference.

Continuing, Mr. Chamberlain said that hope still remains that there was time for him to conclude a disarmament agreement "before I hand over office to a younger man."

The Premier's speech was punctuated by jeers and laughter from opposition Laborites.

The Prime Minister announced that an immediate loan of $50,000,000 would be made to Czechoslovakia which had applied for a loan of $150,000,000. The loan may be increased after British experts have studied the economic needs of the Czechs.

The day in Parliament was started with Rt. Hon. Alfred Duff-Cooper who resigned from the cabinet as First Lord of the Admiralty defending his action. He stated that there was a basic difference of opinion between Premier Chamberlain and himself. He (Duff-Cooper) believed in dealing with dictators with a mailed fist. Chamberlain believed in "reasonableness."

It is forecast that the Premier may make a trip to Rome shortly to confer with Premier Mussolini on the settlement of the Spanish civil war question, more particularly with regard to the withdrawal of Italian volunteers. A revival of the Anglo-Italian pact is foreseen.

A new pledge of friendship between Great Britain and France has been made.

NORMAL ACTIVITIES

Now that the trouble in Europe seems to be over, Canadian securities have resumed a more normal level with a tendency toward advancing and there is every possibility of improved business conditions. We may expect to hear something soon in regard to pulp mill possibilities. If the Buckley mill does not go ahead there will be others who will take it up. However we have every reason to believe the original group will go ahead with their plans soon.

RELAXATION NECESSARY

No matter how strong physically or mentally a person may be relaxation is necessary. This is especially true in a comparatively small community such as Prince Rupert where the tendency is to do the same things, meet the same people and discuss the same subjects day after day.

Of course reading has its value but it does not supply all our needs. Many a well-read person is very ignorant of life. The bookworm tends to become stupid. In order to round out a full life we need the comedies and dramas of the theatre.

There was a time when we paid a lot of money for our amusements. An ordinary musical comedy cost a dollar and a half for a good seat while a star event might cost up to as much as four or five dollars for one performance. We remember having paid four dollars to hear Padereski play and two and a half dollars to see and hear Harry Lauder. Now these things and better can be seen and heard for less than half a dollar. It is a wonderful change. There were limitations to the old time road shows but there are practically no limitations to the movies. We live in a greatly privileged age when we get so much for so little.

The winter is now approaching and it is not clear how we could spend the long evenings without the first class plays provided for us in the local theatre. We have only one but that is a good one and is far better than two or three second class houses. Very few of the really first class films pass us by. We are extremely fortunate in our theatrical provisions.

RIDING TWO HORSES

The new Conservative leader, Hon. Robert Manion, is finding the task of riding two horses, going in opposite directions as difficult as it might be imagined, says the Ottawa correspondent of Canadian Business. "Bob" Manion knows that Red and Blue do not go well together, but he is trying hard to combine them. Every few days he gets a reminder from Conservative papers that if he goes to the Left he will have to go without the Conservative party and then he is told from the other side of his following that, if he does not lean to the Left, there is little chance of winning support from followers of the King government. His task is not a pleasant one but Dr. Manion is good humored, aggressive and resourceful, and he can never be charged with not trying or inaction.

Winners of raffles were: Doll, Rose Thain, No. 162; kangaroo, Mrs. A. Haines, 22; electric toaster, Mrs. A. MacDonald, 17; $20. C. P. Bussinger, Telkwa, 492; $15. Mrs. J. Olsen, 879; $10. Agnes Collins, 584; $5. 533, J. J. Gillis.

At 4:20 yesterday morning Constable R. C. Moore, while going off shift, was attracted to the corner of Sixth Avenue and Fulton Street where it appeared that the mail box was being tampered with. Conceiving himself, he saw a couple of men, one of whom tore the mail box off the post. The officer then came up and placed Earl Batt under arrest, the second man escaping. Batt is appearing in city police court this afternoon.

Miss E. M. Earl returned to the city on the Catala last night from a business trip to Vancouver.

SPORT CHAT

The thousands of fans who soon will be yipping and yelling at the World Series and considering themselves lucky to be there will in all probability be witnessing some of the poorest baseball of the season, according to Mickey Cochrane, veteran player and manager, who states that pre-series figuring counts for nothing and that the best predictions are worthless. "Season records and statistics, phooey," Cochrane says. "You can take them and print 'em in the latest edition of Joe Miller's Joke Book. They are about as valuable in pre-series reckoning as the latest figures on carloadings in Iowa and the number of inches of rainfall in the Belgian Congo. Mathematicians tell you that figures don't lie but any grand jury would indict batting, fielding and pitching averages for perjury when it comes to getting them to tell the truth in a world series. It just so happens that in many cases during the series a batter with a fat average suddenly suffers a case of astigmatism or something up there at the plate and a fielder with a flawless record lets the grounders spray through him like a garden hose."

After citing numerous instances from baseball history to prove his statement, such as the 1934 series in which the Cards and the Tigers committed a total of 27 errors in seven games, Cochrane gives two general reasons for the bad series play—"First, the boys are physically exhausted. You must remember that they have come through a gruelling campaign of 154 games in which they gave everything they had every minute of every inning of every game. Second, they are mentally tense. Victory in a world series means more to a ball player than anything you can conceive. They live to play in it and would die to win it. The strain tightens both mind and muscle."

Cochrane points out, however, that while the stars are likely to slump, the lesser players go into a series comparatively free of responsibility and easy in mind and body, and consequently often come out heroes. "But that's life," he says, "and don't be shocked if the boys commit assault and battery on their nice clean season records when they tangle this week in the world series. It happens to the best of 'em. And it all goes to help make the world series the most exciting, uncertain, unpredictable, thrilling spectacle in the sports world."

Visiting Preacher At United Church

Rev. Peter Kelly Is Heard in Morning and Regular Pastor In Evening

At the morning service in First United Church Prince Rupert yesterday, Rev. Peter Kelly of the United Church Mission boat Thomas Crosby was the speaker. He took as his subject "Faith." The Junior Choir sang very pleasingly "The Lord is my Shepherd" to the Covenanter's tune. Mr. Kelly and Dr. Bray also sang a duet "Guide Me." An open session was held in the Sunday School immediately after the morning service and Mr. Kelly spoke briefly. With Dr. Bray he sang a duet "Spirit of God."

At the evening service Rev. Jackson was the speaker, taking for his text "According to the Graces of God" Dr. Steinmizt, the great inventor of electrical appliances, had surprised a questioner who asked what would be the greatest fields of discovery in the future by asserting that they would be in the spiritual world. These would bring peace, satisfaction and happiness to the world. The world boasted of its material progress but in its humanity suffered from a lack of the simple necessities of life in spite of all the progress. The great riches of God's grace had not been tried out yet and man must learn that, in searching for them and possessing them, lay his hope of the highest things of life. Christianity offered the solution of man's problems—a freedom, a redemption and wisdom that would more than fulfill all man's dearest hopes and aspirations.

In the course of the service Miss Bonnie Perkins was admitted into membership of the church. Mr. Jackson expressed the regrets of the church at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Soles and family and wished them Godspeed in their new location. The special musical number by the choir Gounod's "Jesu, Son of God Incarnate" was impressively rendered.

Chief Of Hazelton Natives Is Dead

Alfred Danes Passes Away at Interior Village at Age of Sixty-Nine Years

HAZELTON, Oct. 3.—The funeral took place here on Wednesday last of Chief Alfred Danes, one of the best known of the native leaders of this district. He was sixty-nine years of age and had passed away on September 24.

Officiating at the funeral were Adjutant and Mrs. Parkinson of Glen Vowell and Capt. and Mrs. Pierce of Hazelton. From the house of deceased, the cortege proceeded to the Salvation Army Hall where a brief service was held prior to the committal rites. The Hazelton Concert Band provided music. Leading chiefs from different villages in the neighborhood acted as pallbearers. Over three hundred native people were assembled for the funeral.

The late Chief Danes was well known all along the Skeena River. He was an active member of the Salvation Army. In addition to his widow, Mrs. Cusen Danes, deceased is mourned by one son, Thomas Danes, and three sisters—Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Walter Gun-noot and Miss Louise Danes.

Everybody reads the Daily News. There's a reason.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Having been on a flight between Hazelton and Stewart taking a trapping party into the district around Meziadin Lake and the headwaters of the Naas River, Pilot Claire Dobbin, with his Pacific Airways Waco seaplane, arrived here Saturday afternoon from Stewart and hopped off yesterday for Vancouver.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 9 o'clock yesterday morning from Vancouver and sailed at 11 o'clock for Skagway and other northern points whence she will return here Friday afternoon southbound. The vessel brought north forty-seven passengers. Four disembarked here and a similar number took passage at this port for the north aboard her.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 10:45 last night from the south and sailed at midnight for Stewart. Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow southbound.

The run of chum salmon on the Queen Charlotte Islands is proving disappointing and the likelihood is that fishing there will be ordered closed this week-end. In Inverness, the final cannery on the Skeena River to remain in operation, has now closed. Down the coast Namu and Klemtu are still running while at Lagoon Bay, Pacific and Old Massett on the Queen Charlotte Islands are still in operation.

Paying her first visit to the port, Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Coast, Capt. Borkland, was in port Saturday evening discharging four carloads of fisheries products from Ketchikan for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. After unloading, she proceeded to Seattle. The North Coast is a vessel of 1810 tons and was formerly named the Carabobo. She is relieving the motorship Northland which is taking her annual overhaul at Seattle.

Man in the Moon

At a target practice of a company of Cadets the captain swaggered up to the latest recruit and proceeded to give some instructions about his gun.

"See here, my man, this thing is a rifle. Here is the barrel, there's the stock. You slip the cartridge in there. Now you put the weapon to your shoulder. These little things on the barrel are the sights. When you have taken accurate aim, pull this little thing, which is the trigger. Now remember what I have told you. Smarten up and look like a soldier. By the way, what is your business? A clerk, I suppose?"

"No sir," was the reply. "I'm a gunsmith."

A very precise old lady was going away for a holiday.

"My man," she said to a porter, "Where do I get the train for Bundoran?"

"Your train is on platform No. 7," she was informed.

"Why do you say 'your train' when it belongs to the railway company?"

"Why do you say 'my man' when you know I belong to my wife?"

"That florist certainly keeps in touch with his slogan: 'Say it with flowers.'"

"What's his method?"

"Well, he sends me a bunch of forget-me-nots with each bill."

UNUSUAL PICTURE

"Farewell Again," an unusual British picture, is the feature offering on the scene of the Capitol Theatre here for the first of this week. It deals with the reactions and behaviours of the members of a British regiment which returns home after years of foreign service and is allowed only six hours leave at Southampton before re-embarking for further service abroad. Not only is the picture extremely exciting but it shows a cross-section of English life in a remarkably convincing manner. The characters of the various men from the colonel to the ranks are firmly established. For various reasons, everyone desires to get home and how they manage to solve their problems in such a short space of time makes an absorbing story. Leading roles are taken by Flora Robson and Leslie Banks.

Another feature of the first of the week program is one of the Jones Family pictures which have become so popular. This one is entitled "Love on a Budget" and deals with the efforts of Bonnie Jones and her husband to live within their means.
