HAZEN OUTLINES NEW IMPORTANT FISHERY LAWS

FINE NEW DRILL HALL AND PARADE GROUNDS IN SIGHT

COUNCIL AGREES TO GRANT EARL GREY'S RIFLES A SITE—DEPARTMENT OF MILITIA AT OTTAWA WILL SPEND $75,000 ON LAYOUT IN RUPERT.

Mr. George Tite headed a deputation to the City Council last night, the object of the deputation being to petition the Council for a site for a drill hall. The Council has promised a site, to be selected later.

Captain F. Stork was a member of the deputation and was asked by Mr. Tite to give expression to the wish of those interested. He pointed out that the department at Ottawa was ready to erect a drill hall and lay out parade grounds, but considered that it is up to the city to provide the real estate. The Department would be ready to spend upwards of $75,000 on building.

Captain Stork thought that the example of Vancouver might be followed and the parade ground and proposed recreation park combined. The site for the drill hall might be on the freehold property granted the city.

Captain Partington added the argument that the drill hall and gymnasium should be a good rendezvous for the young men of the city.

Mr. J. H. Hilditch contributed his share to the deputation's work, mentioning that the G. T. P. bill transferring the lands to the city had now been ratified and that there was nothing in the way of the grant.

Two hundred square feet is the least area asked for by the deputation. It was thought that part

HOSPITAL BOARD SEEKS SUPPORT FROM THE CITY

GRANT OF $10,000 REQUESTED—MAYOR ADVISES COUNCIL, WHICH LARGELY FAVORS GRANT, TO GO WARILY—CONSIDERATION DEFERRED FOR THE TIME BEING.

First business before the City Council last night was the reception of a delegation consisting of the whole Hospital Board headed by the chairman, D. G. Stewart, and requesting from the city a contribution of $10,000 toward the proposed new hospital wing, the sum to be raised by special rate if necessary. The deputation desired this grant in order that they might be able to approach the Government through Mr. Manson for an equivalent sum.

As pointed out by Mr. D. G. Stewart, if the board were assured of this grant they could instruct the architects to proceed with the drafting of plans for a $20,000 building.

While Aldermen Montgomery and Maitland expressed themselves wholeheartedly in support of this grant, Alderman Morrissey, though also in support, pointed out that the time might be drawing nearer than they thought when the city should own the hospital. Mr. Stewart remarked that the board would be only too willing to hand the buildings over to the city, but by so doing they would relinquish for the institution the useful per capita grant from the Government.

Ald. Bullock-Webster asked if the president could say whether or not a site for the proposed isolation hospital could be got on

THE MAYOR'S LITTLE MYSTERY

Questioned by Ald. Montgomery Regarding Finances, Mayor Newton is Darkly Re-Assuring About a Certain Document

MONTGOMERY'S CHARGE OF INDIVIDUALISM

"I Am the Last Man at This Board to be an Individualist" Says the Mayor—"Then Act up to Your Principles" Retorts Montgomery—Finance Minister Leaves it to the Mayor (Cheers)

As noted in yesterday's News, the Mayor has desired to explain himself in reference to statements he made at the hospital board meeting of Friday to the effect that the city cannot wisely contribute $10,000 this year to the hospital funds owing to the state of the finances in relation to the work to be done. The Mayor mentioned that he had knowledge of a private nature affecting the finances which bore out his argument. Last night during the visit of the hospital deputation to the Council Board the Mayor took advantage of an opportunity to explain himself more fully.

To the deputation the Mayor said: "I do not think the Council would be wise in giving an absolute pledge tonight, in case they have to recede from it. Financially the Council is absolutely unsettled as yet. I think that for the Council to attempt to decide this matter tonight would be taking it absolutely too lightly."

Alderman Montgomery asked the Mayor if he would enlighten the rest of the Council on this financial matter. The Mayor went on to say that there was no cause for alarm, but the Council would be well advised to proceed cautiously.

Alderman Montgomery: "Mr. Mayor, have you taken your finance committee into your confidence on this?"

The Mayor: "No, not at present."

Alderman Montgomery: "Mr. Mayor, I am not a believer in individualism. I think that your committee can be trusted, and you should take its members into your confidence."

Alderman Douglas: "As we are not in your confidence, Mr. Mayor, we must leave this matter to you." (Cheers.)

The Mayor: "The time is not ripe for giving this out yet, but I may mention that I have been shown a document affecting the financial situation of the city which makes the course I advocate advisable. I am the last man at this board or in this city to believe in individualism."

Alderman Montgomery: "Then why not apply your principle, Mr. Mayor? Either that or else do not give out this thing in a mysterious manner, which, if it is nothing to be alarmed about, only magnifies it in the eyes of the public. Better not mention it at all than that."

There the matter was allowed to rest, the Mayor advising that the hospital grant be left over to a special meeting.

A FREE PHONE FOR THE ARMY

Mayor Newton by His Casting Vote Decides on Rejection of a Report from the Finance Committee Cancelling the Favor.

From the Finance committee at last night's Council meeting came a report to the effect that owing to the regulations the city could not see its way clear to allow the Salvation Army citadel a free phone.

To this Alderman Clayton took strong objection. "If that is the best the Finance committee can do," he said, "then I think it should be a lesson to them not to butt in on business which does not belong to their department. This matter is one for the Phone committee," he said. "The Salvation Army of all institutions deserves a phone," he added. "They are called up at all times to relieve cases of illness, destitution, etc., which would otherwise fall upon the city officials."

Alderman Morrissey concurred. Alderman Montgomery was against establishing a precedent contrary to the Phone bylaw passed by last Council which provides free phones only for city officials.

In an undoubted need of them for public service. This was the contention of the members of the Finance committee.

Alderman Morrissey's motion to reject the report and give the Salvation Army a free phone resulted in a tie vote, whereupon Mayor Newton gave his casting vote for the Army. (Cheers.)

OF VITAL INTEREST TO COAST FISHERMEN

Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Outlines Radical New Measures Affecting All Fishing on Pacific Coast ---To Abolish Hardships on Salmon Fishers

Ottawa, Feb. 6.—Upon H. S. Clements, member for Comox-Atlin, moving for the production of papers and correspondence in relation to the patrol and fisheries protection service on the Pacific coast, in the House today, there followed loud complaint by Stevens of Vancouver, Shepard of Nanaimo and Barnard of Victoria regarding the manner in which the Americans are poaching on Canadian fishing grounds.

This brought forth an important statement from Minister of Marine and Fisheries to the effect that the Government is taking steps to meet the situation. These are that the obsolete protection boats Kestrel and Restless are to be sold. Three new vessels are to be procured, two for protection and one for patrol service. Appropriations of $275,000 for the latter in estimates may be ready this year.

One of the protection vessels is to be purchased. The other

"SMART MAN; LIVE WIRE!"

Finance Minister Douglas Tells Alderman Morrissey What He Thinks of Him at Last Night's Council Meeting.

"You're a smart man. Why didn't you enquire about it when you came back from the east? Oh, yes, you're smart! You're a live wire!" said Alderman Douglas hotly last night to Alderman Morrissey, who had been suggesting that certain lots were cleared last year and the rock carried off at city expense because the owner of the lots was a friend of a member of the Board of Works.

"I was no friend of the lot owner's," declared the Finance Minister indignantly. "Alderman Morrissey was back east. He doesn't know the particulars, but he makes a statement that reflects on all last year's Board of Works." And then forgetting to address the chair in his excitement; Alderman Douglas gave vent to the other remarks quoted amidst the delighted laughter of the crowd.

"IRON PIRATE" A REAL MENACE

Reliable News Reaches British Admiralty That Germany Has Got a New Engine for Battleships to Outdo Britain's Best.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
London, Feb. 6.—Today the British Admiralty received word from a reliable source that a new type of internal combustion engine has been brought well toward completion by the German navy experts. The new engine is calculated to give Germany an immense advantage in its race for supremacy over the British and other navies of the world. Details of the engine have been kept secret, but it is learned that the success of the engine, if assured, will make the newest Dreadnoughts obsolete. It looks as if the tremendous efficiency of Max Pemberton's oil engine "iron pirate" were to be realized as a German menace to Great Britain on the seas.

TIME CLOCK FOR CITY HALL

Staff Will All Mark Time in Future—No Spying.

After considerable discussion in Council last night over a scheme proposed by Chairman Douglas and the Finance committee to regulate the hours of city hall employees, the Council decided to cut the matter short by installing a time clock at the city hall. The first proposals involved the infliction upon Mr. W. D. Vance of the unpleasant task of keeping tab on the comings and going of the other employees, and this several members of the Council, notably Alderman Morrissey and Alderman Clayton, disapproved.

POLITICAL CONFLICT IN COUNTY ULSTER.

Our telegraphic despatches for several days forecast a strenuous time in the city of Belfast on Thursday, when Winston Churchill goes there to speak in favor of Home Rule. Local Irishmen are unable to understand why there should be any opposition in Ireland to the inauguration of the principle for which Ireland has agitated and suffered so long, and even to the close observer of the trend of international events there is something puzzling in the situation. Generally the discussion of the matter is dismissed with the statement that Ulster, of which Belfast is the county seat, is wholly Protestant and in that regard directly opposed to whatever is suggested in the best interests of Ireland as a nation.

The northern province of Ulster embraces thirty-three constituencies. Of these sixteen return Unionist representatives, while seventeen are held by Nationalists. Half of these were returned unopposed, so no correct comparison of the relative strength of the parties on the register can be made. In three contested divisions of the city of Belfast, out of a total registered vote of 31,342 the Unionists polled 16,111. In two contested divisions of Antrim, another stronghold of Unionism, the successful Unionist candidates polled only 8,829 electors out of an aggregate registered vote of 17,416. Ulster, therefore, is about evenly divided on the issue of home rule.

To this may be added the fact that at the meeting Thursday evening at which Winston Churchill is to speak on Home Rule for Ireland, the chairman of the meeting is to be Lord Pirrie, head of the world famous ship building firm of Harland & Wolff. Lord Pirrie has guaranteed fifty thousand dollars to fight home rule, and today is a confirmed Nationalist.

Nor is Ulster as some allege overwhelmingly Protestant, although political divisions follow very closely the lines of religious cleavage. The active political labor vote, mainly Protestant, is anti-Unionist; while Antrim, Down and Armagh are the Protestant and Unionist strongholds. Outside these the Roman Catholics are a majority. Omitting the city of Belfast, where Roman Catholics number nearly one-third of the population, the figures for Ulster, according to the census of 1901, are: Roman Catholics, 699,202; Protestants, 627,674, showing a majority for the former of 71,528.

On its political side Unionism rests on the untenable assumption that under no circumstances must Ireland be governed in accordance with Irish ideas; that Ireland, in relation to her purely local affairs, must be satisfied to remain a permanent minority in the Imperial Parliament. On its religious side the charge of bigotry and intolerance against the Irish majority is not established by the facts. Monaghan county, for instance, which is Nationalist, has thirty-four Catholic officials and twenty-three Protestants. Antrim county, which is predominantly Unionist, allots only five positions to the Roman Catholics, while sixty go to the Protestants. In the city of Belfast less than a dozen Catholics fill salaried positions under the council, against 437 Protestants. Out of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars paid in salaries, the small sum of four thousand dollars goes to Roman Catholics.

Therefore, as will be seen, Protestants have no reason to complain of the treatment meted out to them. Throughout the south and west of Ireland the prosperous merchants and shopkeepers are in the main Protestant, evidencing the entire absence of bigotry among the Roman Catholic population in the everyday affairs of life. Therefore, why should a bloody conflict on Thursday be so confidently predicted by our cable correspondents?

ABE ATTEL ON THE ART OF BOXING TO WIN BOUTS

FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMPION ADVISES PUGILISTIC ASPIRANTS FIRST AND FOREMOST TO KEEP THEIR TEMPERS AND GIVES POINTERS ON THE USE OF THE MITTS.

Get control of your temper. This is my first advice to the boys who want to learn to box, whether for fun, exercise or in a match. I have seen many promising boxers ruined by losing their temper, swinging wildly and giving an opponent an opening for a punch that stretched them on the floor. Position is important. Stand with the left foot from eight to twenty inches in front of the right, according to the length of the legs. This gives a chance for quick foot work. Don't stretch the legs too much or balance will be lost. The left arm should be extended so the glove reaches on the point of the opponent's jaw. Cover your ribs and stomach with right hand and arm. The left is your great asset, as it is used constantly for short jabs and blocking. The left is used to wear down the other fellow, while the right is for heavy punches.

Many boxers don't seem to know how to double their fists and broken thumbs or battered hands are the penalty. The fist, closed properly, is a splendid weapon. The fingers must fit snugly into the palm, with the thumb over the middle joint of the index finger. Never place the thumb on top of the fist. Another thing you must learn early is to judge distances. Many boxers, in the game for years, have never learned the art, and their blows often miss. When a punch is started be sure the opponent is in range and it will land. A wild swing throws you off balance and a fast opponent will land a stiff punch. Some boxers are known as "knockout" men. They hit to put a man in dreamland. I don't. I can't bring myself to the point of wanting to knock a man senseless. I try to wear down my opponents with a rain of punches, preferring to win on points. The greatest fault with beginners is that they try to land knockouts and in doing so do much to spoil their future. Don't try to knock out an opponent. Use your head as much as your hands. Be cautious. Acquire generalship. Take it easy at first. Watch every move the other fellow makes. Be alert for openings. Never be "uncovered". Different boxers employ different methods. Some take ten punches to land one. They lay back waiting to shoot over a "haymaker." I don't. I never let a man hit me when I can prevent it. I hit every time there is an opening, whether the blow is glancing or smashing. Every punch I land counts so much for me.

HARRY THAW SEEKS TO BE SET AT LIBERTY AGAIN SHOOTER OF STANFORD WHITE ARGUES IN LIGHT OF THE O'SHAUGHNESSY CASE THAT HE IS ENTITLED TO HIS FREEDOM.

Harry K. Thaw, it is said, soon will make another effort to obtain his release from Matteawan. He probably will base his contention that he is entitled to his liberty the same as Mrs. Francis O'Shaughnessy, who murdered her husband on May 5 last in New York, and who paroled by the court in the custody of her attorney, Jeremiah T. Mahony, and Dr. Wm. Maybon, in charge of Ward's Island.

Thaw is of the opinion that the case of Mrs. O'Shaughnessy and his own are identical, and if the woman is entitled to her freedom so is he. Judge Warren W. Foster, of general sessions of New York, was questioned recently as to the similarity of the Thaw case with that of Mrs. O'Shaughnessy. He said: "Although the court followed the Thaw case and acted on it as a precedent for the O'Shaughnessy trial, yet I do not think Thaw can establish a case making the release of the O'Shaughnessy woman as a precedent. She was paroled by the court for her own good, not that the court feared she would be a menace to the community at large."

"Thaw was placed by the court in a criminal institution for the insane because he was considered dangerous and a menace to society. Of course some other judge may look at it in a different light."

The judge was asked if he did not think Thaw is entitled to his liberty, since he contends he is sane and no longer a homicidal maniac, as was represented in the case of the woman slayer. "Certainly," he replied, "if Thaw is a sane man he should have his liberty."

Dr. Graeme Hammond, of No. 60 West Fifty-fifth street, said Mrs. O'Shaughnessy could demand her release from Ward's Island any day, and if Dr. Maybon held her against her will he would be subject to legal action. Dr. Hammond added he thinks Thaw is sane and should be liberated. He said that it was Thaw's own fault that he was not at liberty.

"Jerome told me once that if Thaw would remain in Matteawan quietly for a few years he would not oppose his release," he said. "Thaw is of an excitable temperament and tried to rush things."

Edwin Taliaferro, lawyer, of No. 5 Beekman street, was asked if he considered that Thaw could use the O'Shaughnessy case as a precedent in habeas corpus proceedings. The attorney said it is unnecessary for Thaw to use any other case as a precedent, and that he has a right to a trial by jury to pass on his sanity. Thaw's imprisonment is unconstitutional, he added.

"I have had similar cases in other jurisdictions and states, and in every case a jury trial was granted, and I consider the proceedings in the Thaw case illegal," Taliaferro said.

MR. REAL ESTATE MAN CAN YOU TAKE A HINT?

The following is a sample of a kind of letter The Daily News frequently receives. This one is from a man in Alberta

Dear Mr. Editor:

Me and some friends of mine would like to buy a few city lots in Prince Rupert, but we don't know anyone at present in Prince Rupert, so we have written to ask if you would be kind enough to send me on your daily paper, as I am told it advertises the most city lots and property for sale in Prince Rupert, for which I send you some stamps. Hoping you will oblige us, and apologizing for the trouble.

THE DAILY NEWS has the biggest circulation of any paper in the district. It is all bona fide circulation too. It enters the homes of real estate investors in every leading city in Canada as well as England and the United States.

LOT OWNER MUST CARE

Delivery of Cleared Rock to the Crusher Not Considered Sufficient

There was a good deal of discussion in Council last night regarding the rock needed for 3rd Avenue, and the offer made through Ald. George Kerr by an absentee owner that he would deliver rock from the high lot next the Albert Block, on 2nd Avenue, to the crusher. After the need for rock for retaining walls on Third Avenue had been gone into a motion was passed that the owner of this high lot might have the crusher placed by his lot, if he would not only deliver rock to the crusher, but also cart it away as directed to the streets. Ald. Kerr withdrew his offer on behalf of the owner, and the city clerk was instructed to notify the owner direct, Ald. Kerr also agreeing to furnish his address.
