HOSTILITIES IN IRELAND MAY BE RESUMED SOON

HALIBUT CATCH FOR NOVEMBER IS LARGEST RECORDED HERE

Lloyd George Again Meets Sinn Feiners Failure Forecasted

LONDON, Nov. 30.—It was authoritatively stated after the representatives to the Irish conference met yesterday that Lloyd George would endeavor to formulate new proposals for an Irish settlement, following Ulster's refusal of British cabinet's offer.

Immediately following the receipt of Premier Craig's statement of Ulster's position, Lloyd George summoned Arthur Balfour and Michael Collins, the principal Sinn Fein delegates for consultation.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Noon.—Government circles today expressed the belief that the Irish conference would break down almost certainly as the result of difficulties which have arisen and that hostilities could not be postponed.

An alternative settlement plan submitted by the Government last night included the necessity for a definite understanding by Sinn Fein to take the oath of allegiance to the Crown.

Sinn Fein leaders had many objections to the new plan, but they agreed to discuss the new plan they would not give the oath of allegiance proviso, it was stated. Thus it is according to Government officials, that a breach of negotiation is feared, will take place over the allegiance issue. The hope of a truce for an additional two months is receding.

During Month of November 2,984,250 Pounds Halibut Landed; Recrd thus Made

During the month of November 2,984,250 pounds of halibut landed at this port from Canadian and American fishing boats and a month's record for quantity has been established. The total was a total of 3,320,750 pounds offered, but 339,500 pounds of this sold at other ports, leaving the net total selling at this port recorded. The highest price paid during November was about the first of the month. The price has been dropping since the end of the month 8c and 4c has been paid on several occasions. This month's catch exceeds October's, which was 1,625,000, and November, 1920, which was 2,270,000 pounds. The next largest month in quantity of fish arriving in a single month was August of this year when 2,683,650 pounds was marketed here. The total for the month is several times larger than that of any other port on the Pacific Coast where halibut is landed.

Conservatives Left House In Protest Against Motion To Consider Beer Licenses

VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—Ian Mackenzie, member for Vancouver, yesterday introduced a motion into the Legislature to go into committee to consider the beer clause. The entire Conservative wing left the House in protest. The motion passed with the Conservatives absent by a vote of 23 to 4.

Mr. Mackenzie then moved that the Lieutenant-Governor be petitioned to order a plebiscite on the sale of beer by the glass in hotels and clubs. The debate on this motion was adjourned until today.

Attorney-General Farris introduced a measure to transfer the control of the mothers' pension board to the workmen's compensation board.

A second reading was given to a bill awarding the Government a five per cent. increase in the tax on pari-mutuel receipts and one-third increase in motor fees.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—With less than a week to go before election day it is possible to give a resume of the political situation with some degree of intelligence. It is conceded everywhere, except among extreme Meighen supporters, that the Liberals will have a majority over all parties. The only question is as to how large a majority it will be. There has been no political break anywhere, but there has been a steady movement toward the support of Mackenzie King, who it is agreed has made good during the campaign and will be a Premier who will carry the country over the trying period of the next few years.

Mackenzie King is not the chosen leader of the Liberals, but he is acknowledged everywhere, and especially in Quebec, where he will have able lieutenants in the persons of Sir Lomer Gouin and Ernest Lapointe.

In some districts the Progressives are running strong but all told they have only 143 candidates and many of these are Liberals who are supported by the Liberal organizations of their ridings and who will throw in their lot with the Liberal party.

In some districts the Progressives and Liberals are working in greatest harmony and in others there is keen competition between the rival forces, but the latter condition is usually where the Progressives have chosen former Conservatives as standand bearers. If the farmers elect half their candidates they will be doing well and will be a powerful force to be reckoned with in the next Parliament.

Ontario Broken Up.

Quebec continues its Liberal allegiance unbroken, but several seats will likely go Conservative. Ontario is no longer the solid Tory stronghold it was, for the Progressives have made inroads in that province and a good many constituencies will return Liberals.

A very careful estimate gives the Liberals at least 129 members out of 235 in the House.

This, without counting any of the Progressives, will give King a clear majority over all of 23, but it is very likely the majority will be larger even than that. The following is the forecast by provinces:

- Quebec—56 out of 65.
 - Nova Scotia—15 out of 16.
 - New Brunswick—9 out of 11.
 - Prince Edward Island—4 out of 4.
 - Ontario—25 out of 82.
 - Manitoba—5 out of 15.
 - Saskatchewan—5 out of 16.
 - Alberta—3 out of 12.
 - British Columbia—6 out of 13.
 - Yukon—4 out of 4.
- Albion by parties the forecast gives Liberal, 129; Progressive, 67; and Meighenites 39. Total 235.

DAILY EDITION Wednesday, Nov. 30, 1921

Frantic Efforts to Prove Liberalism.

Frantic efforts are being made by the supporters of Colonel Peck to prove that he is a Liberal and that although he voted with the Meighen Government right up to the last division in Parliament and is today looked on everywhere outside of this constituency as a Meighen supporter, yet he has experienced a change of heart. Like Saul of Tarsus he has seen a great light and is now safely on the path of independence, with Liberalism as his goal. All this in spite of the fact that the Conservatives of the district are behind him and they seem to see him just as do the people outside the constituency. It is only the Liberals who are expected to see his Liberalism. Apparently his Liberalism is very different from that of Fred Stork, else the Liberals of his home city would support him. This they are not doing in spite of allegations to the contrary. Even those who at first were led away with the glamor of a splendid military record have nearly all returned to the side which is going to benefit Northern British Columbia most.

Drop in and See the Type of Men.

Efforts are being made to convey the impression that Fred Stork is in the hands of a small coterie of politicians and that it is by them the campaign is being conducted. Anyone with such ideas should drop into the Stork committee rooms in the Pattullo Block, Second Avenue, any evening between 8 and 9 o'clock and see the type of men who are there. He will at once discover that the men who are behind Stork are the honest workers, who know that they have nothing to gain by voting the Meighen Government back into power. They know that Liberalism stands for democracy and that, while mistakes are made on both sides, the general principles underlying the Liberal cause are those of the welfare of the mass of the people. Meighenism means government by the few for the few. Liberalism means the government for the general welfare.

Patronage Has Gone Says the Independent Liberal.

Colonel Peck says he is an independent and a Liberal and that patronage has gone never to return, or words to that effect. Possibly, however, the Colonel has not thought of noting who have been appointed to official positions to conduct this election. The returning officer is the president of the Conservative Association and all appointees, and there are dozens of them, are faithful adherents to the Conservative cause. Some of them are openly campaigning for the Conservative candidate, for that is what they consider their candidate to be.

The Daily News is not taking any exception to the men who have been appointed to the positions. Most of them are good men and will do their duty fairly and well. What we do object to is to hear so much prating about patronage being abolished in face of the fact that in this election the plums were handed out to the faithful just as in the old days before the abolition of patronage was an accomplished fact. This abolition of patronage is similar to the candidate's independence. It exists in name, but whether the substance is there or not there will be no opportunity to prove, for judging from all reports that come in, there will be such a majority for Stork as will expel all doubt.

Taking Credit for Public Works.

We have to thank Frank Sleet for the reminder that the contract for the ocean dock was not let by the present Government but by the former management of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and that an effort was made by the present management to cancel the contract entered into with Grant, Smith & Magoffin. Everything possible has been done since the Meighen Government came into power to disable this section of the country. No railway management that was not crazy would have allowed the fish business to leave this port for months if not years before making an effort to hold it. So much has been said of the conduct of the railway in connection with that messy business that we hate to repeat it now. It is, however, necessary for the sake of the future to mention these things and to show that while Colonel Peck probably meant all right, he was mistaken in the confidence he reposed in the powers that are. If he should be again elected he is just as likely to throw in his lot with the wrong crowd again. The only way to make sure that we get what we want is for us to send a man to Ottawa who is pledged to a line of policy and whose political life is at stake should he swerve from that line.

JAPAN is certainly to be admired for her bashfulness in stating her demands.

THE wonder is that little Nippon did not ask for the disarmament of all her possible opponents leaving her to build all the war ships she wants.

IT would be easy enough to settle the Irish question immediately if they would all be reasonable. The difficulty is they are all unreasonable.

REASON and patriotism don't mix.

WHAT is wrong with that political agnostic. He seems as if he was nothing but question marks.

THERE might be enough power saved to run the city for a few years if everyone would stop talking politics.

ONE of the things that does not get you anywhere is telling people Peck is going to win. It is about as profitable as saying that Stork is going to win.

STORK DOING GREAT WORK

Campaigning Almost Alone But People Are Receiving Him Well Everywhere.

USK NEARLY ALL LIBERAL

Letter Tells of Meeting at Terrace and Indicates Candidates Is Making Good.

Thomas McClymont returned last night from Terrace after addressing a gathering there Monday night on the issues of the day. Mr. McClymont is apt to be very careful about his statements and lacks that spirit of enthusiasm and imagination which sometimes characterizes those who see wonderful things in an ordinary meeting. He is, however, well pleased with the result of the Terrace gathering. It was the most orderly meeting of its kind ever held there for there was no heckling and undoubtedly it was sympathetic to the Liberal cause.

A letter received from a resident of Terrace in connection with the same meeting says: "We had a good meeting here last night. Both Mr. McClymont and Mr. Stork got a very attentive hearing. Mr. McClymont took up the tariff and dealt with it in fine shape. Mr. Stork dealt chiefly with the railway policies of the Government. It seemed to me what the people wanted to hear and when he finished the audience showed its appreciation in no mean manner."

Good for Stork.
 "We had a dance and supper after the speaking. The attendance was over 150 and they were there early. It looks pretty good for Stork here. He will get an even break anyway and very likely a majority."

"L. H. Kenny acted as chairman of the meeting. He is a returned man. He told them that at first he had intended supporting Peck but since studying the matter and hearing Peck he wasn't satisfied as to his professed independence. He didn't stand for any of the principles of Liberalism and if he was anything he was a supporter of the Government."

Yesterday morning Fred Stork spoke at Pitman, Bob Allen, formerly of this city, in the chair. Going on to Uak a meeting was held at noon with J. D. Wells presiding. There were 10 present and the Daily News representative, who sent in the report, says that out of the 10 there will be at least 30 votes for Stork and possibly 35.

Mr. Stork was at Essington last night and this morning held a meeting at Oland. He should be home some time today.

Mr. Stork is kept very busy visiting the people, and explaining the issues. Most of the time he is travelling alone and he is being well received everywhere. He may be unable to visit every point but if he passes anyone up he is not through lack of effort but because of the physical impossibility of covering the whole of the large district in the time allotted.

PECK COMMITTEE IS CHANGING METHOD OF REACHING THE PUBLIC

Owing to failure of the Peck campaign committee to get proper support from papers supposed to be favoring the independent candidate, a campaign sheet is being issued, prepared by two of the supporters who have some newspaper experience.

The tone of the campaign sheet is a great improvement over the class of campaign material hitherto imposed on the public by the Peck supporters. It deals with the issues and eliminates the gutter language which has been a feature of all elections for years past.

The electorate will welcome an effort to discuss political issues on their merits even if they do not agree with the sentiments expressed and even though they fail to be convinced, even by skilled political writers.

HAD TO BE FAIR.

BAREFOOT BOY BRITISH BARON

Death of Canadian Railway Builder Recalls Wonderful Story of Advancement.

The death of Lord George Stephen, first baron Mount Stephen, news of whose death was received today, was born in 1829 at Forres in Banffshire, Scotland, the son of William Stephen a carpenter. His life story is a romance of early struggles against poverty, of a rapid rise after he came to Canada in 1850 to a commanding position in the business world, of pioneer work in railroad construction which culminated in the connecting of the Atlantic and the Pacific by the Canadian Pacific Railway, of the acquisition of a great fortune, much of which he gave away to relatives, and finally of an old age spent as a peer in a historic home known as Brooker Hall, Hertfordshire, in the Old Country, which had at times been occupied by two prime ministers of England, Lord Melbourne and Lord Palmerston.

Barefoot Boy.

As a boy Stephen played barefooted in the streets of his native village and at an early age was first a shepherd, on the bleak moors nearby, and then a clerk in a draper's store. Coming to Canada he entered the store of an uncle in Montreal, a cloth merchant. He soon distinguished himself for astuteness and business ability and ultimately bought out his uncle.

Steadily enlarging the business and his own status in the community, Stephen invested his savings in Bank of Montreal stock, becoming eventually one of its largest shareholders. He became president of the bank and about this time Stephen came into business relations with Donald Smith, a cousin, afterwards to become Lord Strathcona. Smith interested him in the construction of a railway to the Canadian west, which he knew through his association with it as resident governor of the Hudson's Bay Company.

Joined Forces.

Smith and Stephen joined forces with the late J. J. Hill, the Canadian railway magnate who afterwards built a number of railroads in the United States, and the trio acquired the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad, which had failed and had fallen into the hands of its Dutch bondholders. The line was built through from St. Paul to Winnipeg. The importance of this early venture on the subsequent development of the Canadian west lay in the fact that it made the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway possible, as supplies for the construction gangs operating in the otherwise inaccessible prairie section passed over it. Acknowledgement of his part in the origination and consummation of the C.P.R. scheme came from the shareholders who elected Stephen the first president of the company, and from the King, who on recommendation of the government of Canada, conferred a baronetcy on him in 1886 and a peerage in 1891. He retired from the presidency in 1888 and soon afterwards went to live in England.

Immense Fortune.

Before leaving Canada, Lord Mount Stephen divided up his immense fortune, estimated at $6,000,000, among his relatives in Montreal, retaining enough to support him for the rest of his life.

The deceased married in 1853 Annie Charlotte, daughter of Benjamin Kane of Montreal.

This lady died in 1896. In 1897 Lord Mount Stephen married GJan, daughter of Captain R. G. Tufnell, R.N., of London. The title becomes extinct with the death of Lord Mount Stephen.

One of the monuments that remain to the munificence of Lord Mount Stephen is the Royal Victoria Hospital, of Montreal, to the founding of which he contributed $1,000,000.

POLITICAL POSITION IN MINING CAMPS OF NORTHERN B.C. COAST

Reports received from Anyox and Alice Arm by the local Liberal committee to the effect that everything is looking bright at Anyox. The workers of the community are realizing stronger than ever that Stork is the man who will really represent their views in Parliament.

From Alice Arm comes news that Stork will have a majority although it will probably be a small one. The vote there is small at the present time.

WINNIPEG DANCE HALL PROPRIETORS' MEETING DISCUSSES BUSINESS

WINNIPEG, Nov. 30.—The curfew for closing dance halls in Winnipeg will likely not be tolled before 4 or 4:30 a.m. on week night and midnight Saturday, according to the general trend of opinion of dance hall proprietors, expressed at a conference at the city hall.

There were 43 persons attending the meeting, which was presided over by F. J. C. Cox, representing the Travellers' Hall. The practical results of the meeting include the appointment of a committee of seven to prepare a bylaw restricting closing hours, which will be recommended to the public health committee for approval.

The attitude toward midnight closing was sounded out at the open meeting, and limitation of age was suggested. The dance hall proprietors, with one voice, protested midnight closing, and were backed in their protests by several social service workers at the meeting. The general feeling was that properly conducted dance halls should close Saturday night at midnight, and be allowed to remain open until 4 or 4:30 other week nights, giving all those in attendance an opportunity of getting home before street car service was discontinued.

Control of behavior was discussed, but Arthur Morrison pointed out that the police commission could be trusted to regulate conduct. The age question presented difficulties in the eyes of managers and proprietors, and it was left to the discretion of the sub-committee to make any decision in that regard.

In the Letter Box

FLOORED.
Editor Daily News:
"Floored by the 'tarnal'—One can imagine this the expression of the editor of the Empire on reading Mr. Gollart's letter in your issue of today. Surely if this person has any sense of the fitness of things he will at once apologize to Mr. Gollart for the insults and slanders to which he has subjected him. But it is possible he erred through ignorance and inability to visualize a person doing his duty without boasting of the fact and demanding reward and preferment, also without talking about the smoke of battle in season and out of season. Other days other ideas. Hear Elizabeth's buccaneer:

"I have fought for Queen and Faith, like a valiant man and true.
I have only done my duty as a man is bound to do.
With joyful spirit, I, Sir Richard Grenville die,
And he fell upon their deck and died."

This reward, "Then they looked upon him who had been so faithful and true,
And had holden the power and the glory of Spain so cheap,
That he dared it with one little ship and his English few,
Was he devil or man? He was devil for aught that they knew.
But they sunk his body with honor down into the deep,"
W. K. CLARK.

M. M. STEPHENS REPLIES TO INTERIOR NEWS EDITORIAL.

Editor Daily News:
Your issue of the 26th instant contained a quotation of a lengthy editorial of the Interior News, which you, no doubt, considered quite in keeping with the policies of your own paper in support of the Liberal candidate in the present Dominion campaign. After the somersaulting of the Interior News it would be interesting to know by what kind of pressure it had been whipped back into the Liberal fold.

Since you and the Interior News have been good enough to drag me and other citizens into this fight will you be good enough to give the same prominence to my reply in rebuttal.
Just why Stephens, Tite, Orme or Kirkpatrick should have been drawn into this campaign in which none of us are candidates is not clear. Surely you are not proved that there is not a N.L.C. candidate in the field to give Mr. Stork a chance of election in a three cornered fight which he has not in the present one?

Much has been said about the failure of the N.L.C. to place a candidate in the field, but the members of that party, together with many of the best of the Liberal party thought and still think that there should have been no contest in this campaign and that Col. Peck should have been returned by acclamation. This is why there is no N.L.C. candidate in the field.
Supporters of Colonel.
In naming supporters of Col. Peck, why name only those who are known to be Conservatives? Why not tell the whole truth for the benefit of your readers and with the four Conservatives you mention, couple the names of such well known and prominent Liberals, as supporters of the Colonel, as Major John McGregor, V.C., D.C.M., M.M., D. G. Stewart, his campaign manager, ex-Mayor McCaffery and George W. Nickerson? You might go much further and name many.

Was Troubled With Her Liver for over 4 months

When the liver becomes slow, sluggish and torpid it is not working properly and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in and liver troubles follow, among which are sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, water brash, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, pain under the right shoulder, coated tongue, bad breath, yellow eyes, etc.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

quickly remove the secretions, clear away the effluvia and waste matter by acting directly on the liver, and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood.
Mrs. Alice Nichol, Napawan, Ont., writes:—"I was very badly run down for over four months. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought me home a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two vials and I am a different person today."
I can safely recommend Laxa-Liver pills to anyone troubled with liver trouble.

Price, 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

many more Liberals who are not ashamed to support Col. Peck, but this would not very well fill in with your effort to hold him up as a Conservative candidate and not an Independent one. Such a procedure would perhaps show too great a defection from the Liberal party and give too much information and light on the campaign.

You are quite right when you claim that the Conservatives are solidly behind Col. Peck, but you may go much further and say also that a great many Liberals are so well satisfied with his representation of the riding that they too are not only voting for him but working for him. In fact most of the active campaign committee are Liberals. Nor is his support confined to Conservatives and Liberals alone; Independents and Labor representatives are also with him. "Politics make strange bedfellows" but it takes the qualities of a leader to unite under his name men of such divergent political belief as Stewart, Frizel, Nelson, Major McGregor, Tite, Morrow, Newton, Ross McKay, McCaffery, Orme, Nickerson and Stephens if you like, and the women too. Could this be accomplished by any straight party candidate? If it can let Stork try it. It was the same quality that commanded the admiration of the Canadian Army, overseas, and the undying devotion of the men who served under him.

Women's Rights.

The prominence given your published report that Mrs. Peck is on the committee of Hon. H. H. Stevens is in keeping with the average tactics of the Liberal campaign. Was this given prominence in an effort to prejudice the campaign of the Colonel, or is it the Liberal belief that she should not exercise the franchise given (not by a Liberal Government) to women, or does it follow that because a man may be independent his wife must be also? It is significant that in the published list of names of Mr. Stork's nomination papers not a single woman's name is included. Perhaps it is to capture the women's vote that such haste is exhibited in the Legislature so members can campaign, and that the S.O.S. call is to be answered by the member for Alton, whose chief anxiety for his constituents seems to be, good whiskey, free as water, and plenty of it, and the minister of lands, whose pre-election pledges to abolish patronage and open closed towns have never been redeemed. Let them all come. The Liberal party whip has cracked its own whip and no amount of either persuasion or coercion can save the party candidate from defeat.

M. A. McDonald, advocated on Stork's platform the election of Mr. Stork and a Liberal Government for Canada so that the P.G.E. Ry could be unloaded on the Canadian National Lines and relieve this province of a large burden. What benefit can the people of this riding secure from such a policy? The policy could only lead to an impairment of business for the riding generally and this city in particular, for the people of Vancouver would immediately advocate the diversion of traffic at Prince George to the detriment of this city and riding. Surely the electors will never stand for such work as this? Are the people not wise to these "imported speakers" and their efforts to "milk the North" or are they going to get behind Col. Peck for a separate province north of the 52nd parallel?

Public Works.

A comparison of the public works of the candidates will surely convince any open minded elector of the superiority of the Independent candidate. Mr. Stork was mayor of this City in 1910, and had the assistance of an able council. Some of the results were good, some bad, but all small when compared with the achievements of Col. Peck. Perhaps the News will give Mr. Stork's public achievements during the past ten years for the benefit of its readers.

We have a Liberal Government at Victoria and know what it costs. "Civil servants" salaries have been reduced while the salaries of the Ministers have been raised. Fishermen know that they have had their boats taxed and re-taxed and with little attention in return, while the Government has been trying to shift its responsibilities on the waterfront into the City of Prince Rupert. Liberal policy extends beyond the matter of making promises when out of office in order to gain power, and the party must stand for its actions while in power. Pre-election promises of the Liberal party have never been redeemed and this is not forgotten.

Rival Party.

I think an examination of any of the men you refer to would compare quite favorably with that of the Interior News or its owner, L. B. Warner. The Omicron Herald has the following to say of the Interior News and Mr. Warner: "Warner had no authority to call a convention (Liberal convention) and even though one could have been authorized there was only five days left before the official nomination day. Thus it was utterly impossible to even send out notices for a convention to say nothing of the foolish idea of getting delegates together. There was no such intention. The whole thing was a very transparent ruse—a childish endeavor to get back into the band wagon, and to pave the way to the top he was to make in his issue this week, and was a result of his trip to Victoria."
"The Interior News has shown itself and L. B. Warner in their true colors. Any respect the public might have had for either must now be entirely gone, and they must take their place in the community of opportunists. They are not to be relied upon in any particular and will throw any candidate or principles for self-consideration, or will throw first one and then the other. It is a case of the highest bidder."
"The Interior News did the same thing in the last provincial election. The editor trailed around the district with Mr. Prudhomme and wrote long articles about their trip. Mr. Prudhomme was campaigning and the News led him along in the belief that the News was supporting him to a finish. At the last minute it threw Mr. Prudhomme down with a bang and rushed to the shelter of A. M. Manson, the latter stating that he did not understand the conduct and that he cared less."

This Mr. Editor is the class paper whose editorials you are substituting for your own.
Yours without cover of non de plume, M. M. STEPHENS.

URGE CONCRETE ROAD MATERIAL

Former Public Works Engineer in Government Tells How Roads Being Made.

VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—The convention of the Vancouver Island Automobile clubs took place Monday night at the Dominion Hotel, with President Norman A. Yarrow in the chair.

The feature of the evening was an instructive address by A. E. Foreman, who in a brief address gave the advance of concrete as a road material, both for bed and surface construction. Concrete was almost universal now for hard surfaced roads, stated the speaker. Federal contracts awarded by the United States last year for road work were 78 per cent in favor of concrete.

Change of Character.

The change in the type of road traffic, the disappearance of the horse and the advent of the motor trucks on rubber tires, made concrete the most suitable material to use, Mr. Foreman said. Concrete was slightly more costly to install, but very economical in the end, maintenance being very low and wear slight.

On the other hand concrete road-brought the city to the country rapidly and vice versa, while transportation costs were halved. Maintenance and cost per ton mile for gasoline haulage were cut tremendously, while the asset as a tourist attraction could not be overlooked, held the speaker, who quoted statistics which ably supported his contention. Water bound macadam and layer bituminous roads were disappearing gradually and concrete would in the end fill every space in road construction.

Washington's Example.

Further concrete could be made non-skid, and would so obviate one great cause of motor accidents today, Mr. Foreman said. The state of Washington last year laid twelve yards of concrete for every yard of other road material, it was stated, while in Canada the amount of concrete road work had been easily doubled. The last and perhaps the greatest factor to the business man, was that the roads in concrete were accessible twelve months in the year.

"Concrete roads are an attraction to the tourist," stated the speaker in closing. "Our scenery is our greatest natural resource that I know, and the more we sell it the more valuable it becomes, and yet we have it with us always. I am satisfied if the Island automobile clubs work together and join with the mainland clubs they will eventually get as good a road service as exists in California today."

Mr. Foreman was heartily thanked for his able address.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.
