PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT IS PAYING $40,000 NOW ON LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

Good News Received By Commissioner This Morning—Will Assure New Morse and Hays Creek Bridges

At the City Hall at least it was not Blue Monday today for on the desk of the City Commissioner W. J. Alder was a letter which advised that the provincial government was paying a grant of $40,000 on account of local improvement taxes, $80,000 in which the city has been claiming for years and which claim Premier T. D. Pattullo has consistently supported. Even as far back as the Oliver government the city has been endeavouring to collect these local improvement taxes but this is the first official recognition there has ever been of the debt.

Naturally, the City Commissioner is very gratified and he said this morning that payment at this time would be very opportune and would assure the building of the new Hays Creek and Morse Creek bridges at an early date. A. L. Carruthers, provincial government bridge engineer, having confirmed the report of the city engineer in regard to the condition of these bridges, plans for the new bridges are now being prepared.

The bridge construction, together with the water main replacement work for which a federal loan of $40,000 has been obtained, will mean a considerable program of municipal construction will soon be under way.

HEARING IS PROCEEDING

Deportation Case of Harry Bridges Goes Into Second Week

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—Ex-Communist John Leech will return to the witness stand tomorrow morning when the second week of the Harry Bridges' deportation hearing opens on Angel Island as the United States seeks to deport the West Coast C. I. O. eluder to Australia on grounds that he is a Communist and that the Communist party advocates overthrow of the government.

Bridges denies that he is a Communist and his defence is attempting to prove that the party does not advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Leech testified last week that Bridges was active in the Communist movement and was elected a member of the Communist Party National Central Committee.

Tomorrow defence attorneys are expected to produce an affidavit, signed by Leech, stating that he never saw Bridges at a Communist meeting and that he did not believe the labor leader was a member of the party.

Leech admitted last week that he had made such an affidavit but said that he did so under threats from members of the party. He insisted that his testimony at the Bridges' hearing was the truth and nothing but the truth.

Alaska Cannery Strike Still On

KETCHIKAN, July 17.—With the season's fish run now under way, the dispute between southeastern Alaska cannery workers of the Congress on Industrial Organization and the cannery operators is still unsettled. Negotiations are at a standstill, even on the basis of reduced demands by the union which the cannery operators have refused to accept, and the picket lines have been ordered resumed.

Bulletins

BRITISH PRIVATE KILLED
TIENTSIN — British military authorities reported Sunday that J. W. Tomlinson, private of the Durham light infantry, died Saturday from unexplained gunshot wounds received Friday. Tomlinson, shot in the abdomen, was found by a French trooper about a mile from the Shanhaikwan Barracks, where a Durham infantry detachment is established. A Japanese sponsored Chinese newspaper, meanwhile, reported that a Tientsin native "supreme anti-British committee had ordered Chinese clerks, constables and police officers, employed by the Japanese blockaded British concession's municipal council to resign immediately. Chinese refusing to obey would be regarded as criminals.

SILENT ON DANZIG
MUNICH — Chancellor Hitler opened the German National Art Exhibition Sunday, with a fifteen minute address, notable to a world watching the tense Danzig situation, because it contained no mention of the Free City or any other political question. However, the question of Danzig, which Hitler has promised to return to Germany, was still to the forefront.

RUSSIAN RAIDS
HISINKING—Japanese military headquarters reported Soviet Russian warplanes bombed Furoraji, a railway point southwest of Tshitshibar, on Sunday in a before dawn raid, in which seven persons were injured and two buildings destroyed. This is the third report within a week of Soviet raids on railway centres and was the deepest the Soviet airmen have penetrated into Manchoukuo territory since intermittent fighting started on the Outer Mongolian border May 11.

ARE THESE BANDITS?
CALGARY—William Carter, 28, was arrested last night after William Senyk, 24, was shot and seriously wounded in an east end drinking party. Both Carter and Senyk are from Vancouver and police said that several bills found on Carter tallied with the description and numbers circulated after the Robson Street branch of the Dominion Bank of Canada in Vancouver was held up last week and robbed of $2700 by two armed men. One of two loaded guns found on Carter also tallied in description with a revolver stolen in the bank robbery, police stated.

TRUSTS TO BE BUSTED

Tightening Up Of United States Patent Laws Also Recommended

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 17.—The national monopoly investigation committee has recommended drastic revision and strengthening of the patent and anti-trust laws as a means of preventing "a tendency toward the concentration of control of the economic system in fewer and fewer business executives."

The committee, headed by Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming, said it is clear "that the financial and other resources required for economic endeavor are becoming increasingly difficult for the ordinary enterprises to obtain and that concentration of economic power and wealth is accompanied by increasing unemployment and narrowing markets."

The committee endorsed recommendations of the Department of Commerce and the Department of Justice regarding both patent and anti-trust laws.

Skidegate Inlet Sea Serpent Rears Ten Feet; Makes Noise Like Airplane; Tosses Seals

From Skidegate Inlet, Queen Charlotte Islands, comes the latest sea serpent story. On several occasions lately an enormous marine monster has been seen, it is reported by fishermen from the entrance of Skidegate Narrows. It is described as looking like a huge eel with long antennae on each side of its head which resembles that of a sea lion.

The serpent is said to have been seen rearing its head and body above water about ten feet. When breathing on the surface it is said to make a noise like an airplane. The creature, dark brown in color, tosses seals into the air before eating them, it is reported by a Queen Charlotte Islands correspondent.

LITTLE HOPE FOR MINERS AND KETCH

Rescue Workers Still Digging, However, In Kentucky Colliery

PROVIDENCE, Ky., July 17:—Hope faded today for the safety of nine men trapped far beneath the surface in the explosion-wrecked Duvin coal mine but rescue workers dug grimly through the debris-choked passages toward them. The men were among 28 entombed when an explosion of gas and dust wrecked the mine Friday night. Nineteen bodies have been found. Mine officials said it was possible that the nine men might be in an airtight chamber, sealed by rock and coal slides from the deadly gases that filter through most of the time in such a place. They might have enough pure air to last until Tuesday.

STRIKES AT DICTATORS

Conduct of Japan, Italy and Germany "Barbarous, Indefensible and Inhuman"

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 17.—Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska has joined President Roosevelt in his struggle for neutrality legislation at this session of Congress with a statement charging that the conduct of Japan, Italy and Germany is "barbarous, indefensible and inhuman." He said the United States has a "moral and legal" right to take such action as would "prohibit or retard these barbarous governments from carrying on their inhuman warfare" and recommended legislation which would ban loans to any belligerent require that American exports to belligerents be paid for in cash and that title to such property pass before leaving this country, prohibit American ships from engaging in traffic with powers at war and ban American travel on ships of belligerents.

Free Butter For Relief Recipients

Local relief recipients, like those in other parts of the country, with their bi-monthly dole certificates at the end of last week, received special coupons for free butter which is being distributed in view of a surplus production which exists in Canada. With one pound of butter bought, it was possible to get another free, the limit for single men being one pound and for families three pounds. The certificates were redeemable in butter at the stores which are in turn reimbursed at the banks by arrangement of the Department of Agriculture.

FINE CROPS AT TERRACE

Showery Weather Is, However, Delaying Harvest—Fruits in Good Shape

TERRACE, July 17.—There is a fine crop of hay in the fields around Terrace. Cutting began last week but showery weather is delaying the harvesting.

The spring and early summer has been warm and showery, there has been no hot weather. The local government weather observer reports the highest temperature up to date as 79 degrees only a couple of times.

In May and June local gardeners complained of cut worms which were more numerous than usual, resulting in reseeded some garden crops, carrots, cabbage, etc.

The apple crop promises to be the best ever. There is an absence of tent caterpillar and the branches are covered with the young fruit. Stone fruits also, cherries and plums are looking exceptionally good.

DAILY EDITION

DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Vancouver is about to make war on drunken drivers. In that they will receive the backing of the public. The same would be true in Prince Rupert. A number of persons who had caused damage as a result of driving when intoxicated have been charged with some lesser offence because of the difficulty of proving that a man is intoxicated. If all were given a chemical test it would easily solve the problem. The test should be given whether the suspected person wishes it or not.

INTEREST IN HIGHWAY

Evidently there is greater interest being taken in the highway leading out of Prince Rupert than has been taken for many years. It is reasonable to expect that this highway should be built soon. If it is desirable for the safety of the United States that a highway be built to Alaska, it surely should be desirable to Canada that a highway be built to Prince Rupert. The authorities seem to be awakening to this fact and the result should be beneficial to this city.

OTHER CITIES TOO

Prince Rupert is not the only place where it is difficult to get huge crowds out regularly to watch sports or games. The Sentinel of Kamloops complains that no longer do the people turn out in large numbers as they once did. Instead of sitting in the sun and broiling and waiting long periods while the races are organized, they now jump into the family car and go off to some quiet spot and have a family picnic beneath the shade of trees and perhaps by the side of a beautiful stream.

Sports and games have their places and we should do all we can to encourage them but times are different from what they were a generation ago and we all change with the times.

This week there is a sports program at the waterfront and we suggest that this is a good occasion to see something worth while in the way of sports events if we can believe the promoters. Everyone should see the regatta on Thursday afternoon.

Told People About Rupert

K. Hallberg Was Delegate To Valhalla Gathering At Helena, Montana

Taking advantage of his position as delegate from Prince Rupert to the Valhalla Grand Lodge at Helena, Montana, Knut Hallberg, who returned home at the week-end, says that he let the people of that city know that this city was on the map and, both in speech and newspaper interview, told all he knew about his home town. In return for this he promised to tell Prince Rupert people about Helena.

Mr. Hallberg says that Helena is a beautiful city in a beautiful country. It is the capital of the state of Montana with a fine capitol building. A feature of the building is the huge picture of Clark meeting the Indians, Clark having been the leader of the Lewis and Clark expedition.

Helena has many beautiful homes and gardens. It is a mining centre and also there is a fine cattle country around it. Many Scandinavians live there and they were much interested in the Scandinavian settlement in Prince Rupert. Among the prominent people Mr. Hallberg met an ex-governor. Just now the people of Montana

Manager Of Local Theatre Is Going To Niagara Falls

Taking East with him a handsome twenty-inch slate miniature Eagle totem pole which will be presented to N. L. Nathanson, president of the company, as a souvenir of the extreme western end of the entertainment chain which extends all across Canada to Halifax at the east and which will also send a memento, D. G. Borland, manager of the Capitol Theatre here, will leave on Wednesday evening's train for Niagara Falls, Ontario, to attend a convention of theatre managers of the Famous Players. The convention will mark the twenty-first birthday of the company and will bring together all Famous Players executives in Canada. Mr. Borland expects to be away for two or three weeks.

Five thousand Prince Rupert people read the Daily News. It pays to let them know what you have to sell.

are celebrating their jubilee and the residents are allowing their beards to grow and are generally imitating the days of the first settlement. Mr. Hallberg evidently enjoyed his trip very much.

YACHT CUP RACING ON

S. Hingston's Annie J. Leads Way In First Tip Top Cup Events

The first of the races of the Prince Rupert Model Yacht Club for the Tip Top Cup was run off Saturday afternoon and resulted in a win for S. Hingston with the Annie J. Harry Gawthorne with the Ivanhoe was second and A. J. Croxford with the Tye was third. The races are run on a plan by which each boat entering gets one point. The boats also get a point for every other boat beaten in the race. As a result of Saturday's race, S. Hingston has seven points, H. Gawthorne has six points and A. J. Croxford has five points. It is planned to run off six races altogether so that boats which were not among the leaders in Saturday's races have every chance of making up points.

The wind at the start was fresh but died down and the second and third legs were sailed at a slow rate. With stronger winds there might be a considerable difference in the order of finishing in the other races, the next of which is planned for next Saturday.

All boats started at 3 hours 20 minutes 57 seconds. Their order of finishing, their times and the numbers of points were as follows:

- Annie J. (Skipper, S. Hingston), 1 hour, 21 minutes, 3 seconds. 7 points.
- Invader (Skipper, H. Gawthorne), 1 hour, 22 minutes, 3 seconds. 6 points.
- Tye (Skipper, A. J. Croxford), 1 hour, 28 minutes, 38 seconds. 5 points.
- Sheila (Skipper, Jack McRae), 1 hour, 33 minutes, 37 seconds. 4 points.
- Saucy Lass (Skipper, M. McKenzie), 1 hour, 38 minutes, 8 seconds. 3 points.
- Ivanhoe (Skipper, M. M. Lamb), 1 hour, 51 minutes, 8 seconds. 2 points.
- Rupertia (Skipper, Carl Glazle), damaged. 1 point.

A new member of the club, Carl Glazle, had bad luck in his first attempt with the Rupertia, purchased from A. J. Croxford. The damage, although easily repaired, was enough to put the ship out of the running for this race but it will undoubtedly do much better in the next attempt.

Keep up to date. Advise regularly.

Playgrounds Drawing Many

Another Good Week With McClymont Park Principal Centre Of Interest

The Gyro Club's supervised playgrounds have concluded another successful week of activities with McClymont Park and its swimming pool still attracting the largest number of children.

The total attendance for the past week was 1550 with 716 of these attending McClymont Park. The enrolment totals 380 children. Among other activities, Seal Cove children, 26 of them, walked out to Grassy Bay under the supervision of Miss Jean Krause for a picnic while the younger boys of Westview, under Miss Jean Cameron, held a model yacht race at Morse Creek. Winners of the race were: first, Allen Hartwig; second, Jimmy Forman.

Noteworthy was the achievement of one of the directors who reports that she had succeeded in quelling what has been a repulsive nuisance on all the playgrounds. It seems that some of the boys had been in the habit of using bad language and it is gratifying to find concrete evidence of the cessation of this practice. It is in such results that is found proof of the beneficial training of the children on the supervised playgrounds.

CANADA IN DAVIS CUP

Potential Ability in Tennis Squad Playing Cubans at Havana

By JACK CALDER
Canadian Press Staff Writer
TORONTO, July 17: (CP)—Canada's noble tennis experiment begins Wednesday beneath the blue skies of Havana when an eager group of youngsters takes on the Cuban Davis Cup team.

No member of the 1939 Canadian Davis Cup squad was ranked in the Dominion last year but each of the four represents the type of player the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association wants in its plans for the future—an enthusiastic youngster of potential ability.

The four are Bruce Hall, Phil Pearson and Bill Pedlar of Toronto and Ellis Tarshis of Montreal. At 24, Tarshis is the oldest member of the team. Hall, University of Toronto divinity student, is 23 and Pearson and Pedlar, who grew up together on Vancouver's public courts, are 19 and 18 respectively.

The quartet supplants four of the best players developed in Canada in the last decade—Bobby Murray and Laird Watt of Montreal, Ross Wilson of Toronto and Doug Cameron of Vancouver. Murray, Watt, Wilson and Cameron retired from cup contention in favor of others after their defeat in all five matches with Japan in last year's first round.

For Build-Up
No one looks for as much of this new team as was expected in the 1938 squad. The experience and power just aren't there. Watt, ranked No. 1 in the country last year, showed he can beat any of the four when he won the Quebec title recently, defeating Hall easily in semi-finals and Tarshis in the finals.

The bottom fell out of immediate Canadian cup team plans when Watt decided to concentrate on his public accountancy work, Murray on a job as a legal adviser in business, Wilson on law and Cameron trying to line up a position in the east.

The C.L.T.A. was faced then with

Letter Box

SKEENA FISHERMAN

Editor, Daily News:

I see by your paper of July 17 white springs at Ketchikan weigh eight cents a pound and red 15¢. On the Skeena River white is one cent a pound and red is 1 cent. The river will close down for spring fishing and the canneries get all the red spring they want for the large sum of 3 cents and white ten cents.

The newspapers are the same as the experimental station, they experiment with ground shark jelly fish and devil fish but they don't experiment with salmon. They leave that to a few tally men and bookkeepers. A few years ago a late run of sockeye came in the Fraser. They were supposed to go around Vancouver Island. Well that was spawed that came from the Skeena hatcheries and was dumped into Fraser Lake. I took me a long time to tell you that because I only write a letter every ten years.

COLD CURED ICE

For the Halibut and Salmon Fleets

Following the investigations of the Fisheries Research Station, the Company has just completed extensive changes and improvements in ice storage and ice delivery methods.

Ice for the boats will all be old ice, thoroughly cured or aged at new low temperatures. It will be delivered into the hold, even in the hottest weather, as cold as the storage room.

Fishermen are invited to inspect the new system. Better ice than ever before, at no increase in cost, means economy to the boat and improved quality in fish delivery.

Are Saved From Death In Fire

Originator of Junior "G" Men's Club Hero of Episode in Vancouver Saturday

One of the important features of Prince Rupert gardens is the lack of uniformity among them. In other words each person shows some originality in design or method. There are really two important classes—those who grow flowers for the sake of the plants themselves and those who engage in landscape gardening. In the former case everything is sacrificed for the welfare of the individual so that the best possible may be secured. That is particularly noticeable in case of sweet peas where a few growers use the single stem method of growing in order to secure the largest possible flowers. Tom Beattie on Tenth Avenue carries the system much further by dividing the largest part of his garden into rectangular plots with single plank walks between to enable easy access to all. His rows are all mathematically correct and his plants are wonders, practically everyone perfect. In a few weeks from now he will have a mass of bloom. Mr. Beattie's neighbor, P. J. McCormick, whose house is on the knoll overlooking Ninth Avenue, but with entrance from Tenth, has a well landscaped garden. He is growing excellent peonies and has a few of most of the perennials and some of the annuals. He should enter his garden in one of the classes for competition.

Nature's method is a wonderful one. Most people have seen the drift of foxgloves in my garden. They were self sown and look as if someone had stood below and thrown the seed up the hill. No amount of planning could have accomplished it. And yet nothing could have been just as pleasing artistically as this wild drift. We saw some of these drifts of flowers in the colored pictures shown by Fred Coles when he showed them at the annual meeting of the Horticultural Society in the spring.

Many who met Mr. Coles here will regret to hear that he died in Vancouver some weeks ago. He had in hand plans for the planting of Dr. Hankinson's garden but it is probable those plans will never be finished, at any rate not as Mr. Coles conceived them.

Members of the Horticultural Society are glad to know that their efforts are being appreciated as shown by several donations toward their funds this year. It is very disheartening to end the season with a deficit. So far no person has thought of donating a special challenge cup or vase for the winner in any particular class. One better than that would be to remember the society in one's will as a legacy to provide prizes in perpetuity for the annual show or for a special rose show. Perhaps the society

VANCOUVER, July 17: (CP)—Constable Ronald Everleigh, known through Canada as originator of the Junior "G" Men's Club for boys, rescued two men and a woman from smoke-filled rooms above a small Granville Street restaurant on Saturday. Everleigh discovered fire in the cafe basement while on beat, turned in the alarm and then battled through smoke to aid the tenants to escape. He was nearly trapped when he went in a third time for a man who was rescued by firemen.

Q. C. ISLANDS

Capt. George Leary of Port Clements motored down recently for a visit with friends at Skidegate and Queen Charlotte.

Prospectors returning from Cumshewa report having seen hundreds of deer there. Some days large herds pass along the beach. Elk are reported to be increasing rapidly in the Dena Valley.

Sergius de Bucy of Lawn Hill Motored down to Skidegate and Queen Charlotte recently on business.

Ladies of the Queen Charlotte Islands who have volunteered to sew linen for the Queen Charlotte City Hospital include Mrs. A. L. Mallory of Port Clements, Mrs. S. Dunlop of Port Clements, Mrs. S. de Bucy of Lawn Hill, Mrs. A. Jones of Skidegate Mission, Mrs. E. C. Stevens, Mrs. L. MacIntyre and Mrs. C. Bruce of Skidegate and Mrs. William Wachmude of Queen Charlotte City

California redwood, English oak and Douglas fir continue to grow very successfully on the Queen Charlotte Islands. Last fall a small area in the Dena Valley was planted in balsam. This work has been carried on voluntarily, costing the forestry department nothing.

should incorporate in order to provide for this.

Have you looked at James Boyd's garden on Borden Street? His sweet peas and roses are a real sight. Later in the season the chrysanthemums will appear on the street side of the house.

Worse than winds are those mists that fall so lightly that the plants become overloaded and gradually bend and fall to the ground. That happened Saturday morning and made it necessary to do a lot of staking. —H.F.P.

The Campbell Church charter yacht Westward left at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon following arrival of the train which brought in a family from the Eastern States who will make an Alaskan cruise. The Westward had arrived last Friday from Seattle to pick up the party.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, having been delayed by having heavy freights to discharge at waypoints, arrived in port at 11:30 last night from the south and sailed a couple of hours later for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points. The vessel had a good-sized list of passengers.

With a total of 236 passengers on board, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, south-bound from Skagway to Vancouver, called in port from 3:30 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Most of the passengers were round trip tourists returning south. Four disembarked from the vessel here and three went aboard at this port for Vancouver.

Three big tourist liners, in port this morning had more than seven hundred passengers and they were much in evidence about the city, some of the stores reaping quite a harvest from their buying. The Prince Robert, Capt. H. E. Neden, arrived at 7:15 from Vancouver and was here until 1 o'clock this afternoon when she sailed for Alaska. This vessel had over three hundred passengers on board, a couple disembarking at this port. At 7:45 the Princess Charlotte, Capt. Featuring heart song and hit songs of today and yesterday which serve as highlights of a stirring, human romance, "Rose of Washington Square," a dramatic romance of a girl who was on the level about love, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for the first half of this week.
