THE EYES OF CANADA ARE ON PRINCE RUPERT

"It is one of the amazing things to contemplate, that the people of a country should have to be argued with by the Government to induce them to see that a proposal to remove $3,000,000 taxes from their food bill is a wholly desirable thing."

Some of our readers may recall the paragraph. It was the conclusion of an editorial article entitled "Who Pays the Bill-A Study in Tariff Economics" which appeared in the Daily News on April 11. Apparently the pithy sentence, expressed the conclusions of number of people who had thought about the matter, for it has been widely quoted throughout Canada, the pleasing thing to us being that in every instance it was quoted as a Prince Rupert opinion.

The first newspaper to reproduce the sentence in its editorial columns was the Sarnia Observer on April 28th. On the following day it appeared some hundred miles further east in the columns o the Napanee Express. Still travelling east it appeared on April 29th in the Quebec Telegraph, and the Moncton Transcript in far away New Brunswick. Then having reached the Atlantic Coast it commenced its travels back again through New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario, appearing at last on the same day in two dissimilar papers, the Toronto Globe and the Carleton Place Herald. It is still 1119. doing service. The Globe was good enough to add its endorsement in the words, "But it is true."

An even more widely copied editorial was one which appeared on April 17th on "How to Help Prince Rupert." The particular portion which caught the widest notice reads:

"Sending away for your goods builds up some other locality and leaves your home town dead. Toronto and Montreal are growing rapidly because of the growth of the West. When you send away for goods you pay your money to the express companies and to the eastern dealer and none of it ever comes back to yo. When you spend your monet ay home the local business houses this morning the shipping sheds and will be some time away. Mr. prosper, the whole community prospers and you get some of and contents of the Heaps Lumber |. your money back-indirectly but surely."

This doctrine did not meet with the Globe's endorsement for is placed at $20,000. The cause it said gravely "But someone must send." But even the weight of is not known. the Globe's dictum did not affect the general belief, for a whole chain of papers from Moose Jaw to Glace Bay quoted it approvingly, feeling "COOLGARDIE" no doubt that the economic philosophy was applicable to their own conditions.

Other instances in which the Daily News was quoted last month Going to Investigate Promsing were in the case of the Montreal Herald, which instanced the account of the Reciprocity meeting addressed by Mr. Duncan Ross, as showing how Prince Rupert feels in the matter, and in the case of the far dis tant and staid London Stock Market Review which reproduced our S.S. story of the refitting with oil burners of the C. P. R. steamer Princes

We tell these instances, not so much in a spirit of satisfaction Stewart rather unexpectedly to at being the spokesman for a larger public, but because we realise that in making a paper which is read all over the continent and beyond, we are serving best the interests of our advertisers, and the greater interests of the whole people of Prince Rupert.

General Booth---Leader of Men To Lease

(Colonial Press Despatch) London, May 19.—General Booth, who attained his 82nd birthday on Monday, April 10, assured an interviewer at his Hadley Wood home, that as regarded health, he was gradually creeping back to his old condition and vigor. He hoped to have the impediment on his other eye removed, and then to be largely himslef again.

The General's plans include visits to Norway, Sweden, Denmark Finland, possibly St. Petersburg, and to Canada and the United States.

Speaking of his schemes for reforming criminals in Great Britain he said Mr. Churchill seemed afraid to go right over to his views, and modifications had been rendered necessary, but the Salvation Army was still at work.

Wainwright

Wainwright is one of the Divisional Points on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and had its first boom last year when the steel of the main line of the Transcontinental reached there. It is grown and is still growing not only because it is a town in which the railway is directly interested, but also for the reason that, like Ellison on the Skeena, it is a point where navigation meets steel rails. There are still chances of getting in on Wainwright or on one of its additions, at a very low figures, and easy terms of payment.

MAKE APPLICATION for LOTS IN ANY OF THE ABOVE TOWNS TO EITHER

Watrous

WATROUS, which is the Terminus of the branch line of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the next place of importance to Saskatoon, in the centre of a rich prairie country and is also growing in fame as a health resort. Little Manitou Lake is at Watrous, and the healing power of this water is the wonder of modern medical science. As it is the only great medicinal mineral lake in the Dominion, the railway is bound to make it famous. There is still a chance of planting a few dollars in this townsite, and their rapid growth and crop is bound to be interesting.

Melville

MELVILLE resembles Chicago in "sitting at the gates of trade." The junction point of railways so important as the Grand Trunk Pacific and Hudson Bay railways must, in the natural course of events, become an important city. Now is the time to buy. The prices for choice lots are extremely low and the possibilities for profit practically unlimited. The purpose of the Grand Trunk Pacific in offering these lots so low is to encourage the upbuilding of Melville, and thus create a market for its superb transportation facilities.

Rivers

RIVERS is a divisional point between Melville and Winnipeg, and it also has hopes of having branch connections, one to join the Great Northern at Brandon, and the other to Regina. The Grand Trunk Pacific purchased a large townsite here with the prophetic belief that from its geographical position as the centre of a great wheat growing district, a large city would naturally grow up at this point. And to encourage this growth the railway company is offering lots at low prices and very liberal terms of payment. Better call and see us about Rivers.

Biggar

BIGGAR is one of the divisional points on the Grand Trunk Pacific, and in the company's yards there already seven miles of trackage has been laid and is in use. The site is between Watrous and Wainwright, and the town is named after W. H. Biggar, general solicitor of the Grand Trunk Pacific. It is not only on the main line of the great transcontinental railway, but it also is the junction of the branch lines of that railway to Battleford and to Calgary and the Winnipeg-Edmonton branch of the Canadian Pacific runs through the townsite. Within the last few days we have made several remittances on account of lots purchased in Biggar.

Ellison

ELLISON needs little to be said of it to Prince Rupert people for the reason that since navigation on the Skeena opened a number of people have gone there by boat from Prince Rupert to first look into the whole situation before investing. What they say of this river port and probabilities of its becoming a great railway city is the best kind of advertising for local readers. Those who desire to invest can do so through the Land Commissioner of the Railway direct, through A. W. Bridgman, the company's agent for Ellison in Victoria, or through J. He Kugler of this city.

Make all checks and remittances payable to G. U. Ryley, Land Commissioner of Grand Trunk Pacific Railway

ROGERS' ADDITION SEALEY

Every Railway Town is a Money Maker. Think of the unearned increment attaching to present dots on the route of the Great Transcontinental Railway that you know are bound to become, in the next few years and under ordinary rules of Commercial Development, populous, bustling cities. The railway does it. TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES RAPIDLY INCREASE POPULATION. POPULATION RAPIDLY INCREASES VALUES OF REALTY. Before the railway trunk highways and navigable waterways decided the sites and were the builders of the great centres of commerce and industry. The latter is still a mighty factor, and wherever navigable waters meet the steel highway THERE IS BOUND TO BE AN IMPORTANT CITY. This established fact is what makes ELLISON AND SEALEY TOWNSITES so important from the investment standpoint. It must be remembered that Ellison is the railway townsite in British Columbia in which the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company is directly interested and is a joint owner. Sealey is situated on the Skeena River and is a townsite within a townsite. On its three sides the lots of Ellison are divided from those of Sealey simply by the width of the streets; its fourth side is the waterfront. Sealey has already the nucleus of a business centre. The shops and supply warehouses of the great railway contractors, Messrs. Foley, Welch& Stewart are situated at this point, and it is the river port of the company's steamers. A lusty payroll is a mighty factor in the building of a city. In a direct line from Sealey through the heart of Ellison, and only seven blocks from the site of the railway station and the great freight yards, is ROGERS' ADDITION TO ELLISON. Its slight and gently sloping elevation makes it ideal for the residential section of the City and Port of Ellison. Investors have, therefore, a choice. Lots in Ellison are $250 for inside, and $350 for corners. Sealey lots run from $200 to $375 according to location. Rogers' Addition lots are $150 for inside, and $250 for corners, with liberal terms of payment. A lot in any Grand Trunk City cannot fail to be a safe speculation or a profitable permanent investment.

"Ask Uncle Jerry"

For Lots in Rogers' Addition to Ellison or Lots in Sealey, address: JEREMIAH H. KUGLER, "Uncle Jerry," Prince Rupert, B.C.

MISCHIEVOUS YOUNGSTERS

Dropped Down Manhole

While J. Park a workman emdepartment to assist in the sewer inspection and other sewer work now going on, was engaged in work at the bottom of one of the manholes on Fraser street on Thursday afternoon, his head was badly cut and he was stunned for a minute or two by a stone dropped down upon him by some mischievous youngsters above.

Fortunately there was not much her best sons and daughters. water at the time in the sewer or there would have been danger of his drowning when he lost conciousness. As it was the blow was an exceedingly painful one and the cut bled a good deal. Park treats the matter lightly, and thinks that if only he had had time to get up and identify the youngsters a little salutary chastisement at home would have is the purest and best made in Seatttle. been enough to teach them the error of their ways.
