

Pontiff Passes With Dawn—

PIUS XI

Pius XI, Pope Of Peace And Reconciliation, Is Dead In His 82nd. Year

End Came Suddenly Due to Weakened Heart Action Owing to Long Illness—Was Faced With Many Grave International Problems

VATICAN CITY, February 10: (CP)—Pope Pius XI, famed as "The Pope of Peace and Reconciliation," died shortly before dawn at 5:31 this morning Italian time. He succumbed to a sudden attack of cardiac asthma. The Pontiff had been ill for the past two years and more than once it had appeared that the end was near. On each occasion, however, he was stimulated and fought off death. A couple of days ago he contracted influenza and some alarm was felt but only last night he was reported to be improving and the end came with short notice. His heart had been weakened by the long illness. One hour after death, the mournful bells of St. Peter's tolled the news of the Pope's passing to the world.

The Pontiff passed away with his nephew, Count Franci Ratti, a few cardinals, prelates, his chief doctor, Aminta Milani, Dr. Filippo Rocchi and two male nurses at his bedside. These had been hurriedly summoned and, half an hour before death, the extreme unction was given. The chief physician, himself suffering from influenza, had been called from his own sick bed. Most of those at the bedside were on their knees praying when Milani announced that the Holy Father had breathed his last.

The Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Pacelli, ordered that papal representatives abroad be formally notified. Cardinal Villeneuve, head of the Roman Catholic hierarchy of Canada, is already in Italy where he has been visiting. The funeral will probably be on February 15 at St. Peter's with burial in the grottoes of the Cathedral. Funeral and requiem services lasting nine days will begin February 12.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

Joe Haroski, Fisherman, Evidently Suicide at Jap Inlet

Joe Haroska, 43, Polish-Ukrainian born and naturalized Canadian fisherman, is dead at Jap Inlet, Porcher Island fishing community, an evident suicide after having shot himself in the throat with a double-barrelled 12-gauge shotgun yesterday morning. The police boat P.M. I. 8, on a patrol trip to Butedale, has been intercepted by radio and dispatched to Jap Inlet in investigating the incident and bring the body in. Haroski was formerly located in Prince Rupert and has been at Jap Inlet for the past three years. He had been a couple of times in Essondale mental hospital. Haroski was living at Jap Inlet with Niek Serhenluk. The latter had left Jap Inlet at 10:27 Thursday morning for Prince Rupert, bringing in a surveyor, Fred Nash. Haroski had rowed Serhenluk and Nash out to their boat. Evidently, he went there immediately to the woods. Dick Drukin, a neighbor, heard the shot and went to investigate. Haroski was lying on his back, evidently already dead. James McLeod brought word of the tragedy into Prince Rupert late yesterday afternoon.

Japanese Occupy Hainan In Defiance Of Warning From Britain and France

HONG KONG, February 10: (CP)—In defiance of British and French warnings of last fall, Japan yesterday occupied the strategic island of Hainan off the Gulf of Tonking and French Indo-China and commanding the principal route between the British strongholds of Hong Kong and Singapore. Japanese Army and Navy forces made a surprise landing and drove the Chinese garrison into the interior, following in pursuit.

In Tokyo it was officially stated that it was necessary to take over Hainan in order to cut off flow of arms through French Indo-China to China. France has denied co-operating with such a movement.

The next move appears to be squarely up to Great Britain and France.

Hainan is about 100 miles east of French Indo-China.

The action of the Japanese in occupying Hainan extends Nippon controlled areas far to the south mainland territories into French, British, American and Dutch spheres.

PARLEY IS DIFFICULT

Impossible So Far To Get Arabs To Meet With Jews In London Conference

LONDON, Feb. 10: (CP)—There has been no success so far in getting delegates together at the projected conference between Arabs and Jews with a view to bringing about peace in Palestine. On the instructions of the Grand Mufti, Arab representatives have refused to meet the Jews at conference table. However, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain last night expressed hope that they might yet get together. Colonial Secretary Malcolm MacDonald is continuing his efforts in connection with the conference.

PERISHED IN FROST

Two Deaths, One at Bridge River and Other at Prince George, Attributed to Cold Wave

VANCOUVER, Feb. 10: (CP)—Two British Columbia deaths from cold are reported as lower mainland temperatures dropped to new lows for two years. John McPhail, aged 71, pioneer prospector, was frozen to death a few yards from his Tyax Lake cabin in the Bridge River district. Joe Hamram, 68, Prince George recluse, was found frozen to death yesterday in a cabin. Vancouver temperature today was nineteen above, the coldest since January 1937.

Names And Epithets Fly In Tumultuous Parliament As Bren Contracts Discussed

OTTAWA, February 10: (CP)—An appeal to all parties to unite "in a task which is the grandest of all, defence security of our country and heritage," was voiced in the House of Commons last night by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, minister of national defence, which brought out the most tumultuous scenes since the session opened.

Capt. Mackenzie said, during debate on the Bren gun contracts, that he had listened to the "most unfair attack ever made in the course of Canadian history." He struck back at his critics in such scathing terms that the House was kept in constant uproar. He accused the Conservatives of doing more damage to defence than any other party since Confederation.

Ignoring demands that he should resign, the minister at one stage offered to "knock the head off" an unnamed Conservative who had cried "grafter" when he (Mackenzie) mentioned the name of Hon. J. L. Ralston, chief counsel at the Bren gun inquiry. Mackenzie said that whoever said he was a "grafter" is "a dirty liar and, if he says it outside the House, I'll knock his head off."

Interrupted by Karl Homuth, Conservative member for Waterloo South, Mackenzie said he wanted nothing from the "Prussian mentality of the member for Waterloo South" who he said "never had been loyal to party or principle all his life. Later the minister with-

KITCHENER FIRM GETS CONTRACT

Word has been received from Olof Hanson M. P. at Ottawa, that an order-in-council has been passed accepting a tender from the Interior Hardwood Co. Ltd. of Kitchener, Ontario for supplying and installing the interior fittings of the new federal building here. The price is $7,777. It is expected the building will be occupied about March 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Finnie, after a visit of several months in Scotland, returned to the city on last night's train.

Loyalists To Keep On Resistance, 'Tis Still Stated Today

However, Reports Differ and Insurgents Suggest Madrid and Valencia May Surrender By February 18— Britain and France Strive for Peace

VALENCIA, February 10: (CP)—Premier Negrin arrived in the central zone of Spain today for the avowed purpose of continuing loyalist resistance to General Francisco Franco. He will meet other leaders here. With the insurgents having completed the conquest of Catalonia when a small column raised General Francisco Franco's flag at Puigcerda, the last government outpost practically on the French frontier, there had been reports that the surrender of the Madrid-Valencia area was under discussion between General Franco and General Miwa, the government leader at Madrid. The arrival of Negrin, however, would indicate that the loyalists intend to carry on their resistance to the end.

HOPES ARE ABANDONED

Crew of British Ship, Which Foundered in Atlantic, Conceded To Have Perished

NEW YORK, Feb. 10: (CP)—Hope has been abandoned for the safety of thirty-seven members of the crew of the British freighter, Maria de Larrinaga, finding of wreckage of which indicated that the vessel had foundered about 1200 miles northeast of New York in the Atlantic Ocean in the course of a voyage from Gulf ports to England. Search vessels, finding no sign of life after thoroughly combing the wreckage area, have now resumed their interrupted voyages.

Rescue ships, in ending the search for the lost British freighter's crew, wireless: "It is certain she foundered." There is only the slimmest hope that any survivors could be clinging to wreckage in the mountainous seas.

FIRE PROTECTION

The fire at Dodge Cove yesterday when A. Enochson's home and boat were destroyed is a reminder that very many smaller communities have absolutely no fire protection and find it difficult to get insurance. It would not be a very big job to instal an elevated tank to which water could be pumped and piped to all nearby homes. By using a small gas engine the tank could be kept filled and the water could be used for household purposes as well as for fire protection. It may be too big a job for very small places but it seems that running water is about the last thing many people think about. That is one advantage of living in towns or incorporated villages.

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION

The state of Washington has had a committee investigating the oil industry of that state but no recommendation was made for the lowering of the price of gasoline. That state obtains most of its oil from California and the price is lower there than in British Columbia because there is no duty to pay. Otherwise there does not seem to be very much difference in cost. Occasionally it varies and complaint is made that gasoline is sold for less at Ketchikan than here, irrespective of duties. It would seem as if the Macdonald report was not based on realities. There is no doubt that, by eliminating costs of marketing, many necessities of life could be sold for less than is the case today but that would put many people out of employment. We are always out seeking new industries so why make it difficult for industries to operate? Even if the price of gasoline is kept down by law, that does not help the poor man who has no car and no boat. If the business man has to pay more for his gasoline he adds the cost to the commodities he sells.

PORTLAND, Feb. 10: (CP) — Vancouver and Portland played to a three-all overtime draw in last night's Pacific Coast Hockey League fixture here. TELLS OF VISITS TO ROTARIANS

Lieut. Col. Christen Junget Makes Tour of World and Tells Local Rotary Club of Experiences

"We don't know anything about fellowship in this country. The receptions given to visitors to Rotary Clubs in the East is quite overwhelming. It is wonderful," declared Lieut. Colonel Christen Junget, who returned to Victoria last summer from a vagabond cruise around the world, making many official visits to Rotary Clubs at such places as Hongkong, Singapore, Phillipine Islands and Batavia. Everywhere he was received with wonderful cordiality. He told about his trip in an address yesterday afternoon before the Prince Rupert Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon. Guests present included Captain J. R. Elfert, Lieut. Col. Gibson and Mr. Colburn of Esquimalt, Dr. L. J. Pugsley of Prince Rupert and R. J. Cummins of Vancouver.

Col. Junget said he left Los Angeles on January 8 of last year and returned to the same port in June.

He visited several of the Phillipine Islands and at Shanghai in China. At Hong Kong there is a large club. Members gather half an hour before the meeting and regale themselves and talk over the news of the day. Their hospitality is almost embarrassing. After the meeting the secretary of the club took him to see things in the city. Many Chinese were members of the club and he found them to be most charming people. The president was the president of the Canton-Kowloon Railway. While they were sitting at dinner a telegram arrived for the president and was handed to him. He opened it and then passed it over to his guest. It announced that the Japanese had just torn up three miles of his track. His only remark was "This is the third time this week, damn them," and then went on with his dinner.

One of the outstanding visits was that to the Rotary Club at Sarobai. He arrived in the city about eight o'clock and drove at once to the Simpan Club where the dinner was held, arriving fifteen minutes late. He was welcomed by a jovial Dutchman and, although he could not understand a word of what they were saying, he enjoyed himself immensely. He was taken to see everything next day.

At Batavia, the capital of the Dutch East Indies, the outstanding event was attending a Rihstabel with a committee of Rotarians. When they were seated and ready to start, a row of about 25 Javanese boys lined up, each carrying a different kind of food. They came one at a time and deposited some on his large plate. Starting with rice they piled up chicken, duck and dozens of other kinds of food until his plate looked like a mountain. The guest also drank quantities of beer. He succumbed soon after starting but, he said, it was the first and last feast of that kind for him.

Singapore had a most remarkable club. Members spoke 21 different languages. It was a never-to-be-forgotten event. So that everyone might know what was going on, mimeographed copies of the address were distributed in advance. The members included Tibetans in their robes, Malaysians, Chinese and all the other races of the Orient. The fellowship was splendid. Even Chinese and Japanese mingled. The gathering started half an hour before the dinner commenced and their favorite drink was "Singapore Sling." He did not know what it was except that it contained dynamite.

Later he visited South America. At Baranquilla he visited a shop owned by a Rotarian. The man immediately closed up the establishment in order that he might show his visitor around the city and properly welcome him.

The speaker said he thought Canadians had much to learn from many of these places.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Prince Rupert Harbor will be closed to herring seining as from 11 o'clock next Wednesday, February 15, it is announced at the office of the Dominion Fisheries. This is the same time as the closure took place last year. So far this season 16,000 tons of herring has been taken out of this harbor as compared with 20,000 last year when fishing was closed. The closure does not apply to waters outside of Prince Rupert Harbor.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, arrived in port at 2:30 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Making her final voyage on this run in place of the regular steamer Cardena which will be back in service next week, Union steamer Venture, Capt. John Boden, is due in port at 11 o'clock tonight from the south and will sail at 10:30 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Residents of Skidegate Inlet were surprised to see a fleet of seiners in the Inlet one day last week. They were in command of Capt. Charles Haan and had made the run from Pacofi to prospect for herring. However, they found the schools not very large so they returned the next day to Pacofi. Ken Fraser, manager of the Pacofi reduction plant, was with the fleet. The B. C. Packers are using local labor as much as possible at the Pacofi plant, a policy which is meeting with general approval on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

BIG FILM OF MUSIC

"The Goldwyn Follies," a lavish musical extravaganza in technicolor, came to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as the feature attraction last night and will be shown again tonight. It presents a great array of stars and talent and has been produced on a lavish scale.

The screen cast is headed by Adolphe Menjou, the Ritz Brothers and Andrea Leeds. From radio Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Kenny Baker and Phil Baker were obtained for the picture. Helen Jepson and Charles Kullman came from grand opera; Bobby Clark and petite Ella Logan from musical comedy and Zorina and George Balanchine's American ballet from the Metropolitan Opera.

The story is a comedy of Hollywood in which Menjou is cast as a film producer out of touch with his public, Andrea Leeds being a typical American girl whom he hires to keep him posted on what the public wants.

Several song hits are introduced including "Love Walked In," "I Was Doing All Right," "I Love to Rhyme" and "Love Is Here to Stay," the music being by George Gershwin and lyrics by Ira Gershwin. There are also beautiful ballets and other spectacles with elaborate settings and costumes.

PROBLEM FOR CITY

Commissioner Alder Wondering What to do with Indigent Patients at Hospital

What to do with seven indigent patients not requiring active treatment at the Prince Rupert General Hospital, government per diem grant for whom has now been stopped since they have been in the institution for over three hundred days, leaving them a complete charge upon the city, is the problem that is now facing City Commissioner W. J. Alder. The hospital charge to the city for these patients is the minimum rate of $2.50. As the number will shortly be increased to eleven, the total cost per year would be $9,900. With a view to cutting down this charge, the commissioner is thinking over the possibility of taking over a building to house such cases, staffing it, possibly, with a man and his wife.

Mr. Alder said yesterday that he was fully appreciative of the position of the hospital board in the matter. He admitted that it was impossible for the hospital to carry such cases on with no remuneration other than the 70c per day civic grant now that the 70c government grant has been withdrawn.

I'm no millionaire!

—but I've borrowed from the bank for years

How? By meeting the simple requirements a sound banker asks from any borrower, no matter who he is.

First, he wants to know what the money is to be used for. That's reasonable; and I tell him quite frankly all the details.

He wants to know how I propose to pay the money back. So, I give him a list of all outstanding bills, current expenses and my income. That gives him a clear picture of how I stand.

He wants to know where I work and how long I've held my present position. He asks for security. Naturally, he's lending depositors' money, that must be paid back on demand.

And if I happen to have no security he often lends me money on my own note of hand, with one responsible endorser—because we've done business together for years.

That's all there is to it! I have always kept my side of the bargain, paid back as agreed, and established a line of credit that often proved useful when cash was badly needed.

PIUS XI, POPE OF PEACE AND RECONCILIATION, DEAD

It is expected to elect a new Pope on February 28. Any one may be elected but for centuries the choice of a Pope has been from among the Cardinals.

Pope Pius XI was the 261st head of the Roman Catholic Church. Eighty-one years of age, he would have celebrated the seventeenth anniversary of his coronation had he lived until next Sunday.

As "pope of the conciliation," who ended the 59-year-old "Roman question" and regained temporal power for the Vatican...

Controversies with the totalitarian regimes in Italy and Germany hinged largely upon the pope's insistence upon the right of the church to train children in church schools.

When the "godless" campaign spread through the Soviet Union he made overtures for closer relations with the Russian Orthodox and other eastern churches.

Spanish Insurgency Spain's civil war was a recurring sore spot. The Vatican saw loyalist Spain as communistic, and exchanged envoys with the insurgent government.

problems which confronted his regime. France, Mexico, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Spain, Italy, Germany and, after "Anschluss," Austria, all posed questions which taxed the diplomacy of the church.

The French question confronted Pius at the start of his reign. The gap between church and government there, caused by expulsion of religious orders in 1905, had been bridged only in 1921.

From boyhood he was an honor scholar. He completed his academic education at the Lombard Seminary in Rome and was ordained a priest on December 20, 1879.

So, too, Pope Pius claimed that decrees of Adolf Hitler's Nazi government in Germany, hostile to Catholic Youth organizations, was a violation of the concordat of 1933.

Spain's civil war was a recurring sore spot. The Vatican saw loyalist Spain as communistic, and exchanged envoys with the insurgent government.

in the Vatican and through the Word War years began to show the diplomatic qualities which were to bring him preferment and elevation to the throne of St. Peter.

Poland became a nation in October, 1918, and Ratti was made the first casual nuncio to the new state, with jurisdiction, on behalf of the church, over all the territory that had been looted by the war from the former Russian empire.

The choice of his motto was prophetic. His coat of arms bore the words "reptum transit," meaning "it passes rapidly." Just eight months after his elevation to the cardinalate he was chosen Supreme Pontiff of the Roman church.
