Every Citizen to Share Cost on Basis of Ability to Pay—May Be Guarded Measure of Credit Expansion—Tax Increases Announced

OTTAWA, September 12: (CP)—A "Pay as You Go" policy will be followed as far as practicable in financing Canadian war costs, Hon. J. L. Ilsley, minister of national revenue, told the House of Commons today when he presented the war budget on behalf of Hon. J. L. Ralston, minister of finance, who has no seat in the House as yet.

LONDON, September 12: (CP)—Anthony Eden, Secretary of State for the Dominions, in a broadcast address, said that there can be no peace until Nazism is banished from the earth.

PATTULLO DEFINITE IN VIEWS

Conscription Of Everything in United States Cannot Stay Out

VICTORIA, Sept. 12: (CP)—Speaking at a Pacific Northwest Sports Club district convention last night with many American delegates in attendance, Senator T. D. Pattullo declared that if Canada and United States sent two million men overseas, the war would soon end. Pattullo said he favored conscription of man and wealth. "There should be conscription of everything—every man, woman and child," he said.

"The freedom and liberty of the Canadian people is jeopardized, and the place to fight is on Canadian soil," said Mr. Pattullo. He recalled the pronouncement of President Franklin D. Roosevelt of the United States that United States would stand idly by and see the foreign invasion of Canada. Mr. Pattullo added: "We are now at war and liable to attack. What we wait or carry out the presidential policy. If they carry out that policy as I believe they will, if Canada is warring, so is the United States."

SHOOTING IN DAWSON

John Sipkus, Veteran Wood Dealer, Is Victim—Another Man Near Death

DAWSON, Sept. 12: (CP)—John Sipkus, pioneer Dawson wood dealer, was shot down yesterday as he wandered in the street here with a Royal Canadian Mounted Police officer. The shot is believed to have come from the window of a building where J. P. McPhee was found with a gun in his hands. McPhee is in hospital in serious condition.

War News

OTTAWA—Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King announced in the House of Commons today creation of a "voluntary registration bureau."

COPENHAGEN—Fourteen were killed when the Finnish bark Olive Bank was blown up, apparently by a mine about one hundred miles south of Esbjerg, southwest of Denmark.

MOSCOW—"Liquidation" of six violators of the Soviet frontier is reported by the newspaper Red Star.

WASHINGTON—Senator W. E. Borah, Idaho, the veteran isolationist, yesterday expressed his unalterable opposition to the removal of the arms embargo clause to belligerent nations from the neutrality act. He said to remove the embargo clause would surely involve United States in the war. He would resist any "gang rule" of the Senate.

VOTE DOWN C.C.F. MOVE

Socialists And French Canadians Opposed to Anything In Way Of Expeditionary Force

OTTAWA, September 12: (CP)—Co-operative Commonwealth Federation and ten Quebec members endeavoured in the House of Commons yesterday to forestall the sending of a Canadian expeditionary force to France but the move was voted down 151 to 16. Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King said that no such force was contemplated at this time but, if such a resolution as was proposed were adopted, it would stop the sending of airmen as was contemplated.

How War Cost Will Be Paid

The wartime budget disclosed that an excess profits tax will be levied by the government on business and additional taxes will be placed on incomes, all alcoholic and aerated beverages, tea, coffee and tobacco to meet war costs. The plan is to meet a larger portion of war cost out of increased taxes on luxuries and excess profits.

All businesses, whether incorporated or not, will pay taxes ranging from 10 to 20 per cent.

German Foreign Policy Is Bankrupt; Britain Will Not Deal Further With Hitler

LONDON, September 12: (CP)—The message of Vice-Chancellor Herman Goering of Germany is taken in official circles here as revealing bankruptcy in German foreign policy says a statement by the Ministry of Information. Now that she is at war, Great Britain will continue to fight until there is a return to decency in international dealings.

"Great Britain does not want another Versailles or a collapse of Germany but a lasting peace with any honorable German government," says the communique.

Referring to the broken promises of Hitler, the statement says that Great Britain can have no confidence in any further undertakings he may give.

"Great Britain is ready to negotiate an honorable peace at any time not with Hitler but only with a German government that can be trusted."

In regard to persistent reports from Germany that peace may be expected after the conquest of Poland has been completed, it is pointed out here that, under the terms of the mutual assistance pact, Poland must consult with Great Britain and France before it can make peace.

Battle Progress On Two Fronts

POLES IN TRAP NOW

So Say Germans in Regard to Position of Warsaw's Defenders

Bloody Battle

Poles Still Offering Resistance in Face of Advancing Nazi Hordes

BERLIN, Sept. 12: (CP)—The Polish army, fighting in and before Warsaw, especially at Modlin fortress on the northwest, is considered by the German military to be hopelessly trapped. All roads leading to Warsaw are claimed to be in German hands. General advances in other sections of the Polish campaign are claimed.

The bloodiest battle since the fighting in Poland began is now reported to be under way a few miles north of Lodz and about sixty miles from Warsaw. Three German divisions launched a counter-offensive against the retreating Poles who are evidently endeavouring to establish a position on the east bank of the Vistula for the purpose of offering real resistance.

A Warsaw dispatch said last night that the Polish defenders had driven back two German drives and that the Nazi lines had been broken.

The Poles are still holding the port of Gdynia near Danzig. This was one of the first German objectives when the invasion of Poland commenced.

German Consul Leaves Canada

Switzerland To Look After Reich Interests In Western Canada

WINNIPEG, September 12: (CP)—The acting German consul here is leaving for Chicago following Canada's declaration of war against Germany. The Swiss consular service will look after German interests in the four western provinces.

AMERICAN SHIP HELD

Vessel Stopped Off Irish Coast by German Submarine and Searched for Contraband

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The American freighter Wakesha was stopped by a German submarine yesterday off the coast of Ireland and searched for contraband. After being held up for a few hours, the ship was permitted to proceed.

GOVT TO BE READY

British Administration Has No Intention Of Being Caught Napping Should War Come Close To London

LONDON—September 12: (CP)—The government announces that it is taking steps to remove seven or eight thousand members of the staffs of government departments from London but stressed that the government itself is not leaving the capital. The government will not leave if it can possibly remain without loss of efficiency. The plan is described as a sectional one prompted by a desire for some degree of decentralization.

POLES ARE STILL BATTLING STUBBORNLY; ALLIES KEEP UP OFFENSIVE IN GERMANY

GERMANS CLAIM COLLAPSE OF WARSAW IMMINENT—ALLIES DRIVE WEDGE INTO ADVANCE FORTIFICATIONS OF WEST WALL

Europe's war continues with Germany still throwing its main might into the effort to completely subjugate Poland while the Allied forces on the western front keep up their assault well across the German frontier against the advance fortifications of the Siegfried Line.

A Polish general staff communique broadcast today declared that stout Polish resistance had brought German plane, tank and artillery to at least a temporary stalemate throughout a widespread battle zone. The communique announced that severe fighting was continuing along the Bug River without major change, the Germans throwing vast numbers of tanks into the struggle. Polish Army headquarters asserted that Warsaw's besiegers had been pushed back far into the capital's outskirts.

Meantime headquarters of the German Army west of Warsaw announced that German forces had launched a three front offensive which was expected to be the final push to break Polish resistance. One front is given as east of Radom, north of Lodz and northeast of Warsaw, where four Polish divisions are fighting with their backs to the Vistula River and reportedly beginning to surrender. The Germans also say there is a bitter struggle north of Lodz which appears to be ending with heavy Polish losses. On the third front the Germans are reported to be at the gates of Warsaw.

ON WESTERN FRONT

Meantime French dispatches reported that French advance guards had driven a wedge into the advance fortifications of Germany's West Wall east of Sarrbrucken. One section of attacking forces is said to have slightly turned the defences of the great industrial city of the Saar. Artillery is pounding the German lines surrounding the city.

These reports of French activity followed a war ministry morning communique saying merely that there had been a calm night along the front.

STILL ON ADVANCE

Allies Moving Forward Along Western Front Despite Strong Resistance

Best Day Yet

British Fighting Alongside French And Siegfried Line Is Seriously Threatened

PARIS, Sept. 12: (CP)—Despite strong resistance, French troops on the Maginot-West Wall line made important advances along a twelve mile front east of the Saar River, a French Army communique announced last night. The advances for the day were the greatest for any single day since fighting on the western front began.

More than six hundred square miles of German territory has fallen into allied hands to as great a depth as thirteen miles at certain points. The Siegfried line is in imminent danger of being broken through in the direction of such important cities as Mannheim and Coblenz.

It was revealed last night that British troops were now fighting alongside the French on the western front giving infinitely better support than they were able to at the start of the war in 1914.

Four small German towns are reported to have been captured by the Allies. German counter-attacks were thrust back with the opposing forces coming together with hand to hand bayonet fighting.

French troops are moving up to the lines in a steady stream and air observers report roads from the other side almost a solid mass of German troops in reinforcement.

Observers believe a major battle to be impending.

Two French planes were reported to have been shot down by the Germans near Saarbrucken yesterday.

SUB MENACE PAST WORST

Eighteen Is Toll Of British Shipping To Date By German Submarines

LONDON, September 12: (CP)—Eighteen British ships have so far been sunk by German submarines, yesterday adding three to the list. The steamer Firby, near the New Hebrides, was a victim yesterday. An American vessel rescued the crew.

Today the Ministry of Information announced that the tanker Inverliffy had been sunk.

The German U-boat "sink on sight" campaign against British merchantment is reaching a turning point in the opinion of naval experts after ten days of warfare, the odds winging definitely in favour of the navy surface craft.

War Declaration Pleases Britain

French Press Also Enthusiastic About Canada Formally Entering Fight

LONDON, Sept. 12: (CP)—Canada's declaration of war against Germany was greeted officially here as an "event of the greatest importance." A Ministry of Education communique described it as "another example of the solidarity of the Empire." In France the press greeted it enthusiastically.

THINK OF FIRE BUG

Possibility of Incendiarism Seen In Warehouse Blaze at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Sept. 12: (CP)—Possibility of incendiarism is being checked by fire officials and police following the $200,000 blaze which seriously damaged a four-story warehouse here and sent to firemen to hospital with cuts and shock with others slightly injured. Meantime a man is being held on a charge of assault following a scuffle with Fireman Richard Cloke at the scene of the fire.

Weather Forecast

General Synopsis—Pressure is high west of Vancouver Island and a moderate depression is centred over Washington. The weather has been fair and moderately warm over the coast with scattered showers over the interior. West Coast of Vancouver Island—Fresh north to northwest winds, partly cloudy and moderately warm, probably showers at night.

DIFFICULT FOR SOME

Canada is at war with Germany and many new Canadians will find it difficult to orient themselves under the new conditions. There are some people of German birth here and others who belong to countries that are or were recently sympathetic with Germany. There is nothing to indicate that any of these people are anything but loyal to the land of their adoption. At the same time their position is difficult as they will be quite easily suspected and should avoid all appearance of being associated with an enemy country. Canada at war is bound to be somewhat different from Canada at peace.

THE PATRIOT

One of the newer books "The Patriot" by Pearl S. Buck has for the hero a Chinaman who lives for ten years in Japan, does well there, marries a Japanese girl and has two sons and then, when Japan goes to war with China, he leaves his wife and family to fight for his native country against the country of his adoption. The story analyzes the reaction of the characters, showing how the Japanese are intensely patriotic, even though they do not always show it. They take affliction stoically but are very intense in their devotion to their emperor whom they worship. It also shows the effects of war on human character and also the effect of marriage on human character. The outstanding feature, however, is its relation to the present situation in this country, showing that most people are patriotic to the land of their birth or at any rate sympathetic to their own people and rightly so. It could hardly be otherwise. What it is necessary to impress upon people is that, when they became Canadian citizens, they swore fealty to the King and renounced all other allegiances. That means that the enemies of Canada are the enemies of all citizens. All who do not feel that obligation are not true citizens and have to be watched or possibly put under restraint until the war is over. We feel great sympathy with those who are affected by this war but it must be remembered that it is war and Canada cannot afford to take any chances.

Germans Bought Horses In Eire

French, Swiss and Belgian Agents Also Paid High Prices

DUBLIN, Eire, Sept. 12: (CP)—International tension in Europe boosted Eire's export trade in horse-flesh to a new high.

Before Britain announced war against Germany, buyers for the German, French, Swiss and Belgian governments toured the country following Dublin's famous horse show, paying up to $350 for army horses—a new record.

France has forbidden all horse-flesh exports.

Switzerland, a European clearing house for war steeds, has been buying close to 2,000 Irish horses a year.

Shipments of horses from Eire to Germany rocketed to a new record in August. One batch of 100 was shipped direct to Hamburg.

Fines In Police Court In August This Year Lower

Police court fines for the month of August in Prince Rupert totalled $862 as compared with $980 in the same month last year, bringing the total for 1939 to date to $3283 in comparison with $2492 in the first eight months of 1938.

WAR MAKES CHANGE IN VIEWPOINT

Many Subjects Reported On At Meeting Of Chamber Of Commerce Of Little Interest Because Of War

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, dealt with a number of reports and other matters, most of which had been made inoperative owing to the changed conditions brought about by the war. F. A. MacCallum, who presided in the absence of the president, spoke of the change and stated that he was sure everyone would do his utmost toward winning the war on which the country had been launched. It overshadowed every other activity. A letter received from G. C. W. Browne, assistant controller of radio at Ottawa, stated that H. O. Merriman, engineer in charge of interference conditions, would be in the city at the end of this month or the beginning of next to look into conditions or reception here.

Following reading of a letter in regard to tourist matters from T. W. Brown, member of the tourist council, S. E. Parker urged upon the Chamber keener interest in matters pertaining to Stewart and other district centres. He was disappointed that it had not been found feasible to run an excursion to Stewart this year.

Theo Collart, who recently returned from Stewart, told of attending a meeting of the Stewart Board of Trade which was much better attended than the present meeting. He urged closer cooperation with Stewart and that Prince Rupert people visit that place more often.

The Chamber decided to take no action in regard to a suggested change in customs regulations allowing the purchase of goods by tourists without customs charges. A report on the matter of technical education was adopted by the Chamber after a brief discussion, the conditions having been changed by the outbreak of war. The proposal for the setting aside of a million dollars by the Dominion for co-operative work with the provinces was not agreed to. On motion of Theo Collart, Olof Hanson will be asked to inquire at Ottawa what are the possibilities of the air base going ahead.

The report of the committee on labor was adopted, the important feature being a request to the Dominion Government to consider the idea of pensioning persons of advanced age who could not be employed. The City Commissioner made a strong plea for action which would provide for those who, as a result of the minimum wage, could not obtain employment.

The question of preventing the shipment of supplies to aid Japan in the war against China was not dealt with, it being considered that conditions had changed here and all such things would be regulated by the government.

The committee securing signatures as to the request for a plebiscite on the city manager form of government reported and was asked to carry on. A great many more signatures are necessary before the vote can be taken. It was reported that 120 had signed and 275 were necessary.

A brief report was received by Peter Laikie on the recent Board of Trade convention at Prince George.

S. E. Parker spoke briefly in regard to the Alaska Highway proposal.

UNCLE SAM THINKS OF WAR ALSO

Not Looking For Mobilization But Getting Ready For It

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12: (AP)—M-Day stands for Mobilization Day. Uncle Sam hopes it will never come, but, with Europe boiling, he wants to be ready for anything. That means far more than building up his army and navy for modern warfare extends from the soldier in the front-line trench to the remotest hamlet in the rear.

In 1918, in the last years of the Great War, they built a squat, square, factory-like structure of concrete, steel and bricks in Washington. An eyesore, nobody expected it to last five years.

Today, 21 years later, the munitions building still stands, a living monument to American preparedness.

In one of the cubicles within the building are stenographers and clerks, busy as beavers on a dam. They don't talk to strangers. Their assignment is confidential. Over the door, the usual label is missing. There's only a number—No. 2508.

This room is headquarters of the one "temporary" organization in the United States government charged with achieving American unity in an emergency—such as war or threat of war. It is the one arm of the United States directed by Congress to combine the efficiency of a dictatorship with the spirit of democracy. Room No. 2508 is the headquarters of the War Resources Board.

How It Works

The War Resources Board is so organized that it can become, at a word from Congress and the President, an all-powerful War Resources Administration headed by an industrial czar with the nation's industrial capacity in its train.

The board itself was selected only a few weeks ago by the assistant secretary of war, Louis Johnson, and the assistant secretary of the navy, Charles Edison, with the President's approval. It is headed by youthful white-haired Edward Stettinius, Jr., chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, and a strong business committee.

Behind all these men stands wily, slight Col. Harry K. Rutherford of the munitions division of the army. Colonel Rutherford's first job, as secretary of the board, is to outline the scope of the task. He has to show the board how the mobilization plan works—on paper.

"Then," says the colonel, "they'll take the helm and tell us where we're wrong on a practical basis. They'll show us where our transportation kinks are, where our distribution would break down, where production should be speeded or retarded."

The War Resources Board is intended to be a permanent nucleus of the national mobilization plan—a measure of preparedness ordered

Used Shoe Polish To Dye Grey Hair

CALGARY, Sept. 12: (CP)—A seventy-seven year-old veteran of the South African and Great War will be unable to serve in the latest war. He had offered to enlist and was waiting to interview enlistment officers when he commenced to perspire whereupon shoe polish with which he had endeavoured to distinguish his white hair trickled down his face.

WRONG ABOUT IRISH

EAGLEVILLE, Sept. 12: (CP)—Back from Ireland after 11 years of residence there, Mrs. Vincent Kelly says she never once saw the kind of a character the American stage and comic section create for Irish roles. "And I've seen only a few red-haired Irishmen," she said.

WAR BILL SPEEDILY APPROVED

High Commissioners To Be Named To Other Dominions—Big Sum For New C. N. R. Equipment

OTTAWA, September 12: (CP)—Canada's $100,000,000 war appropriation passed third reading in the House of Commons yesterday and was sent on to the Senate where it was speedily adopted. This appropriation is in addition to the regular defence estimates which were approved at the last session and are designed to meet the costs of war between now and the end of the fiscal year on March 31 next.

To facilitate closer co-operation within the Empire, it was announced that Canadian high commissioners would be established in Australia, New Zealand and other Dominions.

Under a bill to be introduced the sum of $30,000,000 will be made available to the Canadian National Railways for new equipment, this being twice as much as had been contemplated by the board, the outbreak of war making more equipment necessary. Much of the money will be used to purchase new freight cars to handle grain which will be shipped to the Atlantic seaboard for shipment to the United Kingdom. Less grain will go to the Pacific, entailing a longer haul. The new figure is expected to cover company requirements for the present and coming fiscal year.

Hon. J. L. Halsey, minister of national revenue, said it was impossible to definitely estimate all financial requirements at this time. Therefore, no details of proposed war expenditures were presented.

CONSTIPATION DOUSES YOUR FIRE

You can't shine at work or play if you're troubled with constipation. And common constipation is not a necessary evil. Too little bulk in your diet often causes it. Foods like meat, bread and potatoes do not form the "bulky" mass the bowels need for regular movements. They become lazy. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, a crisp, delightful cereal. It helps to supply the "bulk" you need. And it is especially rich in Nature's intestinal tonic, Vitamin B. Try this sensible routine: Eat ALL-BRAN every day. And drink plenty of water. Discover how fine it feels to be "regular" again.

County Court Is In Session

Judge W. E. Fisher, not yet being back from Atlin where he has been conducting a session of County Court for the hearing of an action wherein M. G. Caswell has been suing Axel Nelson for $1000, there was no judge in attendance on the regular monthly sitting date of County Court here yesterday but cases were set before the registrar, Andrew Thompson. The Atlin case, it is understood, has already been disposed of with a dismissal. W. O. Fulton appeared for the plaintiff and T. W. Brown for the defendant, and both counsel, together with the judge, are awaiting transportation back from Atlin.

This month's list for local hearing included a civil action in which George Eales is suing Maureen Faulkner for $140. W. O. Fulton is acting for the plaintiff and R. L. McCannan for the defendant. Date is to be fixed.

An appeal of M. Saiki against a conviction and fine of $300 imposed by Charles E. Pogson, Justice of the Peace at Port Essington, under the Liquor Act was set for September 18.

Two naturalization applications are also on the list for September.

SEA LORD HAS MANY NEW IDEAS

Sir Reginald Pound Won Fame At Jutland And Learned His Big Job In Critical Period

LONDON, Sept. 12: (CP)—In a big paneled room in the British Admiralty in Whitehall, beneath oil paintings of historic naval battles and portraits of famed British seadogs, Admiral of the Fleet Sir Reginald Pound, First Sea Lord, works at a big oak desk.

In Whitehall he ranks next below Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, who is responsible to Prime Minister Chamberlain for running the navy in the war. Sir Reginald is chief of the naval staff.

Sir Reginald was appointed First Sea Lord last May, succeeding the ailing Sir Roger Backhouse, who since died. Called the "father" of Britain's modern naval strategy, Sir Reginald was in July promoted to the highest rank—Admiral of the Fleet, equivalent to field-marshal in the army.

For 20 years Sir Reginald has preached his "gospel" of "offense and attack" as opposed to the "passive defense" policy that governed British naval strategy immediately before the Great War and in the first two years of the war itself.

A firm believer in the "big ship" theory, he has never troubled to conceal his opinion that Britain must be prepared for a "show-down" in the Mediterranean.

Speaking to London newspapermen in April, 1933, Sir Reginald advocated more capital ships.

"There's going to be a hell of a fight in the next two or three years, whether we build them or whether we don't," he declared. "We have got to build them." Britain has recently been launching new warships at the rate of more than one a week.

Through Hard Years

Sir Reginald probably knows the vital Mediterranean area better than any other man in the navy. He was commanding the British fleet there when he was called home last May to take his present post.

Sir Reginald should have taken command of the Mediterranean Fleet in November 1935. After his appointment was announced the Admiralty decided a change of command would be unwise during the tension stirred by the Italian conquest of Ethiopia and extended the term of Admiral Sir William Fisher, then commander-in-chief.

Sir Reginald, himself a full admiral, caused a sensation in naval circles by volunteering to serve as Admiral Fisher's chief of staff, an unprecedented position for a man of his rank. He finally took over the command in March 1936.

There followed three critical years for the British fleet. The Mediterranean crisis over Ethiopia was simmering down but there was no return to normal. Trouble in Palestine, civil war in Spain kept British warships alert at both

GIVING LONDON'S ANTI-GAS OFFICES THEIR TESTS

British enthusiasm for gas proof chambers and gas masks was slightly damped when scientists from Cambridge University denounced these forms of protection as ineffective and not a safeguard against gas attacks. The sceptical scientists published a book in which they stated (1) The average person could remain in a "gas-proof" chamber only three hours. (2) The gas mask will give a limited amount of protection. (3) If chambers were made "gas-tight" they would be too small to live in for 12 hours. These startling facts, however, do not seem to worry the young people in the above photographs. These show office employees of London's newest office building, which installed anti-gas chambers, shrapnel proof glass and a water filter system. The young lady at the left will be able to take her mask off when she closes the chamber door. At the upper right is a trio of the employees making themselves comfortable in one of the chambers, the gas-proof door tightly shut. In the lower right a young lady samples water from the filter system which has been installed to service the underground rooms.

MINISTERS IN SESSION

The Prince Rupert Ministerial Association met yesterday. It elected officers for the ensuing year and made plans for the season's work. Last year's officers were re-elected, Rev. J. C. Jackson remaining President and Rev. E. E. Brandt, secretary.

Considerable attention was given to the question of war and the position that the churches should take in view of the present emergency. The view presented by the Oxford Conference was considered at some length. It was agreed that it was the duty of the churches to probe the underlying sources of the evil and point to the ultimate remedy.

"War," the Oxford Conference said, "the occasion of war, and all situations which conceal the fact of conflict under the guise of outward peace are marks of a world to which the church is charged to proclaim the gospel of redemption. War involves compulsory enmity, diabolical outrage to human personality and a wanton distortion of the truth. War is a particular demonstration of the power of sin in this world and a defiance of the righteousness of God as revealed in Jesus Christ and him crucified. No justification of war must be allowed to conceal or minimize this fact.

"In all situations the Christian has to bear in mind both the absolute command, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself' and the obligation to do what most nearly corresponds to that command in the circumstances confronting him. His actions may be but a poor expression of perfect love. The man is caught in a sinful situation, to the evil of which he may have contributed much or little. The best that is possible falls far short of the glory of God and is, in that sense, sin. Each man must bear his share of the corporate sin which has rendered impossible any better course. Yet to do what appears relatively best is an absolute duty before God and to fail in this is to incur positive guilt.

The search for the will of God is a matter of agonizing perplexity for the Christian whose country is involved in war. The positions taken vary from holding that war is always sin and must be renounced absolutely to the view that the state is divinely appointed and that it is therefore the Christian's duty to obey the political authority. This means that normally a Christian must take up arms for his country. Between these two views are those who would participate only in 'just wars,' i.e. wars justifiable on the basis of international law to defend the victims of wanton aggression or to secure freedom for the oppressed.

LEGION IN WAR AGAIN

All Its Resources at Disposal of Government For Campaign

The executive of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League was in session last evening in preparation for the general meeting on Wednesday.

Considerable time was devoted to the discussion of the activities of the Legion and its members during the present state of affairs with Canada at war. Instructions from headquarters were considered at length. The whole resources of the Canadian Legion had been placed at the disposal of the government at the outbreak of war and these were being used as far as possible. With the average age of the veteran being forty-nine there were few opportunities for them to engage in active operations though the veterans' survey had placed a tremendous amount of valuable information in the hands of the authorities.

Letters of thanks for help accorded needy families and other forms of social service were read. The thanks of the officer commanding the troops in the Prince Rupert area for the help given the troops had been received. Other ways in which the Legion might assist were considered and a committee was instructed to go into the matter fully with the officers commanding the various units.

The members in attendance in addition to president Jack Preece were W. J. Rance, Neil Cameron, W. M. Brown, H. T. Lock, G. J. Dawes, G. Abbott, J. M. Walker and John Armstrong.

One Criminal Case May Not Be Proceeded With—Appeal and Two Divorces

There will, apparently, be a rather light docket at the fall session of the Supreme Court Assize to be held in Prince Rupert opening September 27. There is only one case on the criminal list which it is possible may not be proceeded with. In this Etwell Dan, a Bahine Indian, is charged with a statutory offence. Other hearings so far set down include a stated case in which John Saunders is appealing against a liquor selling conviction and two divorce petitions.
