PROVINCIAL ELECTION IS PREDICTED FOR MARCH

ANOTHER MAIL STEAMER TO BE ADDED TO OUR FLEET

THE UNION STEAMSHIP COMPANY TO RUN TWO BOATS, GIVING MAIL SERVICE SOUTH EARLY PART OF THE WEEK WHEN BADLY NEEDED.

HUNDRED LOTS AT AUCTION

By Be Some Scenes Worth Seeing at the Empress Theatre Tonight When City Lots Come Under the Hammer.

Agent Rogers has been advised by the Union Steamship Company of a proposed new bi-weekly schedule to be adopted soon by that company. It is expected that the Camosun will leave Vancouver at 9 p. m. every Tuesday instead of Wednesday, to arrive here Thursday night, make the Stewart trip and sail for Vancouver at 9 o'clock every Saturday morning. The new steamer Chelohsin will leave Vancouver every Saturday night and arrive here Tuesday mornings. She will make the Port Simpson and Naas-Goose Bay trip and sail for Vancouver at noon Wednesdays. This double weekly service will be put into effect shortly and will be greatly appreciated by business men on account of giving another mail south during the middle of the week, as at present the mail days are Friday, Saturday and Sunday only. The new steamer Chelohsin is said to resemble the old reliable Camosun as to outward appearance, being a steel steamer built by the Dublin Dockyard Co., and her interior furnishings and cabins are fitted up much more modern and up to date, and she will no doubt be as popular on the Vancouver-Prince Rupert run as the Camosun has been. Full particulars as to the new schedule and date effective will be published shortly.

STARTING TROUBLE ABOUT BRITISH COLUMBIA BOUNDARY

ATTEMPT TO ANNEX BLAINE TO THIS PROVINCE LEADS EX-GOVERNOR OF WASHINGTON TO SUGGEST SLOGAN "FIFTY-FOUR FORTY OR FIGHT."

Bellingham, Feb. 12.—Ex-Governor Albert E. Mead, whose chief executive have been called into question by a resurvey of the international boundary which is declared will show his home city of Blaine was part of British Columbia and he was not, therefore, a resident of the state of Washington occupying the governor's office, does "not view with alarm" the proposition that dire consequences might follow the placement of Blaine and Sumas within the Dominion of Canada. But rather than that anything like should occur Whatcom county should lose its only "wet" (Sumas) and its other very prosperous city (Blaine), he thinks it would be much better to revive the old slogan of "54-40 or fight."

Discussing the matter, Governor Mead appeared in a very happy frame of mind. He said: "I have read with a good deal of interest the controversy as to the boundary line of the United States, and after some consideration feel that the results will not be prejudicial. In the first place, so far as the validity of all laws enacted during my administration, the present executive can call a special session of Legislature and proceed to ratify them, and at the same time a presidential preferential primary law, which will produce a merry scrap among the Democratic politicians concerning their choice for President. "I have been in contact to some extent with the boundary question in my experience in politics before. At one time I was

BRITISH PREMIER ALLAYS FEAR OF WAR WITH GERMANY

Viscount Haldane's Visit to Berlin Overshadows Interest in Contemplated Legislation—Premier Declares War Minister Went Upon Invitation of German Govt. to Discuss Basis for Ending Strained Relations Between Two Countries

(Special to Daily News.) London, Feb. 15.—There were no particular features in the ceremonies attending the opening of Parliament yesterday, and nothing of a startling character in the speech from the throne. The debate on the latter was begun in the House of Commons at 4 in the afternoon, immediately following the expected statement from the Premier as to Viscount Haldane's visit to Germany. This visit and its purpose overshadowed in interest any of the subjects of contemplated legislation. Prime Minister Asquith made no reference whatever to the diplomatic subterfuge of the Foreign Office that the journey of the Minister of War to Berlin was for the purpose of looking into the university education of the German nation, but immediately stated the real facts. He said that Viscount Haldane had gone to Germany on the direct invitation of the German government. He went there clothed with powers to discuss with the government of Germany Anglo-German affairs generally, with the general hope of both countries that such discussion would relieve the existing high tension between the two great powers. The Premier was able to say that the interna-

COMMONS PAYS TEN MILLIONS DUE RAILWAY

Minister of Railways Gives Figures Showing Cost of Line Across Continent to Prince Rupert and Miles of Track Already Laid

Ottawa, Feb. 15.—After passing the bill authorizing the government to pay to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company the ten millions due as the result of the agreement made by the government in 1894, the House again went into committee on the bill to reduce the number of national transcontinental commissioners from four to one. Upon this subject Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways and canals, made a statement showing that the completed road is estimated to cost, exclusive of interest, $171,726,000, and interest would bring the capital cost on January 1st, 1914, up to $187,781,428.

Adding the interest and other charges it will cost by January 1st, 1924, $236,000,000. On January 1st, 1924, it will cost $258,000,000, or $143,000 a mile. The Minister reported that about 75 per cent. of the grading is completed and 1,378 miles of track laid.

HELD A MERRY MUSICAL SOCIAL

Presbyterian Club and Choir Entertained in the Hall Last Night—Successful Instrumental and Vocal Program.

In the Presbyterian Church Hall on Fourth avenue last night a pleasing musical evening was conducted under the auspices of the Presbyterian Club by the ladies and gentlemen of the choir. President F. E. Ellis of the club occupied the chair, and also contributed to the entertainment cleverly. There was a very large attendance, and a most enjoyable evening was spent, the entertainment ending with a service of refreshments and general conversation. To a delightful program of vocal and instrumental music the following ladies and gentlemen contributed: Miss Frowde, Miss Williams, Miss Stephen, and Mr. G. D. Robinson as pianists. Miss Bryant and Mr. Kearney in a violin and guitar duet; Mr. Bremner in violin selections; Mrs. Chisholm with songs; Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, who sang prettily several Scotch songs; Mr. Humphrey, French horn solos; Mr. Millar, cornet selections, and Mr. Frank Ellis, songs and monologue with piano accompaniment. Rev. F.

W. Kerr was present, looking to the comfort and enjoyment of all, and incidentally having a good time himself. The evening ranks with the best musical evenings ever arranged for in Prince Rupert.

SEND FOR THE SOURDOUGHS

New 24-Hour Messenger Service Established Efficiently.

In the new Twenty-Four Hour Messenger Service just re-established in Prince Rupert by Messrs. Harty and Stephens, well known old sourdoughs of the Yukon, citizens of Rupert have a real advantage. Good work is promised by the firm, prompt, reliable messengers and efficient attention to the novelty advertising, transfer, storage and coal departments of the business. Both members of the firm have been in business a long time and know the ropes. The new concern is affiliated with the Union Transfer Co.

LOCAL CHINESE WILL HAIL THE NEW REPUBLIC IN STYLE

APPLICATION MADE AND PERMISSION GRANTED FOR A FEW DAYS' CELEBRATION—HUNDRED AND FIFTY ODD CHINESE WILL PARTICIPATE.

For ten days the hundred and fifty Chinamen of Prince Rupert are going to celebrate the birth of the new Chinese republic by a series of festivities, feasting, fireworks, jangling of strangled instruments, burning of tinted papers and absorption of sam suee and convivial liquors. No sooner had the news of the establishment of the republic reached their headman here than they planned the celebration, and today they approached L. W. Patmore to see how they should conduct the affair to keep it within the bounds of local law. Mr. Patmore on behalf of the Orientals approached Acting Mayor Douglas, who referred the affair to the chief of police. After consideration, Chief Vickers decided to allow the celebration within certain definite limits. The Chinamen will be permitted to let off fire crackers and burn joss sticks, wave republican banners and sing their national anthems up to the hour of 11 each night. One cheap from a chink, or one feeble pop from a firecracker after that hour will bring down an avalanche of authority on the heads of the rejoicing republicans to end the whole affair. Stringent precautions will be taken during the celebration to maintain absolute order and safety.

Washington, Feb. 12.—After hurling a large piece of concrete through one of the front windows of the British embassy here today, a man giving his name as Frank Fitzpatrick and his home as New York calmly waited on a street corner opposite the embassy building for the arrival of two policemen who arrested him. His act created much excitement. The call for the police was sent in by an embassy attache.

PROVINCIAL ELECTION VERY SOON

That a Provincial election is imminent is the information contained in an authoritative communication received by a prominent citizen of Prince Rupert. The citizen referred to did not wish his name or that of his informant to be made public at this stage, but the letter he received by yesterday's mail is undoubtedly authentic, and comes from one in very close touch with the Government at Victoria. The letter says briefly and definitely that it is now certain that a Provincial election will take place either early in March or in April at latest. The information is couched in terms admitting of the very minimum doubt, and is obtained it is claimed direct from McBride himself.

BEAUTIFUL HOME FOR SUFFRAGE WORKERS

BULLETIN BOARD OUTSIDE THE NEW SUFFRAGE HEAD-QUARTERS.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's recent purchase of two houses on Forty-first street, New York, gives the suffragists of the United States their only permanent headquarters.

The property purchased and remodeled at a total cost of $400,000 in the name of the Political Equality League, of which Mrs. Belmont is president, will fulfill the demands of both home and club.

One of the houses has been converted into a lodging where on the average modern income a woman can live comfortably, while the other is equipped as an up-to-date club, the scene of all the association's activities.

Here are the official headquarters, where the officers of the league will meet with their followers, a vast lecture hall, used not only for meetings of the various clubs composing the league, and lectures on suffrage, political economy and other subjects, but for entertainments. Here, too, on Wednesday evenings of each week Mme. Nordica will give vocal instructions.

The club will be equipped with all of the facilities of the modern club, dining and tea rooms, libraries, an up-to-date kitchen, and a "beauty parlor" where all sorts of toilet articles may be purchased.

An artistic bill board characteristic of the purpose of the organization, inviting attention at the entrance of the club, records the aim and purpose of the league and its various activities.

When the buildings are completed they will be crowned by a life sized figure of a woman in bronze, holding in her uplifted hand the American flag and the Belmont suffrage flag.

When a man becomes very indignant, and reads the riot act in a loud voice, if people don't behave better afterward he is very much disappointed.
