BERLIN—Chancellor Adolf Hitler, it was understood in well informed quarters last night, had sent a questionnaire to some of the nations which had been mentioned in President Roosevelt's peace message last week asking: "Do you feel you are menaced by Germany?" The answers may be incorporated in Chancellor Hitler's reply to President Roosevelt.

ROME—"If we really cherished unreasonable demands of unfair aggression would we be preparing on an ambitious scale as we are for a world's fair embodying the spirit of international goodwill?" asked Premier Benito Mussolini yesterday in connection with his reply to the peace message of President Roosevelt of the United States.

BUCHAREST—Three days of conversations yesterday between Hungary and Germany ended in agreement on a policy of collaboration between the two nations.

SOVIET DEMANDS FULL MILITARY CO-OPERATION OF BRITAIN AND FRANCE

THIS WOULD BE RUSSIAN PRICE FOR SUPPORT OF ANTI-AGGRESSION PACT—LONDON AND FRANCE WORRIED—WARSAW ALSO APPREHENSIVE

LONDON, April 21: (CP)—Soviet Russia made definite proposals today to Great Britain and France demanding their full military co-operation in return for joining the anti-aggression front, it was reported in official circles. The Russian demands are reported to have London and Paris worried because neither country is prepared to go that far in collaboration with the Soviets.

The Warsaw newspaper Express Poranny expresses the official view that the suggested Russian aid in any European war might be dangerous to countries receiving it for geographical and political reasons.

Visitor Was Interested In Socialist Government of New Zealand and Tells About It

Dr. W. T. Kergin Gave Interesting Account of Part of His Recent Trip to Southern Hemisphere at Rotary Luncheon

The outstanding theme of the address given by Dr. W. T. Kergin at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club yesterday was his survey of political conditions in New Zealand. During his visit he talked to many people of all classes and he found that in that country of which 98 per cent were Anglo-Saxon they had a Socialist government, elected as a protest against the incompetency of the previous administrations.

While fruits grew well in New Zealand there were no secondary industries in the country. The country was lacking in metals, gold and coal being the only products in this line. However, the scenery was fine and there was considerable tourist travel to take in the hot springs and the scenery.

In New Zealand men worked five days a week of forty hours and they had now introduced a costly new social security measure. Banking was owned or controlled by the state and so were imports and exports. It was so difficult to get money from the banks that one lady who was setting out on a long trip had to use strenuous efforts to get enough cash to do her until she returned home.

The speaker told of his visit to Honolulu. It was a charming place, restful and warm. The people were friendly and hospitable. The United States government had its largest military post there and this brought much money to the islands. There was also a large naval squadron stationed there and money was being spent in improving the harbor.

The doctor visited the large pineapple canneries. At one of these three thousand people were employed, increasing during the busy season to seven thousand. They turned out two hundred cans of fruit a minute. A large cafeteria was operated for the employees and a dining room for those who brought their own meals. Sugar was the chief product but there was a difficulty in marketing this as the United States had a quota against importation. The producers felt this was an injustice.

The Philadelphia Athletics blanked the Washington Senators at Shibe Park.

In the National League the Boston Bees, playing at home, made it two straight over the Phillies while the Brooklyn Dodgers took revenge from the New York Giants for an opening season defeat.

SPORT CHAI

The Scottish Cup will rest in unfamiliar quarters this year for the second year in succession. East Fife last season broke the stranglehold of Celtic and Rangers and the famous Glasgow soccer clubs winners 25 times in the 64-year-old competition, again hold only watching briefs as finalists prepare for the closing struggle this Saturday. Clyde and Motherwell, current major-league protagonists, have never been successful in the tournament. Last year East Fife became the first second division team ever to win the silverware.

Worthy contenders for Cup honors, the finalists each have form-smashing victories to their credit in the earlier rounds. Clyde's 4-1 triumph over Rangers at Ibrox Park in the third round stands out as the highlight of the competition and the Fir Parkers blanked Celtic 3-0 to win a place in the semi-finals. Victory over Glasgow's green-shirted idols came as sweet revenge for Motherwell. Twice before—in 1931 and 1933—the squad reached the final only to fall before the Celts by scores of 4-2 and 1-0. In 1931 Celtic triumphed at the second attempt, the first encounter ending in a 2-2 draw.

Welcome return to form has been shown by Clyde this season and for a time early in the campaign the Shawfield Park eleven set the pace in league competition. Three times in recent years Clyde has been eliminated in the cup after reaching semi-final status. In 1933

Motherwell brought about the Glasgow team's downfall, winning 2-0 at Ibrox Park. Three years later Rangers administered a 3-0 defeat and the following year a 2-3 verdict went in Celtic's favor. Acquisition of W. Martin, clever Queen's Park amateur forward, provided the spark for Clyde's attack. He played a hero's role against Rangers in the third round, ramming home the four goals that put the Light Blues out of the competition. Martin also netted the "million-dollar" goal against Hibernians in a rousing semi-final contest. In the opening round Clyde eliminated St. Johnstone 2-0 but two games were necessary before Dundee was ousted 1-0 in the second stage. The first Third Lanark bowed 1-0 to the

EDITORIAL

LOOKING BACKWARD

In interpreting what is going on today it is sometimes a good idea to look back and see how these sort of times came out in the past. There have been dictators before and some of them have disappeared and left scarcely a ripple on the ocean of time. So it will be again. Just 82 years ago people felt rather badly. Harper's Weekly of October 10, 1857, says:

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years—not in the lifetime of most men who read this—has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time. In our own country there is universal commercial prostration and panic, and thousands of our poorest fellow-citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment, and without the prospect of it.

"In France the political cauldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty; Russia hangs, as usual, like a cloud, dark and silent, upon the horizon of Europe; while all the energies, resources and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried, and are yet to be tried more sorely, in coping with the vast and deadly disturbed relations in China. It is a solemn moment, and no man can feel an indifference—which, happily, no man pretends to feel—in the issue of events."

"Of our own troubles no man can see the end. They are, fortunately, as yet, mainly commercial; and if we are only to lose money, and by painful poverty to be taught wisdom—the wisdom of honor, of faith, of sympathy and of charity—no man needs seriously to despair. And yet the very haste to be rich, which is the occasion of this wide-spread calamity, has also tended to destroy the moral forces with which we are to resist and subdue the calamity."

Following an 8-1 walkover against Huntley in the opening round of the cup this year, Motherwell triumphed 5-1 over Dundee United of the second division and then disposed of St. Mirren 4-2. The victory over Celtic followed and Aberdeen fell in the semi-final 3-1 at the second attempt.

Motherwell came from behind to tie 1-1 in the first encounter, the equalizing goal resulting from a bad blunder by S. Nicholson, one of the Don's defenders.

WOMEN IN AVIATION

New Slant on Aerial Adventure Theme Presented in "Tailspin" at Capitol Theatre

The progressively important part played by women in aviation is featured in the feature picture "Tailspin" which opened last night and will be repeated tonight at the Capitol Theatre with Constance Bennett, Alice Faye, Nancy Kelly and Joan Davis heading the cast. "Tailspin" is not so much an epic of the air as a simple yet very dramatic story of three women who go in for flying at its most dangerous stage. One flies because she needs the money desperately, another because she loves a man who thinks aviation is the greatest thing in the world and a third who flies because it keeps her near her pilot husband. Their various adventures are knit together in a dramatic story which is not without its thrilling incidents.

Charles Farrell, Jane Wyman and Kane Richmond are other important members of the cast.

"Tailspin" is double-billed with "Time Out for Murder," a picture of the American conception of reporters in connection with criminal investigation. Gloria Stuart and Michael Whalen heading the cast

SEAL COVE ROAD

Editor, Daily News:
May I call the attention of those concerned to the appearance of our main road along the stretch between the top of Ambrose Avenue and Seal Cove Circle?

Some months ago scores of trees were cut down presumably to clear the overhead lines. These trees have been left to rot where they lie and present an ugly picture.

I suggest that "Clean-up Week" would be an appropriate time to remove this eyesore which I am sure would not be tolerated west of Hay's Creek.

It is reported that the large boarding house now used by J. Kadonaga is to be the first house to be vacated and removed preliminary to air base operations hereabouts.

Henry Skinner is making great strides with his house on the Circle. It commands a fine view of the Cove and will, doubtless, prove one of the very finest locations for a home.

The Young People of the Junior Anglican Young People's Association are planning a social night which will take the form of a conversation with amateur contests in various classes of the arts. The date for this event is not yet fixed.

A May Queen contest has started at Seal Cove. The candidates are Miss Hazel Toombs, Miss May Skinner, Miss Renie Croxford and Miss Dodo McLeod. Their friends in each case are helping them and each candidate and her helpers have their respective colors. May has red, Hazel has gold, Renie has blue and Dodo has green. The contest ends on May 26 when a big Maypole Dance will be staged at the hall and the Queen will be crowned and awards to all candidates will be made. The proceeds of this contest will be in aid of the hall which is used by the large majority of children in the Seal Cove area, to say nothing of Young People's organizations and adult groups.

Most of the organizations which have flourished at the hall this year have dropped off owing to the opening of the fishing season.

The ladies of the Women's Auxiliary held their regular meeting in the newly built rooms beneath the hall yesterday.

Young people between the ages of 15 and 50 are registering with Rev. Roy Durnford for a leadership training course which is about to take place. The course will be given by an expert in the person of Mr. Fiddis who arrives shortly from Vancouver for this purpose.

The return to Seal Cove of young Meromi Tanaka is welcomed by his many friends and particularly by his Boy Scout associates. Mr. Tanaka has much to say of the Oxford Group movement in Vancouver of which he has been elected a delegate. Heromi has voluminous notes and type-written reports and agenda connected with this remarkable fine group of young people. His services in speaking on the work of the Group will be in much demand here, it is felt.

The new stretch of road outside of the Cold Storage plant is remarkably fine after having been recovered and levelled by steamroller. This is yet another of many improvements that have been entered on here.

The Acropolis Hill basketball team visited Seal Cove last Tuesday and was beaten by the home team after a very hard tussle. The game was enjoyed by all and there will, doubtless, be another at a date sometime in the near future.

Rev. Geo. Goodred of Kitkatla was a visitor at the Rectory recently. Mr. Goodred is a teacher and priest in charge of the Kitkatla mission.

SHOW WAS DIVERTING

Another event in aid of the fund for the children's Royal visit to Victoria was staged last night in the form of an amateur night sponsored by the local Moose Lodge. A surprising amount of very fine and promising talent was brought out by children under the age of seventeen. In the adult section, many well known local entertainers, whose efforts are always appreciated, gave performances in their usual fine style.

Those taking part in the contests were:
Junior section—Pat and Cissy Ratchford, tap dancing; Johnny Wick, accordion; Hilda Bond, songs; Irma Mathison, piano; Ann Stevens, songs; Nina Youngman, tap dancing; Lorraine Youngman, songs; Katherine and Frances Pierce, guitar and cowboy songs; Barbara Teng, songs.

In the senior section Harry Astoria and Gene Fitzpatrick opened with a humorous act in original style and followed up with a harmonica duet of expert style. Mrs. Hansen was very good with her accordion solos. Gordon Letnes was next with harmonica solos and was followed by the ever popular George Copeland who gave a Highland Fling and a Sword Dance. Henry Skinner went strong with the audience which brought him back several times for his guitar and cowboy songs.

The feature of the night's entertainment was supplied by Mike Colussi and his accordion. Mike, being a teacher of this instrument, did not enter in the competition. He was extended a hearty vote of thanks for donating his efforts for the evening.

The program was interspersed by selections from the Boys' Band under Bob Greenfield and the Symphony Orchestra under Bert Cameron.

First prize in the junior section was won by Hilda Bond and second by Lorraine Youngman.

Mrs. Hansen took the honors in the senior events with the comic team of Astoria and Fitzpatrick second.

Harold Davey was the accompanist for the songs and dances. A. K. Nelson was the announcer and manager; B. J. Bacon, floor manager. Joe Ratchford and Hugh Smith on the door. George Dawes, Dan Healy and Fred Cameron were ushers.
