New Alliances Are Being Lined Up

Italo-German Treaty Directed At France-Britain It Is Admitted

Particular Pains Are Taken to Stress That it is Not Anti-Communist—Poland Warned of Implications

MILAN, Italy, May 8: (CP)—Hope for German-Polish reconciliation grew in Italian political circles today as Fascists pondered the implications of their new political alliance with Germany. Informed Fascists reasoned that Premier Benito Mussolini would not have agreed to such an alliance as was announced Sunday if he had expected it would involve him in an Eastern European conflict as soon as it was signed.

In Berlin Nazi officials hailed the new German-Italian military pact as a mighty steel bulwark guarding European peace and took occasion to direct Polish attention to its implications. Whether or not the new "ideological" reshuffling will bring Germany closer to Soviet Russia as a reaction appears to be uncertain. It was indicated plainly that it was not aimed at communism but at what Nazis call the "encirclement powers," especially Great Britain and France.

Japan Seeking Military Pact With Fascists

TOKYO, May 8: (CP)—Domei News Agency said today that Lieutenant General Seishiro Itagaki, Minister of War, and General Kuniaki Koiso, Minister of Overseas Affairs, had told the Japanese press that they favor the conclusion of a military agreement with Germany and Italy.

Telkwa Is Staging Come-Back; New Industries Being Started By People On Own Initiative

By C. H. SAWLE in Omineca Herald

Telkwa is coming back. Of all the places along the Canadian National Railway from the Pacific coast eastward it is the one place that is showing some real progress and there is no government or railway finances going into the place. That is the real healthy and promising feature. The people there are doing it themselves. There is not a great deal of money in any one bank account in or around Telkwa but there is a big credit account of faith in the country and a belief that work will be rewarded.

Many years ago F. M. Dockrill took up the development of a coal mine and during the recent bad years he has kept it going and retained a pay roll at Telkwa as well as furnishing the public with a high grade of fuel at a reasonable price. He has been joined by his sons as they grew up and now the coal mine is a success.

Then C. P. Bussinger went into the grocery business on his own account and, as he was well known and a real force of energy and accommodation, he made it stick. He then added the hotel to his enterprises and that is holding its own. He bought and repaired homes and moved an old store building and put it in shape and his places are all rented.

Now Bussinger is branching out in the industrial line. He first got a big farm, then put a number of good bacon pigs on it with first class boar at the head. Today he has sixty-five little pigs running around and more to come. He started processing pork and it turned out to be good, so good in fact that he could hardly keep up with the demand. He has a smokehouse and he is now fitting up a place for a regular packing house. He is buying all the pigs the farmers have to sell and if some one wishes to sell their pigs before they are ready for the market he will buy them and put them in feeding pens on the farm. His idea is to provide a market for all the pigs the farmers want to raise.

Besides accommodation for all the pigs he has himself Mr. Bussinger is building more pens, fencing in more yards and clearing and planting a big acreage for feed and pas-

Creamery Opens

The first of this month the Telkwa Creamery will open and that will be a cash market for all the cream the farmers of the interior can produce and the farmers need not think they can produce too much. The Telkwa Creamery is a modern plant and it will turn out a high grade of butter.

These two industries, the creamery and the pork packing plant, may mean in a very few years a thriving town at Telkwa and a healthy, prosperous and contented agricultural population in the Bulkley, Kispiox and Skeena Valleys, because produce will be taken from far and near.

The Bulkley Valley Co-operative Seed Growers Association established at Telkwa a few years ago a seed cleaning plant, not a great big thing but one that has added many thousands of dollars to the receipts of the farmers who have patronized it and that plant today has a high reputation among all the seed buying houses in Canada. J. G. Donaldson, as president, and T. J. Thorp, as secretary, have given this industry very careful and efficient management with most gratifying results to the farmers.

Farm lands are being taken up in the Telkwa area and the older

COLORFUL, THRILLING DEPARTURE

King and Queen Given Great Send-off As They Leave On Precedent-Breaking Trip

ENJOY GLOOMY VOYAGE

ABOARD THE EMPRESS OF AUSTRALIA, May 8: (CP)—Quebec bound, the royal flotilla crawled through the quiet Atlantic today in single file as moisterly, southwesterly winds blew fog banks over the Empress of Australia and her convoy. The sea was less boisterous today than it was yesterday. Their Majesties continued to enjoy the trip in spite of the gloomy weather.

PORTSMOUTH, May 8: (CP)—

The great Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Australia was glistening in a new coat of white paint as she weighed anchor here at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and headed out across the Atlantic Ocean from this naval base with King George and Queen Elizabeth aboard for their precedent-breaking trip to Canada, the United States and Newfoundland. It was a thrilling and colorful scene.

As the mooring ropes cast off and tugs pulled the liner's nose slowly out from the dock, the King and Queen stood watching flag-decked warships in the harbor, and thousands of cheering spectators massed on the shore. Frequently they waved as the ship drew away. As the liner passed through the narrow harbor mouth, a roar of cheering and a thunder of artillery salutes rolled out.

Escorted by the 9100-ton cruisers Southampton and Glasgow and with the 32,000-ton Repulse, on which it had been originally planned their Majesties would travel, the Empress headed west through the English Channel.

From Portland Admiral Sir Charles Forbes, commander-in-chief of the Home Fleet in his flagship, the battleship Nelson, led the main division of the fleet into the channel.

As the Empress of Australia passed through the lane they formed after turning about, each warship fired a twenty-one gun salute.

Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose said good-bye to their parents aboard the liner shortly before sailing time. At the dock were Queen Mary, the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester and the Duke and Duchess of Kent.

MEAL COST $5

Sverre Larson, for obtaining a meal fraudulently, was fined $5, with option of three days' imprisonment, in city police court by Magistrate McClymont. He paid the fine.

farms are being extended. There is progress being shown on every hand and the enthusiasm shown by the people in the town of Telkwa is spreading like a grass fire to all those living round about. There is a fine spirit of optimism and enthusiasm in Telkwa that is good for the people there, but better for the visitors.

Another Step in Anti-Aggression Front—Britain Ready to Act as Mediator in Polish-German Dispute Over Danzig

LONDON, May 8: (CP)—A military alliance of limited scope between Great Britain and Turkey will be announced this week, possibly on Wednesday or Thursday. The announcement will be made simultaneously in London and Ankara. The alliance will constitute another step in the British anti-aggression front but the terms will be much stronger than the guarantees to Poland, Roumania and Greece.

Three main provisions, it is reported, are that Turkey will line up with Great Britain in any war in the Mediterranean area in which Italy is on the other side, Turkey will fight alongside Great Britain in any war in the Balkan area providing Anglo-Russian negotiations now in progress result in a satisfactory agreement and Britain, and probably France, will extend territorial guarantees to Turkey.

Meantime Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and Richard Butler, Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, indicated in the House of Commons that the government is ready to act as a mediator in the German-Polish dispute over Danzig.

WINDSOR IS FOR PEACE

British and Canadian Broadcasting Corporations Fail to Carry Speech Of Former King

VERDUN, May 8: (CP)—The Duke of Windsor addressed from Verdun today an appeal to "all political leaders" to avoid a new world war. He said that he spoke "simply as a soldier of the last war whose most earnest prayer is that such cruel and destructive madness shall never again overtake mankind."

The British Broadcasting Corporation announced that it would not relay the broadcast in the British Isles. It gave no reason for the decision. The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation followed the British Broadcasting Corporation's lead. The National Broadcasting Co. carried the broadcast in the United States.

ZONING IS DISCUSSED

George Casey Speaker At Meeting In C. L. D. L. Hall

The zoning bylaw, recently put through by the city council, was the subject for discussion Sunday night at the Canadian Labor Defence League Hall at a meeting at which George Casey was the speaker.

Mr. Casey stated that, in the growth of Prince Rupert, such moves as this one had always had some deeper interests. The present zoning would make it very difficult for lot owners, especially those with 25 foot lots, to build fair houses. Confining zones for business enterprises, the speaker considered, was detrimental to private initiative.

At the discussion which took place after the speech, a committee of three was elected to visit the city council and obtain further particulars to be reported next Sunday.

BANDIT IS FOLLOWED

Trail of Anyox Hold-Up Man Leads to Snowline on Trail to Maple Bay

Provincial police under Staff Sergeant Ernest Gammon, with the assistance of 25 employees of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. in a posse, have tracked to snowline on the Anyox-Maple Bay trail the bandit who is believed to have held up the general store at Anyox last week, getting away with $800.

The tracking has been going on for two and a half days and the trail was followed as far as snowline, being resumed today.

Snow and heavy rain have been making it difficult for the trackers as well as for the man whom they seek. It is thought he may have found refuge in one of the company's cabins along the trail.

THE FLY IN THE OINTMENT

We are hearing every day what a wonderful thing is this air line service but it is not all lovely. A local business man says that formerly when he sent a check to Montreal he could count on it being away a couple of weeks at least. Now it may get back in about a week causing much worry to the bank manager.

A FRENCH-CANADIAN'S VIEWS

A French language weekly "Le Jour," published in Montreal and circulating among French speaking people mostly of the province of Quebec, has the following by the editor in a recent number:

"I have already said and demonstrated that Canada could not be neutral in a war in which Britain was engaged. This is a fact we are powerless to change. The question, then, is not to find out whether, in the circumstances, we have any choice between peace and war but rather what should be the extent of our participation. Useless digressions and hysterical outbursts on the part of a few thousand super-patriots and a number of isolationist dreamers will not serve to turn us aside from the one merciless reality: it is impossible for us to be neutral. . . . I find neutrality not only impossible but unimaginable. We must remember the words of scripture: 'Who is not for me is against me.' If we remained passive in the face of war, it would be an act of hostility not only toward England, toward France and toward United States, upon whom we are dependent in a hundred different ways, but also toward the majority of Canadians, who can scarcely be expected to allow us to withdraw into our ivory tower and look on with our arms crossed during the massacre of the only nations to which we are really attached, the only ones we can trust, the only ones with which we have any true relationship from the points of view of language, belief, tradition, way of life and political aspiration—not to mention powerful economic links which it would be foolish to try to break . . . ."

"Those ridiculous dwarfs who belong to our 'independent guards', with their red braid and tin swords, forget that there are nine provinces in Canada in which the great majority will never consent to remain neutral in the event of war," continues the writer. "The day any government is weak enough to yield to this sort of blackmail, there will be revolt in more than one part of the country. Demagogues will climb aboard the bandwagon and Quebec as a whole will be held responsible for the attitude of an extremist few. Unheard of violence will ensue, and Canadian unity will be as seriously compromised by nonparticipation as it could be even by conscription. Scatterbrained extremists, who exist in the other provinces as well as in ours, will complete the destruction of confederation. Both French-speaking and English-speaking Canadians will come out more disunited than they went in: the fruit of that sort of neutrality will be war, the worst kind of war, war between 'Races' in the same country."

Smithers Beats Prince George In Basketball

SMITHERS, May 8.—The boys' and girls' basketball teams of the Prince George High School arrived in Smithers Friday to try their luck against the local teams. The first games were played in the Smithers hall and the local teams had no difficulty in defeating the visitors in both events, the scores showing two goals to Smithers for every one goal scored by their opponents.

As the visitors had been riding all day Friday to get to Smithers they were no doubt in poor shape to take the floor Friday night and it was expected that the second series of games would show much closer competition.

Then the Seal Cove boys put on an Indian pow-wow in which all joined. Mr. Fiddes spoke briefly and there were remarks of thanks and farewell by Rev. Roy Durnford and Ken Harding.

Hot dogs and doughnuts were served and the gathering concluded with "Taps" and cheers for Mr. Fiddes.

Many of those present proceeded to the steamer Princess Adelaide aboard which Mr. Fiddes sailed on his return to Vancouver, being given an enthusiastic send-off.

Know your British Columbia

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

The Parliament Buildings at Victoria, much publicized for their unique Renaissance architecture, have another though not generally recognized distinction? The buildings, completed in 1898, employ probably more British Columbia materials than any other structure in the Province. The sandstone came from Haddington Island, slate for the roof from Jervis Inlet, the granite steps from Burrard Inlet and Nelson Island quarries. Practically all materials, including a great variety of woods, were obtained within the Province of British Columbia.

Irish Girls Balk At Tent Lovenest

Brides Return Rings, Cancel Weddings Because of Non-Housing

LETTERKENNY, Eire, May 8: (CP)—If the Eire government does not do something about Letterkenny's rehousing plan there will be a lot of celibacy in this district.

Five years ago the Letterkenny council drafted a rehousing plan and sent it to Dublin for approval. The council still awaits the government's permission to proceed. It threatens to resign if approval is withheld longer.

Meanwhile newly-married couples have been provided with bell tents or wooden huts for their first homes. The council claims its housing situation is the worst in all Eire.

Young women have been returning engagement rings cancelling trousseau orders, refusing to marry. Said one:

"One of the joys of marriage is to possess a home of one's own. For the council to pawn off bell tents on us is not going to be considered for an instant. If the housing scheme does not go on neither will marriages. Love in a cottage is all very well but we draw the line at love in a bell tent."

NEW FRUIT ON MARKET

Strawberries, Pineapples and Australian Grapes and Pears Are In

New fruits on the local retail market this week will include Australian grapes and pears as well as strawberries and pineapples. The first strawberries arrived at the end of last week. This week the price will be considerably lower. The price of oranges continues reasonable for the time being in spite of a new 70c duty as there are plenty of supplies on hand to take care of the demand. Grapefruit is also reasonable and of good quality. A 50c per bunch duty has been placed on bananas but the retail price in the meantime continues unchanged.

Beef prices are still very high and advancing. Not since the war have prices for beef been so high. The United States demand for Canadian beef, four times greater this year than last, is among the causes of the high price.

DRAMA OF OLD INDIA

"Gunga Din," Picturization of Famous Kipling Ballad, Showing at Capitol Theatre

Colorful, mysterious and unfathomable India is the setting for the dramatic "Gunga Din," spectacular film based on Rudyard Kipling's famous ballad, which will be the feature picture for the first half of this week at the Capitol Theatre. Barren mountain ranges of India's northwest frontier are the locale.

Period of the picture is some fifty years ago when Britain was engaged in bringing law and order to the wild tribesmen of the border country. Natives revive an old strangling religion in their campaign to drive the hated white men out of the land. The campaign involves British troops in the region and leads to the stirring adventures of three sergeants and a loyal native water carrier in their struggle against the frenzied, bloodthirsty natives. Two thrilling battle sequences mark the progress of the film and lend spectacular emphasis to the story.

Cary Grant, Victor McLaglen and Douglas Fairbanks Jr. have the stellar roles. Joan Fontaine, in the only feminine role, is the fiancée of one of them. Sam Jaffe is cast in the title role as the water carrier.

This Spring Is Unusually Late

Even Old Timers Cannot Recall Such a Backward Season as This Is Turning Out To Be

Even the oldest timers in Prince Rupert do not recall a more backward spring than this year's. Fresh snow on May 8, such as there was this morning, is quite unusual. Normally, snow is rapidly disappearing from the mountains hereabouts at this time of year rather than making its appearance each day as has been the case recently.
