TREMENDOUS RAINS IN SOUTHERN ALBERTA ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR REDEMPTION OF GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC STOCK

Cloudbursts and Heavy Rains in Alberta are Heaviest in Six Years

Flood of Waters Washes out Roads and Gouges Ditches Fifteen Feet Deep: Arrowwood Cloudburst Five Inches in 40 Minutes

GALGARY, Sept. 2.—With every river in the province rising to a greater degree than has yet been seen this year, even during the spring high water, and reports of cloudbursts from the south, almost the entire province south of Edmonton witnessed during the past 36 hours more rain than the country has experienced in the past six years. Three inches was the record of the Calgary meteorological station at midnight.

In the Arrowwood district there was a cloudburst yesterday with total precipitation of five inches in less than forty minutes. The main irrigation ditch between Carlsland and Arrowwood raised four feet in a short time, the flood waters washing out the roads and gouging out ditches fifteen feet deep in some high-ways. This morning it is still drizzling.

LADY WOULD ABOLISH WAX WORKS HOUSE

Woman Liberal Candidate in Toronto Considers Old Age Pensions Supreme

TORONTO, Sept. 2.—Miss Kathleen Bennett, nominated as Liberal candidate in Toronto East, is an active worker in the congregation of the Holy Name Church, Danforth Avenue, and well known as a social service worker in the eastern section of the city for the past seven years.

From a woman's standpoint, Miss Bennett said in a speech, the old-age pensions scheme was of supreme importance. The wax-works chamber, commonly called the Senate, with its Tory majority, voted out old-age pensions, she averred. As regards the constitutional issue, there would be no soft-pedalling on it in Toronto East, as had been suggested by one of the Toronto newspapers, she said. Regarding the abolition of the Senate the men had said they could not get around it. Miss Bennett observed, but Miss Macphail had said, "Get rid of them." "And I am with Agnes," Miss Bennett concluded with a smile.

OONA RIVER MUCH DISAPPOINTED AT NOT GETTING POLL

An Oona River delegation was in Prince Rupert this week to see the returning officer, John Flew-in, in regard to establishing a polling station in their community. They claimed they are entitled to a poll but were refused. They say it was because they nearly all voted for Fred Stork at the last election that they were refused.

Oona River is six miles from the nearest polling station at Lewis Island where they claim there are very few residents, but they happen to be mostly Conservatives.

The records show that last year 24 voted at Oona River, 15 for Stork, 2 for Bushby and 7 for Nickerson.

Mr. Gifford said the white sparrow is quite tame and came to the vicinity about three weeks ago and continues to remain there.

DOLLAR IS UP ON ELECTION RESULT

The first definite bet reported on the result of the elections has just been taken by a prominent member of the Conservative committee backing J. C. Brady. A local citizen offered to bet that Premier Meighen would not get any more Conservative supporters than he did last year and the bet was taken, one dollar being the penalty. So far as can be ascertained no Conservative has said the temerity to back the local candidate with a wager.

Settlement Reached With Grand Trunk Pacific Debenture Holders by C.N.R.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The terms of settlement reached between the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture holders of the Canadian National Railways were announced here today. They provide that the latter company shall create an issue of debenture stock carrying interest as from July 1, 1926, at the rate of two per cent per annum payable semi-annually, the first payment to be on January 1, 1927, or as soon as possible after the scheme becomes operative, whichever shall be the latter date. The railway shall before July 1, 1927, and before July 1 of each succeeding year set aside a sinking fund for the redemption of the stock equal to two per cent upon the total amount of stock that shall have been issued, whether still outstanding or not, plus a sum equal to the interest that would have been payable and stock previously redeemed out of the sinking fund, had such stock not been redeemed.

Thornton Pleased

MONTREAL, Sept. 2.—Commenting on the settlement of the G. T. P. debenture dispute in London, Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, states: "Apart from its legal aspects, the situation which existed was one opposed, in my opinion, to the best interests of the Dominion and, moreover, there might be involved even a broader Imperial consideration. I feel that not only the railway, but the Empire will be well served by the amicable settlement that has been reached."

FORMER RUPERT MAN IS OFFERED POSITION

(Victoria Colonist)
L. Bullock-Webster a few days ago received a cable from Matheson Lang, who is in England, offering him a position in the latter's company, which is about to tour Canada, starting in Montreal on September 8. Owing to the work of the B.C. Dramatic School and the opening of the dramatic season, both here and in Vancouver, Mr. Bullock-Webster was unable to accept this offer. The B.C. Dramatic School, which has been undergoing structural alterations during the summer, has added an eighteen-foot stage to the already spacious studio. Lawrence Housham, who is interested in the progress of the school, has sent one of his new plays for use by the students.

DAILY EDITION Thursday, Sept. 2, 1926.

Many Local Residents. Were Hard Hit.

Prince Rupert people who were born in the United States, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, France, Belgium, Italy, Greece and a dozen other countries would not be allowed to vote if some of the Conservatives had their way.

Some Conservatives here object to being tied up to a policy of that kind but it must be remembered that when George Wright made his address at Lennox in which he said he would restrict the ballot to those born in Canada or the British Isles, Premier Meighen and three other ministers were on the platform with him and they took no exception whatever to it as good Conservative policy.

The difficulty with Mr. Meighen is that he has one story for the east and another for the west. He changes his tune according to the province or district he visits.

Many of Prince Rupert's most prominent citizens were foreign born. A large number of the best workers in the city were not born in Canada or the British Isles. They came here in good faith believing that they would get British treatment and then they are threatened with the loss of their badge of citizenship. What are they to think? As they remark, it is impossible for them to vote for a party that agrees to such a policy or that even hints at it. Some of them were disfranchised once before but they will support no party that will do it again.

Good Omen for The Election.

Yesterday Conservatives were jolted by many Liberals at one of their candidates being stuck up by the mud Meighen was slinging from the hustings so that he was unable to get to the nomination place in Provencher. The election of a Liberal-Progressive there is a good omen for the whole election. It was the first blood for Mackenzie King.

As a matter of fact it does not pay to throw mud. The person who does it is bound to be contaminated himself. Some people would very likely say that the loss of the chance to fight the election through the intervention of the Manitoba mud was a judgment of Providence. At any rate the Liberals are off to a good start and they are expecting to win, which is more than the Conservatives can honestly say for their chances.

Important Event in Life of Community.

An election is an important event in the life of any community. It means a great deal for it sets forth in a general way the policy which our government is to pursue. If we return a Conservative government we indicate that we favor autocracy as against democracy, the interests of the classes as against the masses. We show that we want protection so that the rich may become richer and the poor poorer. We indicate that we are not in favor of social legislation such as old age pensions and that we do not want the Senate reformed.

On the other hand, if we support the Liberal candidate we indicate very clearly that we want a Liberal policy under which every man has an equal chance. We are opposed to autocracy in any form, especially such as was shown in the action of the Governor recently. We believe in giving all the rights of citizenship to all except Orientals, criminals, lunatics and children. We want our old people to be cared for by the state and our young people to grow up real Canadians with Canadian idea of nationality.

Efforts are made by politicians to hide these important policies under a smoke-screen of words, but they cannot be hidden from the intelligent. It is only the ignorant and those who are easily influenced by others who allow themselves to be led away by the wiles of the common enemy. Remember this, that in the final analysis Liberalism means liberty, whereas Conservatism means bonds.

Do Not Always Live Up to Their Principles.

It must be admitted that Liberals do not always live up to Liberal principles and that Conservatives adopt Liberal policies because they are forced to do so. When Liberals stray from Liberal principles they lose ground. Happily in Mackenzie King the country has a leader imbued with these principles who will carry the country along the paths of Liberalism as rapidly as it is possible to go. One by one the old barriers are broken down and new and better policies evolved as is shown in the Old Age Pensions policy which was recently initiated and which the Conservatives fear so much that they have partially adopted it.

Those who wish to see democracy triumphant cannot do other than vote for the Liberal candidate. Those who wish to see a retrograde movement set in, should support the Conservative. Each is pledged to support his party and the party is the thing that counts just now.

SECRET BALLOT ELECTION DAY

Regulations Are Intended to Make Sure That no Person Knows How Others Vote

OTTAWA, Sept. 2. — Exceedingly strict laws protect the secrecy of the ballots to be cast on September 14 in the 16th Canadian general election. No man or woman is required or allowed to divulge the name of the candidate for whom he or she has voted.

At this time, while the campaign is reaching its height, and voters are preparing to march en masse to the polls to elect a new parliament, a resume of the regulations of the Dominion Elections Act is timely. The Act governs all federal contests and amply provides for the guarding of the citizen's right to the secret ballot.

No Information

The Act requires every candidate, officer, clerk, agent or other person in attendance at a polling station or at the counting of the votes to aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting; and no candidate, officer, clerk or other agent shall:

(a) Before the poll is closed communicate to any person any information as to whether any person on the list of voters has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at that polling station; or

(b) At the polling station interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking his ballot paper, or otherwise attempt to obtain information as to the candidate for whom any voter is about to vote or has voted; or

(c) At the counting of the votes attempt to ascertain the number on the back of any ballot paper; or

(d) At any time communicate (except to a court or judge lawfully requiring him to do so) any information as to the number on the back of the ballot paper given to any voter at a polling station; or

(e) At any time or place, directly or indirectly induce or endeavor to induce any voter to show his ballot paper after he has marked it, so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom he has so marked his vote; or

(f) At any time communicate to any person any information obtained at a polling station as to the candidate for whom any voter at such polling station is about to vote or has voted; or

(g) At such counting attempt to obtain any information or communicate any information obtained at such counting as to the candidate for whom any voter is given in any particular ballot paper.

Clause two of the section states that "any person who violates any provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act punishable by summary convictions as in this Act provided."

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

September 2, 1916.

The first vessel to cross the Pacific Ocean from Japan to Prince Rupert was the brigantine Hokuto Maru, Capt. Samuil, which arrived here this evening. The vessel, which was met off Digby Island by J. H. McLeod, collector of customs, and K. Ota of Jedway, brought a cargo of salt here and will go to Jedway to load a return cargo of salted dog salmon.

Two weddings were solemnized in the city today. Miss Anna Orweg was married at 3 o'clock this afternoon to Leonard Reith and this evening at six o'clock Miss Margaret Sherman became the bride of W. B. Cornish. Canon Rix officiated at the former wedding which was in St. Andrew's Church and Rev. J. P. Dimmick was the pastor at the Cornish-Sherman nuptials which were performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherman.

URGES REFORM PRISON WORK

Lady Visitor to Province Lectures on Treatment of Offenders Against Laws

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Would Have Women Magistrates Working in Conjunction With Men

"Penal reform is something more than mere betterment of prison conditions. It embraces the whole scientific attitude towards the prevention of crime and takes into account the causes which breed criminals, with a view to removing or remedying those causes. One of the most important phases of prison reform is that directed against the manufacturing of hardened criminals out of first offenders, and to this end we in England are fighting against the sending of young people to prison for their first offence."

This is one of the interesting views propounded by Miss Margery Fry, honorary secretary of the Howard League of Great Britain, who is visiting Vancouver Island.

Daughter of Judge

As a daughter of the late Rt. Hon. Sir Edward Fry, a former Lord Justice of Appeal, Miss Fry has long been interested in the penal system of Great Britain, and its ramifications. Her observations led to her association with the Howard League, formerly known as the Penal Reform League of Britain, of which Lord Henry Bentinck is the president. This league has for years been carrying on a quiet but effective work in educating public opinion to a broader view on the whole matter of penal reform and preventive criminology.

Its program is a broad one, embracing many measures which are particularly interesting in Canada because parallel measures have been advocated here from time to time by women organizations.

Safeguard Young

Its greatest aim is to prevent the manufacture of criminals. To this end it has waged a long fight against the committal of first offenders, particularly the young people to prisons, where in spite of segregation and watchful care, they came in contact with hardened and degraded criminals who all too frequently help them further down the road of wrong-doing.

The first stage of this fight was won with the establishment in London of a prison for male first offenders, following the passing of a bill which the league was instrumental in promulgating. This prison has been established about eleven months and of the 800 or 900 men who have passed through its walls in that time only four were reconvicted, an amazingly small percentage when compared to the reconvictions against first offenders after a term in the ordinary prisons.

Work and Education

In these prisons for first offenders, the system followed includes a course of hard work for eight hours daily, followed in the evening by classes for those who care to take them. At a prison of this kind at Peterhead, Scotland, these classes are taken by prisoners, and all the men are on parole to keep order among themselves during these recreational hours. Debating classes are held, and lectures of various kinds are arranged, the prisoners taking eager advantage of the educational opportunities thus offered.

Abolish Death Penalty

Other measures of reform on the program of the League include medical inspection of all criminals, the establishment of homes for borderline cases, the abolition of capital punishment, increase of the probation system, and the consideration by the League of Nations of an international standard in the treatment of criminals.

On the subject of the abolition of capital punishment, Miss Fry had some interesting views. She deplores the effect on the public mind of the trial of a man for his life, and is of the opinion that the death sentence, instead of acting as a deterrent to others, frequently has the effect of driving borderline cases to imitation of the crime for which the penalty was imposed.

Miss Fry refutes the suggestion often advanced to the effect that the abolition of capital punishment would lead to an increase in crime, by pointing to Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, where the abolition of the death penalty has been followed by a distinct lessening in the number of murders.

Women Magistrates

Miss Fry is also a strong advocate of women magistrates, but only in co-operation with men magistrates. She is of the opinion that the view of both men and women is essential, particularly in cases dealing with offences against children.

The Howard League includes in its program a measure asking for the appointment of two women magistrates, without pay, to every children's court in London. To insure that the most capable type of women fill these posts in England, the League has been conducting summer courses for women magistrates, where lectures on suitable subjects are given, and where the women have an opportunity of discussing those problems which arise from time to time in the courts with which they are associated.

says:

What I like about the phonograph is that it does not broadcast political speeches.

If all the speeches in the present campaign were placed end to end there would be enough talk to last until the next election.

Jake says women can talk a lot but these politicians beat them all to fritters.

Thank heaven for the girls of today. They do dress sensibly anyway, even if they do not always talk that way.

Things are not quite the same Jake Brady became a party politician.

It's a god job there was rain on the prairies else the farmers would not have had time to talk politics.

I bet you Brady never knew just exactly what sort of a chap he was until he got out on the political stump and began to tell people how to run the country.

Don't swim out into the middle of the lake unless you have at least ten thousand dollars insurance.

It's as difficult for a motorist to keep the carbon out of his engine as for a Conservative orator to keep the dirt out of his speech. Both seem to come natural.

I'd like to bet on the election results but I can't get a dollar—no, not even a dime.

If the Liberals can't win any election money this time, how are they going to live until the next contest comes on?

Here's a dollar I want to bet I would put it on Stork but yet, I hate to take cash. From those who are rash, but what else am I going to get?

When The Babies Are Cutting Teeth THE MOTHER SHOULD USE

During baby's teething time, the bowels become loose and diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps, etc., manifest themselves; the gums become swollen, and cankers form in the mouth. This is the time when the mother should use "Dr. Fowler's," and, perhaps, save the baby's life.

MONTREAL IMPORTERS CAN COMPETE WITH MAIL ORDER HOUSES

Local Partnership Dissolved and J. B. Miller is Carrying On Business Here.

The partnership hitherto existing in the business of the Montreal Importers on Third Avenue between J. B. Miller and A. J. Richmond having been dissolved, J. B. Miller is now the sole owner of this newly established business.

When looking over this city a couple of months ago as a possible place to locate, one thing Mr. Miller noticed was the large volume of business being done with the mail order houses in the east. And that fact alone decided him to locate in Prince Rupert, as his business connections in the east are such that he can compete successfully. Buying his goods direct from the manufacturer in Montreal, he is able to sell as cheap as the mail order houses.

To see the goods before purchasing is a great advantage to the buyer besides the saving of the trouble and cost of sending money out of town. The Montreal Importers can equal the price of any mail order house in the Dominion and on that ground alone appeal for the support of the Prince Rupert People. Why send away for what you can buy at home at the same price? Buy at home and help your own town! Everything in the line of gentlemen's furnishings is right here in Prince Rupert in the Montreal Importers' store for sale at prices as low as can be got in the whole of Canada today.

You are invited to look around the store, inspect the stock and compare the prices for yourself. And be convinced! Drop in when passing—you will be welcome.—Advt.

LOVERS' LANES NEAR LONDON

Motor Traffic Banned in Order Not to Interfere With Maids and Men.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Whiteley Lane and Elic Lane, a few miles outside of Sheffield, have been consecrated to Eros, the God of Love, by the Wortley District Council. The council has decided to close these two lanes to wheeled traffic, and to turn them over to courting couples. The lanes are so narrow, and so favored by maids and their swains, that motor traffic in the opinion of the council is dangerous. So the finger posts at the cross-roads will soon point "To Arcadia (Passengers Only)."

There are about two miles of "lovers' lanes." It appears to be held here that if a man is single he dare not go up there at all, says a correspondent of the Daily News. But the council's ban on non-lovers is not yet in operation, and my driver and I slipped into Arcadia at the last minute, as it were, without breaking Cupid's bylaws.

We simply followed the maids and men. It was just after tea, and Whiteley Lane was already calling: We passed two rose-covered cottages, and entered a narrow road bordered with high hedges.

"This," said the driver in a hushed voice (he was a young man with curly hair, blue eyes, "is lovers' lane." He drove slowly past low walls, built of pile lichen rock with green moss in the crevices. There was the intoxicating perfume of new-mown hay, fields of red and gold where the poppies mingled with the corn.

Here and there on the well-torn rock sat the maids and the men.

Kissing Gate

There is an old rustic bridge where Whiteley Lane joins Elic Lane. A brook rippled and sang underneath, and birds were singing to the sinking sun. In Elic Lane a "kissing" gate ushers you into a hilly hayfield, and the lane itself is bordered with wild ferns and foxglove.

There are old moss-covered gates on which are carved initials. There is no doubt that these lanes are well and truly "Lovers' Lanes." There were dozens of couples exploring the delightful solitudes last evening.

"I agree with Lady Mabel Smith and other members of the Wortley Council," said my driver, "that motor headlights would be barbaric in Lovers' Lane."

COASTER IN BAD SHAPE

Examination Shows That Vessel Sustained Much Damage in Hitting Pine Island.

Examination of the vessel yesterday showed that a big repair job would be necessary on the C. G. M. M. freighter Canadian Coaster, which ran on Pine Island, Queen Charlotte Sound, at the first of the week. Plates and framework in the forepeak are shattered and there is a big hole below the waterline. The vessel was leaking badly and the forward compartments were full of water. Word is being awaited from Vancouver as to what will be done with the vessel now that the survey of the damage has been made.

IN THE LETTER BOX

CONSERVATIVE CRITICISM.

Editor, Daily News:

A little criticism of your editorial of Wednesday might not be amiss at the present time, and in fairness the attention of the public should be drawn to the following, which you omitted to mention.

Old Age Pensions—You omit to state that the bill passed in the last session of the Commons called upon the provinces to contribute fifty per cent of the pensions and that the provinces did not give their consent to provide such, and in fact the province of British Columbia through the Attorney-General declined to have anything to do with it, and said that Old Age Pensions was purely a matter for the Federal Parliament.

The Budget

Robb Budget—Where is the estimated saving to the people of Canada through this Budget? It is necessary for the government of the country to raise so much money to carry on the business of the country and only by economy in the administration of that business can the money of the people be saved. You state that in the four months ending 31st of July, 1926, the receipts from customs, excise tax, etc., is roughly seven and a half million dollars more than in the corresponding period last year. Assuming that this average keeps up then the people of Canada will have paid into the public treasury thirty millions of dollars more for the year ending 31st of March, 1927, than for the year ending the 31st of March, 1926. This money comes out of the pockets of the people and your mythical saving of $3.00 per head of the population is the other way reversed, that is, that every man, woman and child will have contributed $3.00 per head more than in the previous year.

While the public expect you to use all propaganda you can for the benefit of your party, they are entitled to expect from a reputable newspaper that the editor will confine himself to facts and not publish half truths about matters which are very vital to their interests.

D. C. STUART.

(Premier John Oliver has announced from the public platform that the province of British Columbia would have adopted the Old Age Pension offer.—Editor.)

CONDITION OF RUSSIA SHOWN BY TRADE WITH THE OTHER COUNTRIES

Krupps Have Model Farms in That Country Where They Exhibit Use of Tractors

The necessity for export markets has caused Germany to seek closer trade relationships with Russia says the Royal Bank report. Russian foreign trade is an increasingly important element in international commerce. In the last two years Germany has exported $100,000,000 worth of goods to Russia. In order to encourage this trade, the German government is financing these exports with sufficient credits so that agricultural implements, for instance, may be paid for from the proceeds of two harvests. In order to secure this market, Krupps has established four model farms in Russia where their machinery may be demonstrated to the peasants of the surrounding territory. As the Russian is not familiar with modern methods in agriculture, lumbering or mining, the process of introducing modern machinery is one which will require education and patience. Before the war there were less than 500 tractors in all Russia—12,500 were used in connection with the last harvest.

Country is Producing

While it is undoubtedly somewhat difficult to form any accurate estimate of industrial and economic conditions, yet figures from Russian sources, indicate that production in some lines is now approaching pre-war proportions. Forty per cent more oil was exported from Russia in their fiscal year of 1924-25 than in 1913, but iron and gold production was only about 50 per cent as great. Textile production has tripled in the past two years and is now on practically a pre-war basis. The pulp and paper industry is now producing about 95 per cent of its 1913 volume. But primarily, Russia is an agricultural country and the progress made in this field is more important than in other activities. In 1925, 225,000,000 acres were sown as compared with 245,500,000 acres in 1913.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stampage.

HOMESTEAD LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 40 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travelers, up to ten head.
